Of these are Prolapsus Uteri, or Falling of the Womb; Fluxus Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrhage of the Uterus; Painful, Suppressed, and Irregular Menstruation, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing simple proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the Uterine Catholicon, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

New Light and more Light.

PATENT SMOKE-BURNING

OIL LAMP!

THIS newly invented Lamp, so differently constructed from any other, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons:—

It requires only half the Poorest Oil, Lard, Tallow or Grease; and with the same material, produces FOUR OR FIVE TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT As ANY other Burning Lamp. It is simple in its construction (consequently not liable to get out of order) by its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of Light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.

Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the Extension Dining Tables of different sizes; Marble Top Centre Tables; and a large assortment of French Sofas and Chairs, covered with plush or silk damask—or the Rosewood Walnut and Mahogany Sofas, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the Cane Seated Chairs, with or without rockers.

These Fancies, as the French call them, or What Nots as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those Umbrella Stands, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of Rosewood Chamber Sets, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the Looking Glass, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

TRUE TASTE.

Not many days ago, Mr. Cannon, a Representative in the Massachusetts Legislature, died, and his death was noticed in the usual manner; with the addition of one unusual feature, which was thus described in the Transcript:

The members of the House of Representatives, after hearing a very feeling eulogium on the character of Capt. Cannon of East Boston, a member of that body, by Mr. Lovell of Boston, were about to adjourn in token of respect for the memory of the deceased, when Mr. Jenkins of Andover, proposed that the Hutchinson family should mount the Speaker's desk, and "sing a song appropriate to the occasion." The proposal was rebuked in a rather decided manner, and the Speaker hurried up the question of adjournment, which was carried. Afterwards Mr. Jenkins called the members to order, and requested the vocalists to take the Speaker's platform and sing, which they did.

The Daily Advertiser calls it "a singular proceeding—indicating a want of taste, if not of sense, which we regret to see exhibited by members of the Massachusetts Legislature, and of which we hope there may be but few more manifestations."

The Courier says—

The Speaker adroitly warded off the ridiculous motion by saying that the House was adjourned; but Mr. Jenkins of Andover, was determined to have the song—so he cried out from his seat in the back part of the chamber, "Shall the singers go the Speaker's desk?"—and thus saying, amid cries of 'yes,' and 'no,' he conducted the Hutchinson Family to the elevated desk, and they there sung, in very good style, 'Where shall the weary soul find rest?' The scene was 'magnificently' ridiculous; but Mr. Jenkins, no doubt, thought that it was sublime. Somebody may submit an order like this to day:

Ordered, That the Sergeant-at-Arms be directed to so arrange the seats in the Representatives' Chamber as to allow a circular space in the centre, that the austerities of legislation may be relieved on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons by a series of equestrian and other performances by Joe Pentland's American Circus Company, now in town.

It is said there is no disputing about taste; and certainly we shall not dispute the matter with such judges and men of taste as conduct the papers named; but we do ask the question in all soberness, Is good taste really offended in the proceeding? or is it only a mere offence against a fashion, having no claim whatever to true taste?

No one would have thought it out of taste, had it been proposed to invite the Chaplain of the House, or any venerable clergyman present, to close the session with a prayer, appropriate to the death on account of which the House adjourned. Now the piece, Where shall the weary soul find rest, was surely appropriate; and the Courier says it was "sung in very good style."

Wherein, then, consists the offence against propriety? What is the violation of taste?

The monster grizzly bear from California, which has been exhibited in various parts of the country, broke loose in Philadelphia on Thursday, and was secured with much trouble and labor. During his brief freedom, Bruin gave an omnibus horse an affectionate hug, paid his respects to a mule, stole a joint of beef from a butcher, and terrified everybody in the vicinity. He allowed himself to be secured however with a rope, which was thrown over his head and paws.

USE OF THE CHECK REIN.—A correspondent of the Boston Transcript thinks many persons who drive horses are not aware how very uncomfortable as well as unnatural it is to use the check-rein as we see it applied in our streets. The heads of the draft horses in the teams in our streets are tied down, while the animals in light pleasure vehicles have their heads tied up. The use of the check-rein should be abandoned by all who consider to what excess it is carried, and how useless it is for any good purpose.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 23, 1855.

For the Chronicle.

THE RIGHTS OF WOMEN.

One of the most popular topics of the day, and one which we consider of great importance, is Women's Rights. A number of communications on this subject have already appeared in the Chronicle; and we propose to review the arguments and suggestions contained therein, and add a few of our own.

One writer, signing himself "G. P.," gives an abstract of a lecture delivered in Exeter, by Lucy Stone, who thinks that because drunkards, foreigners and negroes vote, women should have the same privilege. This is rather poor reasoning; and is equivalent to saying, that because we already have many unfit voters, we might as well have still more by letting women vote. There would be some force in the argument, if it were proper for any of the class she names to exercise the privilege they now do; but we hope to see the time when no foreigner, drunkard, or person who cannot read and write, will be allowed to vote. The greater portion of womankind do not wish to vote; and it will be time enough to talk about the matter when they manifest a general desire to do so.

Feathers, bracelets, satins, beads, and other gewgaws, are all that the majority of women care about; and even the most ambitious are satisfied with a carriage to ride about in, the last new novel, and a liberal sprinkling of balls, parties, &c. Of course, besides what we have named, each wants a good smart man. If there are any so unreasonable as not to be satisfied with all these desirable things, we hope it will never be our bad luck to have any dealings with them.

A few freaks of nature, in the shape of women, would like to dabble in the dirty waters of politics; but such characters are usually more fit subjects for an insane asylum than for leaders in public affairs.

Again, Lucy says if politics would have a tendency to make women corrupt, as some contend, men should never meddle with them. This does not follow. Men can and do engage in many undertakings without detriment to their characters, which would entirely ruin a woman. Think of a female constable, sent out to catch thieves, robbers, murderers, &c., and of what sort of company she would be likely to meet with in her search. Most men visit places where they would not like to see their wives or daughters, and yet where it is necessary that somebody should go. Men also do many things that are useful and respectable, which at the same time are dirty;—for instance—butchering. There is not a civilized butcher in christendom so brutal as to want his wife or daughter to aid him in his slaughtering. Imagine a lady who had been engaged all day in killing oxen, sheep, calves, and pigs!—what a lovely creature she would be. And yet nobody will deny that this dirty work must be done. Butchering is far more honorable and cleanly business than the wire pulling and log rolling, done by most politicians.

That the laws in regard to the property of females, need amending, in every State in the Union, we presume no one will deny; and the sooner it is done, the better. But the property laws, after all, would not benefit the poor sewing woman, for she has no property to lose. Very few women ever get rich by their own exertions; and as long as they are so poorly remunerated for the labor they perform as at present, we don't see how they can. The greatest wonder is, how some of them stay at all, (we cannot think they live) on the miserable pittance they receive. This matter of wages, however, is in their own hands; and they can regulate it as well as the men do theirs. It is a notorious fact, that when one woman has occasion to hire a number of others,—as is the case with milliners and dressmakers—she beats them down to the last copper on their wages, and then grumbles when called on to pay at all. This is especially the case in large cities; but we have never yet heard of an instance, even in small towns, where one woman was very liberal towards another in her employ; when we do, we'll make a note of it. Wealthy ladies, too, when they hire girls to work in their kitchens, think one dollar per week good wages, and if two dollars are paid, it is thought enormous. We think if women were paid double what they now are, they would not be overpaid.

Lucy, like all her tribe, advises the girls not to get married. Perhaps they will heed her teachings in this respect, if nobody asks them; but let a young spark come along that one of them is pleased with, and offer himself to her, and the chances are she will snap him up as quick as powder burns when a coal of fire is touched to it.

But even allowing all the principles and arguments laid down in Lucy's lecture to be correct and sound—then we should be opposed to women's voting, and for this reason. Everybody knows that the women far outnumber the men: let them vote and they can choose officers of their own sex, in spite of all the lords of creation. Now as we detest petticoat government, we decidedly object to letting women have any thing to do with politics. In our school boy days we were under the charge of seven or eight female teachers, at various times, the last of whom—a peppery old maid—seemed determined we should spoil on account of her sparing the rod. Having got out of her power, we are not anxious or willing to be under the rule of another like her.

Another correspondent, "A.," ridicules the idea of women's voting, but does not give any good reason why they should not. He says the women took part in politics in Harrison's time, when everybody almost drank hard cider, The hard cider made many of the men drunk; and "A." insinuates, many of the women, too. What if it did? Women have as much right to drink as men. He thinks the women on election days will wade through the mire, with garments drabbled and muddy for a foot or two. He is much mistaken. When the women acquire brass enough to want to vote, they will wear boots and breeches. The former, it would be wise for them to wear in moist weather, like the present: when they attempt to wear the latter, family jars are apt to occur.

WOODLAND.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Concord Patriot publishes a list, of the Know Nothing nominations for Councillors and Senators, made by their State Convention at Manchester. Their names and former politics are—

Councillors.—District No. 1, John Dame of Portsmouth, the Chief Sachem of the order, Abolitionist. No. 2, Nicholas V. Whitehouse of Rochester, Free Soiler. No. 3, Stephen Smith of Mason, Whig. No. 4, M. C. McClure of Claremont, Whig. No. 5, William Tenney of Hanover, "Old Guard" Democrat.

Senators.—District No. 1, Marcellus Bufford of Portsmouth, Whig. No. 2, Thomas J. Melvin of Chester, Whig. No. 3, Nathan Parker of Manchester, present Whig Senator. No. 4, H. H. Green of Hopkinton, Democrat. No. 5, George M. Herring of Farmington, Whig. No. 6, Larkin A. Mason of Tamworth, Abolitionist. No. 7, J. A. Baldwin, Whig. No. 8, George W. Hammond of Gilsum, Fusion. No. 9, William Haile of Hinsdale, Whig. No. 10, Nathan Mudgett of Newport, Burke Democrat. No. 11, John Clough of Enfield, Whig. No. 12, Aurin M. Chase of Whitefield, Abolition.

If the Patriot's political definitions are correct, the dominant party in New Hampshire is out poorly represented among the Know Nothings. It is stated that Mr. Moore has withdrawn as a candidate for Governor.

CHICAGO.—The Maine Law Alliance of Chicago, appointed a committee not long since to ascertain the number of grogshops in that city. The examination was thorough—the committee visited every street, lane, and alley, in the city, and the result shows 700 places where liquors are sold. Less than fifty of these grogshops are kept by Americans.

It is said that about half the population of Chicago are foreign immigrants. But they have thirteen fourteenths of the liquor shops. If these are a privilege, they have too many for their share. If they are a burden, their part of it is too heavy. The Portland Journal says, "a very large number of these immigrants are beer drinking, whiskey drinking sots; and are therefore, but mere tools in the hands of demagogues. Are such men to be hurried to the ballot box as the mere tools of designing demagogues, and jesuitical priests, and thus govern America?"

OUTRAGE.—At a fire in Brooklyn a night or two since, among other buildings the store of a Mr. Cooper was burned. A very scandalous outrage took place at the fire, which is thus related:

A brother of Mr. Cooper, a mere youth, who had saved nothing but his shirt, was sitting on a chair with a large shawl wrapped round him, looking after the goods which were on the sidewalk, when two Irishmen, whom he had noticed waiting for a chance to steal, struck him a most violent blow on the head, cutting it open. The poor boy was rendered all but insensible, and then they tore the shawl from his naked person and ran off. This was done when there were plenty of the Brooklyn police near by.

PRINTERS' MONUMENTS.

At the late Franklin supper in Concord. At the suggestion of Gov. Baker, and after remarks by Mayor Low, Ald. Osgood, and others, in favor of the project—

On motion of Col. Barton, Voted, That the subject of erecting a suitable monument to the memory of William Hoit, the 'Veteran' Printer, be referred to the Committee of arrangements; and that they be authoized to receive subscriptions for the same.

A similar memorial over the grave of George Hough, the first Printer of Concord, was proposed by Mr. McFarland and advocated by Messrs. Osgood, Low and others and finally disposed of by the generous proposition of Gen. Low, which was that he would pledge himself to give as much as Mr. McFarland—(one of the Cemetery Committee)—should deem necessary for the repair of the grave of the lamented Hough.

FROM UTAH.—A late letter from Utah Territory contains the following:

"It may afford some excitement to the friends of the Missouri Compromise to learn that 'this people,' as they call themselves, is going, to a man, for admission into the Union as a slave State, and it must take a wiser head than mine to predict the consequences of receiving into the confederacy a community governed by an absolute despotism of church and state."

LOCAL.

☞ The funeral of Mr. Elbridge G. Leavitt (who was killed on Friday last on the Portsmouth, Saco and Portland Railroad) will take place this day at Scarborough.

Members of the Masonic Fraternity who can attend, are requested to meet at Masonic Hall this morning at 9 o'clock. The convenance to and from Scarborough will be gratuitous to members of the order.

☞ Dr. Solger, who is to lecture this evening, on the present Condition of Europe, is said to be well qualified for his task. Some published abstracts of his lectures are deeply interesting. Close attention will be necessary, however, as the Doctor has a foreign accent.

The Mechanic Lyceum has done well to secure his services. The Boston Courier says of him,—

"The Doctor is a Prussian, but he speaks English with great facility. He is a profound scholar and has contributed some educational works to the literature of his country. In his discourses on the transactions in the East, he displays a keen insight into the motives of the belligerents, and while he is desirous that Russia may be defeated, he confesses that he does not see a particle of morality in the cause which animates her allied opponents. The whole contest on the part of the Western Powers he holds to be a selfish scheme for the maintenance of the balance of power."

ROMANCE AND LAW.—A few weeks since, a miserly old woman named Jeanne Dulux, living in New York, was run over by an omnibus and so badly injured that she died. She left an estate worth not less than $100,000, which is claimed by one Ferril from Cincinnati, a hair dresser by trade, and not less than fifty years old. Ferril was brought up by Madame Dulux as her nephew, but now asserts that he was her son by an early marriage, which for some reason was concealed. This is contested by parties in France, who claim the property. The case is under investigation in New York. The evidence goes back to the Revolution, and involves some complicated and curious points of French law and social usage.

The wife of Wm. Thompson, (the man found dead in bed at Hanover Court, Boston yesterday morning,) was in such a state of beastly intoxication this morning, as to be unable to testify before the Coroner's jury, called to enquire into the circumstances attending the death of her husband. Both husband and wife were in the habit of getting drunk, and mutual fights followed, of the severity of which they bore ample evidence upon their persons, in the shape of wounds and bruises. The husband was a native of England, for forty years a resident of this country, and had a deposit of $128 in the Savings Bank. Traveller.

MISS COUTTS.—The Philadelphia City Item says:—"We were at first inclined to regard the proceedings of this lady as part of a system of advertising to attract public attention, like the suit against the fat woman, and some of Barnum's tricks and dodges; but we are convinced from what we have since learned that the case is one of monomania, and that the conduct of the unfortunate woman is prompted by a diseased vanity or love of notoriety which amounts to insanity.

WISCONSIN.—HON. Charles Durkee, late member of Congress from Wisconsin, is the "Republican" candidate for United States Senator, to succeed Hon. Isaac P. Walker, whose term expires with the third day of March next. Mr. Durkee belongs to the Free Soil party, and before that party appeared, he was a leading member of the "liberty party." He is a veteran abolitionist.

JUDAH TOURO.—The City Council of New Orleans last year adopted a resolution to provide for the erection of a monument to the great benefactor of that city, Judah Touro.—Mr. Greenough has furnished a plan for this monument. It consists of a group of figures, eight feet in height, representing Charity—placed on a pedestal ten feet high—to be wrought in bronze, at a cost of $10,000. Mr. G. requires two years to execute it.

The New York Journal of Commerce notices the stopping of work in the extensive workshops of the 11th ward. This ward has a population of 54,000 of whom 3000 are now receiving charitable relief. About one half who receive relief are Irish and German, the residue principally Americans. The small number of Germans receiving aid, considering the large German population in the Ward, is proof of the industry, economy, and prudence of that class of residents.

LOCUSTS.—Mr. Gideon B. Smith, of Maryland, says the seventeen year locusts will make their appearance this year along the eastern coast of Maryland and to Carlisle, Pa., and also in Kanawha, Va., and Lexington, Ky. They can be found in all the above places, wherever trees, shrubbery or forests grew in 1838, by digging down one or two feet.—N. Y. Jour. Com.

SEAMEN.—For the first time in five years, there is a surplus of seamen, although it is not a large one. It is only sufficient to enable the ship to select a better crew than formerly. The only change in the rates of wages that has taken place, is, that a portion of the "advance" is now withheld.—N. Y. Jour. Com.

THE CALICO PARTY.—The dresses worn at the calico party in New York, given by Mrs. L. D. Coman, and the next day sent to the House of Industry, are estimated by Mr. Pease to be worth $1500.

We saw not long since, in an obscure street in New York, a sign bearing the following inscription:—"J. McCormick, tailor—made and repaired." Poets, proverbially, are "born, not made;" but tailors, it would seem, are not only made, but are susceptible of being "repaired;" so that a decayed tailor is by no means a necessary animal.—Very likely Mr. McCormick has a wooden leg, or an artificial nose.—Boston Post.

Nathaniel Estland, an English leather dresser, in Danvers, walked into a vat of hot liquid one night last week, and was so badly scalded that he died of his injuries. He was about 40 years old, and leaves a wife in South Boston, to whom he was married last Christmas day.

Mass County Convention at Derry.

A MASS Convention for Rockingham County of the friends of the Prohibition of the Liquor Traffic, will be held at DERRY, January 23d, at 10 o'clock, and continue through the day and evening. Several good speakers will be present. We hope there will be a great gathering of the men and women of the county. By order of the State Committee.

E. W. JACKSON,
Cor. Sec. of State Committee.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS
PILLS THAT ARE PILLS!

PROF. HAYES, State Chemist of Massachusetts, says they are the best of all PILLS, and annexed are the men who certify that Doct. Hayes knows, viz:—
LEMUEL SHAW, Ch. Justice Supreme Court of Mass.
EMORY WASHBURN, Governor of Mass.
W. C. PLUNKETT, Lieut. Gov. of Mass.
EDWARD EVERETT, Ex-Sec. of State and US Senator.
ROBERT C. WINTHROP, Ex-Speaker House Rep. U.S.
ABBOT LAWRENCE, Minister Plenipo. to Gt. Britain;
JOHN B. FITZPATRICK, Catholic Bishop of Boston;

MEN WHO ARE MEN.

Among the diseases this Pill has cured with astonishing rapidity, we may mention
Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from sour Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the Blood and stimulating the System, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach: such as Deafness, partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstructions of its functions. They are the best Purgative Medicine ever discovered, and you will but need to use them once to know it.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his
PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,
would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf. Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHELPS,

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, Jan. 20.

The Senate was not in session to-day, having adjourned yesterday until Monday.

HOUSE.—Mr. Oliver of Missouri introduced a bill amendatory of the act of August last, reducing and graduating the price of public lands to actual settlers and cultivators. Referred to the committee on public lands.

Mr. Fuller from the committee on commerce, reported a bill amendatory of the act to carry into effect the late reciprocity treaty with Great Britain. Referred to committee of the whole.

Mr. Walker presented a memorial from the Governor, Lieut. Governor, State officers and chairman, and members of the Legislature of New York, in favor of an expedition to search for Dr. Kane.

The consideration of the Pacific Railroad bill was resumed.

Mr. Jones of Tenn., moved to lay it on the table. Negatived by a vote of 49 against 135.

The House rejected the proposition to refer the bill to a committee of thirteen, and adopted that of Mr. Davis, of Indiana, for a Grand Central Railroad and Telegraph line from some point on the Western boundary of Arkansas, Missouri, or Iowa, with two branches, the one running to Memphis, and the other to the most practicable point on the western shore of Lake Superior. The vote on this proposition was, yeas 104, nays 91. Pending the passage of the bill and amid much confusion the House adjourned.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The Grand Jury of the Court of Sessions made their presentment to day, in which they set forth the necessity for the immediate passage of the Maine law and the repeal of the usury laws, which they regard as wholly imperative. They conclude by calling attention to the unwholesome condition of the apartment in which they hold their deliberations, from the effects of which it is asserted one of their members, Mr. Gabriel A. Arnoux, died this morning.

THE AMERICAN COLONIZATION SOCIETY. This Society celebrated its thirty-eighth anniversary at Washington on Tuesday last.—From the annual report it appears that the receipts of the society for the year were $65,435.93, being $16,964.32 less than the previous year. During the year 1854 the society sent 550 emigrants to Liberia. From a report in the Globe we extract the following:—

"We regret to learn, that, while emancipated negroes are presented in large numbers to the attention of the society, and are soliciting its aid in the line of its operations, the means it possesses are inadequate to meet their requirements, and that while it is possible that many of these people may relapse into slavery, by a failure of the contingency upon which their manumission depends, the depressing influence of this fact will retard, and in some instances wholly prevent, future deeds of benevolence of this character."

COLONIZATION.—Of the $65,433 received by the American Colonization Society during the past year, $12,790.19 came from Massachusetts, chiefly in the form of legacies, $12,604.12 from Virginia, and about $10,000 from New York. The charter of vessels, outfit, &c., for the emigrants, amounted to $40,671. An Alabamian has proposed to be one of a thousand, or one of five hundred, to give $100 or $200 each, towards raising $100,000, for the purpose of purchasing a steamer or sailship for the regular Liberia trade, agreeably to the circular of the Rev. Mr. Gurley. Thirteen gentlemen have given in their names.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—The New Bedford Mercury informs us that the dead body of Mr. Joseph Haskell, of Lakeville was found in a mutilated condition on the track of the New Bedford & Taunton railroad, on Saturday evening. A coroner's jury decided that he came to his death while lying in a state of intoxication upon the track, by being run over by a train of cars.

SUICIDE.—On Tuesday last, two females, one named Rosetta B. Reed, 17 years of age, a native of Ashnelot, N H., the other named Sarah Livingston, 22 years of age, residing in a house near of 29 Gouch street, Boston, procurred half an ounce of arsenic for the purpose of self destruction, and they took a portion of the poison the same day, from the effects of which the former died yesterday after noon. The girl Livingston is still alive, but it is doubtful whether she will recover.—Adv.

RAILROAD OBSTRUCTION.—The train between Salem and Gloucester was obstructed Friday morning in consequence of a large rock becoming disengaged from an embankment by the heavy rains of the previous night and rolling upon the track. The stone weighed about 15 tons, and could not be removed until blasted to pieces.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The shipping merchants of this city refuse to compromise with the 'longshoremen by splitting the proposed reductson. The men will hold another meeting on the subject on Monday evening.

ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND

EXHIBITION AND DISTRIBUTION OF PICTURES,

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—varying in price

From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle;) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and

P. WENZEL, Congress St.

Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 19, '55.

P. S. — Persons out of the place, may secure Tickets by enclosing the money in a letter, prepaid. j19 1mtf

STREET DIALOGUE.—Flat meeting Sharp. Flat.—Can you tell me how it is that when people fail, now-a-days, "they will, undoubtedly, pay all their debts, and have a handsome suplus," and yet the creditors rarely get over fifty cents. What becomes of the money?

Sharp.—Dont know. (Aside,) I paid all my liabilities and had a handsome surplus, with twenty-five cents on a dollar.

Flat.—Well. How is it that when Gammon & Snap fail, Gammon, Snap & Co. continue business and are to be sustained?

Sharp.—Don't know. When friend Street burst up, he was asked a similar question. He answered that "it was his commission business that had stopped, but that the gin and watches went on."

Flat.—Psho!—Boston Post.

LIFE PRESERVERS.— Capt. Leach of ship Lagoda, writes to the Boston Advertiser that he lost a man over board during the passage, and one of Tewksbury's life preserving stools which was thrown to him failed to sustain him until the boat reached him, in consequence, Capt. Leach thinks, of a leakage. Capt. Leach says:

"This man I therefore believe was lost solely in consequence of the shameful negligence of the maker of the stool, and I would recommend the thorough examination and proving of all so-called 'Life Preservers,' before depending on them."

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, projects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "American governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
179 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on application, prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days of the application, or rejection, of patents. Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and scientific works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ———.

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully, Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK,

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT
—IN—
Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, crossgrained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without turning them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the re-ult of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and the entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, and is usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE OF THE WOMB; Flooding; PAINFUL SUPPRESSION, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any certain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely unfitted from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

New Light and more Light.
PATENT SMOKE-BURNING
OIL LAMP!

THIS newly invented Lamp, so differently constructed from any other, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons:—

It requires only the Poorest Oil, Lard, Tallow or Grease; and with the same material, produced FOUR OR FIVE TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT As ANY other known Lamp. It is simple in its construction; consequently not liable to get out of order.) By its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of Light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.

Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the EXTENSION DINING TABLES of different sizes; MARBLE TOP CENTRE TABLES; and a large assortment of FRENCH SOFAS AND CHAIRS, covered with plush or silk damask—or the BLACK WALNUT and MAHOGANY SOFAS, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the CANE SEATED CHAIRS, with or without rockers.

These FIXAGERAS, as the French call them, or WEAT NOTS as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those UMBRELLA STANDS, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of ELEGANT CHAMBER SETS, and also that necessary article and useful ornament—a CHAMBER LOOKING GLASS, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

MOUNT VERNON.

A Washington letter writer to the Boston Transcript, who has been with the old soldiers to Washington's House and Tomb, speaks thus of the premises and their condition:

The dilapidated condition of the estate of Washington made a most unfavora le impression upon all who visited it on this occasion. It seems to me that no American, possessing one spark of patriotism, can visit this spot without a feeling of shame and contempt for a government that suffers a place so sacred to every lover of his country to fall into decay. The house and out-buildings seem tottering and ready to fall by the first wintry blast that sweeps over them. The front of the house is dotted over with hornets' nests; the tiles on the piazza are broken and out of place; the walk from the house to the tomb is almost impassible from mud and filth; the negroes are disgusting caricatures of humanity; the lawn, in the rear of the house, which Washington took so much pride in adorning, is a barren waste,—in short, ruin and decay are written upon everything about the place, and this too while thousands of dollars have been expended upon a useless monument in this city, now half finished,—in which condition may it long remain, a monumen to the folly of those who projected it. Will not some millionaire of Boston, or of the free North, purchase Mount Vernon and present it to the Government?

If Virginia were but free from the sunny, south-side institution, Mount Vernon would not be neglected in this fashion.

STATISTICS OF LIQUOR MANUFACTURE IN THE UNITED STATES.—From the last census we glean the following important facts relative to the quantities of grain malted or distilled, per annum, in the United States:

Bushels of corn distilled,	11,067,661
Bushels of rye distilled,	3,143,927
Bushels of oats distilled,	56,717
Bushels of apples distilled,	526,840
Bushels of barley malted,	3,787,195
Tons of hops malted,	1,294
Hhds. of molasses distilled,	61,675

The aggregate value of these products at average prices, will not vary much from $14,643,727.

The capital employed in the entire country in liquor is $3,334,254

Number of workmen employed, 5,487

Ratio of Distilled Grains, Compared with the Quantity Grown.—Of corn, there is distilled 1 bushel in 54; of rye, 1 bushel in 5; of oats, 1 bushel in 2,618; of barley, there are malted 3 bushels in 5.

From these materials are made:

Gallons of whiskey,	42,183,955
Gallons of rum,	6,500,000
Barrels of ale,	1,777,924

The aggregate value of these liquors, at wholesale prices, will be about $16,946,897.

Besides the above, there are made 221,221 gallons of wine, and an inconceivable amount of "bad liquors," that draw heavily for their constituents upon domestic and foreign drugs in their manufacture, but which are not counted in their manufacture, though their effects are felt—sadly felt—in the use.—N. Y. Trib.

Gov. Conway of Arkansas, having failed to appoint a day of thanksgiving in season, Brother Quesenbury, of the Independent, issued his proclamation appointing four days for that festival, enjoining upon the good and bad people of the State to cook the best of dinners, and not to give a mouthful to the governor, "who deserves a good deal of punishing for not marrying and doing like other men. In the name of common sense, if a Gov. THEY can't support a wife, who can?"—Boston Post.

During the recents evere illness of Jonathan Yale Clarke, one of the oldest and most esteemed citizens of Pittsfield, a poor old man came all the way from the mountain, and thrust his head in at the door and inquired of the daughter in attendance, 'Is Yale Clark here?' He is. 'Is he sick?' He is. 'Is he very sick?' He is considered dangerous. 'Well, I don't know who you be, but I stopped to tell ye, that you ought to lay him on cushions of velvet, and take the best care of him the rest of his days for his kindness to the poor.'—Traveller.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, JANUARY 24, 1855.

POLITICAL PARSONS.—The Boston correspondent of the Salem Register says there are sixty clergymen among the members of the present legislature. He also says—

"When the speaker was about to appoint the committees, one member privately begged of him not to put any of the ministers on them, because, as he said, they knew so little. How the speaker, being himself one, with all his recent blunders, looked just then, may be guessed; but he compromised the matter by saying that he would put them on the parish and education committees!"

These clergymen are no doubt some of the famous "three thousand" who protested against the Nebraska bill "in the name of Almighty God!" The Register and its whig friends claimed all but infallibility for these clergymen a short time ago; but now, according to the Register's correspondent, they "know so little."—Boston Post.

A late number of the Boston Telegraph states the number of clerical Representatives to be only seventeen, and the whole number in the Legislature about twenty-four. This is quite a falling off in members,—from sixty, as reported. It is doubtless true that most of them know but "little" of parliamentary tactics, and that some rare sport is to be had in consequence. All this knowledge of forms, however, is soon acquired by intelligent men; and it does not require extraordinary talent, nor demand uncommon honesty, to condemn and denounce a flagrant breach of faith, and protest against one of the most transparent frauds which was ever put on paper.

Clerical politicians, whether in the legislature or out of it, are no novelty in New England. Reverend David L. Morrill, an Orthodox clergyman, was elected Governor of this State, and a member of Congress, a few years ago, by the Republican party; and the Reverend John Brodhead, a Methodist minister well known in all this region, was also sent to Congress by the same party. Rev. Jared Perkins, of the Methodist church, lately deceased, was sent to Congress from this State, by a coalition of whigs and freesoilers.

Rev. John Atwood, a Baptist minister, was made State Treasurer by the democratic party; and he came within one of being made Governor by the same party. And last but not least, the Rev. Walter Harriman, the present State Treasurer of New Hampshire, chosen by the regular, old line democrats, is an active politician, and has just been out on a stumping expedition. If any party in New Hampshire is afraid of clerical politicians, will it not please to wash its own hands? And if it is desirable for us to remove the mote from our brother's eye, may it not be worth while to pluck out the beam from our own?

WARNING TO DEMOCRATS.—The Daily Patriot for the Campaign has an article headed, "The Mask Falling. Fraud upon the Democratic Know Nothings." This head looks exactly as if some of the democratic party had been cozened into this new net. The same Patriot has also this item:

"I can carry considerable of a load, but my back would break under this," said a Know Nothing in our hearing yesterday, whose antecedents are democratic. He feels that the Manchester Convention imposed quite too heavy a batch of federal-abolitionism upon "the order," and that their hypocrisy and treachery are too plain to catch anybody.—Just so we think. All their putty and paint don't in the least hide the old wrinkles of the bluest quality of federalism; and if many Democrats swallow the Know Nothing nomination whole, we shall be mistaken.

We give this the benefit of our circulation. If there is any cheat herein, we would gladly help to expose it. Let us have Federalism and Abolitionism above-board, if we are to have them at all. But we should like to know what is meant at the present day by Federalism. Does it mean attachment to "our Glorious Union"? This is the meaning of the word; and if used in this sense, it would hardly be taken as a reproach. In this sense, a federal-abolitionist would be one who valued the Union for all the good it can do, but would wash out, if possible, the stain of slavery.

Such men as these need not work in the dark; and we presume there are hundreds, we hope thousands of such, among the democrats of New Hampshire. We trust they will be seen, in open daylight, on every proper occasion.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—The N. H. Patriot says:

"We invite the attention of our readers to the following article from the Nashua Gazette."

The article in the Nashua Gazette begins with the following sentence:

"In this vicinity, temperance, know nothingism, niggerism and whiggery are all united and acting cordially together for the overthrow of the democracy; and doubtless the same is true of other sections of the State."

☞ Mr. Thomas D'Arcy M'Gee, delivered a lecture in the Music Hall, Boston, on Monday evening. Some opposing spirits in the audience, hissed and disturbed. Mr. M'Gee's friends tried to eject them; a battle ensued; and the police quelled the riot.

BUFFALO, Jan. 22.—We have nothing further of importance in relation to the Brantford Railroad riot. The thirteen prisoners were placed under a guard of British soldiers during Saturday night and Sunday, and will have their examination to day. It is understood that trains are now running regularly.

Later accounts state that the rioters still retain possession of the track of the Buffalo and Brantford Railroad, at Cayuga, C. W., a few miles east of Brantford. Fifteen men employed by the company went down to open the track this morning, but nothing has been heard from them yet. The track is clear and unmolested at Ridgeway, where the riot took place on Saturday. The thirteen prisoners arrested on Saturday are still under guard at Fort Erie. A requisition for troops had been made at Fort Erie by the magistrate, and a train with soldiers will go through to Cayuga in the morning from Niagara.

The gale was very severe here, and continued through the night. A large quantity of snow fell, and it is almost impossible for pedestrians to move about.

LIQUOR CASES AND PERJURY.—In the Municipal Court, on Friday, William Hastings was convicted of being a common seller of liquor; Daniel D. Stevenson of East Boston and William McMahon were acquitted, the evidence being deficient. During the trial of McMahon, a man named Eugene Sullivan was put upon the stand as witness for government. He swore that he had no recollection of having purchased any liquor of the accused. As he positively testified before the grand jury that he had purchased six glasses of Mr. McMahon, the Court asked him to reflect; but he stubbornly persisted, whereupon the Court ordered him into custody on a charge of perjury. The Journal truly remarks:—"Many of the witnesses in liquor cases find it very convenient to reply 'don't know,' or 'have no recollection,' to questions asked by the prosecuting officer, and it is the candid belief of many jurymen, as well as others, hearing the testimony in these cases, that perjury is very frequently committed by the witnesses."—Boston Transcript.

SECRETS OF THE GRAND JURY.—In the examination of a case of alleged perjury in the Police Court Saturday forenoon, wherein the defendant was charged with swearing one way before the Grand Jury and directly the reverse before the Municipal Court, the question arose whether a member of the Grand Jury could be allowed to testify. The counsel for defence took the ground that the Grand Jury were by their oaths, and by the laws of their organization, precluded from divulging anything which comes before them—that the body was, in fact, a legal and constitutional "Know Nothing" association for the private advancement of public justice!

Justice Cushing ruled that the jurymen's oath did not restrain them in any case after such case had been passed upon by the Court, —and accordingly a member of the Grand Jury and also the clerk of that body were then examined as witnesses for the prosecution.—Boston Transcript.

DECLINE OF TRADE IN ENGLAND.—The London times of January 5th, says that according to the trade returns received, the decrease of exports from England during the month of November, 1854, was nearly two million pounds sterling, of which nearly half a million was of cotton manufactures; £152,842 in haberdashery and millinery, £148,364 in linen manufactures, £298,933 in metals, £55,324 in silk manufactures, and £377,844 in woollens. The Times adds, "The trade turned in August, and on the 5th of December the trade from the returns had decidedly retrograded. Out of thirty-six articles of British product or manufacture there are only six articles that do not partake of this decline.

They had quite a formidable "straw rebellion" within thirty miles of Paris, early in December. The prefects of two departments, in consequence of the numerous fires occurring, ordered thatched roofs to be removed and slates or tiles substituted. The peasantry considered this an invasion of their traditional rights, and turned out to the number of five or six thousand, armed with domestic implements, and marched upon Dreux, bearing bundles of straw on poles, and crying "Hurrah for straw!" They took the prefect prisoner, handling him roughly, and were only dispersed by the soldiery after a desperate resistance. Some hundreds are in prison for trial, including women, who were the most active and unmanageable of the crowd.

CASE OF SMALL POX.—The steamship Roanoke, Capt. Skinner, hence for Norfolk and Richmond, 13th inst., returned from the latter port, on account of one of her crew having been taken with the small pox, after having touched at Richmond. The Health officer at Norfolk would not allow the patient to be landed at that place, nor any communication with the shore, under a penalty of $5,000, this being the law. The steamer sailed immediately for this port. She now lies at anchor under Jersey City.—N. Y. Jour. Com., 20th.

SAILING OF THE STEAMSHIP GLASGOW.—The iron (screw) steamship Glasgow, Captain Craig, left her dock this morning for Glasgow, with a full cargo of flour, grain and provisions. She takes out one hundred and three passengers, among whom is the poor lunatic that has figured here as "the Angel Gabriel." When the ship cast off from the dock he blew a blast from the trumpet, and shouted three times to the spectators on the wharf. Wonder what influence he will have upon the superstitious sailors.—N. Y. Com. Adv., Jan. 20.

The Sandusky (Ohio) Mirror says:—"We are informed, upon reliable authority, that there is a large dog owned by a family up in Western Liberties, who keeps the house well supplied with wood! When fuel is wanted, a signal is given to the dog, and he immediately sets out, and very soon returns with a good sized stick. He is then rewarded with a piece of meat, and sent off again, and returns with another stick, and so on."

MASSACHUSETTS.—Henry Wilson, the Natic Cobler, was elected by the House, as Senator to Congress. He had 234 votes out of 364; that is, 130 votes more than all the rest. Mr. Bryant had 85; Rockwell 18.

LOCAL.

☞ Dr. Solger's Lecture before the Mechanic's Lyceum on Tuesday evening, was truly instructive and valuable, to all such hearers as take any interest in the Present Condition of Europe, which was the subject of his lecture.

He laid down clearer ideas of the balance of power in Europe, than our people generally entertain, or have commonly heard expressed, and he regarded the present war in Europe as springing, not from a love of strife and slaughter, but from the circumstance that such a balance had been lost by the dismemberment of the German and Italian nations; and his plan of restoring peace to Europe and the East, is the restoration and re-establishment of great central European Nations, as Poland, Hungary, Germany; when the present great armies, now indispensable, might be dispensed with, and the people of Europe be at peace.

Dr. Solger not only understands his subject, but he is full of it; and in spite of his foreign accent is both instructive and interesting as a lecturer.

THE CONCERT at the Temple this evening offers a rare opportunity for hearing some of the best of the old tunes, both lively fugue and solemn minors, rendered by a chorus spirited enough and sufficiently heavy to give the proper effect. The "Old Folks" Choir will be larger than at the first concert, and the entertainment cannot fail of equal success.

Respecting the pleasure and excitement of joining in such a performance, a writer, speaking of "the village choir," says,

"And oh! at the turning of a fugue, when the bass moved forward first, like the opening fire of artillery, and the tenor advanced next like a corps of grenadiers, and the treble followed on with the brilliant execution of infantry, and the trumpet counter shot by the whole, with the speed of darting cavalry; and then, when we all mingled in that battle of harmony and melody, and mysteriously fought our way through each verse with a well ordered perplexity, that made the audience wonder how we ever came out exactly together, the sensations that agitated me at those moments, have rarely been equalled during the monotonous pilgrimage of my life."

THE FAIR by the "Portsmouth Benevolent Society" closed on Tuesday evening—having been the means of pleasant Social Gatherings on three evenings, and on Tuesday afternoon. The completeness of the arrangements made reflected much credit upon Messrs. G. M. Goodrich and James H. Head, who had the matter in charge, as well as upon the able assistance rendered by ladies and gentlemen from every religious society in the city. The tableaux were uncommonly fine—the closing scene, each evening, being the Spectre Queen, which alone would repay for attendance. The capital explanation of each of these living pictures, as they were presented, by T. G. Senter, Esq. very much enhanced their interest.

Besides the tableaux, were refreshments and fancy articles in abundance and variety.

The pecuniary success of the Fair was somewhat lessened by the storm and consequent postponements; but we learn that a very neat sum remains to be devoted to the charitable purpose proposed.

THE OLD FOLKS' CONCERT, given in Exeter on Wednesday evening last, by some seventy singers, young and old, the News-Letter says, was everything good that was anticipated, and of course, perfectly satisfactory to all present. The inclemency of the weather prevented a general attendance, although about fifty dollars were taken for tickets. It is announced that the Concert will be repeated at some suitable time in the month of February. John T. Gordon, Esq., a brother of the late Stephen L. Gordon, formerly of this city, is musical director.

☞ The late storm was very extensive.—In Halifax it was "tremendous," and lasted three days, from the 19th to the 22d; it extended to Baltimore and south of that place; it was violent at Chicago. In this city we had some snow, but more rain; at the north of us, snow abounded, and still abounds, while we have only ice.

☞ In the severe gale on Monday last, schooner Samuel E. Sawyer, Sawyer, master, of Gloucester, Portland for Gloucester, being at anchor in the lower harbor of the Piscataqua, went ashore near Fort McClary, with loss of keel and much of her bottom. Vessel and cargo said to belong to the captain, and are probably not insured.

LONG BRANCH, N. J., Jan. 22.—During the gale last night the hull of ship Chauncey Jerome, Jr., long since stranded, was split in two, one of her sides coming up on the beach. Thirteen dead bodies have been picked up on the beach, which are supposed to have come from the wreck of ship New Era.

CRUELTY.—During one of the cold nights of last week, some wretches forced a young man named Edward Doran into an alley way in New York, and despoiled him of every article of clothing upon him, except his shirt and drawers.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 22.—The storm was terrific here. Ten schooners were sunk in front of the city. Several houses were unroofed, and a numberless minor disasters occurred.

CINCINNATI, Jan. 23.—The Supreme Court of Ohio on Saturday decided that the liquor law passed by the Legislature is constitutional. The law is of a stringent character, prohibiting the retail of liquor, with the exception of native wine, beer and cider, the penalty for violation being a fine and imprisonment.

Several hotel proprietors, who were convicted of violating the law some months ago, but on whom sentence was deferred by appeal, will now be imprisoned twenty days in the county jail. Public sentiment appears to favor the law.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his PATENT SELF ACTING TABLE LEAF SUPPORT, would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf. Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PIERCE, j19eod4w* Salem, Mass.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT —IN— Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

MONDAY, Jan. 22.

SENATE.—John S. Wells, Senator from New Hampshire, appeared, was qualified, and took his seat.

Mr. Sumner, of Masssachusetts, presented two memorials from the citizens of Delaware, in favor of cheap ocean postage, and two others for the mediation of the United States between the belligerent powers of Europe.

Mr. Seward, of New York, presented the concurrent resolutions of the New York Legislature against extending the patents for the reaping and threshing machines of McCormack, Hussey, Moore, and Hascal.

Mr. Stuart, of Michigan, protested against Messrs. Moore and Hascal being put in such company. He desired the Senate to know that such opposition primarily came from the manufacturers, who wanted to make money out of the genius of inventors.

Mr. Shields of Illinois, from the committee on Military Affairs, reported in favor of placing at the control of the Executive an adequate force for the suppression of Indian hostilities.

A communication was received from the Postmaster General, explaining why a recent law establishing a daily mail along the Mississippi river and its tributaries, had not been complied with.

Mr. Jones, of Tennessee, spoke upon the communication, and reviewed the course of the Postmaster General in a very severe manner.

HOUSE.— Mr. Pennington, of New Jersey, presented the resolution of the Governor and Legislature of New Jersey, praying that an expedition be fitted out to search for Dr. Kane. Referred to the committee on naval affairs.

Mr Chandler, of Pennsylvania, asked the unanimous consent of the House to take from the table theSenate reolutions for that purpose.

Mr. Smith, of Verginia, objected.

Mr. Peck. of New York, presented the resolution of the Legislature of NewYork,against the extension of the patents of McCormack's and other reaping machines. Laid on the table.

The Pacific Rail Road Bill came up on its passage, and after several votes had been taken and reconsidered, it was finally referred to a select committee. Pending a motion to reconsider the last vote, the House adjourned

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, 1855'— The Pacific Railroad men concede that their bill in its present shape is lost. Mr. Mc Dougal proposes to-morrow to over-rule the Speaker's decision that the bill cannot be amended, and amend it by adopting the three route proposition. The probability is that the whole thing will fail.

In the democratic Senatorial caucus to-day held to establish a platform of opposition to the "know nothings," there was great dissimilarity of the opinion, and nothing was agreed to. This is the third meeting of the caucus that has been held with the same result.—Corres. Boston Adv.

BUFFALO, Jan. 20.— A riot broke out on the Buffalo, Brantford and Goodrich Railroad today, at Bridgeway, about 10 miles from this city. It has been understood for several months past that the laborers on the road have not been paid regularly, and a few weeks since they gave notice that they would spike down the switches if they did not receive the wages due them. The track was accordinly spiked at Ridgeway today at noon and one or two bridges opened. When the chief officer of the road hearing of it, he hired about 25 men from this city armed them with revolvers, and went over to take possession of and protect the track. On arriving at the scene of disturbance, the party were fired upon by the laborers, who were armed with rifles, and a regular fight ensued, the party from the city faring the worst, one of their men named Simon Wemple being killed, and three or four others wounded, one of whom is considered dangerously so. Two or three of the laborers were also wounded. The officer's party succeeded however, in arresting about a dozen of the laborers, and among them, it is believed the man who shot Wemple. One of the men informs us that the whole party from this city, on arriving there, were deputised by the Canadian Sheriff, and acted under his orders; that the President of the road, several Catholic priests, and the sheriff made speeches to the laborers, and tried to persuade them to desist, but all to no purpose. The sheriff then ordered the track to be opened and cleared, and while the men were doing it according to his orders, they were attacked by the rioters, and a desperate melee took place, during which thirteen of the laborers were arrested, and are now in irons. The man who killed Wemple, after an examination has been fully committed.

PORTSMOUTH

ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND

EXHIBITION AND DISTRIBUTION OF PICTURES,

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture.—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—

varying in price

From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle;) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and

P. WENZEL, Congress St.

Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 15, '55.

P. S.—Persons out of the place, may secure Tickets by enclosing the money in a letter, prepaid. j19 1ostf

A Brutal Father.—On Thursday night, an Irishman named Patrick Gilhooly, living on Washington square, Fort Hill, Boston, was arrested for attempting to kill his daughter, a child four years old. He got offended with his wife, who had just undressed the child for bed, and seizing the child by the neck, ran some distance with her into the street, and threw her headlong down a trap door into a cellar nearly twelve feet deep, and jumped down after her. No bones were broken, but the child was severely bruised and was probably injured internally. The brutal man was arrested by two police officers. Dr. Stedman thinks the child may live, although the chances are against her. Gilhooly was brought before the Police Court, and held in $1,000 for examination.

It is not certain that the man was drunk; but there is no biped brute that would do such a thing without having drank a glass or two just to fire his blood and craze his brain. The defence will be, we suppose, that the man was insane; cause, bad rum.

A case came up for trial a few day since, in New York, wherein one party sued another for the value of 40 bags of peas. The plaintiff was a coffee roaster, and had contracted with the defendant for 250 bags of peas, which, it appeared, were to be ground up with the coffee. Some curious developments came out in the course of the trial, showing the extent to which peas, chicory and other substances are used for the article which is sold as pure ground coffee.

Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express our opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the views of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

AMUSING AND INSTRUCTIVE.
PRESIDENT HITCHCOCK'S
History of a Zoological Temperance Convention held in Central Africa, CONTAINING TWENTY ILLUSTRATIONS.
READ the following notice from a distinguished Presbyterian:
"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than while perusing this most ingenious satire; and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most solemn, important and instructive lessons are couched in every page.—Youth should read it—parents, teachers, preachers everybody."

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.
THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM FOR COUGHS, COLDS, CONSUMPTION.
Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. Extensively used, tested and approved in New England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr Lyman Beecher, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. Leonard Woods, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. Daniel P. Thompson, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. Williams, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. Josiah Litch, Philadelphia,—and many others.
How Esteemed by Physicians.—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam is best, and I hope will be better known and more generally used."
☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations!! Enquire for the article by its Whole Name, "VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM."
Prepared only by REED, CUTLER & CO., Druggists, 38 India street, Boston, Mass., and sold by Apothecaries and Country Merchants generally. Price. New Style, large bottles, containing nearly four times the quantity of the small, $1. Old Style, small bottles, 50 cents.

HERTS BROTHERS
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.
HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.
This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinnest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.
Caution.—The universal popularity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "Herts, Brothers' Patent, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.
It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called
FEMALE COMPLAINTS.
Of these are Prolapsus Uteri, or Falling of the Womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrage of Flooding; Painful, Suppressed, and Irregular Menstruation, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.
Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.
A WORD TO THE LADIES.
Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the Uterine Catholicon, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.
MRS. S. GAIT, 33 South street, Boston.
I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.
It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

New Light and more Light.
PATENT SMOKE-BURNING
OIL LAMP!
THIS newly invented Lamp, so differently constructed from anyother, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons:—
It requires only the poorest Oil, Lard, Tallow or Grease; and with the same material, produced FOUR OR FIVE TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT As ANY other known Lamp. It is simple in its construction (consequently not liable to get out of order.) By its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of Light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.
Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

Splendid Furniture.
THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the
Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,
Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.
Here may be found the Extension Dining Tables of different sizes; Marble Top Center Tables; and a large assortment of French Sofas and Chairs, covered with plush or silk damask—or the Black Walnut and Mahogany Sofas, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the Cane Seated Chairs, with or without rockers.
These Fragerias, as the French call them, or What Nots as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those Umbrella Stands, so useful for the entry.
If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of Elegant Chamber Sets, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the Looking Glass, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.
These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

A POLITICAL JOKE.—In a neighboring county one of the political parties had, for over twenty years, been in the habit of holding their county nominating conventions at the house of Mr. G——.

He happened on a recent occasion, for the first time, to be in when they had finished their business, and heard a little delegate from R. move that "this convention do now adjourn sine die."

"Sine die," said Mr. G——, to a person standing near, "where is that?"

"Why, that's way up in the northern part of the country," said his neighbor.

"Hold on, if you please, Mr. Chairman," said G——, with great earnestness and emphasis, "hold on sir. I'd like to be heard on that question. I have kept a public house now for more'n twenty years. I'm a poor man. I've always belonged to the party, and never split my ticket in my life. This is the most central location in the county, and it's where we've allers held our caucuses. I've never had, or asked an office, and have worked night and day for the party, and now I think, sir, it's contemptible to go to adjourning this convention way up to sine die!"

HARD TIMES AMONG THE RATS.—Yesterday, in consequence of the tide rising to more than the ordinary height, and the wharves being overflowed, a large number of rats were killed by unemployed laborers. The long tailed rogues were obliged to leave their holes, or remain and be drowned, and as they appeared they were slain with clubs and stones. In one instance the men had driven two large rats into an empty building on Commercial street, where there was no mode of egress except through the door. This the two men fastened, and drove the animals into a corner and prepared to dispatch them. The rats, rendered desperate, sprang at the throat of an Irishman, and one succeeded in fastening his long sharp teeth in the man's handkerchief which he wore around his neck, and held his jaws firmly clasped until killed. Luckily the handkerchief was thick, so that the animal's teeth did not touch the man's throat. The rat's companion sprang at his intended victim, missed him, and was knocked over by a club. They were enormous large fellows, and would have made a dinner for half a dozen Chinamen.—Boston Courier.

THEATRICAL WIT.—In "Black-Eyed Susan," Wood, of the Boston Theatre, gets off the following:—William is telling a sailor's yarn to the landsmen, and in the course of it, is describing the capture of a shark which has been hanging round the fleet for some time. What do you think we found in him? says William. "Barnum's Life," says Wood, as Gnathbrain. "Why so?" "Because the public swallowed it, and I thought a shark might." "Well," says William, "perhaps he might, but he did'nt. Guess again!" "Lots of ladies' bonnets." "And why?" "Because I have not seen a bonnet on a lady's head for six months." The audience roarded and the play went on.—Post.

The electioneering agent of the know-nothing whig abolition fraternity is still "enlightning" our people. We have heard of him from a multitude of places, in some of which he has proved himself to be incapable of reading a word, and in all to be a low, filthy, lying vagabond. He turned up at Sanbornton Bridge a few days since, where he closed his effort precisely in this wise:—"Ladies and gem'n, I'm a no-party man, but I sympathize with the Know Nothingers. God speed the Know Nothingers! Finally, ladies and gem'n, I goes with any party that goes agin the Democratic party, whoever is 'em!"—N. H. Patriot.

Justus Hurd, who has been sentenced for seven years to the penitentiary of Mississippi, for killing one of his slaves, is a wealthy citizen of Amite county, and an emigrant from New England.

AN AGED PASTOR.—A correspondent of the Christian Register, gives an account of a pleasant party which took place at Plymouth on the 1st inst., at the fifty-sixth anniversary of the settlement of the Rev. Dr. Kendall, the pastor of the Unitarian Church. This venerable man is now in his 85th year. On the 31st of December he preached a sermon written the previous week, with his own hand, and it was appropriate to the last day of the year. With a trustful, cheerful spirit he showed his people how God had crowned the year with goodness. For fifty-five years he had spoken to them. Now but one man was present that took part in the deliberations of the society at his settlement.

Morning Chronicle.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 25, 1855.

NOT ELIGIBLE.—It appears that the Rev. John Moore, K. N. candidate for Governor of New Hampshire, has formally declined the nomination, he not having resided within the State the constituted period. It is also pretty certain that the Rev. (Elder) Pike, K. N. candidate for Congress in the eastern or Kittredge district, is not eligible for the same reason. We believe the legal requirement is a five years' residence.—but Mr. Pike has not had a legal residence in New Hampshire for a year He is a native of the town of Salisbury, Mass., where he owns a residence, and, with his family, has made it his home, and taken part in town and school district affairs in that time.—Boston Times.

Well: we suppose there are a number of other citizens, no less worthy, who will be perfectly willing to assume the ardnous duties of Governor and Members of Congress, if the people see fit to lay on them so great a burden.

We never knew offices in New Hampshire to go a-begging; and we surely cannot have run out of stock for officers among men who have lived in the State for more than seven years.

It happens, however, that there is no such provision as a five years' residence, for a member of Congress. He must have been a citizen of the United States seven years, and be a resident of the State at the time when elected.

THE JAPANESE PRESENTS.—We understand that sundry packages of the presents sent to the President by the Emperor of Japan in return for those forwarded from hence by the hands of Commodore Perry, have reached Washington, with them being sundry packages of presents for officers of the expedition, which, under the law, must be deposited, at least temporarily, in the State Department. That is, until Congress may give them leave to accept them.

The contents of the packages are said to be silks, swords, writing tables, delicate and fragile ornaments, vases, bowls of glass and other materials, umbrellas, mats, bells, jars, cabinets, flower box, lances, Japan matting, stone from Japan, stone from Loo Choo, agricultural implements, Japan shine (marked from Sindda) hermetically sealed, samples of sugar cane, seven dogs, two birds, seed wheat from the Cape of Good Hope, &c.

We hear that the dogs are of a breed which none but the aristocracy of the Empire keep, as they are very costly. In the time of Charles II., a similar imperial present of dogs was sent to Rome by the Emperor of Japan, from which the celebrated European breed of King Charles spaniel sprang. Those sent to the President by Commodore Perry are much like the King Charles breed of the present day, though considerably larger.

Some people who are "posted up" on dogs, say that Uncle Toby's dog belongs to the King Charles family; but Uncle T., not being learned in Dogography, cannot say how it is; and the cur himself does not give any information of his pedigree: but keeps all such secrets as close as if he had joined the Know Nothings.

THE UNDERGROUND RAILROAD IN DANGER.—A bill was presented in the Illinois Legislature, on the 16th inst., to prevent the carrying of colored people on the railroads of that State, which was read twice and referred, and will probably pass the House of Representatives. This bill provides that no "black or colored person, denominated a negro, shall be carried on or along any railroad in that State, by any railroad in the State, without a duly certified certificate of freedom of such negro or mulatto person being first presented to the conductor of the train, and a copy of such certificate left with the conductor or agent." Section 2 provides "that any railroad company, or its conductor or agent, which carries a slave without any such certificate, shall be liable to the owner of such slave, or mulatto, in twice the value of such slave, to be recovered in the usual way."

"A duly certified certificate," we should think, might easily be counterfeited by some clerk of the underground line. Nothing meaner than this bill was ever conceived in a free state; and no statute could be more easily evaded.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, for Feb., 1855, is embellished with a plate, engraved in Gemograph, "The Little Image Merchant." Also, front embellishment of Travelling Bag and Sofa Cushion, in tints, which every printer knows costs just twice as much as ordinary printing, as it goes twice through the press. Also, a Valentine Plate, "Cupid in a Quandary," &c.

The Sympathy Meeting, is an excellent tale, with a moral easily seen, and valuable if well applied.

Louis A. Godey, Philadelphia, Publisher.

THE FUGITIVE.—The Worcester Spy states that Jackson, the fugitive slave, whose arrest is said to have been attempted in Boston, is not now in Worcester. He went to Worcester after leaving Boston, but was advised by gentlemen there to leave the city, and accordingly left by the first train in the afternoon of the day on which he arrived. The "poor fugitive" is "hunted" by pretended friends.—Boston Journal.

The latter statement is to us incredible. The conductors on the underground line are not such a set of ninnies.

SUPREME COURT ABOLISHED.—The Legislature of Florida has passed a bill abolishing the Supreme Court of the State.

SONG OF THE "OLD FOLKS."

TUNE—Auld Lang Syne.

Written by request, for the second "Old Folks Concert" at Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 24, 1855,

BY ALBERT LAIGHTON.

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind;
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,"
And songs of auld lang syne.

For auld lang syne we meet to-night,
For auld lang syne;
To sing the songs our fathers sang
In days of auld lang syne.

We've passed thro' many varied scenes,
Since youth's unclouded day;
And friends, and hopes, and happy dreams,
Time's hand hath swept away.

And voices that once joined with ours,
In days of auld lang syne,
Are silent now, and blend no more
In songs of auld lang syne.

Yet ever has the light of song
Illumed our darkest hours;
And cheered us on life's toilsome way,
And gemmed our path with flowers:

The sacred songs our fathers sang,
Dear songs of auld lang syne;
The hallowed songs our fathers sang
In days of auld lang syne.

Here we have met—here we may part
To meet on earth no more;
And we may never sing again
The cherished songs of yore:

The sacred songs our fathers sang
In days of auld lang syne;
We may not meet to sing again
The songs of auld lang syne.

But when we've crossed the sea of life,
And reached the heavenly shore,
We'll sing the songs our fathers sing,
Transcending those of yore:

We'll meet to sing diviner strains
Than those of auld lang syne;
Immortal songs of praise, unknown
In days of auld lang syne.

DOESTICKS AT NEW YEAR.

Doesticks was round New York City on New Year's Day; and gives us the following among other memoranda of his calls and observations:

Odd circumstances, very—but in all the parlors we visited that day I noticed one unvarying peculiarity of furniture— there were in no single parlor any two chairs of the same pattern—but they were of all shapes, sizes, dimensions, capacities, and degree of comfort —from the damask-covered to the unvarnished, which looked as if they had strayed in from the kitchen. The effect of this arrangement is to impress a stranger with the idea that the owner of the establishment had been compelled to furnish his drawing room from the chaotic assortment of a second-hand furniture store.

And, notwithstanding the recent election of a Maine Law Governor, in nearly every house, wines, brandy, punches, "hot stuff," and various inebriating drinks abounded, and every guest was compelled, on pain of slighting his host, to partake; the inevitable result was that before night, many a youth, whose head might have withstood the attack of a single bottle, not being able to endure a twenty hours' seige, gave in dead drunk—while others of harder heads and stronger stomachs, reeled from parlor to parlor, proclaiming the obituary of their respectability and decency, by exhibiting the noisy clamor, or idiotic feelings of beastly drunkenness to the refined and polished ladies of "our best society."

In fact, New York went to bed last night with a huge brick in its municipal hat, and as the legitimate effect of such indiscretion, has awoke this morning with a tremendous corporate headache—"Young America" to-day for once, is unstarched in appearance; and in deportment, meek as the sucking dove.

THE UNITED STATES MAGAZINE for January, contains a spirited engraving of "Col. Cilley Capturing the Cannon, at Stillwater, 1877; with a description of the horrible scene depicted.

This is a very pleasant and useful monthly, at only $1 per annum, published by J. M. Emerson & Co., New York.

REVIVAL OF THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE. The movement in favor of the revival of the African slave trade is receiving an important impulse, so says the Southern press. In the Southern Convention at Charleston last year, there was a gratifying tendency to shrink from a step so daring. But the late convention at N. Orleans has hardily taken the subject into its deliberations, and it will soon receive, if it has not already received the action of the highest tribunal of public sentiment in the Southern States. The Charleston Standard fears that that body is not yet ripe for a matter so just and true; but congratulates itself that the public mind of the South will ultimately vibrate to the conclusion that Slavery is right without restriction, and will not recognize the obligation to submit to any compromise in the matter! It is a matter of deep congratulation that the proposed traffic cannot be re-established, except by the consent of a majority in our nation's Congress.—Portland Adv.

The public mind of the North has vibrated the other way, ever since the Nebraska fiddler gave it a snap. There don't seem to be so much finality round now, as there was in 1850, '51 and '52.

The Boston Post, in noticing the appointment of Mr. Wells to succeed Mr. Norris, says, he "will fill the position with honor to his State and the country."

HIGH SCHOOL ROOMS.

Messrs. Editors:—I was glad to notice that Rev. Mr. Lamson, in his Thanksgiving sermon, when enumerating the needs of our city, gave prominence to our great want of suitable school rooms. I will give you the paragraph to which I allude. "We need an outlay in public buildings. The accommodations for the transaction of the public business, and for our city schools, are such as one blushes to think of. There may be such, but I certainly do not know of any cities whose population equals ours, whose public schools of the highest grade are so poorly accommodated as ours are. When the excellence of the schools is considered, and the number of the pupils who are there taught, it does seem that the suggestions which have been repeatedly made in regard to a suitable building ought to be regarded. The character of the school room is not without its influence on the character of the scholars, not to speak of comfort and health. Who would not rejoice to see a public spirit among us that would demand a generous expenditure in public buildings? Who would feel it a burden to pay his proportion of the increased tax which the interest on a city debt thus created, would cause?"

Now it would seem that all good citizens might agree with the opinions thus expressed, and their attention should be called again and again to this matter, until they are fairly aroused to its importance. Many would most cheerfully give their influence to push it forward, and I do sincerely hope that a clause may be inserted in the call for our annual city meeting, for the citizens to make the needful appropriation. We have talked about it long enough, and the time has come for action, and I believe the people are ready for action. It is a shame to our city that the Young Ladies' High School should be kept in a damp, uncomfortable and poorly ventilated basement room. Nor is the character of the room the only objection to its use. Its immediate contiguity to the court room renders it a highly improper place, and every good citizen who is acquainted with the locality, and all good citizens should be, will find this suggestion commending itself to his better judgment. Some of our children are prevented, and others will be prevented from attending the school until a suitable room has been provided.

I hope that prominence may be given to this matter. Let other citizens express their views freely, and we will create a public spirit which shall see this thing carried through. It ought to be done, and therefore it can be done. "The liberal desireth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand." This is not only true of individuals, but especially of communities, and let Portsmouth but be liberal in an outlay for public buildings, and she will most assuredly reap the advantage in large measure.

☞ The second Concert of The Old Folks came off finely at the Temple, on Tuesday evening. Rev. Dr. Burroughs, of the St. John's Church, offered prayer appropriate to the occasion; and the Chorus of 120 singers, with a good orchestra poured forth the tide of harmony, to the delight of a crowded audience.

The audience, on leaving the house, were counted and found to number 1056.

A large number, probably 150, were unable to gain admittance, the house being full.

LEVEE.—A grand levee will be held this evening by the Independent order of Odd Fellows in this city, composing Piscataqua Lodge, No. 6, New Hampshire Lodge No. 17, and Strawberry Bank Encampment. The order of exercises will be similar to that of previous levees which have been held in this city. The members, after having left their ladies in the Hall, will re-form and march in in full regalia, the lowest degree first, when all the members present will unite in singing. Addresses, singing and instrumental music will occupy the early part of the evening, and the remainder will be devoted to terpsichorean exercises. Much pleasure may be anticipated, and the fraternal regard of the members greatly increased, by this entertainment. We understand that none but members of the order will participate in this re-union.

SPIRITUALISM.—For several years the subject of Spiritualism has attracted much attention in this city and in all parts of the country, and probably the number of believers in the science never was greater than at the present time. By an advertisement in this day's paper, it will be seen that Hon. Warren Chase, of Wisconsin, will deliver three lectures upon the subject. Of his ability we know nothing; but we are sure that a vast field for philosophical research lies open before him. All who take an interest in the subject should attend.

Among the latest inventions de Paris is one by which a letter and its envelope are formed with a single piece of paper. You can write to the very bottom of the fourth page, without fear that the wafer or sealing wax will hide any word whatever, and then you find the envelope already folded for your use.

THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM, for Coughs, Colds and Consumption, is not one of those ephemeral nostrums that are forgotten the same year they are born. ABBOT LAWRENCE, Minister Plenipo. to Gt. Britain;
†JOHN B. FITZPATRICK, Catholic Bishop of Boston;

MEN WHO ARE MEN.

Among the diseases this Pill has cured with astonishing rapidity, we may mention

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the Blood and stimulating the System, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach: such as Deafness, partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstructions of its functions. They are the best Purgative Medicine ever discovered, and you will but need to use them once to know it.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, Jan. 23.

SENATE.—Mr. Seward of New York, presented a petition from Messrs. Halstead and Frochel, submarine engineers, for a per centage of duties for removing the rocks from Hurl Gate. Referred to the committee on Commerce.

Mr. James of Rhode Island, called up the bill relative to patents, and it was made the order of the day for Saturday.

Mr. Cooper of Pennsylvania, presented a resolution that the President be requested to direct the Secretaries of State and the Treasury to report from their departments the statistics in relation to the transportation of foreign criminals and paupers to this country; also in relation to the voluntary emigration to the United States within the past two years.

A resolution was presented, instructing the Judiciary Committee to inquire whether any legislation is necessary to prevent the introduction of foreign criminals and paupers, and to control the voluntary emigration to this country.

The Senate then passed to the consideration of the Bounty Land bill.

A great number of amendments were offered, and pending the discussion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Fuller, of Maine, presented a bill for the amending and consolidation of the navigation and collection laws. Referred to the committee on commerce.

The vote was taken upon the motion made yesterday, to reconsider the vote referring the Pacific Railroad bill to a select committee, and to lay that motion on the table. The vote resulted in the affirmative by a majority of one.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the French Spoliation bill.

Mr. Bayley of Virginia, made a speech in favor of the bill. The subject had often been before Congress, and had always been reported upon favorably. He was anxious that some definite action should be taken in regard to the subject. He thought five millions of dollars would satisfy all claims coming within the provisions of the bill.

Considerable discussion took place, which was not ended when the committee rose.

Pending a motion to close the debate on the bill in two hours, the House adjourned.

NEW YORK, Jan. 23.—The steam engine on the deck of the clipper ship Great Republic exploded this afternoon, seriously injuring four men, two of whom, Bernard O'Donnell, lighterman, and John Watts, the engineer, fatally, it is feared. The ship received no damage of consequence.

The Mercantile Library Association have presented Col. Benton with a silver pitcher and salver, valued at $200, as an acknowledgment for the lectures he recently delivered before the Association.

Capt. Patterson, of ship Magnolia, from Callao, reports that on the 7th of November, lat 42 32, lon 85 45, experienced a severe shock from a submarine volcano, which caused the ship to appear as if running over a coral reef, and so great was the shock that those below at the time ran on deck, supposing the vessel to have run ashore.

U. S. brig Bainbridge, C. Y. Hunter, Lieutenant Commanding, from Rio Janeiro Nov. 20, and 22 days from Barbadoes, arrived this evening. She had an exceedingly rough passage, and put into Barbadoes for water and repairs. On Sunday night last she experienced a very violent gale from N. E., and came very near going on the Jersey shore.—Those on board represent her as being entirely unseaworthy.

HARTFORD, Jan. 23.—The Connecticut river broke up this morning, caused by the violent storm of Sunday night and Monday, and the water is now fourteen feet above low water mark.

Incendiary fires are of nightly occurrence here, barns and old wooden buildings usually being fired.

MAINE STATE LOAN.—The legislature of Maine has authorized a loan in behalf of that State to the amount of $21,000, payable in Boston at various times from 1857 to 1870. The Treasurer of the State advertises that he will receive applications to take the loan, to the 15th of next month. The resources of the State of Maine are abundant, and the character of the people is such that there cannot be the least doubt of their fulfilling all their obligations. The present offer accordingly affords a good opportunity for a safe investment.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING

TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose.—It is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHELPS,

SUTTER'S FORT.—A San Francisco paper says that this venerable relic of the past history of California, the structure which was once the peaceful residence of Col. Sutter, the farmer, has now become renowned in history, and which, linked as it is inseparably with the prominent events of the last few years on the Pacific shore, has found its way in lithograph and letter press to every nook and corner of the globe, has been razed to the ground, and is now no more. It seems almost sacrilege to remove this old building, this adobe masterpiece of the pioneer style of architecture.—But some ruthless Vandals of engineers, who could discover nothing more interesting or valuable in the walls than a pile of handsome sun-dried bricks, tore it down and used the adobes to construct a turnpike across a slough.

JESUITISM IN NAPLES.—A curious quarrel has broken out at Naples between the King and the Jesuits. The Neapolitan Minister of Police recently sent for Father Giuseppe, the head of the order of Jesus, and informed him that he must no longer teach the "revolutionary" doctrine that the Pope is superior to all the Kings of the earth. The minister added, that in 1848 the Jesuits had been sent out of the kingdom "in coaches," but if they continued to teach such doctrines they would be "hunted out with kicks!" Father Giuseppe and twenty-three others, much alarmed at the threat, have published a statement professing their entire devotion to the absolute monarchy of Naples.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the tenet of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY

FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. Extensively used, tested and approved in New England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men,—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr. HERMAN BREHMER, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. LEONARD WOODS, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. DANIEL P. THOMPSON, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. WILLIAMS, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, Philadelphia,—and many others.

HOW ESTEEMED BY PHYSICIANS.—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that Your VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM is best, and I hope will be better known and more generally used."

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations!! Enquire for the article by its WHOLE NAME, "VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM."

Prepared only by REED, CUTLER & CO., Druggists, 38 India street, Boston, Mass., and sold by apothecaries and Country Merchants generally. Price, New Style, large bottles, containing nearly four times the quantity of the small, $1. Old style, small bottles, 50 cents.

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not mar nor rut the finest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. CLAIR, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

New Light and more Light.

PATENT SMOKE-BURNING

OIL LAMP!

THIS newly invented Lamp, so differently constructed from any other, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons, viz:

It requires only the Poorest Oil, Lard, Tallow or Grease; and with the same material, produced FOUR OR FIVE TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT As ANY other known Lamp. It is simple in its construction (consequently not liable to get out of order.) By its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.

Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the EXTENSION DINING TABLES of different sizes; MARBLE TOP CENTRE TABLES and a large assortment of FRENCH SOFAS AND CHAIRS, covered with plush or silk damask—or the BLACK WALNUT AND MAHOGANY SOFAS, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the CANE SEATED CHAIRS, with or without rockers.

These FTAGERAS, as the French call them, or WHAT NOTS as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those UMBRELLA STANDS, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of ELEGANT CHAMBER SETS, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the LOOKING GLASS, in frames of either Mahogany or Gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

LITTLE BENNY.

☞ The following which appeared sometime since in the New Orleans Delta seems to us exquisitely touching and beautiful:—

I had told him, Christmas morning,
As he sat upon my knee,
Holding fast his little stockings,
Stuffed as full as full could be,
And attentive listening to me,
With a face demure and mild,
That old Santa Claus, who filled them,
Did not love a naughty child

"But we'll be good, won't we moder?"
And from off my lap he slid,
Digging deep among the goodies
In his crimson stocking hid—
When I turned me to my table,
There a tempting goblet stood,
Brimming high with dainty egg-nogg,
Sent me by a neighbor good.

But the kitten there before me,
With his white paw, nothing loth,
Sat, by way of entertainment,
Lapping off the shining froth;
And, in not the gentlest humor
At the loss of such a treat,
I confess, I rather rudely
Thrust him out into the street.

Then how Benny's blue eyes kindled!
Gathering up the precious store
He had busily been pouring
In his tiny pinafore;
With a generous look that shamed me,
Sprang he from the carpet bright,
Showing, by his mien indignant
All a baby's sense of right.

"Come back, Harney," called he loudly,
As he held his apron white—.
"You shall have my candy wabbit!"
But the door was fastened tight;
So he stood, abashed and silent,
In the center of the floor,
With defeated look alternate
Bent on me and on the door.

Then, as by some sudden impulse,
Quickly ran he to the fire,
And while eagerly his bright eyes
Watched the flames go higher and higher,
In a brave clear key he shouted,
Like some lordly little elf,
"Santa Kause, come down de chimbly,
Make my moder 'have herself!"

"I will be a good girl, Benny,"
Said I, feeling the reproof,
And straightway recalled poor Harney,
Mewing on the gallery roof.
Soon the anger was forgotten,
Laughter chased away the frown,
And they gamboled 'neath the live oaks
Till the dusky sun went down.

In my dim, fire lighted chamber
Harney purred beneath my chair,
And my play worn boy beside me
Knelt to say his evening prayer.
"God bess father—God bese moder
God bess sister"—then a pause,
And the sweet young lips devoutly
Murmured—"God bess Santa Kaus!"

He is sleeping— brown and silken
Lie the lashes, long and meek,
Like caressing, clinging shadows,
On his plump and peachy cheek;
And I bend above him, weeping
Thankful tears—Oh, Undefiled!
For a woman's crown of glory,
For the blessings of a child.

FOREIGN PAUPERS AND CRIMINALS.—The Washington Star has reason to believe that the Secretary of the Treasury, through the Committee on Commerce, will soon submit to Congress the project of a law for putting an end to the evil of the transmission of foreign paupers and criminals to the United States. The Star thinks the Secretary's plan will be "short, concise, comprehensive, and not liable to be evaded."

A REAL GENTLEMAN.—He never dresses in the extreme of fashion, but avoids singularity in his person and habits.

Is affable with his equals, and pleasant and attentive to his inferiors.

In conversation he avoids hasty, ill-tempered or insulting remarks.

He never pries into other people's affairs.

Detests caves-dropping as among the most discraceful of crimes.

Never slanders any of his acquaintances.

Never cuts an acquaintance who has met with a reverse of fortune.

He always pays the postage on his letters, and pays in advance, in good money, for his papers.—Manchester Mirror.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 26, 1855.

MILITARY OBEDIENCE.

Some time ago, a grand army of Massachusetts Militia was called out in Boston, to give aid and comfort to the executioners of one of the most odious and contemptible of all so called legal processes. Then the salvo for the soldiers' conscience was, implicit obedience, which every man must pay to the orders received from his superiors, without a why or wherefore. This we may call tweedle-dum.

Now the Commander in Chief issues his order for a peaceful disbandment of certain companies; but some of the subordinates rebel, stand by their arms, and dare the Governor to a lawsuit. Perhaps they would even risk a battle. This we call tweedle-dee.

There is great difference between the cases: but if a soldier may reason sometimes, he is a responsible being, and therefore can never entirely hide himself behind his superior, as to his acts or to their moral and physical consequences.

Especially should the citizen soldier never forget that he is a part of the State, and not a mere machine nor a mere subject. Why should he not, like the redoubtable and learned Colonel Butler, resist orders, and take the legal consequences? We can think of only one reason, viz.: that every soldier is not, like Col. Butler, a lawyer who likes to plead, and who can plead his own cause.

QUESTIONS.

A good democrat calling himself Chicester, has a communication in the Daily Patriot, wherein he makes this query:

Mr Editor—Will any Know Nothing inform me why it is, if they desire a reformation in the matter of naturalization laws, that they refuse to admit to their order some of the best men in the State?

Now we offer another query:

Why should the best men in the State desire to be admitted into such a wicked place as the lodge of the secret order? The Patriot calls it Satan's Kingdom, in the following paragraph:

COMING OUT.—We have letters from different sections of the State—Grafton, Rockingham, Strafford, Carroll and Sullivan counties—assuring us that the Democrats who had joined the Know Nothings are leaving them in large numbers, and that quite a sprinkling of whigs (Webster whigs) are backing out also. Truly, "Satan's Kingdom's tumbling down."

Do the best men in the State seek to enter such a kingdom as this? And when it tumbles down, next Spring, won't these same best men thank Satan's imps for keeping them out?

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY, for February, is received from Fetridge & Co., Boston, via J. F. Shores, Jr., Portsmouth. The Contents are: Diplomacy and Cannon Balls; Living in the Country; National Defence; Promethens and Epimethens; Nature in Motion; Two Little Stars; My Three Conversations with Miss Chester; Glimpses of French Life—The Restoration; The Mountain Winds; Mining Vanities; Israel Potter, or Fifty Years of Exile, chapters XXI., XXII. and XXIII; The Old Woman who Dried Up and Blew Away; Ortilia; A Pedagogue in Georgia; A Water Study; The Progress of our Political Virtues; Editorial Notes.

SHIP "CONSTITUTION."—We are pleased to learn that the Secretary of the Navy has issued orders to the commander of this noble ship, the "Old Ironsides," to proceed to Portsmouth Navy Yard, in this State, on his return home, which will probably be about the middle or last of May next. The Constitution is a frigate of upwards of sixteen hundred tons burthen, and carries fifty guns, and over four hundred officers and men. As she has been on a cruise since March, 1853, a large amount of money will be required to pay off her men, and for other purposes—at least $70,000, we are informed; all of which will benefit and enliven the good city of Portsmouth; and we thank the Secretary for the compliment he has paid New Hampshire by sending to her shores the gallant "Old Ironsides."—Daily Patriot.

TEXAS.—There seems to be a general determination in Texas this season to plant more corn than usual, in anticipation of a heavy emigration next winter. A greatly increased quantity of land has this year been sown in wheat. The prospect is good for a large supply of Breadstuffs in Texas next autumn and winter.

Apples are found to succeed well in Texas as far south as thirty degrees latitude. Oranges, bananas and other tropical fruits are cultivated to some extent in the coast region.—Rice, indigo and arrow root succeed well.

Every indication is favorable for early spring in Texas, already there has been more cold weather than is usual for a whole winter. The weather is now mild and open. Farmers are quite forward in their preparation for another crop. Gardens are being put in order, and early vegetables are being planted.

We notice from the present of John M. Jones, Esq., to the editors of the Civilian, that a second crop of grapes of a good size and fine flavor, have been raised this season in Galveston from the same vines.

It is said the common councils of each of the cities of Milwaukie and Sheboygan have appropriated $100,000 for the poor. It seems a pretty high figure.

ANOTHER K. N. CONVENTION.—The Manchester Mirror says, owing to a mistake of nominating an ineligible candidate for Governor at the late K. N. Convention, a new Convention has been called at that place, on Tuesday the 30th of the present month. It was thought by some that new Delegates would be chosen, but such is not the fact. The old Delegates will make the nomination. Even now among the K. N., the talked-of Candidates are numerous: Ex. Gov. Colby, Dame of Portsmouth, Marston of Exeter and Christie of Dover, heading the list, now, in this section. But any speculation is now premature, as the topic comes up with new features.

THE NEW DOGMA.—It is said that the new dogma of the immaculate conception of the Virgin Mary, recently promulgated by the Pope, is not received by the Roman Catholics of Germany. In Tuscany, also, the Dominican friars openly repudiate it, and the monks of St. Marino have been summoned before the archbishop of Florence on a charge of contempt of the Pope in despising and ejecting the dogma.

The Catholics are going into a general defence of the immaculate conception, as a very important truth necessary to salvation; and they quote largely to show that the Church in the early ages, believed it, and the Christian fathers rejoiced in it; though the fact was almost hidden from them, that it might be revealed in fuller glory at this late day. Dr. Forbes of New York recently preached a sermon that has attracted attention, from this text—"For behold from henceforth all generations shall call him blessed." Here he went fully into the matter. Any body that can believe that wine is turned into blood and wafers into flesh, in this day, will not be staggered at the new doctrine.—Newburyp ort Her.

THE GALLIPAGOS.—A Washington letter in the Boston Post says,

I notice that correspondents keep the story afloat that Mr. Marcy has authorized the formation of a treaty with the republic of Ecuador for the purchase of the Gallipagos group or Turtle Islands for three millions of dollars, but it is untrue. No treaty of the kind has been made by the government.

ANOTHER PERJURY CASE.—In the Police Court this morning, James Burns was charged with violation of the Sunday law. In this case the officers testified that they saw two men drinking liquor in Mr. Burns' shop on Sunday last. The defendant put Peter Agin and Machael Daley upon the stand, who testified that they were the persons in the shop, and that they drank water only. The officers were positive; however, that Agin was not the man. Burns was convicted and fined $10 and costs. He appealed, and gave bail in $250 to prosecute his appeal. Peter Agin was then placed at the bar on a charge of perjury, and in default of bail in $1000 was committed for trial in the Municipal Court.—Boston Journal.

WARNING TO GAMBLERS AND PROSTITUTES.—The Grand Jury, we understand, have found bills of indictment against the five leading gambling houses in this city. They are located on Broadway and in Warren street. It has also found about thirty bills against the most notorious and popular houses of prostitution in this city. We are sorry to learn that some of the city police have been found to have an interest in both classes of these seminaries of vice.—N. Y. Eve. Post.

FORGERY.—The Petersburg (Va.) Express learns that John W. Rice, of that city, has fled, and is found to be guilty of committing forgeries by which he has swindled the banks of Petersburg out of $20,000, and individuals in the country and New York out of $30,090, more. The Express says he is about the last man who would have been suspected of forgery.

A CASE OF STARVATION.—At a meeting of the Mayor and Aldermen of Charlestown, Alderman Fletcher offered an order that one or more Soup Houses be established for the benefit of the poor. Several of the Aldermen spoke in favor of the plan. The Mayor stated that a case of actual starvation of a child, in Charlestown, had come to his notice a short time since, but too late for him to render any assistance. The order was referred to a committee with full powers.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The probability is that the French Spoliation bill will pass the House. Opinions are equally divided as to the prospects of a veto from the President, should the bill pass.

MILWAUKIE, Jan. 24.—S. M. Booth, convicted of aiding in the escape of a fugitive slave, was yesterday sentenced in the U. S. District Court to pay a fine of $1000 and be imprisoned a month; and John Reynolds, for the same offence, was sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and be imprisoned ten days.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—The snow storm has completely suspended all railroad movements north, south and west of us. No trains have arrived here since Saturday. Telegraphic communication with St. Louis is also suspended.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 22.—The Know-Nothing Convention adjourned without making a nomination.

The slaughter of hogs up to this date is two hundred and eighty thousand more than at this date last year.

TRENTON, Jan. 23.—The House of Representatives of this State has ordered the third reading of the prohibitory liquor bill, and the final vote will be taken on Thursday. The bill has been so amended as to allow it to be submitted to the people at the State election on the first Tuesday in October next.

ROCHESTER, Jan. 22.—The Irish laborers on a section of the enlarged canals, a few miles west of this city, have struck for higher wages. They demand one dollar a day, and trouble is apprehended.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—We had yesterday the most furious storm of wind and snow ever experienced in this vicinity. To-day the weather is cold but pleasant.

Mrs. Trist, granddaughter of Thomas Jefferson, has opened a school for young ladies at Washington.

LOCAL.

☞ The Mercantile's Lecture on Thursday evening, was by Rev. Dr. Cleaveland of Northampton, Mass., on the Relation of the Community to the Schoolmaster.

On this apparently homely and unpropossessing theme, the Dr. gave us an excellent lecture, in which the gravest instruction and the most valuable practical hints for parents and teachers, were blended with happy hits and ready wit which brought down the house. Just as one would be excited to mirth somewhat at the expense of his neighbor,—his face would recover its longitude, at an antithesis which turned the laugh on the other side.

Dr. C. magnified the teacher's office; he would have him or her amply paid, and duly honored; and then have the teacher apt to teach, and industrious and faithful both in teaching and government.

He despised and ridiculed the idea of a royal road to learning; advocated the Websterian idea that Education is the business of life; and after some fine thoughts on moral and religious culture, he closed a long, but not tiresome lecture, with hopeful and pleasant allusions to female influence and general improvement.

We cannot better characterize the lecture, than by calling it a singular compound of wit and wisdom, as far removed from commonplace talk as it was from all the trammels of set speech. The gravest hearer must have been amused; while the dullest could scarcely fail to be instructed.

IN BOARD OF ALDERMEN, Thursday evening, Jan. 25.—In Executive session, William Rand and Samuel Rowe were appointed School Committee in District No. One, in place of Nath'l D. Miller and Thos. J. Spinney, resigned. Henry L. Foote was appointed Watchman, in room of John G. Tibbetts, resigned. Sundry bills were approved. The City Clerk was directed to request of the Judges of the Superior Court, an extended statement of their opinion respecting the case Beck vs. Hanscom, just discharged from their consideration.

GREAT ENTHUSIASM.—We understand that the combined wisdom of the fourteen delegates chosen to attend the Councillor Convention at Epping, on Tuesday last, was concentrated in the person of Charles W. Brewster, Esq., of the Journal.

☞ The Portsmouth Company, at South Berwick, has declared a semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent. or $16 per share.

HITCH YOUR HORSES.—Three horses, harnessed to nice sleighs, started from different parts of this city, on Thursday forenoon, and after running pretty well about town, and smashing up the sleighs considerably, were secured without damage to human life. They were all left without hitching.

For the Chronicle.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.—A correspondent of the Chronicle, in an article concerning our public buildings, and more especially our high schools, gives an extract from Mr. Lamson's Thanksgiving sermon, in which occurs the following sentence:—"The character of the school room is not without its influence on the character of the scholars." It is well known that the room under the Court House, used for the girls' high school, is a damp, dreary, unhealthy, execrable den, fit only for the confinement of criminals. Now if the characters of all the young ladies who have, now do, and will in all human probability attend this school, are effected by it, something must be done soon, or the rising generation of females will be a shocking set. Of course nobody will think the character of a girl would be influenced for good by studying in such an old cellar as the one referred to. Mr. Lamson, when chairman of the school committee, urged the necessity of a new room for the girls' high school; but as yet, nothing has been done in regard to the matter. The suggestion of the correspondent, that a clause which would accomplish the desired object be inserted in the call for our annual city meeting, is a good one, and should be adopted. No good citizen would vote against an appropriation for a school house, whatever might be his opinion of having a new City Hall, in place of the present gorgeous edifice used for that purpose. —— WOODLAND.

The citizens of Portsmouth, in their several ward meetings, and in a general town meeting, have no legal power whatever, to appropriate money for any purpose. The City Government is not a Democracy, but a Representative Republic. Therefore, in order to get a new School House, we must have a Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council, all, or a majority of each, who will work together, for this object.

The passing of a vote of approval, however, in each ward would have a moral effect on a good and reasonable City Government.

A retired boot and shoe merchant, named Silas Alden, last Friday afternoon, in Randolph, committed suicide by taking poison.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS
PILLS THAT ARE PILLS!

PROF. HAYES, State Chemist of Massachusetts, says they are the best of all Pills, and annexed are the men who certify that Doct. Hayes knows, viz:—

LEMUEL SHAW, Ch. Justice Supreme Court of Mass.
EMORY WASHBURN, Governor of Mass.
W. C. PLUNKETT, Lieut Gov. of Mass.
EDWARD EVERETT, Ex-Sec of State and US Senator.
ROBERT C. WINTHROP, Ex-Speaker House Rep. U.S.
AMOS LAWRENCE, Minister Plenipo. to Gt Britain;
†JOHN B. FITZPATRICK, Catholic Bishop of Boston;

MEN WHO ARE MEN.

Among the diseases this Pill has cured with astonishing rapidity, we may mention

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn; Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the Blood and stimulating the System, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach: such as Deafness, partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstructions of its functions. They are the best Purgative Medicine ever discovered, and you will but need to use them once to know it.

FROM EUROPE.

Steamer Pacific, from Liverpool 13th inst., has arrived at New York, with news a week later than previous advices. Her news is important. Cotton flustrating: breadstuffs dull.

Several heavy failures are reported, among them that of Messrs. Kestever Brothers, in the woolen trade; Abbott, Nottingham & Co., London.

The eastern question has assumed an entirely new phase. Prince Gortschakoff announces to the Austrian government that the Czar accepts not only the four points of guarantee, but also the interpretation given to them by the three powers; but as no armistice has been agreed upon, hostilities will continue until negotiations shall have been completed.

The conduct of Prussia and the German States is still equivocal.

The sincerity of Russia was much doubted in England, and Consols, which had at first advanced two per cent., afterwards fell back.

The Allies, it is said, will insist on the Russian naval powers in the Black Sea being placed on a level with that of other powers, as a proof of their success; and on this point it is expected negotiations will split, as Russia will on no account assent to this.

The Russian have re-crossed the Danube, invaded the Dobrudscha, and retaken the cities of Tuftscha and Badayeh. So says a report, but it is doubted.

The ship City of Montreal, from Portland, had arrived at Liverpool, six days later from America, but had not a paper on board.

The packet ship George Canning, from New York for Hamburg, is lost, and it is supposed all on board, 160 in number, perished. The ship's papers and some of the luggage of the passengers had been washed ashore near Helgoland, and that is all that is really known of her fate.

The Pacific arrived out from New York on the 9th inst., 9 1-2 P. M., and in running up the Mersey, the night being very dark, she ran into the brig Corinthean, at anchor, outward bound, for Calcutta, with a cargo valued at £20,000 sterling, sinking her immediately. No lives lost.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The steamship Geo. Law, from Aspinwall, reached her dock about half-past 9 o'clock this morning, bringing the California mails of the 1st inst., a considerable number of passengers, and $1,251,000 in treasure.

The California news is unimportant. There had been no rain until the day the steamer left, when a tremendous storm prevailed.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 24.

SENATE.—After some discussion relative to its taking precedence of the Bounty Land bill, the Army Appropriation bill was taken up.

Sundry amendments were offered, materially altering the complexion of the bill, but no definite action was had upon it as a whole.

Mr. Seward of New York, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill to carry the Reciprocity Treaty with the British North American Colonies into effect; and asked that the committee be discharged from considering the petition of Messrs. Husted and Crocht, concerning Hurigate obstructions.

The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House passed the resolution to close the debate on the French Spoliation bill at 3 o'clock to-morrow.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole upon the French Spoliation bill.

Mr. Benton of Missouri, opposed the bill, as being a game of the claims' agents, who throng the doors of the Capitol. He contended that our commerce did not suffer during the French revolution. It was, on the contrary, most prosperous during that period.

Mr. Disney of Ohio, supported the bill.

Mr. Chamberlain of Indiana, spoke against our government mediating in the affairs of Europe. He coincided with Mr. Disney, as to the justness of the claims under the French Spoliation bill.

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—It is said that the Grand Jury have found two bills of indictment against Robert Schuyler, late President of the New Haven Railroad Company, one for embezzlement, and one for grand larceny. They also found an indictment against W. B. McGuckin, late teller of the Ocean Bank, for embezzling $75,000 of its funds, and against an up-town bank, the name of which has not transpired. The Grand Jury submitted a question to Judge McKeon, whether the District Attorney had not rendered himself liable to a criminal prosecution for not proceeding with a certain criminal case, of which he has official charge. The Judge decided that there was nothing of which the Grand Jury could take cognisance, as the District Attorney was amenable only to the General Government in the matter, and he had acted entirely under their instructions.

PORTSMOUTH

ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND

EXHIBITION AND DISTRIBUTION OF PICTURES,

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my late exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture.—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—varying in price

From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle;) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and

P. WENZEL, Congress St.

Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 19, '55.

P. S.—Persons out of the place, may secure Tickets by enclosing the money in a letter, prepaid. j19 2ostf

A Poor Mend.—A correspondent of the Knickerbocker, says:—A friend of mine returning from a depot a few mornings since, with a bottle of fresh, imported 'Maine Law,' saw a lady in advance of him whom he must inevitably join. So tucking the bottle under his arm, he walked alongside. 'Well,' said the young lady, after disposing of 'health' and the 'weather,' 'What is that bundle you are carrying so mysteriously under your arm?'

'Oh! nothing but a coat which the tailor has been mending for me.'

'Oh! it's a coat, is it? Well, you had better carry it back, and get him to sew up one more hole, for it leaks now.'

This is the same young man whose cash account, after last summer's travels, was marked by the very frequent occurrence of the item, "Porter, twenty cents." His father expressed some surprise that it should cost so much to transport a carpet bag from place to place, whereas the original investments were made in small bottles of Brown Stout.

A Moist Opportunity.—Sunday evening at half-past 10 o'clock, a man residing in Chelsea, being no better for his gratified thirst, wound his devious way through Hanover st., passed the toll house of the Chelsea ferry, and walked off into the dock. He was taken out by some persons who witnessed his sudden disappearance, and may thank his lucky stars that his life was spared, to defend his case before the Municipal Court yesterday, in answer to an indictment found against him for being a common seller of intoxicating liquor.—Boston Journal.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, not alone by the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be left in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY

FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. Extensively used, tested and approved in New England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men,—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr Lyman Beecher, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. Leonard Woods, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. Daniel P. Thompson, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. Williams, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. Joshua Litch, Philadelphia,—and many others.

How Esteemed by Physicians.—John A. Berry, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam is best, and I hope will be better known and more generally used!"

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations!! Enquire for the article by its Whole Name, "VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM."

Prepared only by REED, CUTLER & CO., Druggists, 38 India street, Boston, Mass., and sold by Apothecaries and Country Merchants generally. Price New Style, large bottles, containing nearly four times the quantity of the small, $1. Old Style, small bottles, 50 cents.

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need mending, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

Caution.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each Pen is stamped, "Herts, Brothers' Patent, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S

Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are Paolapsus Uteri, or Falling of the Womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrage or Flooding; Painful, Suppressed, and Irregular Menstruation, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the Uterine Catholicon, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

New Light and more Light.

PATENT SMOKE-BURNING

OIL LAMP!

THIS newly invented Lamp, so differently constructed from any other, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons:—

It requires no order.) By its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of Light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.

Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the Extension Dining Tables of different sizes; Marble Top Centre Tables; and a large assortment of French Sofas and Chairs, covered with plush or silk damask—or the Black Walnut and Mahogany Sofas, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the Cane Seated Chairs, with or without rockers.

These Fingerers, as the French call them, or What Nots as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those Umbrella Stands, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of Ebonized Chamber Sets, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the Looking Glass, in frames of either mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

WORKINGMEN IN THE PARK.—The workingmen in New York, out of employment, continue to hold their meetings in the Park to give public utterance to their grievances. The reporter of the New York Express had an interview with one of their leaders, which he describes as follows:—

Reporter.—What are you going to do today?

Man.—I don't know, I suppose, have a little talk as usual, and perhaps have a procession.

Reporter.—Why do you do so, won't Mr. Purdy give you work according to the Mayor's instructions!?

Man.—We don't want work, this is not the right kind of weather to work in, it is too cold and chilly.

Reporter.—Why, I thought you all wanted work, no matter at what, so long as you could earn enough to buy food with.

Man.—No, we don't want work, or I for one, don't. You know when you go to a lawyer to plead your case for, you he always wants a retainer of $10. That is our case. We want some food to commence with, and can't work till we get it.

Reporter.—I know that food is essential to life, but are you not aware that ample provisions have been made throughout the city for distributing food daily to those in need?

Man.—Yes, it is true, soup houses have been started, which deal out swill to the poor beggars who will bemean themselves sufficiently to seek it, but we want respectable food and clothing.

Rep.—(having arrived at the City Hall steps) —What may I call your name?

Man.—You will find it in the 11th chapter of Matthew.

Rep.—I know there are many names there. What is your occupation?

Man—(hesitatingly)—I am a sash and blind maker, and will not work at anything only my trade, which I have worked at for the last eight seasons steady, until a few weeks ago.—My bosses did not want me any more and discharged me.

Rep.—I should think that sooner than beg or starve, you would be willing to work at whatever you could find to do.

Man.—What is there that I can do?

Rep.—Why, Mr. Purdy will give you employment, in tearing down the ruins of the old City Hall.

Man.—That would be a good deal, would n't it, one dollar a day for piling bricks. No, I'll not work at anything only my trade.

Rep.—Do you have speaking here to-day?

Man.—I suppose so.

Rep.—Who are to speak?

Man.—Well, I don't hardly know; I suppose myself, Mr. Smith, and perhaps some others.

QUEAR FREAK.—A letter from a citizen of Livingston county, Kentucky, to the Danville Tribune, relates the following bit of family history in that neighborhood:

'A widow lady took an orphan boy to raise, quite small, and when arrived at the age of eighteen she married him, she then being in her fiftieth year. They lived many years together happy as any couple. Ten years ago they took an orphan girl to raise. This Fall the old lady died, being ninty-six years of age and in seven weeks after the old man married the girl they had raised, he being sixty-eight years old, and she eighteen.'

The secrets of the prison houses of Mormonism are soon to be exposed in this city by Mrs. Sarah Young, one of the wives of the esteemed saint and governor Brigham Young. She left him about two months ago, with Miss Eliza Williams, and these ladies together intend to lift the covering from the faces of the veiled prophets of this false religion, and show to its dupes and victims all the vileness they have worshipped.—Boston Times.

A white musk rat was caught a few weeks ago near Douglassville, Berks county, Pa.

A farmer of Newton, L. I., was waited upon on Friday by a parcel of men and boys, who summoned him to deliver to them some of the fruits of his farm for "the poor of New York." He opened his cellar door, telling them to "be merciful," when they took out two wagon loads of pork, potatoes, carrots, cabbage, &c., and started for the city.

Mrs. Swissholm says that she has never worn a bonnet that cost so much as four dollars; and will not be troubled with a new one every winter, or even a re-trimming every fall, for the sake of being leader of the ton in the largest circle in the city.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 27, 1855.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

THE SOUTH BERWICK MURDERER.

ALFRED, ME., Jan. 25, 1855.

William B. Smith, of whose examination before a Justice at South Berwick, you published an extended report a few months since, was arraigned before the Supreme Judicial Court holden at Alfred, this week, charged with the murder of Charles F. Brewster, at South Berwick, in the summer of 1834. State Attorney Geo. Evans, with County Attorney Ira T. Drew, and Justice Abner Oakes of So. Berwick, appeared for the State; Messrs. Thos. M. Hayes and Wiggin of Saco worked well for the defence.

Mr. Hayes made an able plea; Mr. Evans the closing argument,—a strong one. Judge Shepley made a brief and affecting charge to the Jury. The Jury were out about two hours, and brought in a verdict of Guilty of Murder in the first degree. The prisoner was sentenced to one year's imprisonment, and then subject to be hung at the order of the Governor, agreeably to the laws of Maine.

Smith being asked if he had any reason to offer why sentence should not be passed upon him, replied that he did not murder Brewster, though he knew all about it—that he could not swear as to who did do it, although he had some of Brewster's clothes in his possession. The popular verdict will agree with that of the jury. Yours, W. A. C.

REFORM SCHOOL LEGACY.

Messrs. Editors:—We would call the attention of the public to the following item taken from the Manchester Mirror:

"It is understood that Mr. I. McK. Williams, of this city, who was buried yesterday, has left his property by will, in the following manner:—$12,000 to his relatives; $1000 to two Benevolent Societies in New York, $500 each; the remainder of it, about $35,000, to a State Reform School in this State, provided it shall go into operation in five years—otherwise to the two Benevolent Societies."

Shall we by delay, lose the benefit of this legacy, when a Reform School is so much needed? Y.

SOME MISTAKES.—The Legislature of Massachusetts have before them two propositions, one to repeal the law against Extra Judicial Oaths, and the other to enquire "into the expediency of forbidding any person, by law, from teaching a private school until he or she has been first examined and approved by the public school committee, and of giving public school committees the power to visit private schools to ascertain whether the studies therein are such as to meet the demand of a common school education."

The enquiry should be answered with a decisive No. A law for public inspectors of private schools, would be about as wise, and about as effectual, as the law against private oaths.

Both seem to us absurd and silly.

FRENCH SPOLIATIONS.—If Mr. Benton is correctly reported, his speech in the House, on the subject of French Spoliations, does him no more credit than his speech upon the repeal of the Nebraska Bill, in which he justified the incursion of the Missourians, (who went to Kansas merely for the purpose of voting, and then returned home again,) by citing the example of the New England colonists, who went there to settle the country. Benton professed to consider these as parallel cases. The knavishness of this plea is apparent to every man of sense. On the subject of spoliations, Mr. Benton is reported as saying, with a similar disregard of common sense, "that our commerce did not suffer during the French revolution. It was, on the contrary, most prosperous during that period."

Such talk is worthy only of Bedlam. What would be said of an insurance company, which should refuse paying for damage by fire, according to its promise, on the plea that fires had been remarkably scarce, and that therefore the policy-holder could not have suffered? What would be thought if the Government should refuse to pay for horses or other property taken for warlike purposes, on the plea that but few horses were taken; a large majority were unmolested—on the whole, horses were never more safe from molestation, and therefore the claim is a knavish one.

Mr. Benton also opposed the bill "as being a game of the claims agents who throng the doors of the capitol."

Was there ever a flimsier objection to a bill than this? The United States Government refuses for fifty years to pay an honest debt which it has solemnly agreed to pay, and for which it long ago had received a consideration, and then when the wronged and despairing creditors employ agents to collect their dues, Mr. Benton coolly scoffs at the claim as a game of the agents. If the claims were actually in the hands of speculators who had bought them of the original holders, the justice of the case is such that the government ought still to pay them. But Mr. Benton is as ignorant of the facts as he is absurd in his argument. The claims are still held by the descendants of the original creditors, some of whom to our personal knowledge are suffering from poverty, which the payment of what the government clearly owes them would at once relieve.—Eve. Telegraph.

BUFFALO, Jan, 20.—The rioters on the Buffalo and Brantford Railroad have ceased their operations on being assured that they have legal redress for their arrears of wages.

DANGERS OF THE SEA.—The greatest cause of danger seems to be outrageous carelessness. Witness the following statement: Ship Young Brander, Hamilton, at Liverpool of and from New Orleans, which was in contact with the iron screw steamer Pacific, off Tuskar, was struck in the fore channels, cutting the ship from the water up to five planks on deck; carried away mizzen topmast, back lanyard, and main brace. Eight timbers were stove in, and all the thick work and water ways between decks, and from 40 to 50 knees were broken, starting almost every butt in the ship. The iron cut water of the steamer, weighing about two tons, was driven clean through the side of the ship till it reached the cargo of cotton bales, when it broke and remained hanging to the vessel after the collision. It is said to have been one of the most severe collisions that ever occurred, as the steamer was going 13 knots when she struck the ship. Capt. Hamilton had a good light on the bowsprit end and another over the port side, and a man on the lookout besides, who hailed the steamer, warning her to keep off. It would cost from 3,000 to £4000 to put the ship in as good order as before the collision, and the captain had sued the steamer for damages. The same steamer was afterwards in contact with a barque, and had to put into Liverpool for repairs. Capt. Hamilton writes "great credit is due my first officer, Mr Sparrow, and the carpenter, for their perseverance over the ship's side in the night in getting canvas and battens over the holes—also to the other officers and crew in getting sail off the ship. Every order given was promptly obeyed"

THE POOR OF NEW YORK.—The unemployed poor of New York continue daily to congregate in the Park. On Thursday one of the "scrub" orators who harangue these assemblages was accused by a person in the crowd of insincerity and laziness, to which the speaker replied indignantly, and offered to go to work at once. No sooner said than done—the man in the crowd immediately employed the orator to carry bricks from one side of the Park to the other. The orator took off his coat, and, cheered by a large crowd, worked diligently for an hour and a half, received fifty cents, and declared himself ready for another job.

The receipts of the "Calico Party" given by Mrs. Coman, in the clothes worn on that occasion, amounted to about $1,500.

The Twelfth Regiment, which musters six hundred men, has been ordered to hold itself in readiness to put down any disturbances which may arise from the daily congregation of the working men. Although the orators use strong language, no actual riotous demonstration appears to be anticipated.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The Pacific Railroad bill, after assuming various shapes in House of Representatives at Washington, and after having passed that body and been reconsidered once or twice, has finally been stored away again in the hands of a special committee where it will undoubtedly remain until the present Congress expires.

The contest over the bill, last Monday, was rather ludicrous. Two or three hours were spent in taking the yeas and nays on motions, the effect of which nobody understood; then the bill was passed, ayes 109, noes 97, providing for the Grand Trunk, with bifurcations North and South, comprising about 4,000 miles of single track, and granting 30,720,000 acres of land in aid of the work. Then a motion to reconsider the passage prevailed—ayes 100, noes 94—and finally the status quo ante lite was restored, by referring the whole affair back to the committee with whom it originated. On Tuesday, a motion to reconsider this motion was laid on the table, and thus the matter was completely disposed of. It cannot come before the House again until that committee reports it; that is to say it is dead and will not be heard of again.

THE "OLD FOLKS" IN TROY.—The old people are certainly waking up. In Troy, N. Y., they have just had a concert, of which the Traveller speaks in the following glowing language:

The Old Folks' Concert last evening attracted a large audience, and was listened to with intense satisfaction. Large numbers from Albany and the various towns in this vicinity were present.

The exercises were entirely in character, and the common effort to present to the minds of the moderns, an idea of the old style of church music, was in the highest degree successful. The arrangement of the singers, as well as the parts to be performed, was after the manner of our grandfathers and grandmothers. The "Old Folks" were placed in front, and to the ladies were assigned the parts in singing, which according to modern rules, are appropriated by gentlemen. The tunes sung were the more celebrated of old times,—such as Amity, New Jerusalem, Old Hundred, Heavenly Vision, &c.

The whole performance was admirably done.

TEMPORAL POWER OF THE POPE.—The Metropolitan Catholic Almanac, for 1855, mentions, among the list of "Prelates who have retired from office," the Right Rev. Frederick Reze, Bishop of Detroit, consecrated Oct. 6, 1833. This calls to recollection a most shameful act of injustice and barbarity towards this gentleman, for the perpetration of which Rome would have been called to account by any other government in Christendom, had he been its citizen. Bishop Reze is a citizen of the State of Michigan, and yet he has been for years incarcerated in a Roman dungeon, without any one knowing why.—Congress has demanded his release; his old fellow citizens of Detroit, who love him, have implored it, and the Representatives of the United States at Rome have asked it, but all in vain. An American citizen is immured in a Papist dungeon, because the Pope holds authority over his life and limb, and no threats or persuasions can effect his release. The American party will have to do it, by contract, one of these days. As true as the sun rises on the 4th of March, 1857, and an American President is inaugurated, these disgraces will be wiped from the record of our history. —Bee.

TRENTON, N. J., Jan, 25.—The prohibitory liquor law passed the House of Representatives this morning by a vote of 35 to 22. It is doubtful if the bill will pass the Senate.

OLD PAPERS.

At a late Printer's Festival in the City of Manchester, Chandler E. Potter, Esq., gave some interesting statements, relating to the Newspapers and Periodicals which have been published in New Hampshire.

Among these statements we notice some errors in relation to papers published in this city, and to their editors. Mr. Potter says:

The next paper was a Magazine published at Portsmouth, in April, 1805, monthly I presume, by W. & D. Treadwell. I don't learn that more than one number was ever published. It was a religious paper, and the first one published in the country devoted exclusively to religious topics. Its title was "The Piscataqua Evangelical Magazine."

This Magazine was published under the direction of the ministers of the Piscataqua Association, and its profits, which were considerable, were applied to support domestic missions.

We have the first volume, complete, and three or four more, incomplete. The Magazine was printed about two years by the Treadwells, and two more by Cushing of Amherst; so that it lived at least four years, instead of being only a single number. It was not as Mr. Potter supposes, a monthly, but was published once in two months. He says further—

This Magazine was followed May 3, 1805, by "The Christian's Magazine," Reviewer and Religious Intelligencer. Rev. Elias Smith of Portsmouth, was editor and publisher, although it was printed I think at Exeter. It was a duodecimo of thirty six pages, printed monthly, but I believe never was published beyond the eighth number. It was a duodecimo of thirty six pages, printed monthly, but I believe never was published beyond the eighth number. It was devoted to Elder Smith's peculiar religious views, then Free Will Baptist, and was a spirited and pithy paper.

Elias Smith was never a Free Will Baptist. He was first a Baptist, and the Society founded here by him, was incorporated as a Baptist Society. Afterwards he was one of the founders of the Christian Societies.

Mr. Potter has a memorandum on the "Concord Observer."

April, 1822, the Observer passed into the hands of John W. Shepherd, and its name was changed to the "New Hampshire Repository." The Repository was published at Portsmouth for a time, where Mr. Shepherd had a bookstore.

Mr. John W. Shepard did buy the Observer in 1822, and did have a bookstore in Portsmouth several years afterwards; not however, we believe, till about 1830. He never published the Repository in Portsmouth at all; but sold it, in 1826, to John M. Putnam at Concord; Mr. Putnam sold it in 1827 to T. H. Miller of Portsmouth, who published it here till 1831, when it was removed back to Concord, and conveyed to [Gov. David L.] Morrill & Mr. Chadwick.

None of these errors are very essential; but they seem to us worth correcting.

☞ Much interest was manifested in the "Old Folks' Concerts" here, by persons out of the city. Many came, from far and near, to attend—among the rest, one old gentleman from Pembroke, N. H., in whom the frosts of more than eighty winters have not so cooled the musical ardor, as to prevent his coming forty miles to be present.

For the accommodation of applicants and inquirers, we would state that copies of the beautiful "Song of the Old Folks," written for the Concert by "A. L," the words printed in with the music,—may be had of Mr. Joseph H. Foster in this city.

SPIRITUALISM.—Hon. Warren Chase, of Wisconsin, will deliver a lecture this evening at the Temple, on the subject of Spiritualism, commencing at 7 o'clock.

He will also lecture on Sunday and Monday evenings. See advertisement.

☞ The Odd Fellows Levee came off in good style on Thursday evening. About 120 couples participated, many of whom danced until a late hour on Friday morning.

☞ At the Whig Convention, held in Epping, on Tuesday, the 23d, William Kent was nominated for Councillor, J. Hamilton Shapley for Register of Deeds, Wm. Crawford Sandown for Treasurer, and Thomas J. Melvin of Chester for Senator for No. 2.

A FLASH IN THE PAN.—It will be seen by reference to the returns made by the grand jury, that no bill was found against any of the persons bound over by the Police Court to answer the charge of riot preferred against them for alleged participation in the affair with Asa O. Butman, last fall. The three colored men Dutton, Hemmenway, and Angier, Jr., were indicted for a simple assault, to which they plead not guilty, and all the others were discharged.—Worcester Spy.

MAUCH CHUNK, Jan, 25.—A New Brunswick coal boat caught fire at the wharf last night, and the captain and his son, being drunk in the cabin at the time, perished, their bodies being burned to a crisp before they could be got at.

BANGOR, Jan. 25.—The new brig Fannie Butler, built and owned by Timothy Crosby, Esq., of Bangor, left Owls Head Jan. 2, and arrived at Havana on the 10th, making the run from land to land in six days.

"Old Folks."

A FULL attendance of the Members of the "Old Folks" Choir, is requested at Exchange Hall, THIS EVENING, Jan. 27, to hear the Report of the Committee—agreeably to adjournment.

Per order of the Committee.

MEN WHO ARE MEN.

Among the diseases this Pill has cured with astonishing rapidity, we may mention

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the Blood and stimulating the System, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach: such as Deafness, partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstructions of its functions. They are the best Purgative Medicine ever discovered, and you will but need to use them once to know it.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the EXTENSION DINING TABLES of different sizes; MARBLE TOP CENTRE TABLES; and a large assortment of FRENCH SOFAS AND CHAIRS, covered with plush or silk damask—or the BLACK WALNUT AND MAHOGANY SOFAS, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of furniture. Or you may be well rested in the CANE SEATED CHAIRS, with or without rockers.

These FIXGERAS, as the French call them, or WHAT NOTS as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those UMBRELLA STANDS, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of ELEGANT CHAMBER SETS, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the LOOKING GLASS, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, Jan. 25.

SENATE.—Mr. Cooper of Pennsylvania addressed the Senate in support of his convict and pauper resolution, and was followed by Mr. Brodhead of Pennsylvania, who offered an amendment that secret political organizations are repugnant to republican institutions and subversive of the liberties of the people.

Mr. Weller, of California, offered his resolution in amendment, declaring free speech and open discussion essential to republican liberty, and the abrogation of religious tests for office are constitutional provisions, and expressive of the sentiments of the American people.

After a few remarks from Messrs. Bayard, and Clayton, of Delaware, the further consideration of Mr. Cooper's resolution was postponed, and the Army Appropriation bill was taken up.

The bill was considered at some length, and pending the debate, the Senate adjourned, Mr. Houston obtaining the floor.

HOUSE.—Mr. Chandler of Pennsylvania failed in an effort to call up the resolution in relation to the relief of Dr. Kane.

The House went into Committee of the Whole on the French Spoliation bill.

The debate upon the bill was continued by Messrs. Phelps of Missippi, Orr of South Carolina, Phillips of Alabama, Millson and Bayley of Virginia.

Mr. Bayley of Virginia closed the general debate and answered at length the objections made to the bill.

Without proceeding further, the committee rose and the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The Star intimates that Lieut. Hunter, commanding U. S. brig Bainbridge, cut short his cruise in consequence of a disagreement with the commander of the Brazil squadron, and took the responsibility of coming home without orders.

The American organ denies the report that a nomination has been made by the Virginia Know Nothings, and says a nomination will ere long be made by a convention of the party.

It commenced snowing this evening, and the prospects are of a heavy fall.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The friends of the French Spoliation bill are much encouraged, and it seems now quite certain that the measure will pass by from twenty to thirty majority. There is, however, considerable apprehension that it may be vetoed, in which I do not share.

It is said that a dispatch, received from England, gives as the reason why Great Britain sent a large naval force to Greytown, not long since, was he newspaper understanding that Capt. Hollins was to be sent back there to settle accounts with the people of that town.

The time is believed to be approaching when the secrets of the Ostend Conference will be revealed. Mark me when I tell you that nobody has yet published anything approximating to a true statement of the recommendation made by the Conference..

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 25.—Mr Sampson, ex-County Treasurer, has been acquitted in the criminal suit against him for embezzlement.

Miss Louisa Bradley, of this city, made a fine balloon ascension this morning, from Easton. She ascended to a great height, when the balloon burst and she came down very fast, but she safely landed about four miles from Easton, the collapsed balloon forming a sort of parachute. The excitement was intense until word came that she was uninjured.

PORTSMOUTH

ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND

EXHIBITION AND DISTRIBUTION OF PICTURES,

In consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who had tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture.—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—

varying in price

From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle;) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and

P. WENZEL, Congress St.

Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 19, '55.

P. S.—Persons out of the place, may secure Tickets by enclosing the money in a letter, prepaid. j19 1mtf

MISPRINTS.—Upwards of thirty years' experience in connection with the press has taught me to be very lenient towards "misprints;" I like this English word better than "errata," and, although I flatter myself that my penmanship is quite equal to that of the average of the correspondents of "N. & Q," I will not blame either the compositor or the reader. The difficulty of detecting typographical errors is much greater than the uninitiated are inclined to believe; and I have often observed that, if the spelling be correct, a wrong word is very apt to remain undetected. Perhaps it may amuse some of the readers of "N. & Q." if I cite two singular misprints which have recently come under my own notice. In Shakspeare's Merchant of Venice, Act III., Scene 2, Portia speaks of

"—— young Alcides, when he did redeem
The virgin-tribute paid by howling Troy."

In an edition now before me, it is printed "howling Tory." In a short biographical notice of Pope, which I compiled for an edition of his poems, I briefly enumerated his prose works, amongst which I named his "Memoirs of a Parish Priest." When the proof came before me, I found that the compositor had set it "Memoirs of a Paint Brush."—Notes and Queries.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, as well as the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party per agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local Interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
70 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others), will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in United States and foreign countries prepared; and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY
FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. Extensively tested and approved in New England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men,—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr. LYMAN BEECHER, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. LEONARD WOODS, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. DANIEL P. THOMPSON, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. WILLIAMS, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. JOSIAH LITCH, Philadelphia,—and many others.

HOW ESTEEMED BY PHYSICIANS.—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM is best, and I hope will be better known and more generally used."

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations!! Enquire for the article by its WHOLE NAME, "VEGETABLE PUMONARY BALSAM."

Prepared only by REED, CUTLER & CO., Druggists, 33 India street, Boston, Mass., and sold by Apothecaries and Country Merchants generally. Price, New Style, large bottles, containing nearly four times the quantity of the small, $1. Old Style, small bottles, 50 cents.

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, without the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, and usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLOOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GRAY, 88 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and had last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

New Light and more Light.
PATENT SMOKE-BURNING
OIL LAMP!

THIS newly invented Lamp, is differently constructed from any other, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons:—

It requires only the Poorest Oil, Lard, Tallow or Grease; and with the same material, produced FOUR OR FIVE TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT As ANY other known Lamp. It is simple in its construction (consequently not liable to get out of order.) By its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of Light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.

Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

Morning Chronicle.

THIEF CAUGHT.—The Chicago Tribune says that in Chicago a few days ago a young German who rented a small house from a countryman of his, found that a theif had been at his wood pile in the night, and carried off every stick of wood. He speedily replenished his stock of fuel, and loading an old pistol with a heavy charge of powder and a thick paper wad, ingeniously fixed it in such a position that the opening of the door would cause it to be discharged. The very night after he had arranged his thief detector, he was aroused by the report of the pistol. Rushing to the woodshed he found there lying upon the ground, groaning and bleeding, his own landlord, worth thousands of dollars! The wad had slightly cut his face, and he thought himself mortally wounded. After being assisted to his feet, and enlightened as to the extent of his wound, he expressed himself heartily ashamed of his conduct, and promised to make abundant retribution for his former theft.

DENMARK.—Copenhagen, Jan. 6.—The American Demonstration to exempt the ships of the United States from the payment of the Sound dues, in future, is likely to lead to more serious complications than were at first anticipated. Fears are beginning to be felt in certain quarters, of Brother Jonathan fulfilling his threat of sending a squadron of ships-of-war to convoy their merchant ships through the Sound without paying the toll, and steps are taken in a quiet manner to meet the emergency. Some guns of heavy calibre, which have been lying unmounted for many years on the ramparts of the citadel, have been taken to Elsineur, and mounted there so as to command any ships passing the Sound, while the garrison has been increased by a couple of hundred artillery men.

THE TALLEST YET.—The tallest person ever before the Boston Police Court for drunkenness, was up on Thursday morning, and answered to the name of Robert Emery. He stood six feet nine and a half inches in his stockings. Emery stated that he was a long way from home, having come from the State of New Hampshire into the State of Massachusetts, where he unintentionally got into the state of intoxication. The officer who arrested Emery stated that he could not swear that he was "drunk clean through." He was fined $3 and costs.—Boston Journal.

COIN SWALLOWED.—The Boston Bee says—"A gentleman connected with one of the weekly presses of this city, while reclining upon a sofa, a few days since, having a half dollar piece in his mouth, the coin slipped into his throat, and thence made a passage to his stomach, where it now remains. As yet it has caused no other sensation than a slight decrease of appetite. The gentleman is medically advised to give himself no mental trouble, which he need not do on the score that the money is not safe."

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—A "People's Convention" of those opposed to slavery, in the third Congressional district of New Hampshire, is to be holden at West Lebanon, on the 8th of February, to nominate a candidate for member of Congress. The Know Nothing candidate is Mr. Cragin of Lebanon, an anti-slavery Whig, and the Democratic candidate is William P. Wheeler, of Keene.

Mr Benjamin Hayward, who had been for some time in a state of deep despondency, laboring under the idea that all the family were coming to absolute starvation, on Thursday noon of last week, committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor, severing the jugular vein, without, however, touching the windpipe. He resided in Southbridge.

The late James McBride, of New York, bequeathed $500 each to fifteen benevolent and charitable institutions, mostly located in the city of New York.

Hon. Gerrit Smith has written a sensible letter to his successor in congress, Hon. H. C. Goodwin, urging him to advocate the bill for the relief of the sufferers by French spoliations.

We think congress should now pass this bill, and relieve the nation from the disgrace of further delay in the performance of a mere act of equity.—Boston Post.

CAPT. GIBSON.—This notorious individual turns out to be a humbug, by his own showing. His claim against the government of the Netherlands is worthless. Whatever punishment he received at the hands of the Dutch Indian government was deserved.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, JANUARY 29, 1855.

MILITARY LAW.

Some lawyers keep posted up in legal and constitutional changes; others do not.—Among the latter, we must now, to our great surprise, reckon Major (we beg pardon, Colonel) Benjamin Butler of Lowell, Mass., who being a lawyer as well as a soldier, refused to obey Gov. Gardner's order to disband one of his companies. It now appears, by the following article from the Boston Daily Advertiser, that the Colonel himself will probably be disbanded, or dismounted, or something of the sort: so that he will wake up some fine morning and find himself no colonel at all.

Perhaps if he had been a better lawyer, he might have been a soldier still.

There appears to be a general impression that the refusal of Col. B. F. Butler of Lowell, to obey the order of Gov. Gardner as Commander-in-Chief of the militia, in relation to the disbanding of certain companies in his regiment, would necessitate the foolish ceremony of a militia court-martial, from which an appeal to the Supreme Judicial Court might be taken, and that the affair would thus give rise to protracted legal proceedings.

We imagine that a much more summary way will be adopted of disposing of the lawyer-colonel's opposition. The Constitution of Massachusetts provides that "all officers commissioned to command in the militia may be removed from office in such manner as the Legislature may, by law, prescribe." This judicious provision was introduced by the wisdom of the Convention of 1820, affirmed by the vote of the people, in modification of the original provisions of the Constitution, which provided that militia officers should not be removed except by court martial; or by the Governor, upon address of the Legislature.

Under the authority of this provision of the Constitution, the legislature have laid down the rules for regulating such removals under the head "How Officers are discharged," in the Revised Statutes, Chapter 12, §§67 74.—It is therein provided that the Commander-in-Chief may discharge officers in certain cases; but no officer shall be discharged unless upon his own request; except with the advice and consent of the Council, upon the petition of one or more of his superior officers. There are also other provisions, not however applying in the present case.

We presume therefore that Major-General Sutton of the Second Division, who is Col. Butler's superior officer, will request the Governor to discharge him from the service. The Council will doubtless advise and consent to the granting of the request, and the Colonel will be removed at once.

CAUSE AND EFFECT.

Nature is ever telling her votaries to study the great principles of cause and effect.

All her lessons are of this character. The world originated from this principle, is upheld and sustained in all her operations by causes and effects. The philosopher sees it everywhere in the natural world.

All nature lives and all mankind witnesses that cause and effect is the moving arm of nature. Let the one cease the other is unmoved. No power remains. Cause is the God of Heaven and earth.

When Heaven speaks in thunder the cause is a part of God. When the daylight creeps over the ocean the cause is a part of God. When the daylight leaves the earth, and the night is moulded in darkness, and the stars look down upon us from their deep abode, telling the child of God and man, of life in God, then it is, that the philosopher sees God the moving power of everything.

The student cannot lift a thought to Heaven without feeling that the first and last principle of nature is cause and effect.

That cause and effect is the moving power of all things, nature is always reminding us. The human system is the microscopic world of this principle. Every movement speaks of a cause. There is in the human system every thing of cause and effect appertaining to the natural world. When the night awakens the dormant energies of nature, it tells us of a power, though silent, yet powerful. When the day speaks to us in the daylight of Heaven, it tells of a power intangible but not inoperative.

RAILWAY STATION.—A new building is now going up in Portland, to be used as the passenger station of the Grand Trunk Railway. It is 444 feet long, and 96 feet wide. The walls are 30 feet high; and the skylight, running the whole length, in the middle of the roof, is to be 56 feet from the ground.—The walls are of brick, and as there are four walls, running lengthwise, the building is in three distinct divisions. In the middle division, the trains will pass and repass. The others are for offices of all sorts connected with the road; for refreshment rooms, pantries, kitchens, laundries, &c.

The building uses up 1,750,000 bricks, 11,000 cubic feet granite, 400,000 feet lumber. The roof is to be slated, and measures 450 squares.

The roof window, which lights the centre or train compartment, is composed of 520 glass pannels, 8 feet long by 17 inches wide.

The external windows for lighting the several rooms, contain 2000 lights of glass, varying in size from 12 by 16 to 18 by 26 inches.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Mr. Editor:—I have seen in your paper, an article in relation to a new room for the High School for girls. I think one is needed for each department, both boys and girls. We also need a City Hall that would seat two thousand five hundred persons. Now, if our city fathers would make the present court house two stories high, it would accommodate both departments of the High School. Then have the ground divided by a high and strong fence, so that the girls could occupy one side and the boys the other side. Then we should be provided with good and capacious high school rooms. Then the city should build a city hall in some suitable place, (perhaps on Daniel street, near the Post office, or on State street, where Mr. Sides' stable is, or on the corner of Islington and Bridge streets, indeed there are numerous places suitable, and owners of them probably would be competitors to see who should have it on their lot,) sufficiently large to seat 2,500 persons. Then we should have suitable accommodations for any mass meetings, levees, Fairs, Lyceums, &c. Then it would be unnecessary to have more than one Lyceum in a season, because all who wish could attend at the same time, (and we have no hall that will accommodate them now,) and with as large a Lyceum as we could get up here, we could afford to have all of our lectures from the best and most distinguished men in the country. A building for a City Hall should contain rooms for Aldermen, Common Council, City Clerk, Police Court, County and U. S. Courts, &c. The lot and building would cost $25,000. The city are paying rents of $200 for city rooms, U. S. are paying $300 to city for the use of court house. These two amounts would pay the interest of more than $8,000. The City Hall would rent well for a variety of purposes.

Then the County should do something towards a new house so as to have a good and capacious accommodation, not only for the court, bar, jurors, but also for witnesses and others who wish to listen to legal proceedings. The County a long time since had an old court house on the parade. In 1837, at the request of the town of P. it was taken away, and the city has furnished the county with a court room ever since, free of rent.

It seems to me that the County ought not to have a court room free, for all time, for that old shell of a building, that would have had to be built nearly all over new a long time since, if it had remained on the parade for the use of the County.

I hope our city authority will take hold of this subject immediately, for the honor and convenience of the city of Portsmouth. Our city authorities should move in this matter soon, and choose a committee to confer with the County Convention to be holden in Concord in June, during the sitting of the next legislature. I have no doubt that the members of this County Convention will see the justice and propriety of the County's aid in erecting such a building as is mentioned above. It has been done in Dover, Exeter and Concord.

POVERTY AND ALMS.

An old man dressed in a light colored coat, calling himself by different names and telling different stories, has, within the last ten or fifteen days been calling from door to door soliciting charity, and has been quite successful.

He has been directed by several persons to call on the City Missionary, but he never came, and for the best of reasons,—he could do better elsewhere. The city missionary would doubtless have given him a good dinner, inquired his whereabouts and would have sent him off where he belongs, and would not have given him a three cent piece to have got drunk upon. He might have expended upon the worthless vagabond, in food and travelling fare, a half dollar or perhaps a dollar, and this would have been all that was expended upon him. But the miserable old man doubtless collected from five to ten dollars, and spent most of it in a way which only made him more miserable. When will our citizens learn wisdom in regard to charities? We have many persons in our city that are suffering for shoes and clothing. We have the suffering poor that are sick: we have some, no doubt, that are suffering for food. The city missionary occasionally finds such.

We would not hinder any one from being charitable, but we would have charity bestowed in such a way that the receiver would be benefited instead of being made more miserable. There are several ways in which this can be done.

1. Whatever you have to bestow, if not more than ninepence, send it to the City Missionary, who will be happy to be your almoner, or

2. Call on the City Missionary and learn where your charities are needed, and then call on the family yourself, and if you find it in the condition that it is represented to be, supply the wants.

3. If you have time, go about and look up cases of destitution and suffering, and relieve them.

The first mentioned plan will generally be most convenient for the majority of persons. The second plan is best for those who have the leisure. The third plan would be best of all, if the destitute thus found could be reported at the office of the City Missionary, so that it might be known if the wants of the family had been fully met. All cases of supposed suffering should be reported, either to the Overseers of the Poor, or to the City Missionary.

The community must not forget that if they expect the City Missionary to aid the poor, they must supply the means. He is now quite out of funds, and has been obliged to expend considerable out of his own pocket, to prevent severe suffering, and unless funds are immediately sent in, he will be obliged to refer all cases of suffering to the Overseers of the poor.

A.

SPIRITUALISM.—Hon. Mr. Chase, of Wisconsin, delivered a lecture on the subject of Spiritualism, on Saturday evening, and another on Sunday evening. Last evening his particular subject was the Religion of Spiritualism. The speaker did not consider the subject as a theory to believe; with him it was a demonstrated fact. This being the case, he contended that these phenomena—the result of natural laws—offered palpable evidence of the truths of the bible; answered affirmatively and directly, the question, if we die, shall we live again? He argued from this that the clergy should aid in the advancement of the good work; and that they would take hold, but from the fact that a general belief of the theory would destroy all sects and unite the human race in one bond of brotherhood.

Mr. Chase is a rapid but not unpleasing speaker, and was listened to with attention by a large audience. He lectures again this evening.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE.

We cannot answer orders for our cheap Weekly, unless accompanied with the money to pay therefor—especially when the papers are to be sent out of the city, as most of them are. $1 a year is not too much for the paper itself, without having the trouble and expense of collecting subscriptions in any way. Our patrons at home and abroad, whose subscriptions may have run out, will please bear in mind, that the terms for our Weekly issue are "$1 per year in advance;" for the Daily "$4 per year, or $3 in advance."

BILLS OF MORTALITY IN RYE.—The number of deaths in Rye for fourteen moths prior to July 26, 1736, were forty-four—34 being under 10 yrs. of age—2 between 10 and 20 yrs, and one over 40 yrs.

The number during the sixteen years prior to 1801, were 171; of whom 96 were adults, and 75 were children.

In 1788, there were 17 deaths, of which 6 were adults, and 11 children.

For fifty years previous to 1855, the number of deaths have been 948; averaging 18 24-25ths yearly. The largest number that ever died in the town in any one year was 35, in 1803.

The least number in any one year during the last fifty years, was in 1814, being only 9. No account of the number in 1801 or 1802.—In 1804 there were 20 deaths.

Of those who have died within the last 20 years, nearly 100 were under 10 years of age; about 50 between 70 and 80; 50 between 80 and 90; 5 over 90, and 1 over 100. Upwards of 1000 have died within the last 52 years.

For the Chronicle.

Messrs. Editors:—I have seen in the papers lately, a letter addressed to Lieut. Maury, requesting him to make a chart showing a track for steamers to and from this country and Europe. Being a nautical man I would suggest the following:

Take a blank chart and write on it as follows:—Keep a bright look out fore and aft, by night and by day. Have the lead and line where the officer of the deck can put his hand on them at any moment. On passing Newfoundland on the western passage, give the southern part a berth of fifty miles at least. With all these precautions, accidents and hair breadth escapes will happen, and I never once laid any blame to Capt. Luce.

About thirty years since, I had a hair-breadth escape, myself. I was in the English Channel, about abreast Dover, in a deeply loaded ship bound to Holland. About 11 o'clock in the night, blowing hard from the westward, raining and very dark, a large light ship on the wind, standing to the southward, got so near before we saw each other, that had I been once the length of my ship astern, she would have struck us on the side, and probably sunk us in a short time. When this ship crossed our stern, I could have thrown a biscuit on her deck. As it was, we continued on our way, rejoicing to think we escaped a watery grave.

THE VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM, for Coughs, Colds and Consumption, is not one of those ephemeral nostrums that are forgotten the same year they are born. A reputation of over twenty years' standing and an increasing popularity is pretty good evidence of its value.—Independent Democrat and Freeman, N. H. (See advertisement in another column.) 2w J25

PILLS THAT ARE PILLS!

PROF. HAYES, State Chemist of Massachusetts, says they are the best of all PILLS, and annexed are the men who certify that Doct. Hayes knows, viz:—

LEMUEL SHAW, Ch. Justice Supreme Court of MASS.
EMORY WASHBURN, Governor of Mass.
W. C. PLUNKETT, Lieut. Gov. of MASS.
EDWARD EVERETT, Ex-Sec. of State and US Senator.
ROBERT C. WINTHROP, Ex-Speaker House Rep. U.S.
ABBOT LAWRENCE, Minister Plenipo. to Gt. Britain;
†JOHN B. FITZPATRICK, Catholic Bishop of Boston;

MEN WHO ARE MEN.

Among the diseases this Pill has cured with astonishing rapidity, we may mention

Costiveness, Bilious Complaints, Rheumatism, Dropsy, Heartburn, Headache arising from a foul Stomach, Nausea, Indigestion, Morbid Inaction of the Bowels and pain arising therefrom, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, all Ulcerous and Cutaneous Diseases which require an evacuant Medicine, Scrofula or King's Evil. They also, by purifying the Blood and stimulating the System, cure many complaints which it would not be supposed they could reach: such as Deafness, partial Blindness, Neuralgia and Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Liver and Kidneys, Gout, and other kindred complaints arising from a low state of the body or obstructions of its functions. They are the best Purgative Medicine ever discovered, and you will but need to use them once to know it.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m n30d&w

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, Jan. 25.

SENATE.—To day was a private bill day by unanimous consent. A motion was made to introduce necessary public business, but the president denied his consent.

HOUSE.—Mr. Fuller of Maine, offered a joint resolution that the President be authorized to terminate treaties of reciprocity, navigation and commerce, in certain cases. Passed. The French Spoliation bill was discussed in Committee, and all amendments rejected. Without concluding the subject, the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26, 1855.—Lieutenant Alvarade Hunter will be immediately brought before a court martial, it met peremptorily stricken from the rolls of the Navy, for bringing home the brig Bainbridge without orders. The executive is very justly indignant at his conduct.

Instead of the four new regiments that have been recommended, it is now proposed to raise two new equipments of infantry and one of mounted rangers, to be permanently attached to the army,—the rangers to serve against the Indians, and to protect the overland emigrants. Cor. Boston Daily Advertiser.

VERDICTS AGAINST A RAILROAD CORPORATION.—The Worcester Spy reports two cases recently decided in the Court of Common Pleas, in that place, Judge Eyington presiding, in which juries have awarded damages against the Western Railroad Corporation. The first case, Mellen vs. the Corporation, was an action for damages caused by obstructing the water of Quaboag River by a railroad bridge in West Brookfield; the verdict was for the plaintiff with $608 damages. In the other case, Miss Ellen Baldwin, of Spencer, recovered nearly five thousand dollars, ($4,946.93) in consideration of injuries received on the 27th of February, 1854, when a locomotive backing down the track came in contact at a road-crossing with a wagon in which she and her brother were driving. In relation to the injuries alleged to have been received by the plaintiff, who is a girl of 19, it was testified that they were of such a nature as to have made an invalid of her, confining her most of the time to her bed, up to the present time, with the prospect of its continuing through life in consequence of injury to the spine. The trial lasted about seven days. Both cases were managed by Charles Allen and B. F. Hyde for plaintiff, and by Nathaniel Wood and Ancel Phelps, jr. for defendants.

In Caswell county, N. C., William Sawyer, without provocation, deliberately shot a man by the name of Henry Bray, killing him almost instantly. Bray had been at the house of Sawyer helping him to kill hogs, and after the work was finished, at Sawyer's solicitation he remained all night. Sometime during the night Sawyer had a difficulty with his wife and commenced whipping her. Bray hearing the noise started to get up, when Sawyer took up his gun and deliberately shot him down. Sawyer has thus far eluded every effort to arrest him.

HEALTH OF MR. MASON.—The New York Tribune has the following from a special correspondent at Paris:—

It is with great satisfaction that I am this week enabled to report a marked improvement in the condition of Mr. Mason's health. The prospect of a complete recovery from his late dangerous attack is now altogether probable. It is not anticipated, however, that he will again resume the duties of his office. In the meantime, Mr. Piatt has been recognized by the French Government as Charge d'Affaires, and Mr. John B. Wilbor, Jr., and Mr. Byron Kirby have been appointed attaches.

IDOLS TO ORDER.—The following is said to be a literal translation of a Chinese advertisement: "I will execute to order idols from two feet high to the size of a marmoset monkey, or the biggest and most hideous monster that can inspire the human mind with awe and reverence for religion. If the idol is the size of an orang outang the price will be $700; one of a sphinx size will be turned out for $400; one the size of a bull dog with horns and hump $650; a buffalo size $800; a dog size $200, and the size of an ass in the attitude of braying $1000."

DEATH OF MR. SEVERANCE.—The Hon. Luther Severance, long and favorably known as the able editor of the Kennebec Journal, and subsequently Commissioner of the U. S. to the Sandwich Islands, died in Augusta, Me., on Thursday evening. The cause of his death was a cancer with which he had been afflicted for many years.

The Washington Star says that private advices received from Havana to the 21st inst., represent the Cubans as being highly excited and joining the revolutionary cause, because the Cortes refuse to sell the Island to the United States. A serious outbreak was expected.

ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND

EXHIBITION AND DISTRIBUTION

OF

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their dresses or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture.—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—varying in price

From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle;) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Freston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and

P. WENZEL, Congress St.

Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 19, '55.

P. S.—Persons out of the place, may secure Tickets by enclosing the money in a letter, prepaid. j19 1qmtf

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular publication price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

Publishers Daily and Weekly Chronicle.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING

TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this simple improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to one person in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHELPS,

READ the following notice from a distinguished Clergyman:—

"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than while perusing this most ingenious satire; and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most solemn, important and instructive lessons are couched in every page.—Youth should read it—parents, teachers, preachers everybody."

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correspondence of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished for one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did I testimony the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

HERTS BROTHERS

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of HERTS BROTHERS' PENS, having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

New Light and more Light.

PATENT SMOKE-BURNING

OIL LAMP!

THIS newly invented Lamp, so differently constructed from anyother, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons:—

It requires only the Poorest Oil, Lard, Tallow or Grease; and with the same material, produced FOUR OR FIVE TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT As ANY other known Lamp. It is simple in its construction (consequently not liable to get out of order.) By its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of Light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.

Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

Morning Chronicle.

GRATUITOUS ADVERTISING.—This branch of our business has become so extensive and flourishing of late, that we have found it necessary to adopt a rule in regard to it, which, to reflecting men, we have no doubt will appear reasonable and proper. It is this; that for all advertisements which we insert, of a religious or benevolent character, we will charge half our usual cash price, and no more, payable always in advance. But no advertisements will be inserted for less than twenty-five cents.

From the above rule we make an exception in favor of advertisements and notices designed to benefit the poor in the present emergency. These, to a reasonable extent, we will insert gratuitously for the present.

It is not unusual for men of wealth, as well as others, to bring or send advertisements of sermons, lectures, reports of religious, or philanthropic societies, &c., &c., with a respectful request that we will give them one or more insertions gratuitously;—not considering that it costs us money to set up the type, and money to cover it thousands of times with paper, and that the aggregate of such advertisements is altogether too large to be published as a gratuity. If editors divide the expense with the rest of the community, paying one-half and leaving the public to pay the other half, it is, we humbly conceive, as much as can be reasonably asked of them.—Jour. of Com.

GRAPHIC.—Mrs. Swisshelm in the Pittsburg Gazette thinks that the sterner sex had better devote their attention to their own ridiculous fashion in dress, rather than to find so much fault with the ladies. The gentlemen of Pittsburg must be rather a comical looking set, if Mrs. S.'s portrait of them is correct. She says:

"Here, for two winters they have been stalking around, looking for all the world like so many pumpkins with two corn stalks stuck in the blossom end, and a bit of stem left on the other,—in coats just the length of a farmer's wamus, a half yard too wide, stuffed out with wadding, and drawn up around their ears,—sleeves like meal sacks, and pantaloons as tight as fiddle strings. To see them handle their dram sticks in this outfit was a natural curiosity. This winter the still-like supporters mysteriously disappear; pantaloons are invisible, and coats bid fair to rival ladies' skirts in the sublime art of street sweeping."

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1855.

PORTLAND JAIL.

The Eastern Argus gives an account of an Indignation Meeting held in Portland, on account of alleged sufferings of prisoners in Portland Jail. The meeting seems to have been got up by a spiritualist. The Argus says:—

The trumpet had been sounded for several days, and its ringing notes brought together the largest assembly of the "hard-fisted" troop of the "bone and muscle," of Portland, we have ever seen gathered.

The occasion of this out-pouring of the hards of the granite strata, was on this wise. Mr. John M. Todd, (Barber,) has recently, according to his own testimony, become a believer in modern spiritualism, from evidence which he declares to be incontrovertible—and among other messages he has received from the spirit world, he has been honored with one from Rev. Dr. CHANNING, for many years deceased—to the effect that the prisoners in the county jail in this city, had been for several months treated with much inhumanity and neglect, as to food, bedding, medical attendance, &c.; and that it was his mission to reform this gross abuse. Rumor says, that the medium through which this message reached our mundane sphere, from the beloved Channing, is Mr. H. G. Cole.

Mr. Todd presented a statement drawn up from the mouths of prisoners and others, as to the treatment of those confined in our jail within the last seven or eight months. It was made up of a statement of abuses, (mostly from the mouths of prisoners,) of poor and scanty food, of cold neglect of the commonest claims of humanity—of lousy blankets—of maggoty coal beds—of neglect of a sick female—of thrusting vice and misfortune, not into see cell only, but into one bed—that made the blood run cold.

There was a call made for Mr. H. G. Cole, who said, in substance—

In this war he had been a sufferer. He had fought, bled and almost died, in this inhuman jail. He rose to the question. It was the first time he had ever addressed his fellow citizens in that hall. But now he was a witness in the case, and "would a plain, unvarnished tale deliver, that would harrow up their souls." He had been an inmate in that jail under Mr. Norton, for fourteen days, charged with selling rum. The iron had been driven into his soul. And then he told of his experience, which was confirmatory of the document read, made up partly from this testimony.

The following committee of investigation was announced from the chair and accepted by the meeting:—James Todd, Wm. H. Hadley, John M. Todd, S. L. Carleton and John Purrinton, with authority to call another meeting, when, after a rigid scrutiny they were ready to report.

In conclusion, we have only to say, let Mr. Norton have fair play. If these abuses exist or any portion of them, let the work not be left, till they are corrected. In the heart of our hospitable city—within a stone's throw of five churches—let it not be said we have a prison-house, from which the voice of him that is in bonds cries in vain. Let the committee do their whole duty to their constituents and by Mr. Norton, and we have no doubt good will result to all. We pause for their report.

WILLIAM PENN AND THE QUAKERS.

Messrs. Editors:—We have been much interested recently while reading the life of William Penn, to find that the principles of the Quakers in those early days of their history, were so exactly in accordance with true christianity. That they were so is evident from the questions which were propounded to Penn when he presented himself to join the Friends, after having been banished from his father's house for conscience' sake. We would like to present these questions for the consideration of your readers:

"And now, since thou art come to join our society; and, as is common when persons apply for membership with us, we would ask thee a question or two, not concerning thy notions, but concerning thy affections. Hast thou, then, a perfect hatred of sin, and dost thou sincerely desire to be holy? Hast thou the "faith that worketh by love"? and does this vital principle in thy heart manifest itself in every thought and act of thy life? Is it the staid purpose of thy soul never to shed thy brother's blood in war or private strife? Wilt thou never provoke him to hate by suing him at the law? Wilt thou never indulge thyself in gaudy attire, or furniture or equipage, to the depriving thy poor brother of the comforts of thy charity, and thyself of the pleasure of extending it to him? Wilt thou not only not put thy bottle to him, but wilt thou drive from thy house all gin and ardent spirits that might prove a stumbling block to him? Wilt thou never thyself rob him of his liberty, and wilt thou see thy face against those who would? Wilt thou in thy furniture and equipage, also in thy cookery and manners of living, maintain whatever is plain and cheap, lest by a contrary example thou should tempt him to live above his means and thus involve him in debt and suffering?"

How long, Messrs. Editors, would the great sins of our age and country be continued, if all the professing christians of our land could answer these questions in the affirmative?

SOUTH BERWICK MURDERER.

ALFRED, ME., Jan. 25.

The trial of William B. Smith for the murder of Charles F. Brewster, is concluded. It appears that last fall the body of a man, bearing marks of violence, was found concealed in the woods near S. Berwick village. This body was afterward found to be that of Brewster, and circumstances threw suspicion upon Smith, who disappeared about this time.—Diligent search was made for Smith, and he was found in a small village in Vermont.—He was immediately brought to S. Berwick, and after a fair examination, fully committed for trial. On Monday last he was arraigned, and plead not guilty.

From the evidence, it appeared that last fall, Smith and Brewster were seen drinking together; that Brewster had a few dollars in money, while Smith had none: that they went away together; that Brewster was never seen again until found dead, with his head broken in; that the same evening, Smith was seen with ten or twelve dollars in money, wearing Brewster's pants and boots, and with spots of blood on his collar and wristbands; that two days afterwards Smith went to a town in New Hampshire, and, after staying there a day or two, persuaded a boy to run away with him; that, on the road, Smith compelled the boy to change clothes with him, giving the boy (who appeared as a witness) the pants, stockings and boots which Brewster had on when last seen, and of which his body was found divested, and then robbed the boy of about twenty dollars. It also appeared that, in the fireplace in Smith's room, Brewster's pocket book was found.

No motive for this deed could be assigned, except the few dollars which Brewster had. The evidence in this case, appeared entirely circumstancial, and to leave no room for the innocence of the prisoner, who was ably and eloquently defended by Hon. T. M. Hayes. The prosecution was managed by the Attorney General, Hon. George Evans, who made a most brilliant argument for the State. After a very humane charge from his honor, Chief Justice Shepley, the case was given to to the jury, on Thursday morning. In about two hours they brought in a verdict of Guilty of Murder in the first degree. The prisoner rose and said that he did not kill Brewster—that he thought he knew who did—that circumstances appeared to prove him guilty, and he could only say that he was prepared to suffer any punishment. After a most solemn and impressive charge from the Judge, the sentence was passed, that William B. Smith be hanged by the neck until he was dead.

By the laws of this State, a person under this sentence, must be confined to hard labor and solitary confinement in the State Prison for one year, and then executed upon the issue of the Executive warrant. Smith is a mild and rather pleasant looking man, about twenty-five years old. During the trial, and especially when the verdict was given and the sentence pronounced, the jury and almost every person in the crowded court room were deeply affected: Smith alone appeared almost perfectly unmoved. His ruin was ascribed by the Judge, to the use of intoxicating liquor. Soon after the conclusion of the trial the Court adjourned without day.

YOURS, truly, TRIM, JR.

FRENCH CLAIMS.

The bill for paying these old claims, which passed the Senate last year, has just now passed the House. This brings the act distinctly before the President, for his approval. Several of the leading papers of the regular Democratic party in New England, have strongly recommended its passage. This looks as if the President means to sign it. If he does, he must have the credit of doing a long deferred act of justice.

For the Chronicle.

SPIRITUALISM.—Some of our good old superannuated folks are alarmed lest the spiritualists obtain numerous proselytes to their theory. There is some cause for this anxiety, but we feel perfectly easy on the subject, not caring a pin how fast spiritualism increases. It is far superior to any other ism we have heard preached lately.

The spiritualists say they can and will prove, beyond all controversy, that "if a man die he shall live again." We should like to have them do it. They say they will convert the world, and destroy all sectional feeling among churches of different denominations. We should like to have them do that, too. The wonders they are going to perform, are too numerous to mention; suffice it to say, if they realize half their anticipations, this world will be a perfect paradise.

One thing we must certainly give the spiritualists credit for: all their publications,—books, pamphlets, and newspapers,—are printed in the most beautiful manner, on the best of paper. During the present scarcity of paper and money, many publishers use poor paper, but we have never seen a bad or mean looking spiritual paper. WOODLAND.

LOCAL.

THE SEA SERPENT DEAD.—We have seen the skeleton of some sepentine rover of the ocean, recently washed ashore on Clark's Beach, near the Sagamore House on Odiorne's Point, about three miles below Portsmouth. It was picked up by a party of gentlemen, among whom were Capt. Jas. Goodwin and Wm. B. Russell, Esq.; but none of them ever saw the like before. The entire length was seven feet,—the head being about two feet. The thing is quite a curiosity, about which various opinions were expressed by those with whom we saw it. They could not agree even as to which was the upper and which the lower side of the varmint,—and this was by no means easy to determine, as the head appeared to have lost one jaw.

☞ Mr. Chase was greeted by an intelligent and attentive audience of about six hundred on Sunday evening, and by nearly as many on Monday evening. This closes his engagement here at present—though as there is much interest manifested in the subject of Spiritualism, he may appear before our citizens again ere long, as an expounder of harmonial philosophy.

RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.—On Monday, the trains on the Eastern Road were detained an hour or two by the washing away of a small bridge in Hampton.

On the same day, a train on the Kennebec and Portland Road, was stopped in Yarmouth, where the engine rolled down from the track about fifteen feet on the ice on a pond. The fireman was killed instantly; and the engineer, named Small, was caught under the engine by his legs, yet alive and sensible. He could not be got out however, and his comrades and the people in the train saw the water rise on the ice and drown the man, in spite of their efforts to save him.

☞ The Universalist Quarterly and General Review, for January, 1855, is received from the publisher, Abel Tompkins, Boston. This periodical, so important to the denomination whose name it bears, is said not to be so well supported, in a pecuniary sense, as it ought to be. Contents of this number:

The Man of Principle in Business; Indications of Providence in the Establishment of Christianity; Religious Aspects of the Eastern Question; Sin its own Avenger; The Will; Mosheim's Thoughts of the end of Hell Torments; God, the Answerer of Prayer; Literary Notices.

FRANK LESLIE'S GAZETTE of Paris, London and New York Fashions, for January, 1855, is just received from the publisher, 6 John Street, New York. It is a large quarto monthly, with numerous cuts, and valuable matter. It comes directed to the Portsmouth Daily Dispatch. As there is no such paper, the editor had better direct it to the Chronicle.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE, for Feb., 1855.—This magazine is embellished with engravings of Joan of Arc, Le Mode Parisiennes, School Boys playing Snow-Ball, Fashions, &c.—There is among the contents, the beginning of one of Mrs. M. A. Dennison's best tales, Marie Trevor. The whole number of articles for this month is about fifty, embracing a great variety.

For sale by Federhen & Co., Boston, J. P. Morse, Portsmouth.

PUTNAM'S MONTHLY for February, is received via Fetridge & Co., Boston, J. P. Morse, Portsmouth. We have published the contents before.

LARGE FALL OF SNOW.—We learn that during the storm of the 18th and 19th Jan., the snow fell in Conway and Fryeburg to the depth of more than three feet on a level.—This is the greatest quantity of snow that has ever been known to fall in one storm, within the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

Charles Haines, a mechanic, in Philadelphia, committed suicide a few days ago, leaving a letter for his wife, saying he killed himself on account of his poverty, having had no work for some time; he had pawned most of his effects to obtain bread for his family,—a wife and two children.

LOST.—On Saturday night, between Market Street and Sagamore Factory, a BRASS KEY. The finder will confer a favor by leaving the same at the Chronicle Office.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box will almost cure the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

HOUSE.—Mr. Goodwin introduced a bill providing for working a steam dredge boat, in the harbor of Oswego. Referred to committee on commerce.

Mr. Kerr offered a resolution calling upon the President for information in regard to any correspondence between the United States and Spain, in relation to the Treaty of 1795 between the two countries, being applicable to the Spanish coloring. The resolution was passed, and the House went into committee of the whole on the French spoliation bill. Considerable discussion sprang up on a proposition by Mr. Bayley to strike out the enacting clause. Some confusion arose. The bill was, however, pressed to a final vote, and resulted in its passage. Yeas 110; nays 96. The House then adjourned.

THE ADMINISTRATION.—The Charleston Mercury does not consider the modification of the administration "a blind change of policy," but rather "a statesman-like adaptation of their measures to the requirement of the times." This latter is a very pretty name certainly, and we like the thing as well as its name. The Mercury says:—

In regard to Cuba, a change of policy was forced upon the Administration, by the unanimous declaration of the Spanish Cortes against the sale of that colony. It is well known that President Pierce had set his heart upon the acquisition of that beautiful and fruitful island. But it is also known that he recognized, in the fullest degree, the right of Spain to peaceful possession of her colony. It has proved impracticable to purchase Cuba, and the Administration has shown no infirmity or change of purpose in declining to take, by violence or conspiracy, what it was unable to gain by fair purchase. So, although this news from Washington is gratifying, it does not in our opinion, indicate any blind change of policy on the part of the Administration, but rather a statesmanlike adaptation of their measures to the requirement of the times.

The causes why Anson Dale committed suicide at Walpole, N. H., were that he had been to California, and had saved seven or eight thousand dollars from his gains while there, the most of which he invested in Cheshire Railroad stock, and its depreciation weighed heavily upon his spirits. He had also lost about one thousand dollars within a few days by the failure of a Boston firm.—Besides these losses he had property enough, but did not think so.—Boston Post.

MOTHERS BELIEVED.—The editor of the Buffalo Republic has made himself one of the immortals by the publication of a discovery which he has recently made, of great importance to mothers. It is an infallable means of keeping babies from two to ten months old, perfectly quiet for hours. The modus operandi is as follows: As soon as the squaller awakes, set the child up, propped by pillows, if it cannot sit alone, and smear its fingers with thick molasses. Then put half a dozen feathers into its hands, and the young one will sit and pick the feathers from one hand to the other, until it drops asleep. As soon as it wakes, more molasses and more feathers, and in place of nerve-astounding yells, there will be silence and enjoyment unspeakable.—Western paper.

This would be fine work for the pillows and cradle clothes.

MR. GWINN'S PROSPECTS.—Washington, Jan. 27.—Advices from California say that Major Hammond, to whom Dr. Gwinn entrusted the management of his re-election to the Senate, turns up as a candidate for that position himself.

On Sunday, Jan. 7, was read in the churches and chapels included within the Roman Catholics archdiocese of Westminster, a pastoral letter from Cardinal Wiseman, dated at Rome, and promulgating the doctrine of the immaculate conception as an article of faith.

During the year 1854 no fewer than 73,697 persons died in London out of a population of two millions and a half; 4765 more than died during the disastrous cholera year 1849.

In Delaware, on the 17th inst., a bill for the creation of a new lottery grant was lost in the house, by a decided majority.

Patents.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them a speedy and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

"PATENT OFFICE, ———.

"R. H. EDDY, Esq., Boston, Mass.

"SIR:—Your facilities for the prosecution of any business connected with this Office, are equal to those of any other agent. I am very respectfully, Yours, &c. THOMAS EWBANK, Commissioner of Patents."

PORTSMOUTH
ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture.—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—
varying in price

From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. E. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and
P. WENZEL, Congress St.

Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 19, '55.

P. S. — Persons out of the place, may secure Tickets by enclosing the money in a letter, prepaid. j19 2ostf j26 ALBERT A. PAYNE.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the EXTENSION DINING TABLES of different sizes; MARBLE TOP CENTER TABLES; and a large assortment of FRENCH SOFAS and CHAIRS, covered with plush or silk damask—or the BLACK WALNUT and MAHOGANY SOFAS, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the CANE SEATED CHAIRS, with or without rockers.

These BEDSTEADS, as the French call them, or WHAT NOTS as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those UMBRELLA STANDS, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of ELEGANT CHAMBER SETS, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the LOOKING GLASS, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING

TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them up from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired.

READ the following notice from a distinguished Clergyman:—

"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than while perusing this most ingenious satire; and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most solemn, important and instructive lessons are couched in every page.—Youth should read it—parents, teachers, preachers everybody."

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT —IN—

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

HERTS BROTHERS

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with the times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; ACCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIN, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of long standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

LYCEUM AND LEVEE.

On Thursday evening, Dr. Cleaveland delivered before the Mercantile Association, what we call the best lecture of the season. His subject, as before announced, was the Relation of the Community to the Schoolmaster. He spoke very highly of good teachers; but advised no one to think of getting rich by school teaching or preaching, as it is almost impossible. Having engaged in both occupations, he probably judged from his own experience. No doubt he thought he was correct—and perhaps he was—but it is mysterious to us how a mechanic who earns from 300 to $1000 per year, can "get along," while a schoolmaster or minister who gets from 500 to $3000 salary, can hardly make both ends meet. But we shall have more to say on this point, anon, and will leave it for the present. Towards the close of the lecture, the Dr. touched on women's rights. He owned that his wife governed him, and said all other married men were in the same fix. Whether he judged of others rightly, the married people themselves can best tell. If he did, we can only pity the poor hen-pecked creatures who were so fascinated by a pretty face as to lose their freedom by marrying. His information, however, may serve as a wholesome check to those silly boys, who, as soon as they are fairly weaned, begin to think and talk of getting a wife. He spoke against women's voting, and illustrated his view of the subject by an allegory, in substance as follows:

An old chanticleer one day called all the hens of his barnyard about him, and made a speech. They had, he said, been remiss in the performance of their duties. They had wandered off on business that he could better have attended to himself, leaving him to take care of the chickens. The poor little creatures fared rather meagrely under his charge, and he bade the hens look at them and see what a forlorn, wretched looking brood of chicks they were. In conclusion, showing the hens his long and sharp spurs, he hoped he should not have occasion to use them; at the same time making it understood if they did not behave more like hens, it would be his "painful duty" to do so.

The Dr. thought if the women ever attempted to vote, the men would have to use their spurs. He said there was no need of women's voting, for one woman over a wash tub, would make any two men vote as she pleased. This statement we can hardly credit. We don't know how many wash tub converts there are; but no one will dispute us when we say it would be a good move to souse some of the filthiest politicians into a wash tub, that they might be made clean and decent.

The lecture closed shortly after nine, when we wended our way to the Odd Fellows' Levee, at Congress Hall. The ceremonies of the Order were over, and the dancing had commenced, when we arrived. The company was large and sociable; and the beauty of old Portsmouth was well represented. After dancing as long as our steady habits would allow, and having partaken of an excellent supper, (prepared by Col. W. S. Hadley) we retired. The entertainment, all things considered, was the most pleasing we have attended for a long time. WOODLAND.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 31, 1855.

UNFAVORABLE STATISTICS.

Several days ago, we saw in the State of Maine newspaper, a long article copied from the Toronto (Canada) Leader, giving a most unfavorable account of the workings of the Maine Law in Maine, and purporting to be written in Portland by a special correspondent of the Leader. It now appears that this correspondent was a commissioner sent out from Canada by those who are afraid of a Maine law there, to go into the States of Vermont, Massachusetts and Maine, for the purpose of a thorough examination of the workings of the Maine Law in those States. We learn from the Kingston Commercial Advertiser, that this "Rum Commissioner" left Quebec,—mounted on an iron horse, and in a few days appeared at Toronto, having made his exploration of the three States, and ascertained to a dead certainty that the Maine law is a failure, and that now the rumsellers and drinkers are friendly to it, since it makes rum so much more plenty and easy of access, than when there was no penalty for selling it, and when it was sold openly and freely, like any other article of merchandise.

The Portland Journal says:

This "Rum Commissioner" gives no particulars of his meteoric tour, except of his visit to Portland—the very seat of the (Maine Law) Beast. Here, it seems, he was fortunate enough to fall in with the Municipal Judge, we suppose by the same process whereby two globules of mercury on a floor or table will seek each other, and unite. Or it may be, he had a letter to that learned functionary, with the very particular request that he would help him as far as possible to statistics to show the failure of the Maine Law.

The "Commissioner" could not have fallen into better hands for his purpose.

STATISTICS FROM OUR MUNICIPAL COURT.

Years.	No. of persons charged with crimes and offences.
1850 (the year before the law passed)	495
1851 (Law in force from July)	523
1852	642
1853	627
1854 (to Dec. 21)	734

Thus, then the number of persons charged with crimes and offences, in the city of Portland and the county of Cumberland, in which the city is situated, rose from 495, in 1850, the year before the law went into operation, to 743, on the 21st December, 1854, and the year had ten days to run.

The Journal remarks:

By and by, when temperance men shall have access to that court, we will be able to see by what process the statistics are manufactured, whereby the record is made to look so black.

In the meantime we give in the Chronicle, these statistics for what they are worth. It is sheer folly for anybody to be afraid to meet facts. We copy also from the Journal, the following items of Portland statistics.

Committed to the Alms House from June 1, 1850, to March 20, 1851 (before the law)	252
Committed from June 1, 1851, to March 20, 1852	146
Difference in nine months	106
Number in the Alms House, March 20, 1851	112
" " " March 20, 1852	90
Number of families assisted out of the Alms House, from June 1, 1850, to March 20, 1851	135
From June 1, 1851, to March 20, 1852	90
Difference in nine months (one third)	45

Seventy-five of the ninety came there through intemperance! four of the ninety were not brought there through that cause; the history of the other eleven is not known.

The total commitments to the Alms House for the three years 1852, '53, '54, were as follows, respectively, viz: 244—243—263. The winter of 1852 was severe, as has been this which we are now experiencing, considering the exhorbitant prices of food and fuel, which bear hard upon the poor.

The commitments to the House of Correction were as follows, viz: 1850—60; 1851—48; 1852—38; 1853—35; 1854—20; but the commitments during the two latter years are less, undoubtedly, because persons have been sent to the Reform School, who but for that would have been sentenced to the House of Correction. In 1851, '52, however, there was no Reform School.

The figures for the same years, in relation to the Jail and Watch House, show about the same decrease and increase for the different years.

It is proper to say that the Journal sets down these changes to the account of a change in the municipal policy of Portland. Neal Dow, when he was Mayor, in 1851, executed the law with all his might. Next year they chose a very respectable old gentleman, who executed it judiciously, or softly, or quietly—and so they have kept on.

But our present purpose is only to give the facts and figures, especially because they appear to bear against the efficiency of the law, or rather as we think, against a lack of faithfulness in the execution. We may give some of the Journal's statements, another day.

☞ We learn from the Portland papers, that the engineer who was killed on the Kennebec Railroad on Monday, was named Joseph Small, and the Fireman, Charles Ames. Both were married men, and leave widows in Portland.

Beggars often find one kind of provisions plenty. We refer to "cold shoulder."

A FIRST RATE NOTICE.—The Dover Gazette says of Rev. John Moore,—

"The nominee for governor, we believe was, a great while ago, a democrat; but latterly he has been a twattling abolitionist and Maine law temperance, and is now as liberal in his denunciations of the democratic party as the worst of its enemies. But he is not acceptable even to the Know Nothing party itself, and aside from his ineligibility, he is likely to be kicked out of the place."

We happen to have some personal knowledge of Mr. Moore, who is an estimable man in public and private life. As to his political views and party predilections we never knew any thing, and probably never gave them a thought, till we read his nomination.

Now the Dover Gazette informs us that he has lately been a "twattling [i. e. talking] abolitionist." So was one Thomas Jefferson, deceased. Also, that he is "Maine law temperance." So are thousands of New Hampshire democrats. Perhaps Mr. Moore may happen to live in New Hampshire two years longer;—and if so, he may possibly be governor then, if these things are all true.

ELIZA WHARTON.—Mr. Shores, bookseller, of this city, has furnished us with a copy of a new and beautiful edition of The Coquette; or History of Eliza Wharton; a Novel, founded on fact.

This new edition, is the republication, by Fetridge & Co., Boston, of a book well known and universally read in this vicinity, years ago. The value of it is now much enhanced by the introduction of a Historical Preface, which we have read with much interest. As we printed an edition of the letters five and twenty years ago, or more, every line of the original work is familiar to us. The present edition is somewhat more beautiful than ours.

HALLETT, DAVIS & CO.'S PIANOS.—We publish below, by request of these gentlemen, a testimonial (from one of the best pianists and most competent judges of these instruments in the world) of the superior qualities of the Pianos made by Messrs. Hallet, Davis & Co., advertised in our columns. Wm. Mason is a son of Lowell Mason, has spent several years in Europe, and had ample opportunity to examine the best instruments made, at home and abroad. He has been using one of the "Grand Piano Fortes" from the above named celebrated manufactory, during a concertizing tour, and writes to the proprietors as follows, from Buffalo, Dec. 2d, 1854.

Messrs. Hallet, Davis & Co.—Gentlemen:—Your letter of Nov. 29th is received, making enquiries in regard to the Grand Piano Forte used at my first concert in Boston. I would say that it got somewhat out of tune, owing to the dampness and oppressive heat of the atmosphere. I used the same Piano Forte at my second concert in Boston, and played my whole programme on it, without in the least throwing it out of tune. I was perfectly satisfied with the instrument. I have since used and am now using one of your Grand Piano Fortes, which stands in tune as well as any instrument I have ever seen. Owing to the beautiful elasticity of the action of your Grand Piano Fortes, (which possess the same qualities as the action that has contributed to give Erard his world wide reputation,) I think it would be impossible for any pianist, who plays properly, to break either a string, or a hammer. I certainly never have broken them. In conclusion, I beg to express to you my perfect satisfaction, in every respect, with regard to your Grand Piano Fortes.

Very truly yours, WM. MASON.

SINGULAR AND FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Saturday forenoon, George W. Pope, an apprentice to Pesse & Price, Bakers, in Salem, went to South Salem to deliver bread. As he returned to the sleigh, after calling at a house, the horse started and threw young Pope down, but apparently without injuring him much.

The horse having ran off, he walked back to his employers, sat down in a chair without speaking, and was unable to give any account of the accident. A physician was called, who pronounced the injuries to the brain fatal, and the young man died in a few minutes. There were no wounds visible except a slight scratch.

CURIOUS.—RAILROAD BRIDGE DISABLED. Last Friday night, the massive "hogchains" which run over the top of the Railroad Bridge, in Galena, were all broken in an instant, by reason, no doubt, of the sudden change of the atmosphere, from warm to cold. It had been warm and raining, which had expanded the wood work that the iron confined, and the sudden change to cold contracting the iron more suddenly than the wood, something was compelled to give way, and the chains being the weakest part, they suffered accordingly.—St. Louis Intelligencer, Jan. 20.

GENESEE, Jan. 26.—A large and enthusiastic Anti-Know Nothing Convention was held here to-day, all the towns in Livingston county being represented. The organization was denounced, and the nomination of Judge Loomis for State Senator, in place of George Clark, was endorsed by men of all parties.—Loomis is a Seward man.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The washing correspondent of the Courier and Enquirer telegraphs, from reliable information, that if the Kinney expedition attempts to depart, it will be stopped by the interference of the Government. A proclamation will be issued, declaring it to be a military organization for the invasion of a friendly State.

The citizens of Hartford, Conn., have raised by voluntary contribution, the sum of three thousand seven hundred and thirty dollars in aid of the suffering poor of that city.

In Barnum's great poultry-show which closed lately at the Museum, in New York, over seven thousand specimens were exhibited.

LOCAL.

☞ Park Benjamin, Esq. of New York, delivered the lecture before the Mechanic's Lyceum, on Tuesday evening. His subject was Americanisms, not merely in Words, but chiefly in Manners and Usages. The lecture was somewhat amusing, but not remarkably instructive, except perhaps the remarks on American aristocracy, which were in the main, correct. The lecturer has a pleasant countenance, speaks with entire ease, and entertains his audience for the hour.

By an advertisement, it will be seen he lectures again to-night.

THE DAILY CHRONICLE.—The present number closes the fifth half-yearly volume of our Daily—and the commencement of the sixth, to-morrow, offers a good opportunity to subscribe. We have a goodly list of subscribers—and first-rate ones too—but those who read our sheet without paying for it, are too numerous,—as is the case with all newspapers. We can't see much difference between taking the printer's earnings, or making use of his productions, without an equivalent, and robbing other mechanics of their wares. Because some friend who has a counting room or work shop, tolerates loafers in persistently reading his newspaper—it does not make the custom honest or honorable. If it is for the interest of the public to have a Daily paper published in their midst, it certainly is not asking too much of those who care enough about it to read it, to pay their mite for such gratification.

☞ The regular Lecture of the Winter's Course on the Prophecies, will be delivered in St. John's Chapel, this evening, by the Rector, Rev. Dr. Burroughs.

GUBERNATORIAL.—We find in the Boston papers of Tuesday evening, a despatch from Manchester, announcing that the American party have nominated Ralph Metcalf, Esq. of Newport, as candidate for Governor, in place of John Moore, ineligible. Mr. Metcalf has at various times been a member of the Legislature, and at that time was a prominent member of the democratic party. We believe he has recently been classed with the Old Guard men.

HALIFAX, Jan. 30.—The steamship Africa, from Liverpool, arrived this afternoon, with Liverpool dates to the 20th.

EXCITEMENT IN HERMON, ME. — POPULAR SOVREIGNTY.— Mrs. Chase, alias Smiley, was bound over for inveigling a young girl to the Robinson stand, in Hermon, as before reported, obtaining bail. The people of Hermon being roused with indignation against the infamous place which has disgraced the locality for a long time, having taken the matter into consideration, resolved to rid the town of the vile keepers of the den. On Tuesday forenoon the inhabitants of Hermon mustered to the number of about two hundred, and with drums and fifes, marched to the house, a mile or two this side of the village, took the occupants and all their furniture and effects, placed them upon teams, conducted them to the tune of the Rogue's March into this city beyond the Hermon line, and left them with a warning never to appear in the town of Hermon again.

The people of Hermon also took up a subscription of $16, to enable the young girl to go home, near Great Falls, whence she was inveigled. She is but sixteen years old.—Bangor Journal, Jan. 25.

MICHIGAN SENATORS INSTRUCTED.—The Michigan Senate has passed resolves instructing Senators Cass and Stuart, by a vote of 24 to 5. The instructions enjoin them to use their best efforts to procure the immediate repeal of the fugitive slave act, and the passage of a bill prohibiting slavery in the District of Columbia, and in the territories, and particularly in Kanzas and Nebraska. The resolves will certainly have the sanction of the House by a large majority, it is said.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
The Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass, and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D, State Assayer, Boston.
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.
Hon. Samuel S. Phelps, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Wm. Upham, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Solomon Foote, Member of Cong. from Vt.
Hon. H. D. Foster, Member of Cong from Pa.
Rev. Thomas Kidder, Chaplain Vt. State Prison.
Rev. Chas. W. Dennison, Boston, Mass.
Rev. John Mathers, Jacksonville, Illinois.

The steamer Uncle Sam had arrived at San Juan del Sud, with $600,000 and 200 passengers. The Star of the West left San Juan del Norte 21st inst. for New York, with the gold and a majority of the passengers from the Uncle Sam.

The Legislature of California had been organized, and the 10th inst. fixed for the election of a U. S. Senator.

From the Sandwich Islands we have the announcement that King Kamehameha died on the 15th of December, and that his son, Prince Lohiliho, had been declared his successor.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Jan. 29.

SENATE.—A bill was int oduced to compensate Lieutenant Maury for his wind and current charts.

Mr. Seward of New York presented a memorial from the working men of New York, and made a speech in its favor. The memorial was laid on the table.

Mr. Douglas of Illinois, from the Committee on Territories, reported a bill to extend the provisions of the Judicial Fees bill of 1853 to all the territories of the United States, the Secretary of the Treasury having decided that said bill is limited to the States and Oregon territory. The bill was then read three times and passed unanimously.

Mr. Douglas, from the same committee, also reported a joint resolution directing the Secretary of the Treasury to allow an item of $833 to the Secretary of Minnesota, which had been paid by him for collating and indexing the journals and judicial proceedings of the said territory. Passed by unanimous consent.

Unsuccessful attempts were made to get up the Bounty Land and French Spoliation bills, and a rather sharp discussion took place between the favorites of each bill, when the Army Appropriation bill was taken up.

Mr. Hunter of Virginia offered an amendment, as a substitute for the reported bill, providing for two regiments of cavalry and five hundred volunteers, the latter to act as rangers, scouts and guides for twelve months. The appropriations contemplated by this substitute is about two millions of dollars.

Mr. Shields of Illinois proposed as an amendment two regiments of cavalry and two of infantry. This was talked over considerably, when

Mr. Houston obtained the floor.

HOUSE.—The resolutions of the Pennsylvania Legislature, in relation to a civil expedition to the Polar Seas in search of Dr. Kane's expedition, were referred to the Committee on Naval Affairs, and the House took up the Senate's resolution for sending a steamer to the relief of Dr. Kane and his party.—Mr. Chandler explained the objects of the proposed expedition, and urged that the House concur with the action of the Senate.

The Texas Creditors bill was made the order of the day for February 6.

The House passed the bill enabling the people of Oregon to form a constitution and State government, and for its admission into the Union, and the bills establishing military posts in the territories. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Professor Henry has been summoned before the House Investigating Committee in the case of the Smithsonian Institution. Through extreme sensitiveness he threatens to resign his post as Secretary, if the House do not sustain his management.

The Sardinian Minister has gone to New York to prevent the landing of the cargo of convicts expected there in the Sardinian frigate Des Geneys.

To-morrow Gen. Houston will speak against an increase of the army, and in defence of the Indians.

Gen. Cass and Mr. Latham, member of Congress from California, have agreed to stump New Hampshire, next month, to aid and oblige President Pierce.

Nothing more will be heard in the Senate of Mr. Cooper's resolution relative to the importation of foreign paupers and criminals, nor of the anti-know nothing resolutions of Messrs. Brodhead and Weller.—B. D. Adv.

Claims against U. S. Government
French Spoliations prior to 1800.

PORTSMOUTH
ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture.—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—
varying in price

From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and
P. WENZEL, Congress St.

Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 19, '55.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express our opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the EXTENSION DINING TABLES of different sizes; MARBLE TOP CENTRE TABLES; and a large assortment of FRENCH SOFAS and CHAIRS, covered with plush or silk damask—or the BLACK WALNUT and MAHOGANY SOFAS, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the CANE SEATED CHAIRS, with or without rockers.

These FYGERESIS, as the French call them, or WEAK NEES as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—as are those UMBRELLA STANDS, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of ELEGANT CHAMBER SETS, and see if you that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the LOOKING GLASS, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose.—It is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 20 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired.

READ the following notice from a distinguished Clergyman:—

"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than while perusing this most ingenious satire; and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most solemn, important and instructive lessons are couched in every page. Youth should read it—parents, teachers, preachers everybody."

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT
—IN—
Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, crooked-grained or knotty stuff, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

HERTS BROTHERS
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. R. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLOOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OR Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GATT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

New Light and more Light.

PATENT SMOKE-BURNING
OIL LAMP!

THIS newly invented Lamp, so differently constructed from anything else, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons:—

It requires only the Poorest Oil, Lard, Tallow or Grease; and with the same material, produced FOUR OR FIVE TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT As ANY other known Lamp. It is simple in its construction (consequently not liable to get out of order.) By its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.

Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

LAMARTINE.

The Portland Advertiser says,—Lamartine is now poor. He has been both extravagant and over generous. At Florence, at London, at Naples, he lived beyond his income. He had a vessel fitted up at his own expense for his journey to the East. The expense of his journey was not less than half a million of francs. His benevolence had accomplished his ruin. He was the acknowledged head of the republican party at Paris, and many a poor fellow lived upon his generosity. A well known man wrote to him the following laconic letter;—"I am dying with hunger." Lamartine responded:—"I have five hundred francs; here they are—pardon me for doing so little with all my heart." A faithful and very intimate friend one day entered the modest house now occupied by M. and Mme de Lamartine and pleasantly demanded the keys. "I will be the factotum," he said, "I will hold the purse." The secretaire was locked, and the friend went away with the keys in his pocket. There soon enters a woman begging for the poor. Madame de Lamartine orders the lock to be broken, extracts eight hundred francs in bills, and gives them to the parish poor. Lamartine looks on approving and smiling. The friend entered soon after, and found them without anything to dine upon.

Lamartine is now dependent upon his pen for his daily bread—and his daily charity. He writes an incredible quantity, and receives for his writings incredible sums. He writes too with incredible swiftness.

Then he is not poor, in the sense of feeling poor. A noble man who gives away all in true charity, and then works hard for more, is a benefactor. He lends to one who will surely repay, not gold, perhaps, but bliss. Lamartine is no doubt a fanatic in charity, as in some things else; but he is a noble specimen of the order.

NO MORE ENGLISH GOVERNESSES IN RUSSIA.—The Courier des Etats Unis says that confidential letters received from English governesses in Russia, state that they have been made to understand from high authority that it was desirable that they should return as soon as possible, to their own country. The reason for this measure is, it is said, that the Czar, thinking that the war would reduce a great number of opulent persons to poverty, it would become necessary for the daughters of such families to find employment. Most of the noble families in Russia, accustomed to divine the will of the Czar at half a word, have advised the governesses in their service to prepare for their departure, though they regretted being deprived of their good offices; but thinking it better for them to withdraw in season, than to await an official order which might compel them to go away in haste or perhaps prevent their leaving at all, or give them an opportunity to exercise their geographical studies and ideas, under disagreeable circumstances.

NOW AND THEN.—It is a singular fact that, 200 years ago our fathers compelled the Scotch and Irish to bear arms, which shows that 1655 and 1855 are at variance. Thus, at the General Court holden at Plymouth, on the 5th of June 1655, it was enacted:—

"That all such Scotch and Irish as are in any Townsnip in this Government shall beare arms and traine as others excepting such as are servants from month to month."—Salem Register.

Two fire companies in Springfield last week disbanded, on account of the execution of the liquor law by the city government. They prefer the place should burn to being deprived of their inalienable right to rum; and in our opinion it is better for any city to burn than have many such companies, enticing young men to ruin and death.—Newburyport Herald.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1855.

WHAT PEOPLE SAY.

It is quite amusing as well as instructive, for any one who is not bound by party trammels, and who seeks not the favor of any one clique or sect more than another, to see what people write, and hear what they say, about parties and principles.

If we have any such independent, impartial readers, we would call their attention to the two following extracts, from two eminent Gazettes of the regular Democratic party in our neighborhood. The first extract is from an interesting article entitled—"Federalism and Know Nothingism," in the New Hampshire Gazette, of Jan. 27.

After finding a variety of faults with the federal whig party, it says—

But of all the execrable expedients to which federalism has from time to time resorted for the overthrow of the democratic party, its last, the present Know Nothing movement, is the most execrable, (not excepting the slavery agitation,) as it would be the most dangerous, did it not fortunately contain within itself the element of its own speedy destruction. The anti slavery cause, is sustained by the philanthropic, the benevolent element of human nature, misguided to be sure, and in this consists its strength and the dangers from its agitation, but Know Nothingism appeals only to the selfish, persecuting and proscriptive propensities — to the antipathies of race and the prejudices of religion.

This is what we call the best kind of praise for anti-slavery benevolence and humanity—it is good, philanthropic,—only it is dangerous to some rickety party or rotten State. But Know Nothingism is utterly condemned as evil and only evil, per se.

Now we will just stick a pin here, and look next at a few sentences from the Dover Gazette of the same date, Jan. 27, where they form part of an article headed Know Nothing Nominations.

The whole affair has turned out precisely as we expected. We have more than once affirmed that the whole thing was in the hands of whig and free soil abolitionists, who have busily sought by the solemnity of a secret oath to invegle a few democrats, and lure them from their party and their principles.—Every democrat who remains faithful to his principles is shut out from the nominations. None but such as denounce the party have any place among them. And the old whigs, however honest, talented, or patriotic are as unceremoniously set aside to make room for the most ranting, malignant and unprincipled abolitionists.

Compare these extracts together. The first speaks against execrable expedients of federalism or whiggery, and against the exclusiveness of the Know Nothings—but speaks in favor of the abolition or anti-slavery element, as humane, benevolent, and all that. The second speaks of abolition as the great evil, and of the abolitionists as malignant and unprincipled. It intimates that the taint of abolitionism is what poisons the Know Nothing porridge, and speaks of honest, patriotic, and talented old whigs!

It has always seemed to us that anti-slavery, or pro-freedom, was eminently democratic in principle. On the contrary, all exclusiveness of caste or order, nation or religion, though such exclusive regulations may perhaps be wise or necessary, just, or even indispensable to safety, yet they are not exactly democratic, but partake of the nature of aristocracy.

We do not believe or understand, however, that it is our duty as American citizens, to stand still, and see a foreign people and an alien priesthood, (under the pretence of equal rights, or under any other pretence,) sap and subvert our Republican Institutions, and plant in their stead a Hierarchy of crafty priests, who should rule over an ignorant people in the name of an infallible pontiff, claiming universal dominion as a divine right, and burning us as heretics if we dare to doubt it.

"Satan's kingdom tumbling down."—This classic and beautiful quotation has been lately applied by the Daily Patriot, to the Know Nothing Wigwam in New Hampshire. The Boston Bee states, however, on what seems to be good authority, that the new nomination of governor, at Manchester, was made as follows:

Whole number of votes cast	372
Ralph Metcalf of Newport, had	356
Scattering	16

A body of men who can work together like this, on the first and only ballot, must understand one another pretty thoroughly.

MASSACHUSETTS SENATOR.—On Wednesday at 12 o'clock, the Senate of Massachusetts chose Henry Wilson to be a Senator of the United States, giving him twenty-one votes. E. M. Wright had 15, and there were 3 scattering.

JENNY LIND —A private correspondence, dated Stockholm, Sweden, Dec. 15, states that Madame Jenny Lind Goldschmidt was in that city, attending to her property. She was unaccompanied by her husband, the laws of Sweden forbidding the presence of a Jew. The correspondent adds that Jenny has so changed in appearance, and grown so old in looks, that her oldest and most intimate friends did not recognise her.

LIQUOR LAWS.—Mayor Wood of New York, has addressed a note to Mr. Colem n, mem er of the Assembly, upon the proposed liquor law. Mr. Wood is of opinion that the present laws may be enforced, and intimates that they will prove sufficient for the evil:

This evil in our midst appears to result rather from the non execution of present laws than from the character of the laws themselves. It is a popular error to mistake feeble administrative enforcements for defects in the statutes. This mistake has been productive of continual and never ending legislation, upon all subj cts, until the books are so full of laws that none but the most astute and studying lawyers can tell what is and what is not law.

Mayor Wood has a right to be heard, for he is really trying to do something practical in cleansing the streets and groggshops of New York. If he will and can carry on his work for twelve months, with as strong a hand as he has begun; by that time he and the good citizens generally, will be ripe for a better law.

The enforcement of the Sunday ordinance works remarkably well in New York. On Sunday last but thirty-seven arrests were made in the city, and only twelve shops were found open by the police.

SEIZURE OF LETTERS.—A package of over fifteen hundred letters, in the charge of Adams & Co.'s Express, were recently seized in transits from San Francisco to New York, the same being conveyed contrary to law. The letters were given last Saturday into the hands of the United States District Attorney, who transferred them immediately to Postmaster Fowler for delivery to their points of designation.—N. Y. Times.

The conveyance was no doubt contrary to Act of Congress—but that Act, and consequently the seizure under it, are both unconstitutional, and therefore void, if the matter were brought to a test. The Constitution does not give any monopoly of postage to Congress or to the Post Office. Their seizure of this power is mere assumption.

After Kossuth, Henry A. Wise is perhaps the longest winded speaker extant. He speaks without preparation and without the slightest effort. It is a well established fact, that Wise once spoke in the Virginia constitutional Convention thirty-five consecutive hours, and what was most surprising, his audience manifested no disposition to 'break the spell of his protracted strain.' Even the ladies in the galleries remained during the whole time, and when the orator was on the point of concluding they were heard to cry—"Go on!" Mr. Wise declined to proceed, but assured his fair auditors that if it were necessary, he could proceed "till the crack of doom."

Mr. Wise is a Wind Mill, we know, and could run on a good while;—but 35 hours! is a statement somewhat too strong for belief, and makes the whole story look like moonshine.

SANDWICH ISLANDS —A letter written by an officer on board the U. S. ship Portsmouth, at Honolulu, Nov. 27, 1854, says—

We leave on the 3d prox for Tahiti, in the Society group, and thence to Norfolk, Va., passing through the Windward Islands, and touching at St. Pierre, Martinique.

Prince Alexander did not come up from Hilo, as he promised, and pretended he was sick. It is known that this is a sham. He is humbugging the Commissioner, and the best informed here now say that the annexation project will fall through.

LATER FROM UTAH TERRITORY.—The latest dates from Salt Lake and the Plains, Jan. 12th, state that Mr. Babbitt, the present actuary Governor of Utah, is very unpopular with the Mormons, from a belief, whether well founded or not, that he has abjured the religion of the Latter-Day Saints. They had grown tired of him as Governor, and anxiously awaited his removal. All the men belonging to the Mormon Church, who are able to bear arms, are constantly drilled, and at short notice several thousand could be collected together. Col. Stepton and command are occupying quarters in a central part of Salt Lake City.

It is reported that the Mormons are not only docile, but are much pleased with their new Governor, (Gov. Steptoe,) whom they hope soon to convert to their religious faith.

FRENCH SPOLIATIONS. — It appears that the opponents of the French spoliation bill, in the House, used every method they could devise to defeat it, or at least hinder its passage. The bill before the House, however, was amended by the substitution of a bill in all respects similar to that which passed the Senate last session, and was then passed on Saturday by a vote of 110 to 76 The bill must go again, we presume, to the Senate, but as that body is composed of very nearly the same individuals who passed the similar bill a year ago, there is little doubt of its passage there. It must then undergo the ordeal of examination by the President. It is hinted that even if the President should veto the bill, it will be passed again notwithstanding the veto, by the requisite two-thirds vote in each house.—Boston Daily Adv.

WHO VOTED NAY?—The Newburyport Herald states that on the passage of the French Spoliations Bill in the House, on Saturday, those who voted against it were chiefly southern men. Only two members from New England voted against the bill—Hibbard and Morrison of New Hampshire.

ARREST OF A SUPPOSED SLAVER CAPTAIN. A man named G. Filetti, alias Craft, has been arrested in New York upon a charge of having been engaged in the slave trade. The complaint states that the accused equipped the schooner Advance, at New York, in September, 1852, for a voyage to Africa for slaves, and sailed in her as captain.

LOCAL.

KANSAS EMIGRATION.—The attention of our citizens is invited to the notice of a Kansas meeting in another column. This is a subject of deep interest to all. Mr. Thayer is an accomplished speaker, and will well repay a hearing.

☞ We were in error in announcing Rev. Dr. Burroughs's usual semi-monthly lecture, for Wednesday evening. Owing to the sickness of the Dr. the Episcopal church was closed on Sunday last, and the lecture referred to, omitted. We regret to learn that he is still seriously ill.

NOTE FOR PRAYERS.—The following is a true copy of a note sent by the late eccentric Jonathan Plumer to Rev. Mr. Milton, of Newburyport, and read by him in his church, some forty years ago.

Jonathan Plumer, Jr., desires to return thanks, to the transcendantly potent Controller of the Universe, for his marvellous kindness to him from a desperately low, and perilous indisposition, of health and strength, that he is again able with transporting raptures of mind, to wait at the celestial portals of wisdom.

The said Plumer also desires to return thanks to Alpha and Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end, for his astonishing goodness, his captivating mercy, his paternal regard to him, in snatching him from endless grief, and everlasting woe, in a miraculous manner by light in dreams, by causing the day to dawn on his heart, and the day-spring from on high to illume his dark and benighted understanding, and by chasing far from him the gloomy fogs of infidelity; and enabling him triumphantly to rejoice in that blessed Redeemer wherewith he has crowned his happy life.

Jonathan Plumer was a harmless fanatic, devotionally insane, catholic and friendly to all: and he finally committed unintentional suicide by mutilating himself "for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake."

PRESIDENT PIERCE AND HIS DEMOCRATIC FLOCK.—A distinguished democratic southern senator, travelling upon one of our western steamboats, fell reluctantly into conversation about politics with a gentleman who was rather hard upon our President. Among other matters came up the results of the late elections, the anti-administration Democrat remarking:

"Pierce deserves all this for his suicidal course in taking rotten Whigs into his councils, and for his folly in trying to make the party a unit by bestowing his patronage on the 'rottens' of the party."

"You are doing Mr. Pierce injustice," said the senator. "The President is deeply religious, and he has taken specially to heart the 18th chapter of Matthew. He has been hunting after and nursing the 'stray sheep,' but unfortunately, in searching out the few that had gone or threatened to go astray, he has lost the flock. Mr. Pierce is a good Christian, but he never was made for a good shepherd."

This was said in a cool, dry way, which gave it great point.—N. Y. Evening Post.

THAT'S SO.—A New York Journal is of the opinion that there are other fools besides those who live in the Fifth avenue. Listen to it:

"Think not, laborer, extravagance is confined to laces, silks and satins of the rich alone. When a target company of fifteen or twenty working men waste their money on a band of music twenty or thirty strong, to parade the streets, that is extravagance.—When one day in the week is fooled away, and only five are made work days, that is extravagance. It was the very height of extravagance, for a poor man, in prosperous times, to be spending all his means—those means which, if possible, should have been saved for such a day as this. Thus, it is not the fault alone of the rich, but of the poor too, that we are now as we are. There is a good deal of truth in these remarks. They may be unpalatable, but they are 'founded on facts.'

COUNSEL.—But few of the reading public are aware how continually an editor is called upon to advise his patrons on every subject, from politics to the breed of cattle. Through the whole range of our duties none has perplexed us more than to tell our readers what to take for a cure when they are sick. Hitherto this has been a severe trial to all our skill, but it will not be hereafter. We have been taking, and have seen the evidence from others that have taken Doct. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and Cathartic Pills. They need but a slight trial to convince the most sceptical how far they are superior to the other medicines we have had in use. They have one single property of great importance to the sick and that is they cure.—Boston Herald.

The two ladies who were saved from the wreck of the propeller Westmoreland, on Lake Michigan, were at last accounts staying at the house of a man named Fisher, near Platte river, with no prospect of getting away for several months. Their names are Cary and Tailor. One is from Boston and the other from Chicago. Both are unmarried, and their prospects of remaining so till spring are good. The captain of the Westmoreland, after a hard journey on foot, had reached the bounds of civilization.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Emery E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the cheapest medicine.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston.
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.
Hon. Samuel S. Phelps, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Wm. Upham, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Solomon Foote, Member of Cong. from Vt.
Hon. H. D. Foster, Member of Cong from Pa.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, Jan. 30.

SENATE.—The Senate took up the Army Appropriation bill.

The debate continued to some length, when Mr. Houston of Texas obtained the floor, and the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Houston of Alabama gave notice that if he can obtain the floor on Thursday he will move to go into a Committee of the Whole on the bill proposing a moderation of the existing tariff, and will make that a test vote.

Mr. Walsh of New York offered a resolution calling upon the President for information in regard to our relations with Spain.

The Senate bill authorizing the construction of a subterranean line of telegraph from the Mississippi or Missouri River to the Pacific Ocean, was taken up. The bill proposes to give Hiram O. Alden and James Eddy the right of way through the territories, and two millions acres of land, they to construct the line, work it, and keep it in order at their own expense, and to complete it in two years.—The government is to have the right to a free transmission of eight thousand words per month, and a prior right to transmit to any extent at the rates of compensation as presented by Congress.

Mr. Farley of Maine reported the bill, and showed the importance and necessity of such a line.

Mr. Lane of Oregon wished the bill laid on the table. There were other matters of a strictly territorial character should be considered first.

The remarks of Mr Lane drew a retort from Mr. Farley of Maine, and, during the remarks which ensued, Mr Lane called Mr Farley a d—d liar. The parties were about ten feet apart, and in a moment they rushed towards each other with threatening gestures and trembling forms. The greatest confusion ensued, but order was soon restored.

Mr Davis of Indiana suggested that the bill be postponed. Unanimous consent, necessary for the purpose, not obtained.

Mr Benton of Missouri opposed the bill as preposterous and impracticable in its operation.

Mr Benton gave way for a moment to Mr. Lane, who immediately commenced again in an excited manner upon Mr Farley.

Mr. Farley also claimed the indulgence of Mr Benton to express his surprise at the opposition to the bill. Mr Benton then finished his remarks.

Mr Latham of California supported the principle of the bill as being right. Adj.

FROM EUROPE.

Steamer Africa brings Liverpool dates to January 20, being seven days later than previous advices. The news however, amounts to as near nothing as a column of paragraphs can possibly do.

The Boston Courier says:

The leading principle of the telegraphic despatch of the news from Europe is that "there is a remarkable scarcity of intelligence." No events of importance had occurred in the Crimea, and the time had not arrived for the opening of negotiations at Vienna, between the hostile and neutral powers. Hopes and fears with regard to the success of the negotiations alternately agitated the British press and public.

In the meantime, it is said that efforts are making to procure an armistice, and if an armistice is concluded, there will be no more war, for both parties will thereby confess that they are sick of the fight.

In commercial affairs it is stated that the lower qualities of cotton had gained something, and that other grades were firm and stiff; that breadstuffs were better in price, though not much business was doing in them; that the provision market was buoyant, without change in prices; that coffee was in good demand, and sugar was dull, and that there was an active demand for money at 5 per cent. per annum. Consols at London closed a shade higher on the 19th than they were a week before. Higher prices were paid for some descriptions of American securities.—Freights were dull at Liverpool.

Claims against U. S. Government
French Spoliations prior to 1800.

THOMAS PEMBER, No. 15 Doane st., Boston, will prepare Memorials, Arguments and Evidence to be presented to any Board of Commissioners established by Congress, either to adjudicate upon the French Spoliation Claims, or any others of a general character. He will also prepare cases for presentation to Congress, and will procure Pensions, Bounty Land, Extra Pay, Remission of Fines, Return of Duties, &c., from the Departments of the General Government.

Mr. Pember has been engaged in the practice of this business for the past five years, at Washington, D. C. References given when required.

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture.—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—
varying in price

From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Dexter, and
P. WENZEL, Congress St.
Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 19, '55.

P. S. — Persons out of the place, may secure Tickets by enclosing the money in a letter, prepaid. j19 2ostf

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express our opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our family lives enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above named periodicals is $1 per year.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for the money.

Here may be found the EXTENSION DINING TABLES of different sizes; MARBLE TOP CENTRE TABLES; and a large assortment of FRENCH SOFAS and CHAIRS, covered with plush or silk damask—or the BLACK WALNUT and MAHOGANY SOFAS, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the CANE SEATED CHAIRS, with or without rockers.

These FRENCHMAN, as the French call them, or WHAT NOTS as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those UMBRELLA STANDS, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of ELEGANT CHAMBER SETS, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the LOOKING GLASS, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Ely Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell a Shop Right to some person in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them up from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT
—IN—
Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, crooked or knotty stuff, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

HERTS BROTHERS'
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and cleanness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wipping, nor do Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the finest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public spurious imitations, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLOUR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the URINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 33 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S URINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that hitherto my physician suspected cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

New Light and more Light.
PATENT SMOKE-BURNING
OIL LAMP!

THIS newly invented Lamp, so differently constructed from any other, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons:—

It requires only the Poorest Oil, Lard, Tallow or Grease; and with the same material, produces FOUR OR FIVE TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT As ANY other known Lamp. It is simple in its construction (consequently not liable to get out of order.) By its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of Light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.

Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

Morning Chronicle.

SIR ADAM FERGUSON.—The last accounts from England announce the death of Sir Adam Ferguson. He was Keeper of the Regalia of Scotland, and the ancient friend and "crony" of Sir Walter Scott. He died at Edinburgh, at the advanced age of 84. Ferguson had served in the army with distinction, but retired with only the rank of captain. He was perhaps the most intimate of all Scott's associates, and not inferior to the great minstrel himself in his fund of anecdotes, and admirable manner of telling them.

The fortune-tellers of New York are in a flurry. Their business is seriously threatened, Mayor Wood has declared war against them, and given the police instructions to hunt them out and report them all at his office. They will, therefore, be unable longer to practice upon the credulity of superstitious servants and anxious lovers.

SINGULAR DEATH.—A man named Lough, of Pendleton county, Ky., was killed about two weeks since in a most singular manner. He rode home, two miles, with a new axe in his side pocket, under his overcoat. He felt a pain in his side, and it was the axe that had cut clear into the intestines. Was the like ever heard?

The Charlestown Mercury recommends that Mr. Soule, on his return from his unfortunate mission, be received with open arms by the South, and restored to Congress. The Mercury thinks that the time is near when the South will need his services in that body.

At a fair recently held at Roxbury, a youth inquired of a lady in attendance, "If they had any diapers?" A reply was given to the following effect—"If you will come inside of the table, I will fit some to you." The youth left.

In Bridgton, N. J., there is a bouncing boy, aged about two years and ten months, who weighs 85 pounds. When five months old he weighed 17 pounds, and at twelve months, 50 pounds. His parents names are Cornell. The child is healthy and intelligent.

The Norfolk Beacon states that there is a great want of vessels at that port, and that upwards of 10,000 bushels of corn went to Baltimore last week for want of vessels in which to ship it.

The Pacific brings intelligence from England, that Mary Russell Mitford, the well known authoress, is dead.

POLITICAL MATTERS.

A person who regularly read and believed one half the things papers of different political parties publish, would suppose some great and mighty principle depended on the success of each. But in this enlightened age, there are few persons gullible enough to swallow a tithe of what the partisan editors say. The only questions of much importance now before the voters of New Hampshire are: Temperance or Intemperance? Slavery or Freedom? Let these questions come fairly before the people, and we have no doubt they will be settled in a judicious manner.

A great majority of the "dear people," as stump orators call them, will be hewers of wood and drawers of water, vote as they may. There is no help for this; every body cannot have an office. The young greenhorns who waste their time in electioneering for old party hacks, in expectation of a rich reward, are generally doomed to disappointment. If one of them works very hard for the old tricksters, perhaps he'll be made Secretary of some petty Convention. The old war hawks, after having belonged to all parties, in their attempts to push themselves into office, talk a great deal about principle, but we not unfrequently find, after election, that they have very little of the commodity.

In the present confused state of parties, it is hard to tell which a man belongs to; and in fact it makes but little difference, so long as he supports only good men. It is said the American party will revolutionize the State next spring. We hope it will; the present rulers have held the reigns of government long enough, and any change must be for the better. In this State the American party have less work to do than they had in Massachusetts, as our Constitution now has a clause which prevents Roman Catholics from holding certain offices, and another which prevents foreigners from keeping school; we have no military companies to disband, and no immigration to stop. Therefore, the most important qualification for a governor, aside from a good education and common sense, is that he should be so much in favor of a prohibitory liquor law as not to veto it if passed by the Legislature. There are four candidates for the gubernatorial chair now in the field, none of whom, we think, are teetotallers; out of the four there may possibly be one who would not veto a liquor law, and if there is, the temperance men should find it out and give him their support. WOODLAND.

CORONER'S REPORT.—The Coroner's Jury reported, on the deaths of Small and Ames, that they were killed at Falmouth, Me., owing to the neglect of the Portland and Kennebec Railroad Company, in not keeping their track in order, by drainage, &c., and in not having crowbars, tackles, levers, &c., always in the baggage cars, in case of accident.

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY, for February, contains an amusing chapter of Virginnia Illustrated, with numerous engravings; a supplementary chapter of Abbot's life of Saint Napoleon, giving an account of Bonaparte's second burial in the Chapel of the Hotel de Invalides; Italian Life and Morals, being a just and most scathing review of the papal influence on Italy. The number contains twelve articles of great value, besides numerous notices of current events, short literary notes, &c.

Received from Ferridge & Co., Boston, via J. F. Shores, Jr., Portsmouth.

U. S. SUPREME COURT.—The present term of the Supreme Court is drawing toward a close, and a great mass of important business remains to be disposed of. The Court still holds under advisement the motion so elaborately argued for carrying into effect the decree entered at May term, 1853, for the abatement of the Wheeling Bridge as a nuisance.

The heirs of Gen. Lafayette are plaintiffs in two suits for the recovery of considerable tracts of land in Louisiana, which will soon come on for argument. The case against Mr. Booth, for a violation of the fugitive slave act, in Wisconsin, involving the questions of the validity of that law, and the true limits of federal and State judicial authority, will not be argued at this term. It is a case which will occupy a large share of public attention, when brought on for argument at the next term.—Cor. Philadelphia North American.

CHICAGO, Jan. 31.—The condition of the Western and Southern railroads is desperate, on account of the snow. No communication with St. Louis or Springfield, by railroad, has been had for eleven days. Seventeen locomotives are frozen in or buried up by the snow on the Chicago and Mississippi Railroad.

To-day was the time fixed upon for the election of a U. S. Senator from this State, but there was no quorum present in the joint convention of both houses. A great effort will be made to-morrow to secure a quorum and make an election without the assistance of the absentees.

THE GERMAN CATHOLICS OF NEW HAVEN REFUSE A PRIEST.—The Roman Catholic Bishop of Hartford wishes to form a German parish at New Haven, and for that purpose has sent a German Catholic priest among those people to set it agoing, whereupon they have adopted the following resolutions by way of protest against the proceeding. They do not look very prosperous for the Right Rev. gentleman's project:

Resolved, That we, Roman Catholics, earnestly protest against such proceedings, and declare to the Right Rev. Bishop that we do not want a German Roman Catholic priest here in New Haven.

Resolved, That we have suffered already in our old fatherland too much from priestcraft and kingcraft; and that we here, in our new home, thank our Lord and God, in at least thirty churches other than Roman Catholic, that we are free from that yoke, and that every one of us can worship his God according to his best belief and conscience.

Resolved, That these resolutions be sent to the Right Rev. Bishop.

WORK AND FOOD FOR ALL.—A resident of Jasper County, Indiana, writes as follows to the unemployed and hungry of New York:

"Just move, with your families, to the small villages of the West. Here is unlimited work to be done, and thousands of dollars to pay for it. A competent, sober, and industrious mechanic can earn from three to four bushels of corn a day, or a bushel of good wheat, or from twenty-five to thirty pounds of pork, or their value in cash.

Here, at Rensselaer, a good mechanic, a joiner or shoemaker, for instance—and numbers are needed here, may obtain for his labor in one week, 2 bushels of corn, 1 bushel of wheat, 5 pounds of sugar, half a pound of tea, 10 pounds of beef, 25 pounds of pork, 1 good turkey, 3 pounds of butter, 1 pound of coffee, 1 bushel of potatoes, and have a couple of dollars left in his pocket to start with the next Monday morning. Now, gentlemen Editors, here is the proposal: is it not a perfect remedy against starvation!

Let the mechanics and servant girls, who are out of employment with you, emigrate to the small villages and country places of the West, (and there are ten thousand such places;) let them turn off from the large thoroughfares and cities, which are supplied, and they will be sure to find, not only a friendly, but cordial welcome, constant employment, ready pay, and by-and by a competence and even independence. You will also find means to educate your children, ready at your hand, and moral and religious instruction for your wives and yourselves. As for land, it invites your occupancy, you can have it on your own terms. Who will not prefer this to the riots, starvation, insolence, suffering and crimes, which you report to be your present or approximate condition!"

A GOOD WORK.—We know of a young student of Theology in New York city, who, moved to pity by the distresses of the poor, has diligently set to work, during the last few weeks, providing comfortable homes for many destitute persons, in some of the thriving towns of Pennsylvania, where he belongs. A considerable number have already been sent, and yesterday another group were started off for Montrose. This is practical philanthropy.—Eastern Argus.

A VERY NAUGHTY BOY.—Charles H. Blodgett, of Peterborough, nineteen years of age, threw a snowball through the school house window, and seeing one of his neighbors coming, probably to reprimand him for the offence, run out the back door, telling his wife (we forgot to say he was a married man,) to report him absent from home. She undoubtedly, from youth and inexperience, had not learned that one of a wife's first duties is to lie for her husband if he needs such aid, and discovered his retreat. After the neighbor left, Blodgett commenced abusing his wife for her dereliction from conjugal obedience, and she, with her mother, started for the residence of one of the Selectmen. This enraged the husband the more, and he threatened if she did not return to kill her. She ran the faster; he ran after her, caught her, pushed her in the snow, choked her, and her mother screamed "murder!" The result was, that the bad boy was sent to Amherst jail to answer two complaints for assault and battery upon his wife; and she, very probably, is weeping great big salt tears because he is reaping the reward of bad behavior.—Amherst Cabinet.

YOUNG AMERICA.—A boy of 16 was arrested at Philadelphia, on Sunday last, for drunkenness, and on Monday was sent to the House of Refuge. After the committal, a girl of fifteen called at the office of the magistrate and claimed the boy as her husband; alleging that she was married to him eight months since. The Alderman referred the venerable matron to the Managers of the Refuge.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 31.—Owing to a defect in the heating apparatus in the Moyamensing prison, gas escaped from the air chambers and filled the cells above. About twenty of the prisoners were found this morning in a helpless condition from the effects of the gas. One of them, John Ryder, has since died. The others, with two exceptions, have recovered.

A young man named Jeffries, was thrown from his horse at a fox hunt near Unionville, Pa., and very badly injured. Mrs. Jane Emmett, seeing the accident, went to administer relief, when she was seized with apoplexy and died on the spot.

While Charles H. Anderson, postmaster at Cynthiana, Kentucky, was making an excursion in a hand car on a railroad on Sunday morning, the crank caught his coat, threw him on the track, and the wheels instantly broke his neck.

A despatch from Bangor states that a meeting of citizens of that place had instructed their Representatives in the Legislature to prepare a bill granting authority to loan the credit of the city for $300,000, in aid of the Penobscot and Kennebec Railroad.

Money has become quite easy in Boston, the banks discounting all the first class business paper offered. Money in New York, the Evening Post says, "is becoming a glut for call loans, it being freely offered to first class borrowers at 6 per cent."

LOCAL.

POLICE COURT.—Thursday, Feb. 1.—Joseph Cornelius was brought before the Police Court for an assault of an aggravated character upon Police officer Trott, on the night of December 16, last. It appeared in evidence that the respondent struck Trott several severe blows on the head with a large glass bottle, on that night, and immediately after being arrested was rescued by a large crowd of rowdies, and has not been seen or heard of since, until the city Marshal of Newburyport arrested him Wednesday afternoon, at Newburyport,—from which place he was brought Thursday morning. His Honor Justice Parker considered the complaint well proved, and bound him over to the Court of Common Pleas, February term, in the sum of $200 to answer to the charge. I. B. Claggett for the State. Goodall for respondent.

☞ The progressives composing our Board of Aldermen seem to possess some of the qualities of the magnet—particularly that of attraction and repulsion. Last week they got together, and then, off they go, for a week or two. Last night, each star of the constellation was in its aphelion.

WHIG CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION AT DOVER.—This important body met at Dover, on Thursday, to nominate a Representative to Congress from the First District. The Convention, as we learn, was organized, and proceeded to ballot for a candidate; when it appeared that no person had a majority, but that Rev. James Pike, the K. N. candidate, had the largest number. They then balloted once or twice more, with nearly the same result.

A committee was then chosen, to report what course had better be adopted; who, after consultation, advised that the Convention should adjourn without day, and that the members should each vote for whomsoever he pleased. This report was accepted, and the Convention adjourned.

☞ We understand that two ice cars were smashed up on the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad, on Wednesday, by slipping from a frozen track;—and that a conductor on one of the trains lost his thumb, on Thursday, while blocking a wheel.

FAIR IN RYE.—The Congregational Society at Rye, held a social gathering in their Vestry on Wednesday evening last. The hall was tastefully decorated; the tables richly filled with the fanciful and the substantial, for eating and adornment; and neighbors and strangers had no trouble in finding enjoyment with the happy throng in attendance. Several who went from this city declare it to have been a right down good time.

ROCK ISLAND BRIDGE.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post ascribes the obstructions thrown in the way of bridging the Mississippi, between Illinois and Iowa, across Rock Island, to Jefferson Davis. And his opposition, to an unwillingness to have the middle Pacific road get any start of the Southern, for whose use the Messilla valley is destined. It seems that Rock Island was an old military station; but for many years has been useless for military purposes, and has been abandoned as a military reservation; and though the War Department has been trying for 26 years to get the island off its hands, no sooner did the Rock Island Bridge Company commence their work, than Mr. Davis interfered, first by military force and next by a civil suit for damages laid at $250,000.—Tran.

MISTAKES IN IDENTITY.—A case, showing how liable people are to be mistaken as to identity, especially at night, has lately occurred at Philadelphia. A jeweller some months ago, was, while on his way home, suddenly attacked in the street by a man who knocked him down with a paving stone, placed in a handkerchief, nearly killing him, and robbed him of a valuable gold watch. A man named Ennis was arrested as the robber, and the person robbed testified to his belief that he was the robber. The Jury convicted him, but the Judge, having doubts, set aside the verdict and granted a new trial. Within a short time, a Custom House officer sent a watch to be repaired, which proved to be the one of which the Jeweller was robbed and which was traced to a man named Williams, who upon being arrested confessed that he was the robber.—Tran.

LOST.—On Wednesday evening, on the pond, back of the steam Factory, the tip of a Stone Martin Tippet. The finder will be suitably rewarded on leaving the same at this office. f2

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 31.

SENATE—Mr. Clayton of Delaware asked that the French Spoliation bill be read a second time, in order that he might call for its final passage to-morrow.

Mr. Dawson of Georgia hoped the order of business would not be thus interfered with.

The effect of taking up the subject at this time would be to defeat many important measures to come before Congress.

After some further remarks by Messrs. Clayton and Dawson, the bill was read a second time.

Mr. Bayard of Delaware occupied an hour in vindicating the memory of his deceased father from charges contained in an original edition of Jefferson's works, which had been controverted, but were still published in later editions.

Messrs. Cass of Michigan, Hunter of Virginia, and Mason of Virginia, bore testimony as to the value of the services of the deceased Mr. Bayard, and thought that Jefferson, were he alive, would be the first to retract the charges, having the light which has since been thrown on the affair. They exculpated Mr. Jefferson from any attempt to injure or calumniate the deceased.

The consideration of the Army Appropriation bill was then resumed, and after some debate, without disposing of it, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House went into committee of the whole on territorial business.

The consideration of the bill authorizing the construction of a subterranean line of telegraph to the Pacific was resumed.

After some discussion the enacting clause of the bill was stricken out, and it was laid aside for future action.

The committee then rose.

Mr. Houston of Alabama presented his substitutes for the pending bill, to modify the existing tariff. Ordered to be printed. Adjourned.

The Washington Star represents that an executive proclamation will soon be issued against the Kinney expedition; and expresses the opinion that this expedition "will never leave the shores of the United States," first, because it has no means, second, because it cannot secure a sufficient number of men, and third, because the government must necessarily feel bound to interfere with it; and therefore that it will be speedily abandoned.

Dressmakers are in great demand in Boston, and ladies are obliged to engage them three or four months in advance. The most skilful have recently struck for $1 50 per day.

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED For the cure of

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Rea: the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the direction, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston.
Prof. E. R. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.
Hon. Samuel S. Phelps, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Wm. Upham, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Solomon Foote, Member of Cong. from Vt.
Hon. H. D. Foster, Member of Cong from Pa.
Rev. Thomas Ridder, Chaplain Vt. State Prison.
Rev. Chas. W. Dennison, Boston, Mass.
Rev. John Mathers, Jacksonville, Illinois.
Rev. J. Perry, D. D., Windsor, Vt.
Jas. C. Dunn, Esq., City Treasurer, Boston.
Elizheniy Homer, Esq., Boston, Mass.
Wm. Gordon, Esq., formerly U. S. Deputy Marshal, New Bedford, Mass.

ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—varying in price

From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present year the most interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that lies in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign that belief, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of testing their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the Extension Dining Tables of different sizes; Marble Top Centre Tables; and a large assortment of French Sofas and Chairs, covered with plush or silk damask—or the Black Walnut and Mahogany Sofas, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the Cane Seated Chairs, with or without rockers.

These Fragrans, as the French call them, or What Nots as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those Umbrella Stands, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of Elegant Chamber Sets, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of the Bedroom, the Looking Glass, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING

TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Well Hall and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired.

READ the following notice from a distinguished Clergyman:—

"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than while perusing the most amusing, and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most solemn, important and instructive lessons are couched in every page.—Youth should read it—parents, teachers, preach it to everybody."

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

THE GREAT STANDARD REMEDY

FOR ALL PULMONARY DISEASES.

Containing neither Prussic Acid, Tartar Emetic, nor any other deleterious drug. Extensively used, tested and approved in New England, Canada, and the British Provinces during a period of THIRTY YEARS by Eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Professors of Colleges, Theological Seminaries, Scientific and Distinguished Public Men,—and, in fact by all classes in the community. See Pamphlets and wrappers containing Certificates, among which are those of Rev. Dr. Lyman Beecher, Boston, late President of Lane Theological Seminary, Cincinnati, Ohio.—Late Rev. Dr. Leonard Woods, Abbott Prof. of Theology in Andover Theological Seminary, Mass.—Hon. Daniel P. Thompson, Secretary of State of Vermont.—N. F. Williams, Esq., formerly Collector of the Port of Baltimore, Md.—Rev. Josiah Litch, Philadelphia,—and many others.

How Esteemed by Physicians.—JOHN A. BERRY, M. D., Saco, Me., says, "During a practice of twenty years, I have seen used all the popular remedies for Coughs, and am well satisfied that your Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam is best, and I hope will be better known and more generally used."

☞ Beware of Counterfeits and Imitations!

Enquire for the article by its Whole Name, "VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM."

Prepared only by REED, CUTLER & CO., Druggists, 33 India street, Boston, Mass., and sold by Apothecaries and Country Merchants generally. Price, New Style, large bottles, containing nearly four times the quantity of the small, $1. Old Style, small bottles, 50 cents.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

Caution.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "Herts, Brothers' Patent, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its wonderful powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are Prolapsus Uteri, or Falling of the Womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation of the Womb; Incidental Hemorrhage of Flooding; Painful, Suppressed, and Irregular Menstruation, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the Uterine Catholicon, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Hill street.

New Light and more Light.

PATENT SMOKE-BURNING

OIL LAMP!

THIS newly invented Lamp, so differently constructed from any other, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons:—

It requires only the Poorest Oil, Lard, Tallow or Grease; and with the same material, produced FOUR OR FIVE TIMES AS MUCH LIGHT As ANY other known Lamp. It is simple in its construction (consequently not liable to get out of order.) By its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of Light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.

Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

WITCHCRAFT.—The next Lecture before the Mercantile Library Association, is to be on Thursday evening, Feb. 8, by F. H. Underwood, Esq., of Boston. His subject is to be, Witchcraft. We find the following notice of the lecture and lecturer, in the Boston Journal.

The lecture before the Charlestown Lyceum, on Tuesday evening last, was by F. H. Underwood, Esq. His subject was "Witchcraft," a suggestive theme, and handled with spirit and ability. Although a large portion of the discourse consisted necessarily of historical evidence, the speaker had brought together such a quaint and striking mass of materials, arranged with an eye to the picturesque contrast of the ludicrous with the tragical side of Witchcraft, and interspersed the whole so plentifully with epigrammatic bits, that all that tediousness, usually complained of in lectures of this description, was happily avoided. The narratives and affidavits, quoted in the quaint language of the period, gave a vivid picture of human nature, as developed in those times. A strong case was made out against the blind credulity and officiousness of good, vain old Cotton Mather and his coadjutors, and the deceptions practised by mischievous accusers; but at the same time it was admitted that many of the manifestations of what seemed demoniac agency, attested by witnesses whose sanity and veracity were not to be impeached, could not be accounted for by any known law of mind. The lecturer wisely abstained from any attempt to develope a theory by which to classify and explain the phenomena. His reference to modern spiritualism was brief and to the point.

Mr. Benj. P. Shillaber, of Boston, speaks thus of Mr. U. in a letter:,

He is a scholar, and ranks well as an elocutionist. I have heard from him in various directions where he has lectured, and always with commendation.

MRS. STOWE ON WOMAN'S RIGHTS.—In a letter from Andover to the N. Y. Independent, Mrs. Stowe mentions the fact that Miss Antoinette Brown has delivered a lecture in that city, and thus expresses her opinion of the cause which the lady champion so ably advocates:

"In private society, Miss Brown is quiet, retiring and modest, without the slightest shade of anything obtrusive or unwomanly. It would appear to be a safe course to allow the experiment which is now being made on the sphere of womanhood, to run itself out to its final results without opposition. The laws and sphere of the two sexes are so strongly and unalterably fixed by nature and constitution, that there is little danger in such patience. Women, as a general thing, will, by the force of constitutional instincts, tend to the sphere of domestic life.

But there always have been, and always probably will be, some who desire and have the capacity for a wider sphere, and it will be difficult to show why they should not also follow their nature. Can any one tell us why it should be right and proper for Jenny Lind to sing to two thousand people "I know that my Redeemer liveth," and improper for Antoinette Brown to say it? Why was it proper for Madame Sontag to sing to the assembled clergy of Boston, and would have been highly improper for her to speak to them? However, a little patience and quietness, and these vexed questions will determine themselves, by the most sensible of all tests—experience."

A telegraphic despatch says:
"Admiral Dundas goes home. He is to be succeeded by Sir Edmund Lyons."
To which piece of information we reply, that we are glad to hear that somebody is going to succeed in something.—Diogenes.

THE SPONGE FISHERIES OF KEY WEST. A letter from Key West says: "The sponge fisheries of this district are becoming very important. The demand at the present moment is not so great as usual, owing, doubtless, to the scarcity of money at the North; yet the fishermen have realized the past year from 20 to $30,000 for that collected among the Florida reefs and inlets.

It appears that but few of our fishermen who perhaps had just demands against the British government for molestation and seizure of vessels, have presented their claims. Mr. Charles Currier who had the schooner Washington taken some years ago, in the Bay of Fundy, demanded indemnity, and he is the only one we can hear of.—New. Herald.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1855.

MR. COLE'S LAW.

We have received by the mail, from Portland, a pamphlet by Mr. H. G. Cole, who proposes to repeal the present Maine law, because as he says,—"it has increased crime fifty per cent,—because grog shops have increased ten fold,—and because the deadly poisons now sold are sending thousands to an untimely grave."

This Mr. Cole is, we think, the same Mr. H. G. Cole, who has just been in Portland jail for selling liquors contrary to the law.

Mr. Cole proposes in lieu of the Maine law, an old fashioned license law, which shall authorise "persons of good moral character—to be retailers of wine, brandy, rum, and other strong liquors."

This is the principal clause in the bill—the design of which seems to be, to make the grog-shop a respectable institution. Mr. Cole is no doubt desirous under a ten dollar license, to sell much rum and thereby make much money: but we do not think the present legislature of Maine will either believe his statements above quoted, or pass his bill. The people of Maine have no confidence whatever, in any bill licensing the sale of intoxicating liquors for a drink, as a means of promoting temperance.

Mr. Cole and his customers would like such a bill, not because it would aid temperance, but because it would enable him to minister to their sottishness. As he has been jailed by the present law, we can readily excuse him for being excited; but we don't believe one syllable about his zeal for temperance. Actions speak louder than words.

The hotel and restaurant keepers of Cincinnati held a meeting recently, at which they determined to resist the prohibitory law, but resolved "that in future the local law prohibiting the sale of liquor on Sunday should be strictly and to the letter observed, and that henceforth the bars should be closed and no liquor sold or given away on the premises on that day."

Rather late in the day, this new born zeal for Sabbath day temperance. There used to be an old coarse proverb which said, "It is too late to repent when the —— comes." The reader may fill the blank as he pleases, and then judge whether the proverb fits the case.

SLAVERY IN KANSAS. — General B. F. Stringfellow, in a letter to Messrs. Clingman and other gentlemen respecting the inducements which Kansas holds out to emigrants as a place of settlement, speaks at some length of the natural advantages of the country—of the fertility of its rolling prairies, of the accessibility of building stone, and of the rapidity with which timber would spring up in every place, after civilization had so far advanced as to throw a barrier before those mighty fires which annually sweep over the country.

With regard to the question of slavery, General Stringfellow says there can be no reason why slave labor should not be as profitable in Kansas as in Missouri. He brings forward statistics to show the wonderful productiveness of the soil, and says that in Western Missouri negro men have been hired out at from $180 to $250 per annum, women at from $80 to $150, and girls from ten to thirteen years of age from $40 to $60. Farmers, he remarks, would never pay such prices, if the country was not healthy, and slave labor profitable. There is no doubt, General Stringfellow says, as to the fact that it is safe to take slaves to Kansas now. Indeed they would be safer there than in Missouri.

"From the law there can be no danger. Slaves are now, and have been for years, in the Territory; so that slavery, in fact, is already established. I need not say to you that no lawyer, unless he be an Abolitionist, will pretend that any positive law is necessary to make slavery legal. But, to vindicate the truth of history, I ought to say that the veriest school boy must know, as a matter of history, that although slavery existed in all the old States, in no one was a law ever enacted to establish it. Laws have been passed recognising its existence after it had an existence; never to establish it before it existed. It has been abolished, not by the repeal of laws establishing or permitting it, but by laws positively and expressly prohibiting it. Without such prohibitory laws, it would now exist in every State in the Union. Until such laws are enacted by some competent legislative power, slavery is legal in Kansas. Such laws will never be enacted! Whatever might have been the result, if Abolitionists had not attempted to force the people of the Territory, their movements have 'fixed the fact.' They cannot harm us now."

Now let the impartial reader in New Hampshire compare what this Mr. Stringfellow tells us, from Kansas, where he lives and hires slave girls of ten years—with what some other fellows, here in New Hampshire, have been telling us, about the improbability of establishing slavery out there, and also of the effect of the Nebraska bill. That bill was intended to legalize and extend slavery. The people of this state understood it: and will treat its authors accordingly, in spite of all quibbles, all special pleading, and all the falsehoods, great and small, contained in the bill itself, and told about its intent by its advocates and apologists.

Napoleon is said to have remarked of physicians, whom he found to be materialists, "They do not believe that man has a soul, because they cannot find it with their dissecting knife."

The democrats in the K. N. organization in the north part of the State are leaving the "foul order" by scores. In one town in Grafton county, thirty withdrew in one night, together with a goodly sprinkling of whigs. The Manchester Convention acted as an emetic.—Nashua Gazette.

The order must have been immensely large, if all these stories of withdrawals are correct. And it must have been particularly promising too, to have gathered so many converts in so short a time. Now that these men are out, what has become of their oaths? Do they all go for nothing? or are they all cancelled?

SETTLEMENT.—In the September Court of Massachusetts, at Boston on Wednesday, case No. 635, Parrott vs. Smithett, for slander, was settled by the retraction of the slander by the Rev. Mr. Smithett, he signing a paper in Court that the words spoken were not true, and unfounded.

☞ Gov. Gardner of Massachusetts, has removed Col. B. F. Butler from his military command. Col. B. refused to transmit or execute the order to disband the Irish companies in his regiment. He is himself dismissed for disobedience.

MR. WISE.—This gentleman addressed the citizens of Charlottesville on the 24th inst. Bennett, of the N. Y. Herald, had a reporter present, to which fact the Accomac Demosthenes alluded in the following explicit manner.

"New York is to rule Virginia. Why, that cross eyed ogre of public journalism, James Gordon Bennett, who by villainy and black mail has made millions, says it is all arranged in New York that I am to be defeated. He says Seward and myself are both to be defeated, and the old villain has sent a reporter to follow me through the State to report my speeches, and to misrepresent me in his paper. Gentlemen, when I am Governor of Virginia, I will have all such cattle hung."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Gen. Cass declines the New Hampshire tour. Mr. Latham of California, also declines—but Gen. Lane will go. He is probably selected because of his brilliant success in Indiana and Illinois. The President invited Gov. Seymour, but he declined, having been sufficiently beaten in New York.

STANHOPE BURLEIGH; The Jesuits in our Homes; a Novel, by Helen Dhu.— This is title of a forthcoming work, to be published by Stringer & Townsend, New York. A brief extract from the promissory circular, will show the design of the book. If well carried out, it must be interesting.

"It is an American Romance, in a single 12mo volume of over four hundred pages, illustrated by our best artists. It delineates, with graphic power, the subtle intrigues of the Jesuits in America, in our Homes, in society, in politics, and in Government. The corrupting and degrading intrigues of unprincipled political demagogues, of all parties, are brought into full view, under the intolerable blaze of light; while the artistic developments of the plot, impart to the work the most brilliant characteristics of the finest romances. It has been subjected to the severest and most enlightened criticism; and several of our most accomplished scholars who have read the manuscript with care, have all concurred in the opinion that it is the most dramatic and powerful novel that has been written in this country—that it must have an almost unprecedented circulation, simply upon its merits as a highly wrought work of fiction. But written, as it has been, with the specific object of enlightening the mind, and stirring the hearts of a great and a free people, they do not hesitate to predict for it, such a circulation as no other American book has had."

ANCIENT MUSIC.—"Old Times," that much talked of old fellow, who combines many queer qualities in one general characteristic, visited Mechanic Hall on Sunday evening last, for the purpose of edifying his youthful progeny with a couple of dozen specimens, or more, of the music he delighted to offer, long ay ars ago, from the well, but discriminately packed singing-seats, that have been pretty generally supplanted by the more modern quartettes, et cetera. The old fellow was in excellent trim for the entertainment, and threw back his head, and opened his throat with such an unsurpassed air of nonchalance and self-complacency, that some almost wondered if he wasn't endeavoring to imperonate the "Young America" of the present day.

In fact, we doubt if he could under any circumstances, past or present, have performed to better advantage, or with better effect. "Milford," "Turner," "Tilden," "Yarmouth," "Lenox," and "China," were finished up with all the trimmings; while "Strathfield," "Ocean," "Edom," and "Cambridge" were put over the road in a style which must have withstood the most austere criticism, without giving the remotest cause for "David's Lamentation," or any body's else, that they were not better sung. "David Lamented," however, and did it well. "Northfield" was performed in fine style—the "little fiddles" and "bigger sins," breaking the way like pioneers in a new track, and "Old Times" chiming in as though he were used to it.

The audience were delighted with the performance, and a murmur of applause, which the time prevented from bursting into more active vitality, gree ed the able execution.

The Salem Academy of Music was permitted to be present, in good force, "Old Times" offering no objection to the assistance of his young and worthy friends, but, (it is said,) giving a twinkling nod of approval when the prompt director knocked over a fiddler's music-board in an enthusiasm which he supposed was caused by his own peculiar productions.

A large audience greeted the old gentleman, trusting that he would, ere long, favor them with a little more of the same sort.

Won't the Academy give "Old Times" another stir, and get him out again?—Salem Gazette.

LOCAL.

THE "OLD FOLKS' CONCERTS."

For the information of many who have made inquiries on the subject,—and for a record of the interesting occasions, we give below an alphabetical list of the Singers at the two Concerts of ancient sacred music in Portsmouth, Dec. 13, '54, and Jan. 24, '55; and the names of the Orchestra as their instruments range; with the Committee of Arrangements, &c. Those against whose names no town is placed, are residents of Portsmouth—and it will be seen that the greater portion of this excellent Choir are our own citizens.

Chaplains—First Concert. Israel W. Putnam, DD., of Middleboro' Mass.
Second Concert—Rev. Charles Burroughs, DD.

Musical Conductor—John Christie.

We have doubtless omitted a few names as the list is made up partly from memory.

The receipts at the first concert were $144.-93: at the second, $113.25—which hardly covered the expenses, so extensive were the arrangements, and so liberal the distribution of free tickets. However, the entertainments fully achieved the object of the projector, which was, not to make money for anybody; but to bring out the old music and musicians, and have a good time.

POLICE COURT. — On Friday morning, William Blaney was brought before Justice Parker, by officer Trott, for an agravated assault upon Michael Hair on the 30th day of November last. It appeared in evidence that on that day Blaney entered Hair's house and dragged him out into the street, and then knocked him down and severely beat him; that Hair's wife interfered with an axe and caused Blaney to desist, that Blaney has been absent with Cornelius (who was bound over Thursday) "down East" and at Newburyport since the assault, and was arrested Thursday afternoon by officers Trott and Teague, after a hard chase through several fields in the vicinity of the residence of the late Levi Woodbury.

His Honor considered the complaint fully proved, and bound the respondent over to this February term of the Court of Common Pleas, in the sum of $400, to answer to the charge. I. B. Claggett for the State.

PILGRIM'S PROGRESS.—Our citizens will be pleased to learn that the original "Grand Sacred Panorama or Pilgrim's Progress," exhibited with such success in New York city and Boston, is to visit for the first time our city. It will be opened we understand next Friday, for three evenings only. We shall take occasion to speak of the superior merits of this work of art next week.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Miss Abigail A. Hill, aged 29 years, daughter of the late Mr. James Hill, residing in Deer street in this city, was burned to death on Friday afternoon. She was left alone in her chamber for a few minutes; and a member of the family of Mr. Forest Trafton, who lives in the same house, happening to go to the room, found the door locked and smoke issuing from the key-hole.

Mr. T. was called, and bursting open the door, found Miss Hill lying on the floor, dead, with her clothing, from her feet to her throat, much burnt. She had apparently been sitting by the stove, and her clothing took fire, and communicated it to her chair and other furniture of the room. She had been subject to frequent epileptic fits from childhood, and may have been attacked with one at this time.

☞ Rev. B. F. Fanton will preach at the Pleasant Street Church to-morrow, forenoon and afternoon; also, in the evening, if fair weather.

"Old Folks" Choir.

AGREEABLY to adjournment, the Choir which has recently presented to the public some of the ancient sacred music, will meet at Exchange Hall on Saturday Evening, Feb. 3d, at half-past 7 o'clock, for Rehearsal and business. Others acquainted with the old music, are invited to join, at that time and place. Per order

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, Feb. 1.

SENATE.—Mr. Seward presented a petition for the final abolition of Slavery, provided it can be done consistently with the rights of Slavery and our duty to the slave. The petition proposes to set apart a portion of the territory acquired in Mexico for the colonization of the African race in this country, and that the proceeds of the public domain, including the mineral wealth of California and other territories, be applied in aid of the Colonization Society.

Mr. Seward of New York, from the Committee on Post offices and Post Roads, also offered a bill making appropriations for mail services, &c.

The Senate refused to take up the French Spoliation bill—yeas 26, nays 29.

The consideration of the Army Appropriation bill was resumed.

The debate upon the bill was lengthy and desultory, and resulted in the following amendments offered by Mr. Shields of Illinois: that there shall be added to the army two regiments of infantry and two of cavalry, as in the existing force, the officers and men to be entitled to the same provisions for wounds and disabilities, the same provisions for widows and children, and the same allowances and benefits in every respect as are allowed to other troops in the regular army. They are to be recruited in the same manner and governed by the same rules as the other troops of the United States.

On motion of Mr. Weller of California the sum of $2,500,000 was inserted in the blanks.

Mr. Dodge of Iowa presented a bill creating an additional land office in California. Read three times and passed.

Mr. Dodge then obtained leave to introduce a bill providing for a telegraphic and express mail communication between the Mississippi river and the Pacific ocean. Read three times and referred to the Committee on Territories. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House took up the Subterranean Telegraph bill, and the question of agreeing to the report of the Committee of the Whole, to strike out the enacting clause, was negatived.

Mr. Richardson of Illinois, offered a substitute for the bill, striking out the grant of two millions acres of land, reserving the right of way, and extending the penal laws of the United States over the line for its protection.

Under the operation of the previous question the substitute was agreed to, and the bill passed, yeas 110, nays 70.

One or two important Senate bills were passed, and the House took up the bill establishing the office of Surveyor of Utah, and for granting lands to actual settlers therein.

After some discussion and confusion arising from the introduction of the question in relation to the endorsement of the peculiar institutions of Utah by the bills, the enacting clause was struck out by a vote of 179 to 74, which is equivalent to the defeat of the bill.

Mr. Phelps of Mississippi, moved to reconsider the vote, which was agreed to, and after some amendments, the bill passed.

Mr. Houston of Alabama moved that the House go into Committee on the Tariff bill, but withdrew his motion, and the House adjourned.

SNOW STORM ON THE GRAND PRAIRIE.—The telegraph from Chicago reports that there has been another prairie snow storm in that region. The train of cars on the Chicago and Mississippi Railroad, with a large number of passengers, including members of the Legislature, were frozen up on the grand prairie, in snow about eight feet deep. The passengers were obliged to burn up some of the cars to supply fuel. Fortunately there was a supply of preserved oysters on freight, which kept the passengers from starvation. Relief was sent from Chicago on Saturday night.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Here is the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.
Hon. Samuel S. Phelps, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Wm. Upham, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Solomon Foote, Member of Cong. from Vt.
Hon. H. D. Foster, Member of Cong from Pa.
Rev. Thomas Kidder, Chaplain Vt. State Prison.

PORTSMOUTH
ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND
EXHIBITION AND DISTRIBUTION OF PICTURES,

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—
varying in price
From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle;) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and
P. WENZEL, Congress St.
Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 19, '55.
P. S.—Persons out of the place, may secure tickets by enclosing the money in a letter, prepaid. j19 2cntf

INCENDIARISM IN HARTFORD.—For the last ten days fires have been of nighly occurrence in Hartford, evidently the work of incendiaries. The city authorities have offered a reward of $1000 for the detection of the incendiaries, and three persons, one of whom has confessed his participation in the business, were arrested. The officers are after several more of the same gang. The Hartford Courant intimates that the rum folks are engaged in the business, whereat the Hartford Times is very indignant.

The latest advices from Mexico indicate that Santa Anna is about to have another fall. He has lost a leg already in the service of his country, and this last term of dictatorship may cost him his neck. It is doubtful if the country, however, is prepared for any better man than he is.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above mentioned Journals is $1 per year.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the EXTENSION DINING TABLES of different sizes; MARBLE TOP CENTRE TABLES; and a large assortment of FASHION SOFAS and CHAIRS, covered with plush or silk damask—or the BLACK WALNUT and MAHOGANY SOFAS, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the CANE SEATED CHAIRS, with or without rockers.

These PARLOR, as the French call them, or WEAK NOTE as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those UMBRELLA STANDS, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of ELEGANT CHAMBER SETS, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the LOOKING GLASS, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose—and is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 75 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired.

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

MANUFACTORY, BIRMINGHAM, ENGLAND.

DR. J. W. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

New Light and more Light.

PATENT SMOKE-BURNING
OIL LAMP!

THIS newly invented Lamp, so differently constructed from anyother, is believed to be the BEST LAMP ever offered to the Public, for the following reasons:—

It requires no order.) By its use, the danger from Fluid and other EXPLOSIVE COMPOUNDS is avoided; at the same time without the least odor, an amount of Light is produced truly astonishing. The economy with which it may be used makes it desirable for every one, while the price of it puts it within reach of all.

Hundreds of testimonials from those using them, may be seen at the Store of the subscriber, who is the only agent for the sale of them in this city.

Morning Chronicle.

CONCERTIZING. — Messrs. Mosely and Blake, a couple of enterprising gentlemen in Newburyport, have announced a series of four vocal and instrumental concerts in that city, by the Mendelssohn Quintette Club and Mrs. Emma A. Wentworth, (formerly of this city.) The price is $1 for the four—37 1-2 cents single—and the Herald states that 150 subscribers are already obtained. The same performers gave a good concert here, a couple of years ago, with fair success; and we doubt not but that our citizens would again greet the excellent lady vocalist named, with a full house—though some other accompaniment would be more popular here than the Club mentioned—say, perhaps, a pianist, and other aid, vocal or instrumental.

Mr. William Mason, the wonderful pianist, has just returned to New York, from a western concert tour, in which "he has given twenty concerts, without assistance, and everywhere has achieved the greatest success. The critics are almost unanimous in his praise, and his second concerts in any place have always been more fully attended than the first. This experiment, the first of the kind made in America, has proved that a true artist can make a piano-forte concert most interesting. At least Mr. Mason has done this. So says the N. Y. Musical Review. We learn that Mr. M. intends giving concerts in the Eastern States, and will probably visit Portsmouth.

What terrible exhibitions people have to make of themselves, who would follow the fashions. Probably the men look as ridiculous to the women as ladies do to men; yet this back of the head bonnet that leaves the whole face bare, and holding up the clothes front, a little exceeds anything that we have had before. We don't blame females who have pretty eyes for wishing to look out of them, or pretty legs for being proud of them; but fashions that make old ladies blush and keep old bachelors in doors, ought not to continue more than two seasons.—Newburyport Herald.

A French paper thus traces the sensation of a reader of advertisements:

The first advertisement—He don't see it.
The second insertion—He sees it but don't read it.
The third insertion—He reads it.
The fourth insertion—He looks at the price.
The fifth insertion—He speaks of it to his wife.
The sixth insertion—she is willing to buy.
The seventh insertion—He purchases.

The sixth of January, is a Carnival day with the negroes in Cuba. It is known there as Dia de Reyes, or King's day. The negroes are permitted to disguise themselves in the shape of the most horrid monsters, and to drum and dance and sing about the streets throughout the livelong day. The day was celebrated this year in Havana, with more than the usual noise and fun.

CHARLES FENTON MERCER is now in London, whence he writes a long letter to the National Intelligencer. Mr. Mercer has been nery roving in his habits since he ceased to represent in Congress the Loudoun district, in which was contained most of the old Federal voters of Virginia. He is now in his 77th year. His object in visiting Europe is to engage the various governments there to unite in declaring the African slave trade piracy.

The gendarmes of Copenhagen are ordered to seize the infants of families who refuse to have them baptized, and force the ordinance upon them.

A VIRGINIA DIVINITY.—Mr. Wise said in his Charlottesville speech—"If I am placed in charge of the sword of Virginia, I will bear and forbear to the last; but if the worst comes to the worst, if the honor of the State is touched, by the God of Virginia, I will draw the sword and flesh it, and it shall be broken in my hand."

An army officer in Utah writes: "last night the people of this place got up a ball for our benefit, (that is to say, on our paying expenses.) It was opened with prayer by one of the Mormon Elders. The females were all married, as every one is appropriated by the time she is fourteen years old."

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1855.

WHAT IS HE?

We have understood all along that Mr. Metcalf, the new nominee for Governor, was a member of the Democratic party, in good and regular standing. But the Dover Gazette says:

Metcalf, like Moore, was once a democrat, but of late years has been with the freesoil faction.

Per contra, the New Hampshire Gazette says:

Mr. Metcalf has always acted with the democratic party, and has lately expressed a determined opposition to the secret organization whose candidate he now is. It is understood that he will accept the nomination and stump the State, not openly and above board before the people, but within the lodges, where he will show his former opponents, the whigs and abolitionists, the depth and sincerity of his democracy. This rumor may be incorrect, and for the sake of Mr. Metcalf's consistency, we hope it is; for it is certainly a pitiable sight to see an old man forsake the constant friends who have loaded him with honors fully equal to his deserts, merely to gratify an ambition for place. He can have no justifiable pretext for this abandonment of principle, and treachery to his old friends.—For him the Democracy will have only the just scorn which must always await such a traitor. The fate of John Atwood will be his fate, and the party that nominated him will find him a dead weight upon their shoulders.

The Patriot deems him too good and valuable a democrat to be a Know Nothing Governor, and hopes he will not accept the nomition. It is said, however, that he will accept, and there seems to be a probability of his election, though it is not yet certain, as the Patriot and some other papers insist upon it that "Satan's Kingdom 's tumbling down."

A correspondent of the Stars and Stripes sends the following letter, which shows how hard they work to make it tumble:

———, Jan. 26, 1855.

Mr. Tenney: Dear Sir—I have learned a fact to-day, which is worth noticing. Butterfield, of the N. H. Patriot, has written letters to the several Administration editors of the State, requesting them to publish, in their own language, statements to the effect that large numbers of Democrats are leaving the American party, or "Know Nothings," as he calls them, each in his own section of the State, and he will gather up these statements into his own immaculate (?) leading organ, and publish them as showing a general change of public opinion in regard to the cause! You may rely upon this as a fact. Yours, truly, —

The Pittsburg Union has been presented by Mr. James Gardner, of that city, with a specimen of corn broom flour, which is superior to the best buckwheat ever used for cakes. The way to make it up is, to bake it a little longer than buckwheat; mix the dough with a little soda, and you will have a more delightful cake than can be made from buckwheat.

It strikes us that a slight transposition of words would improve the above paragraph, without injuring the cake. If we should grind some broom corn, it might make good meal or flour: but a corn broom ground up, would only make fuel or chaff. There is about as much difference between a broom corn cake and a corn broom cake, as between a horse chestnut and a chestnut horse.

A Fact.—The singers in Portland have given four concerts of the ancient sacred music, within a year or two—of which two have come off since the first was given in Portsmouth. Mr. Nath'l Illsley, the leader, took part in our first concert. The first three were completely successful—while the last, equally meritorious, and which was announced to aid the "Widows' Wood Society," was a failure, in a pecuniary sense. A correspondent of the Advertiser states as the reason for this, that "the omnipotent power of the press had not been employed to arouse the public attention." That's the great secret of success; for without this "omnipotent power," which too often "makes great of mighty little men," in this respect, the business of concert giving must soon come to nought.

Speech Making.—Excepting Mr. Wise of Virginia, there is probably no man in the country who makes so many speeches as Maj. H. P. Ross, of Groton Junction, Mass.—Wherever he is—before a large audience or small—in the cars or in the street—he is ready and willing to hold forth, laboring to improve the human race—which in his opinion can only be done by buying and using his famous premium soap. Besides being a native American in sentiment, the Major dresses in the old native American fashion—full coat, long vest, breeches, and pointed shoes. It is his intention to visit this city town meeting day. In the meanwhile he will answer orders for his soap, directed to Groton Junction, Mass.

"Sam" again Victorious.—Myron H. Clark, Governor of New York, enjoyed the double honor of an election as Senator of the Legislature. The latter office, of course, he resigned, and a special election to fill the vacancy was held on Monday, which resulted in the election Mr. Goodwin, the Know-Nothing anti-Seward candidate by a large majority—upwards of 2000.

The New Hampshire Contest.—The Concord State Reporter, (anti-administration Democrat) in speaking of the nomination of Mr. Metcalf for Governor by the Know Nothings, says "he will take a strong vote outside the order which brings him forward, and we shall not be surprised to see him elected by a triumphant majority of the people." It further denies the statement of the Patriot that the Democrats in the order are 'backing out,' and says that "since the nomination of Metcalf, they are all satisfied, and now five Democrats go in, to where one comes out."

Manchester City Hotel.—The City Hotel doesn't need any recommendation to any one who has ever been there once. We don't know of a more honest and obliging landlord than Mr. Franklin Tenney; nor of a more quiet and orderly house, or more neat and substantial fare than can be found at the City Hotel. Strangers who visit the city,—if they don't come too many at a time—will find what we say to be true, if they call at this house.—Stars and Stripes.

We are pleased to endorse the above from a personal knowledge of the premises. Visitors at Manchester can't do better than to put up at Tenney's.

New York, Feb. 2.—The Paris correspondent of the Commercial Advertiser says that the steamship Union sailed from Havre with her hold and cabin full of freight, and only a small number of second class passengers.—During her stay at Havre, strenuous efforts were made by Capt. Adams to sell her to the French government, or the new Franco Spanish Trans-Atlantic Company, but she was too small for either of the parties.

Advices from Paris state that Mr. Mason, our Minister to France, continued to improve in health.

An order was obtained from the Supreme Court this morning, declaring the Empire City Bank insolvent; their assignment void, the injunction to be permanent, and the United States Trust Company to be receivers.

White River Junction, N. H., Feb. 2.—Mr. Walcott, second conducter on the freight train from Windsor, on the Vermont Central Railroad, while going up this afternoon, put his head out of a saloon car to look after a hat box, when he came in contact with a wood pile, was knocked off the train and seriously injured, having had his head bruised badly, and an arm broken, which will have to be amputated above the elbow. It is believed that he is not fatally injured. The accident occurred near Sharon.

A Claimant under the F. S. Bill.—Among the claimants of the French Spoliation Bill, is an American lady of this city, named Vidalot. Her husband was a shipping merchant at the time of the war of 1812, and lost a large amount of wealth by it. Since his death, her daughter has supported herself and mother, the lady named, who is an invalid, by the earnings of her needle. If she should succeed in obtaining her claim, a large fortune will come into her possession.—Newark Daily Advertiser.

Cincinnati, Jan. 30.—The river is full of ice, and navigation is entirely suspended.

At Mount Pleasant, in this county, about fifty women attacked a tavern and destroyed a large quantity of liquor belonging to the keeper. After demolishing the casks, &c., they dragged the owner through the liquid, which stood six inches deep on the floor. Warrants have been issued against about twenty of the parties, but the officers returned this afternoon and reported their inability to serve the processes. They go back to-night with reinforcements.

The weather continues extremely cold.

Washington, Feb. 2, 1855.—Commander Andrew H. Foote will probably command the Arctic Expedition which is to go in search of Dr. Kane and his crew.

Mr. Mallory's bill for a naval retired list, has passed the Senate.

Fugitive Slaves.—The Cincinnati Columbian states that during the week ending January 27th, no less than six parties of fugitive slaves arrived in that city from Kentucky and the more southern slave States, and were forwarded thence to Canada by way of the underground railroad. The slaves were fifteen in number, and were probably worth $15,000

A Minister in the New York Senate. Mr. Goodwin, just elected to the Senate of New York, is a Methordist minister, and is said to be the first clergyman who ever occupied a seat in the Legislature of New York, if not the first who ever held a civil office in the State. The constitution of the State, until 1846, contained a provision that ministers of the gospel should not be eligible to or capable of holding any civil or military office or place within the State.

New York Milk.—The Legislature of New York is following the example of Louis Napoleon, with respect to milk dealers. They have now under consideration a bill providing that any person who shall sell or offer for sale any milk produced from cows that are fed on unwholesome, deleterious or unnatural food, shall be liable to a fine of $100 or to imprisonment not exceeding three months. Any person who shall sell or offer for sale adulterated milk, shall be liable to a fine of $50.

The ship Monarch of the Sea, of twenty five hundred tons, arrived at New Orleans a few days since from Pensacola, where she has been used for testing the new U. S. dry dock. The Monarch of the Sea is the largest vessel which ever visited New Orleans.

Coal Falling.—The Boston Advertiser says dealers in anthracite coal have reduced the retail price from $9 to $8.50 per ton. This will be good news for housekeepers.

A mine of tin ore, which promises to be extensive and valuable, has been discovered in Paulding county, Georgia.

Christian Inquirer.—Rev. John Parkman, formerly of Dover, has become editor of the Christian Inquirer, a religious paper published in New York, and devoted to the dissemination of liberal Christianity.

LOCAL.

☞ Not many days ago, a morning train of cars brought into this city a very respectable appearing old gentleman, perfectly sober, from a neighboring town in Maine. When the train was about to return, toward evening, the old gentleman was on hand, punctual as the clock, but not quite so regular or steady in his motions; and with some difficulty he was placed in the train and seated. His ticket was for ——— crossing: but the conductor, (having had some experience with men who come over from Maine to drink in New Hampshire,) feared he would attempt to get out at Eliot, and probably fall. He therefore cautioned him to sit still till he called him; and at the same time requested a brakeman to watch him, as the conductor himself must pass through the train. Arriving near the old man's destination, he could not be found in his seat; the brakeman had seen him go into the baggage car, as he thought, but he was not there now.

He has fallen, and we have ground him to pieces, said the conductor; but of course it was out of his province to return in the dark, on so uncertain a search. With agonized feelings he went on to another station, and thence sent back a hand car and two men, to go carefully over the road, and take care of the poor old man, if alive, or to pick up his remains if he was dead, as they feared.

Back some miles they found him, alive.—He had accidentally fallen off the train, when in motion, and rolled down the bank into the ditch, where he lay to freeze to death, as he would have done before morning. When told by the men that they were sent back to look for him, he was greatly surprised, as he did not think any one on the train cared enough about him to look after him. He was very thankful, however, to be rescued, and at the house of a farmer had a good night's sleep, at the expense of the conductor, who could not sleep for anxiety.

Next morning dispelled the anxiety; but the conductor assures Uncle Toby that he does not think any better of our groggeries now, than he did before he lost a night's sleep on account of our old tipsy friend whose narrow escape we have thus recorded.

The Profits.—The managers of the old folk's Concert held a meeting last Saturday evening, to decide what disposal to make of the proceeds of the overflowing Concert given last week at the Temple. Some were for giving it to the Howard Benevolent Society—some for first freeing all the slaves in the Union, and then giving the balance to the Society,—and some had other projects. On summing up the expenses, however, it was found that slavery must continue for the present, and the hungry remain unfed—for there was a lack of eight dollars to cover expenses.

The splendid exhibition of tableaux and levee at Jefferson Hall last week, for some benevolent object, was still more largely in arrears.—Portsmouth Journal, Feb. 3d.

By request of some of the "Old Folks" Choir, we will correct several misstatements in the above, and set the Journal and others who care anything about the matter, right. To begin with, the meeting was of the whole choir — and the committee of arrangements chosen by themselves, were to make report of their doings at the time stated—and their report having been the first business of the meeting, of course no such blind talk as that spoken of, could take place. Something like it was had at a meeting previous to the second concert—when a gentleman, to ridicule the idea of spare funds coming from so extensive and costly an entertainment, and of hatching projects to spend money before it was earned, made such a motion respecting slavery, as that referred to. There was, indeed, a small deficiency in the treasury at the settlement, owing to the very large number of free tickets used by the Choir, the press, the clergy, &c.; but there are in the possession of the choir, the eight dozen new music-books, with one hundred and fifty copies of the "Old Folks Song," used at these concerts, which can hardly be considered dear at $8.32—having cost $50. These concerts were not got up to feed the hungry or to put an end to slavery,— the projector being too well acquainted with the business of concert giving, to expect any pecuniary profits from entertainments conducted on so grand and liberal a scale,—unless by repetition.

We have no taste for dragging such private matters into public notice—and regret that the Journal has imposed upon us the necessity of this explanation.

Respecting the Fair, we have been informed that the managers came out about five dollars minus. To those who think the giving public exhibitions is necessarily or generally profitable, the field is open for a convincing experiment. P.

St. Valentine's Day.—If it was necessary that the British should impose on our forefathers in warm weather, when the blood boils quick, to induce them to get up the Revolution,—we should think it would have been wiser to have arranged St. Valentine's anniversary in the summer time, when "the heyday in the blood is warm." But if the young folks can get up an excitement, this cold weather, they will see by our advertising columns, where they can suit their necessities or fancies, in this matter. Mr. Head has sent us in a sample of his stock, with which we intend making an irresistible attack on somebody.

Police Court.—On Saturday afternoon, Ira G. Stearns was again brought up before Justice Parker upon complaint for keeping a Bowling Alley without license. The defence set up was, that the respondent let the premises the day before the complaint to Charles H. Anderson. The Solicitor, anticipating this trick, had issued a warrant against Anderson in case of need. Anderson being introduced, stated that he hired the premises, as before mentioned, and in the cross examination, that he still occupied the Alley without license.—Upon this testimony the Solicitor entered a nol. pros. as to Stearns.

The Marshal then arrested Anderson for the same offence, and as he had unwittingly entrapped himself, he had no defence. His Honor imposed a fine of $20, from which an appeal was entered; the respondent was ordered to procure bonds in $200 to prosecute the appeal. I. B. Claggett for State; Goodall for deft.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, and D. Kimball, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, Feb 2.

SENATE.—Mr. Mallory's bill, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, was taken up and passed. This bill graduates the pay of captains, commanders, and lieutenants, who are on leave of absence or who are incapable of service.

The bill for the relief of the claimants of the armed brig Gen. Armstrong was taken up. Pending the debate upon the bill the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House passed the bill for the relief of Messrs. Selden & Co., remitting duties on goods confiscated in Mexico.

After being in committe on private bills, thirty-six were favorably reported, but not acted upon.

There being no quorum present, the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—Ex-Mayor Maury died at 1 o'clock to-day. His loss will be universally regretted by the whole community. He was a wealthy man, and while he held the office of Mayor, he distributed double the amount of his salary in charities.

The anti-Nebraska members of Congress have contributed liberally to-day towards the payment of the $1000 fine imposed upon S. M. Booth for violation of the fugitive slave law.

COLONEL BENTON'S OPINION OF THE TELEGRAPH TO CALIFORNIA.—Colonel Benton being so strong an advocate of the Pacific railroad, is of course opposed to the project of a subterranean telegraph to California. In Congress, a few days since, he said—"These Digger Indians have long, slender sticks with a hook at the end—the object is to pursue the lizard running into a hole and bring it out with a hook. Put down your fifteen hundred or two thousand miles, of telegraph, and they will dig up and cut up the wire, every inch of it, and make of it hooks to pull out lizards."

The Columbia (Va.) Times learns by telegraph from Charlotte, that the Rev. Cyrus Johnson, D. D., of that town, died suddenly of apoplexy, on Thursday, while on his way to Fort Mills, for the purpose of marrying a gentleman and lady. He was the second clergyman who had been engaged to perform the ceremony. The Rev. A. S. Watts, who had been engaged for the same purpose, died on the day appointed for the wedding.

Save your Gas.

IT is desirable to economise in every way the consumption of Gas, and in no way can this be so effectually done as by the use of Dr. Walter Kidder's

GAS REGULATOR.

The Regulator is designed to lessen and equalize the pressure of Gas in the pipes, thereby making the lights burn equally. It also destroys the disagreeable and unhealthy smell of unconsumed gas in the room, and making a saving of 25 per cent in the consumption of Gas.

The Regulator has been extensively used in Boston, New York and other places, with complete succes; and has been highly commended by the most scientific men in the country. The subscriber has one in operation at his Store, and would be pleased to have any one examine it.

Pamphlets containing a full description of the article, and of experiments with it, with the testimonials of those using it, may be had at the Store.

The subscriber has also for sale, Wood's Patent Burners and Patent Scotch Tip Burners, both very economical and desirable burners. Please call and examine. E. A. STEVENS, 46 Market st.

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Biliary, Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.
Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington,
76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1836) is determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as heretofore) will be required in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there, as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most faithful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT
—on—
Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planing machine.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to this machine, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

HERTS BROTHERS
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS.
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

Caution.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "Herts, Brothers' Patent, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S
Celebrated Catholicon,
FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are Prolapsus Uteri, or Falling of the Womb; Fluor Albus, or Whites; Chronic Inflammation of the Womb; Incipient Hemorrhage or Flooding; Painful, Suppressed, and Irregular Menstruation, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the Uterine Catholicon, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the Extension Dining Tables of different sizes; Marble Top Center Tables; and a large assortment of French Sofas and Chairs, covered with plush and mock hair, the Black Walnut and Mahogany Sofas, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the Cane Seated Chairs, with or without rockers.

These Fingerals, as the French call them, or What Nots as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those Umbrella Stands, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of Elegant Chamber Sets, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the Looking Glass, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

Morning Chronicle.

THE POOR IN MASSACHUSETTS — The State Returns relating to the poor for 1854, show a great number of paupers, 23,125, and an immense cost for their maintenance, $457,506, in the State, notwithstanding the State Alms Houses. Both in the number and expenditures, the counties come in this order: Suffolk first, Middlesex second, and Essex third. No less than 14,320 need public assistance on account of intemperance in themselves or others; the State paupers, who are foreigners, number 9,671, of whom 809 came into the commonwealth within one year; the number of paupers from idiocy and insanity was 925, of which 170 were in Essex county, that stands at the head of the list in these classes.

Newburyport is first among the cities and towns of Essex county in the number of paupers, 936; while Salem with more than twice the foreign population, has but 426. Our whole number in the alms house was 280, average 90; out of the house 656; and their cost in the house, was $1,15 per week, and aid out, 15 cents. Salem had 226 in the house, average 40; 200 out, and their cost, in the house, was $1.75; so that their total expenditure was $10,500, while ours was second in the country, $10,000. We had 40 State paupers; 35 idiots and insane, which was five more than Salem had, and more than three times the number in any other place; 80 foreigners that had come into the Commonwealth within one year; and 560—more than the total number of paupers in any other city or town in the county, were made so by rum. Our paupers cost $10,000 annually, more than one-half of which is from rum—a pretty good liquor bill for the city to pay every year.

For Newbury no returns are made. Amesbury had 43 paupers—23 in Alms house and 20 out; 6 were insane or idiots, 4 were State charge; and 22 were on the town from rum. Salisbury had 49 paupers, 10 having no legal settlement in the Commonwealth, 11 insane and idiots—(a large proportion)—and 33 a rum charge.—Newburyport Herald.

BASS-WOOD PAPER.—Several papers refer to this article, as a recent invention. It is not so. As early as 1796, a newspaper prepared from bass-wood, was printed in Vermont, by the notorious Matthew Lyon, bearing the title of "The Scourge of Aristocracy, and Repository of Important Political Truth."

It was in this paper that Lyon published the libel, for which he was tried and convicted under the famous sedition law. He was sentenced to an imprisonment in jail for four months, and the payment of a fine of one thousand dollars and costs. Lyon died in 1822, and repeated attempts were made, after his decease, to obtain from Congress a remission of the fine and costs, but without success, till 1840, when it was voted to refund the amount, with interest, to his legal representatives.—Salem Gazette.

Michael Callane, a German, of Boston, went into the house of Mrs. Mary Carney, in East Boston, on Wednesday afternoon, to procure a borrowed umbrella, when he was assaulted by the woman and wounded on the head so that he died in about half an hour.—Callane was about 40 years of age. The Carney woman about 38. It is stated that the deceased was a witness against the Carney woman, indicted in the Municipal Court for selling liquor.

On the line of railroad now building from Konigsberg to the Lake of Constance over the Alps, there are thirteen tunnels and twenty-five viaducts. Thirteen thousand horses are constantly employed upon it.

Mayor Smith is endeavoring to suppress liquor selling on Sundays, in Boston. New York has set him an example of what can be done.

The governor of California wishes to check the immigration of Asiatics, of whom there are 60,000 now in that State, and proposes a capitation tax.

A VIRGINIA DIVINITY.—Mr. Wise said in his Charlottesville speech—"If I am placed in charge of the sword of Virginia, I will bear and forbear to the last; but if the worst comes to the worst, if the honor of the State is touched, by the God of Virginia, I will draw the sword and flesh it, and it shall be broken in my hand."

An army officer in Utah writes: "last night the people of this place got up a ball for our benefit, (that is to say, on our paying expenses.) It was opened with prayer by one of the Mormon Elders. The females were all married, as every one is appropriated by the time she is fourteen years old."

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1855.

THE RELIGIOUS TEST.

Many people speak and write as if the American feeling, or Protestant prejudice, which lies at the root of the Know Nothing movement, were a new thing, unheard of till lately.

This is certainly not true, as it respects New Hampshire. In our State Constitution, which is over sixty years old, it is provided that our Governor, State Senators and Town Representatives, must all be of the Protestant Religion.

After many vain efforts to get up a Convention for revision of the Constitution, at last it was accomplished; and in the year 1851, the people, the democracy of New Hampshire, were called upon to vote on the proposed amendments. On a proposition to abolish the Protestant test, coupled with the property test, there were 9,862 yeas, and 17,122 nays. Next year, 1852, these two propositions were separated, and then the people adopted the proposition to strike out the property test, which they did by 15,297 yeas to 5,799 nays. But at the same time they rejected the attempt to strike out the Protestant test by a vote of 9,566 yeas, to 12,092 nays.

OBITUARY.—The Dover Gazette says the Whig convention which met at Dover last week "finally broke up without making a nomination; and the whig party, once so formidable in this section, is as dead as a door nail."

This being the case, as the Gazette has often asserted before that the whig party was identical with the old federal party,—we may infer that both are dead now; or perhaps we may infer that as the whig party dies, the federal party rises from the dead, and threatens to rale the State.

For the Chronicle.

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS.

It is said—and we have no reason to doubt it—that many of the members of Congress were intoxicated, and that much blasphemous and vulgar language was used, the night the Nebraska bill was passed. Since that infamous enactment, we have noticed by the papers that a number of members have been very drunk in the day time, among them Mike Walsh of New York, and Harris of Mississippi. A few days since, Lane of Oregon, called Farley of Maine, a d——d liar! and then both rushed at each other for a fight, which was prevented by the interference of their friends. We could mention the names of many members—including men of various parties—who have been detected in swindling the government, but we forbear, as it might hurt the feelings of their political friends.—These are the worthies who make the laws—drunkards, fighting men, swindlers, &c.—that we are told are so very sacred, and that it would be treasonable and wicked to violate in any respect. We cannot wonder that such men pass so many unjust laws.

We are not what is called "ultra," on the temperance and other moral questions, but when a man is crazed by liquor, we deem him unfit to make laws. Our religion is nothing to brag of—still, we don't think it sounds very well to hear a speaker swear in public. We believe "actions speak louder than words," and judging from their actions, our members of Congress are as godless and dissolute a body of men as can be found in the country; and as many of them profess better things, a large portion add hypocrisy to their other failings. They are now talking of raising their per diem from $8 to $12, and we are not at all surprised, knowing, as we do, that drinking champagne and gambling are rather expensive amusements. If the present members of Congress can't live on $8 per day, they had better resign, and let some temperance men take their places who can.

If a boot black or pot boy at a hotel, was drunk round the house when he should be attending to his business, he would be discharged immediately. We hope the time will soon come when our great sacred law makers and union savers, will be of as good moral character as we require our scullions to be.

WOODLAND.

DEATH OF REV. JOHN MOORE.

CONCORD, Feb. 5.—Rev. John Moore, pastor of the Universalist Society in this city, and who was nominated by the Know Nothings as their candidate for Governor of the State, but withdrawn on account of Constitutional ineligibility, dropped dead in the street this morning. His complaint was undoubtedly an affection of the heart.

Mr. Moore has enjoyed a wide popularity in his denomination, and was respected and beloved in the several places where he had ministered. His age was about 60.

☞ Mr. Moses Johnson was killed, being run over by a train, at Ward Hill crossing in Bradford, Mass., on the Boston & Maine Railroad, on Saturday afternoon. His horse was killed also, and his wagon broken in pieces.

PRO AND CON.

The Portland Journal gives the following account of the check and flow of grogshops in Portland, for a few years past.

During the first Municipal year, after the enactment of the Maine Law, Mr. Dow being Mayor of Portland, that enactment was enforced with rigor, and the results were such as we have already shown them to have been. The grog shops were entirely closed, the liquor traffic had ceased, even at the Hotels, the keepers of which had given to the Mayor a declaration in writing, that in good faith, they would obey the law, as had also almost all the other rumsellers in the city. The change in the whole appearance of the city was very great and for the better, so as to attract the attention of the most casual observer. Some liquors were secretly sold, to a very limited extent, almost entirely by our foreign population—but intemperance was rarely seen in our streets. Fore street was as quiet and orderly by night and by day, as any other in the city.

But the men who owned and kept the rumshops, aided by large sums of money from Boston, and by many different elements of opposition to that state of things, elected in April 1852, a city government ostensibly in favor of the Maine Law, but of its judicious enforcement. It was supposed in Boston, that the defeat of Mr. Dow would necessarily involve the overthrow of the Maine Law, and the end of the prohibitive movement. It was for that reason that Boston contributed large sums to accomplish that result, and the excitement of that election has never before been equalled in this State. The result of the election was a relaxation in the enforcement of the Law, though the Law itself stood still stronger, and grew and grows still stronger and stronger in the affections of the people of this city and State.

At the two succeeding municipal elections in the city, the same "moderate and judicious" policy was adopted and persisted in, until by the appointment of our present municipal judge, it was completely run into the ground. The result, though very far from being so bad as these persons desire and would represent it to be, is yet very different from what the friends of temperance wish. These men, after doing the utmost in their power to prevent the operation of the Maine Law, and succeeding to a considerable extent, turn around, and endeavor to convince the people of other States that the Law itself is a failure, while in fact, the law is not permitted to have a fair field in which to exhibit its power. To say nothing of the rest of our municipal authorities, it is sufficient to say, that our police force, with few exceptions, is contemptible beyond power of description; and every one knows that a respectable and efficient police force is the very life of a city government.

The Maine Law is now adopted as the settled policy of the State, and the people will not any longer allow its operation to be embarrassed by inefficient administration, nor by corrupt, ignorant, or prejudiced judges.

To a part of this, the State of Maine newspaper, printed in Portland, thus replies:

We would be far from denying any of the facts stated above in regard to the condition of Portland during the year of Mr. Dow's administration; but everybody who knows anything about Portland during that time knows that never were crimes of certain kinds more frequently perpetrated than then. Incendiary fires—mean resorts to every species of artifice for evading the law—the basest and lowest practices of spying and informing—always considered beneath the decency of men—and a general feeling of feverish and impatient anxiety were among the events which signalized that year. We do not say that commitments to the Watch House, the Alms House, and the Jail did not diminish, for they did. We do not assert that Mr. Dow was not vigilant, active, energetic, for he was, and is;—but we do assert that during that year, in the judgment of some of the ablest and best of our citizens, there was more actual vice and wickedness—more crime—than during any other year since the city charter was granted. That it was a good deal concealed only made it the more dangerous and fatal.

We can readily believe that the Portland rummies fought for their jugs; and that some of them would commit arson, and even murder if they dared. Just such things were done close by us, at Berwick; and some of the men who did them have been brought to justice.

But what then? Must good and wholesome laws not be enforced, because some madmen resist? Suppose that in revenge for finding the keeper of one den in Berwick, a man's house was burnt, (an actual fact;) and suppose that for breaking up his den, a man had been murdered by the keeper and his crew?

This would have been dreadful indeed; but what has happened? Why, truly, two men have been murdered, viz., Brewster and Maxwell, and two more are now in prison for these crimes, in close connexion with the open groggeries of that vicinity. We should hardly have had more than two murders, even if the groggeries had been closed.

☞ The American Monthly Magazine for February, is No. 1, of a new monthly—containing 128 pages, published by Jas. S. Tuttle & Co., 5 and 6, Scollay's Buildings, Boston—ably edited; and embellished with a portrait of Gov. Gardner of Massachusetts.

Much of the matter is of great interest and high character.

Its peculiar political aspect is American; we might say it favors the Know Nothings; but it will not do to call it a Know Nothing Magazine, because it really gives a great deal of information.

It is a cheap magazine at 25 cts. per number.

LOCAL.

MUSIC IN PORTSMOUTH.

The "Old Folks" Choir seems to be the only musical Society in our city at present—although Mr. Pearson has a large evening singing class, which being designed to continue throughout the year, answers the same purpose of keeping up an interest in music, and developing musical talent among us. The Old Folks met on Saturday evening as usual, and had a spirited rehearsal—performing several of the best old tunes, with set pieces, anthems, &c., which they have not attempted before. We understand they design giving another concert before long, which will embrace more music of this character.

Mr. Pearson's Musical Convention here, a month ago, stirred up considerable interest in music. Well, we are glad some benefit is accruing from it, for we learn that it cost Mr. P. about $100 more than he received. Wonder who'll divide "the profits" of that grand entertainment.

The hearing the choruses at the Convention and at the Concerts given by Mr. Pearson's class, by the Convention, and the "Old Folks," has doubtless created a desire to have a choir in church, which should embrace power enough to give effect to choruses, while quartets, duets and solos could be equally well rendered by selecting the best performers. The North Society have made arrangements to have singing at their church by a volunteer choir, and commenced last Sunday with nearly thirty singers invited from among the Society. Quite an improvement, we think, is a good large choir, on the best quartet. This new chorus performed very creditably.

Credit is due some of our clergymen, for the interest manifested in the Musical Convention spoken of. Rev. Mr. Moore and Rev. Dr. Peabody read the notice announcing it, from their pulpits—accompanying it with commendatory remarks; and Rev. Mr. Willis, on Sunday afternoon, a week or two after, preached on "music, especially sacred music, in accordance with the suggestion and almost request of Prof. Baker, at the Convention." As this musical meeting was designed and carried out for the general good, this interest could not be manifested in a better cause.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Some buildings can be made ornamental by alterations—while others can only be improved. This latter is the case with the Brick Market. Several years ago it was vacated entirely, as a Markethouse, and then opened by Messrs. Grant, who had courage to occupy one stall in the S. W. corner, where they did a good business and sold good meats, while all the rest of the space was dark and desolate.

At the end of a year Mr. Sewell took a stall, and by his neatness, courtesy and well supplied counter, instilled new life into the dark recesses, which has never since died out. The premises have been recently improved by extensive alterations, at the expense of the occupants, Messrs. Sewell, Grant and Sheldon, and now it is one of the most pleasant provision markets in the State, and is constantly supplied with all kinds of meat and vegetables. On Saturday we noticed several carcasses of venison for sale. Mr. Sewell's stall is the first on the left as you enter.

☞ On Sunday evening last Rev. Mr. Lamson lectured at the Middle Street Church, before the Young Men's Christian Association. The house was crowded on the occasion; and the lecture was very interesting, as are all Mr. Lamson's pulpit efforts. He took his text from Genesis 39—9, and went on to show the dangers and temptations the young were subject to at the present time; and after faithfully protraying to them the downward course of the wicked, he bid them seek that heavenly aid which alone would support them in the hour of temptation and danger. R.

☞ We publish in another column, a commendatory notice of Mr. Wenzell's collection of Pictures, and of the gentleman himself.—The writer is a resident of Portsmouth, eminently qualified to give an opinion respecting the fine arts—who voluntarily wrote the article referred to. As to Mr. W., everybody knows he is a gentleman, in his store and out. With the general remarks made by the writer, all observant men must agree.

THE "MIGHTY TINKER."—Probably next to "Benvard's Mississippi," the Panorama of Pilgrim's Progress has been most admired and commended, and by many excellent authorities is considered the better Painting. It remains but three nights here. Of course every one will go and see this masterly illustration of Bunyan's inimitable dream.

☞ The Second of the Old Folks' Concerts in Exeter, comes off this evening, at the Baptist Church.

Phrenology and Physiology.

DR. FRANCIS OSBORNE, a very successful Phrenologist, says the Providence Journal, gives perfect mental mirrors. His charts are elegant exponents of the variety of mind; all the friends of science should have them; they encourage matrimony. The Doctor has the present year discovered the organ of Singing. Give him a call, invite him to your house and give him the examination of your children. Professional examinations and advice. One half of our children die before they arrive at the age of ten years; there is no necessity for such mortality. Come at once to the Franklin House. f6 1w

For the Chronicle.

MR. WENZELL'S PICTURE GALLERY.

Messrs. Editors:—I have just been viewing, in company with a friend, some magnificent Engravings from works of the old masters, recently added by Mr. Wenzell to his already large and rare collection. Like many of our citizens, I am in the habit of halting before his richly adorned windows, or overhauling the portfolios within,—seldom as a purchaser,—but simply to gratify my love for the beautiful; and I always come away impressed with the gentlemanly manners of the proprietor, and with my indebtedness to that pure and cultivated taste that has made accessible to our citizens, so many transcripts (in all but color) of the choicest works of art to be found in the Galleries of Europe; and which give, perhaps, a better idea of those works, than the miserable oil copies that flood our larger cities.

It is impossible, I think, to over-estimate the value of such a Gallery, ever open to the public, for as the taste is unavoidably regulated by what is constantly before the eyes, the direct effect of this must be to improve the public taste and judgment.

Had the new North Church been erected forty years ago, we should not have had so much of the people's money wasted—nay, worse than wasted—on the most unsightly piles of brick and mortar which "the building committees," have cruelly heaped upon the bosom of this mother earth of ours, and which will serve only one useful purpose, if their names were inscribed thereon, viz; of monuments to their ignorance and want of taste. From this period, I predict an improvement among us in our style of architecture, and I shall never cease to regard those who selected such a model, as I do Mr. Wenzell, as public benefactors—true missionaries—for if we had space we could point out direct connection between a correct taste and correct morals, as sung in olden time by Horace, and at a later period by Pope.

There is one circumstance in connection with Mr. Wenzell's establishment that should be mentioned, viz, the extremely low price of his works; a fact only to be accounted for by the lowness of rent, and cheapness of living in Portsmouth, as compared with the larger cities.

I learn that there is shortly to be a division of three or four hundred of Mr. Wenzell's best works, among those who engage to receive them for one dollar each. We hope to get one of the best, and thus oblige Mr. Wenzell and gratify ourselves.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with the scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, Feb. 3.

HOUSE.—The House passed the thirty-six private bills considered yesterday.

To-day the House went into Committee of the whole on the private calendar, taking up, as first in order, the extension of the Colt patent. Quite a debate sprung up on the bill, and the old charges of bribery in regard to helping bills through Congress, were here reviewed. Mr. Edgerton of Ohio, made a long speech in favor of the extension of the patent, and gave a history of the losses which Mr. Colt has sustained in perfecting his invention. Without concluding his remarks he yielded the floor for a motion to rise, which prevailed, and the House adjourned.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 3.—This P. M. a party were skating on the Schuylkill river above Fairmount, the ice gave way, and Earle S. Shinn, a druggist, on the corner of Broad and Spruce Streets, and Miss Russell, his wife's sister, were drowned. At the time the accident occurred he was skating along, and pushing Miss Russell on a sled. A large crowd were present and saw the accident, but were unable to render assistance in time to save them. The bodies have been recovered.

CAPE ISLAND, N. J., Feb. 1.—An old man, while cutting down an old tree near the Cape May Court House, discovered the remains of a man, and they are supposed to be those of a Mr. Smith, who mysteriously disappeared about sixteen years ago. The overcoat, boots, &c., were with the skeleton.

ALBANY, Feb. 1.—The whigs of the Assembly held a caucus this evening, to select a candidate to be supported by them for United States Senator. Wm. H. Seward received the nomination on the first ballot, the vote being Seward 74, scattering 6. The nomination was subsequently declared to be unanimous. The utmost harmony prevailed in the caucus.

AMONG THE PROPHETS.—The youngest son of ex-Gov. Williams, of Lancaster, is said to be a papist, and about to take "orders" in the priesthood of the Catholic Church. He lately officiated after the manner of that church, we are informed, at an Irish funeral at Lancaster.—Stars and Stripes.

At about ten o'clock this forenoon, Benjamin F. Conant, a fireman on board the East Boston Ferry boat Suffolk, proceeded to clean the machinery without informing the engineer of his purpose. The engineer started the engine, by which Conant was caught and so crushed that he died about ten minutes afterwards. He was twenty-two years of age and is unmarried.—Boston Traveller, Saturday.

MR. HOUSTON.—Information has been received in this city, that Gen. Sam Houston, the Senator from Texas, will be here on Wednesday, Feb. 21st, when he will probably give one of the course of lectures on Slavery, though that is not, probably, the sole object of his journey Eastward.—Boston Traveller.

PORTSMOUTH
ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND
or

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising
The Finest and Best Collection,
the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—
varying in price
From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and
P. WENZEL, Congress St.
Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 19, '55.
P. S.—Persons out of the place, may secure Tickets by enclosing the money in a letter, prepaid. j19 3m tf

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.
Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."
The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CALAZAR REMEDY.
I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.
It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—
Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.

Save your Gas.

IT is desirable to economise in every way the consumption of Gas, and in no way can this be so effectually done as by the use of Dr. Walter Kidder's
GAS REGULATOR.
The Regulator is designed to lessen and equalize the pressure of Gas in the pipes, thereby making the lights burn equally. It also destroys the disagreeable and unhealthy smell of uncoussumed gas in the room, and making a saving of 25 per cent in the consumption of Gas.
The Regulator has been extensively used in Boston, New York and other places, with complete succes; and has been highly commended by the most scientific men in the country. The subscriber has one in operation at his Store, and would be pleased to have any one examine it.
Pamphlets containing a full description of the article, and of experiments with it, with the testimonials of those using it, may be had at the Store.
The subscriber has also for sale, Wood's Patent Burners and Patent Scotch Tip Burners, both very economical and desirable burners. Please call and examine. E. A. STEVENS, 46 Market st.

William Thompson, who has been confined to his bed by rheumatism for fourteen years, during which time he has not been able to walk one step, nor even to sit up in his bed, was married on the 17th ult., to Miss Margaret Morris, of Smyth county, Va.

In Wells River, Vt., the dead body of Bartholomew Somers, of Barnet, was picked up some few days since, with a bottle in his pocket. It had for a long time been his companion, and stuck to him even to his death.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.
The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "American governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Willing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHELPS,

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT

—To—

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for door work, or for planing very thin, greasy, pressed or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the hand-workers can put them into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clap boards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

HERTS BROTHERS
AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA
PENS,
WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

Caution.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE
RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF FLOODING; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they may have the opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

Here may be found the EXTENSION DINING TABLES of different sizes; MARBLE TOP CENTER TABLES; and a large assortment of FRENCH SOFAS and CHAIRS, covered with plush or silk damask—or the BLACK WALNUT and MAHOGANY SOFAS, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the CANE SEATED CHAIRS, with or without rockers.

These FRAGERAS, as the French call them, or WHAT NOTS as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those UMBRELLA STANDS, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of ELEGANT CHAMBER SETS, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the LOOKING GLASS, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

Morning Chronicle.

A NEW WORK ON SLAVERY.— The last volume we read on the slavery question, was the production of a Boston clergyman. We now have a view of all sides of slavery in the United States, from the pen of a very eminent English physician, entitled "The Two-fold Slavery of the United States; with a project of self-emancipation, by Marshall Hall, M. D.; F. R. S.; &c." The volume has just been issued in London, and has not been reprinted, or noticed as we have seen-in this country. The work is addressed "To the Planters and the Members of the State Legislatures of the South." It consists of a series of letters written to different persons in England during a visit of fifteen months to this country. Dr. Hall opposes both the abolition and colonization schemes, and proposes a plan of self-emancipation;—"so framed as to strike at the very root of all slavery, eradicating at once its degradation, its ignorance, its injustice and its irreligion." He says:

I propose that a system of education, and discipline, and preparation be adopted; that a just and generous premium be placed on each slave; that task-work and over-work be appointed him, in the place of day work; that he be led by this means to achieve his own emancipation, the wages for his over-work being secured, with liberal interest, in savings banks; that his efforts be seconded by the generosity of others; that, when the sum appointed is thus accumulated, it be paid over to his master by the proper authorities, and that he be declared—free! That, when free, he be retained, if he desire it, in his former position, receiving just wages.

The African race, in the United States, will thus become—the finest peasantry in the world,—and be the glory instead of the shame of the country.

From the very moment even that this plan is properly and fully promulgated by law, there will no longer exist in the United States any other than voluntary slavery; and the voluntary slave is at once unworthy and incapable of freedom!

The work of Dr. Hall contains many valuable statistics in regard to the slave system and its various relations to our social and political life. He speaks of the two-fold slavery of the United States. The second form of slavery is what he terms "a slavery of insensate prejudice and oppression," which exists against the African race in the Northern States. He contrasts the fate of the Negro with that of the long-oppressed Hebrew nation, and from the present elevation of the latter, hopes for the amelioration of the condition of the former. He urges that a practical plan which shall include the four leading elements of "Indissoluble Marriage," "Education and Discipline," "Self-Emancipation," and finally, "All a Citizen's Rights," will be effective to remove oppression from our land. The work is very well written, and quite suggestive. His XVIIIth Letter on the "Cruelties and Indignities of Slavery," is a look at the "front"-side of the institution. The surgeon and professed physiologist evinces more manliness and humanity at the physical wrongs of slavery, than the professed preacher of Christ and him crucified. The dissecting room shudders at sights for which the pulpit has furnished palliative excuses, if not positive apologies.—Boston Transcript.

Dr. Hall's plan of a valuation of slaves and of their self-emancipation is not a mere untried scheme. Something like it is now in active operation in Brazil.

A SPOT IN MASSACHUSETTS WHERE THERE IS NO CRIME.—The rum traffic on Martha's Vineyard has been outlawed for more than eighteen years. Rum selling is not known in that locality. What has been the result? Crime has not only diminished, but it seems to have almost entirely left the Vineyard. We are informed that no case of crime has come before the Courts for something like sixteen years. The Judges go down in one boat and back in the next. While the traffic in liquor continued, the Courts were in session for about two weeks each term. Civil cases have been greatly diminished and there are now very few that come up for trial. Here is a fact of immense importance. Crime and the grog shops always go together. Stop rum selling and nearly all kinds of misdemeanors and offences against the law will instantly cease. This fact furnishes an argument in favor of prohibiting the traffic, against which no man can say a word.—Boston Telegraph.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1855.

LAW IN CONNECTICUT.

The following extracts are from a letter written at New London, Conn., Feb. 2, by a respectable and conservative gentleman of that city, to a citizen of this place. The statements here made, are in answer to inquiries, and are worthy of consideration:

In regard to our "prohibitory liquor law," there is up to this time, almost nothing to be said but in commendation of it. I have been for the last two years favorably disposed towards the trial of such a law, but as I am no philanthropic enthusiast I was not prepared for so general an acquiescence towards it as has been and is publicly yielded. New London may perhaps more fully than any other place in our State, be compared to Portsmouth in its people and habits. Rum shops abounded, and the influence of dealers had become so important as to arouse most respectable opposition, until it became more than most other towns of its size, in favor of a law; but I believe nobody was prepared for such quick submission as has been realised. Our old dealers have abandoned the trade, and if liquor is sold at all, except lawfully, it is and must be in obscure places, and to "secret societies." Our jail is without a tenant, which I believe has not occurred before in some years, and though labor is scarce, there is no doubt that the poor are more comfortable here than in any previous winter.

The Connecticut law is probably nearer than any previous one, what a law should be. It is understood to have been drawn up by one of our present Supreme Court Judges, and submitted, before Legislative action, to the criticism of at least a majority of the bench before its passage; and up to this time no appeal has been taken from any judgments below. I believe it is regarded in all its essential provisions as invulnerable, though perhaps legal ingenuity may suggest some amendments to make it more complete. If you are preparing a law for New Hampshire, I would advise you to write to Governor Dutton at New Haven, to send you a copy of the Conn. law, and invite him to suggest such amendments as he may approve, or to Judge Sanford at New Milford, or to both these gentlemen, and I have no doubt you will obtain the draft of a law that will be good for your State.

SENATOR NORRIS.

As a political man we remember his issuing a warrant (one of the most foolish papers ever issued,) for the arrest of Rev. George Storrs, at Pittsfield, on account of some anti-slavery lectures, &c. And in his public, i. e. official, life, he was generally considered a pro-slavery man. Nevertheless, like a certain character drawn by Mrs. Stowe in Uncle Tom, there was an under current of humanity, hidden but not choked, by the froth and rubbish which floated on the surface; and at the bottom

"He was a man for a' that."

Witness Frederick Douglass, the fugitive slave then, but the mulatto editor now, who thus writes to his paper—

"I was in Pittsfield, N. H., twelve years ago—a stranger—'detested, shunned by saint and sinner,' with no one to befriend me—the hotel closed against me—no house to shelter me—homeless and breadless; and in this condition the late Hon. Moses Norris found me walking among the tombs in the graveyard behind the Town House of Pittsfield. He spoke to me, and invited me to his house, and treated me like a man and a brother. Let no man say that the man is always sunk in the politician."

MR. BOOTH'S FINE.—It is proposed in the New York Independent, to pay off S. M. Booth's fine of $1000, for infringing the Fugitive Slave bill, by subscriptions of $1 each. They have $30, and invite persons in all parts of the country, to send on their dollars to the Independent, per mail, post paid—and say inside the letter "for S. M. Booth, from ——."

A subscription is on foot in Washington, for the same purpose. We think this course much more practical, and much cheaper, than buying a slave from his claimant. It is really helping him who helps himself, and also helping him who helps a brother.

P. S. A dispatch from Chicago, dated Feb. 5, says:

The Supreme Court of Wisconsin have acquitted Messrs. Booth and Rycraf, previously convicted of assisting in violating the fugitive slave law, on the ground of illegality of the indictment.

CIVIL SUIT FROM THE BURNS SLAVE CASE.—The Dedham Gazette states that Mr. William H. Eia, the young man who was assailed and stabbed by the bayonets of some of the soldiers, in Merchants Row, in this city, on the day of the return of Burns, because he had a bottle in his hand—which was thought to contain vitriol, or something of that sort—has appealed to his country for redress, and his case will come on, in Norfolk county, at the February term of the Supreme Court. Boston Tras.

WRECK OF THE BARQUE ARGYLE.—We have noticed the loss of the barque Argyle, from Glasgow, Dec. 25, for New York. The New York Herald of yesterday has a long account of the disaster. She went ashore on Squam Beach on the night of Jan. 28. The shock was sudden, the waves immediately began to break over her with terrific fury, and those on board, eleven in number, were compelled to seek safety in the rigging. They could see the shore indistinctly, about three hundred yards off, but as they could not venture on deck for the purpose of forming a raft, they were compelled to remain in the rigging, hoping that the long wished for morning might bring them some assistance. The passenger, who was a Scotchman, and one of the hands, a boy of about sixteen years old, were swept overboard with the same wave which carried away the boats. The survivors, with one exception, lashed themselves to the masts, and he was the only person of the whole crew that was saved. This man held on by his hands in the foretop; and after an exposure of fourteen hours on the wreck succeeded in reaching the land by swimming.

Many attempts were made to save the men while they were clinging to the wreck, but none were successful. The captain, James Bornton, was drowned in attempting to swim ashore. All the bodies were found before Tuesday night, some of them eleven miles from the wreck. The man saved was a sailor named Paul De Costa, who states he shipped on board the vessel in Glasgow. The captain's trunk was washed ashore and saved. The cargo was totally lost excepting a few casks of porter.

BANK ROBBERY.—The cashier of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank in Indianapolis, Indiana, has absconded, taking with him all the available funds of the bank. His name is Frank May. The Indianapolis Journal says:—"It is impossible, until a careful examination of the books is made, and until correspondents are heard from, to ascertain the sum stolen; but it is quite certain that between $25,000 and $50,000 were taken.

We understand that the cashier was seen on Saturday on the Bellefontaine train, by a gentleman of his acquaintance, whom he told he was going to Cleveland. Every accessible point was informed by telegraph yesterday of the robbery, and to-day one thousand policemen, in every quarter of the country, are endeavoring to recognize in every stranger, the description given by the lightning, of Frank May.

This young man had been esteemed by all who knew him, as most exsmplary; he was a member of the Church, and possessed an enviable position in society. He had many warm and devoted friends, and belonged to a highly respectable family. For several years he managed the business of his uncle, Col. Allen May, while Agent for the State in New York, and he had many opportunities of taking twenty times the sum which, in all probability, he has with him at this time."

☞ Hunt's Merchant's Magazine, for Feb., 1855, contains these five articles:

Commerce of the United States, No. 13; Commerce and Resources of Australia;—Money, Chapter 2, by Henry C. Carey, Esq.; The Usury Laws, by George Bacon, Esq., of New York; Progress of Population in the United States.

Besides these, there are at least a hundred items of important and curious information, digested under their proper heads, and referred to in the table of contents.

The merchants of our country, if pride is at all allowable, may well be proud of their magazine.

The debate of the Spanish Cortes upon the sale of Cuba has been published in this country, and will satisfy everybody that Cuba is not to be purchased. In reply to the question of a member, the Minister of Foreign Affairs said: "I declare most distinctly and emphatically, that the sale of the island of Cuba would be the sale of Spanish honor itself! [A burst of loud and prolonged applause.] The Cabinet of the Duke of Victory will never consent to it: never! [These words, pronounced with great animation and force, were again covered with applause.]

M. d'Albaida spoke thus:—

"Upon this question we are all Spaniards. [Yes, yes.] America only wants Cuba in order to make of it another slave State. The true mode of putting a final stop to her pretensions would be to proclaim the emancipation of the slaves in our colonies. [Sensation.] I seize this occasion to declare that the Spanish Democracy has nothing in common with the United States." This opinion in favor of the abolition of slavery was concurred in by others, and it would not be surprising if an effort was soon made to accomplish that purpose.—Newburyport Herald.

NEW LIQUOR DODGE.—The town of Spencer must have the credit of originating the latest dodge to avoid the liquor law. It came out on the witness stand last Monday in the Criminal Court, that the witness went into a certain grove, where he found a washtub. It was a common tub enough, and stood on its own bottom. It seemed to be like all other wash-tubs. But he dropped a little piece of silver into the tub, and at the same time set a little pint bottle into the tub to protect the money from the storm or "what not." Then he goes to the house of an acquaintance near by, and talks about matters and things. When he goes away, he goes by the tub and takes his bottle along with him. Strange to say, when he gets home he finds he has a pint of gin in his bottle!—Worcester Ægis.

WELL TURNED.—The editor of the Christian Register closes a reply to a courteous Roman Catholic correspondent, in regard to the doctrin of "The Immaculate Conception," with the following liberal admission:

"As to the doctrine itself we are perfectly willing to agree with him that the Virgin Mary was born free from the sin of Adam. If his subsequent studies lead him into the opinion that he was so born himself—and that we were—we shall be precisely in accord."

AN "AMUSEMENT" PEOPLE.—Not less than $7,000 are said to be spent nightly for amusements in this city.—Boston Bee.

LOCAL.

PETIT JURORS.—Drawn in Portsmouth for the February Term of the Court of Common Pleas, for Rockingham County, at Exeter:—Leonard Manson, Leonard Dodge, Peter Emery, Ward 1; Brackett Hutchings, Jeremiah D. Goodrich, Ward 2; Thos. J. Whittem, Daniel Bailey, Jeremiah G. Brewster, Ward 3.

WHAT A NUISANCE.—Our post office is flooded with lottery letters from Maryland. Four hundred came in a single package the present week, and a special list sheet headed "Lottery Letters," is posted up for examination. They have to be advertised with other letters, and are therefore a tax upon all who take them out. The best cure is, for all who receive them to re-envelope the schemes and return them to the advertisers.—Journal.

The "cure" recommended by the Journal, was tried a short time since, by a gentleman of this city, but it didn't work well. The gentleman got as good as he sent. The envelope alone was returned him by the advertiser, with the following reply written on it:

"With all our care, we sometimes hit a blackguard."

If anybody expects to get ahead of the southern lottery shavers, he must rise early in the morning. T.

COLD ENOUGH.—The Clerk of the Weather on Tuesday at noon, in this city, recorded the temperature at 10° below 0. In the morning at sunrise it was 12 to 14 below, at different points.

WRONG NAME.—In the Daily Chronicle of Saturday, we mentioned the death, by accident, of Miss Abigail A. Hill. The name should have been Eliza A.

DEATH OF A CREW.—We learn from the Sandwich Advocate that Capt. Caleb Perry of the coasting schooner Sylvia E, of Sandwich together with his entire crew, died of cholera between the 5th and 15th inst. The vessel was on her passage from one of the river plantations in Georgia to Savannah, with a cargo of oysters, of which all hands partook freely. Mr. Solomon Newcomb, aged 39, died on the 5th, Capt. Caleb Perry, aged 26, on the 15th, and in the interim, Mr. Henry C. Butler, aged 18, another of the crew, a native of Connecticut, and the cook, belonging to Chicago, Ill. All except the two last, belonged in Monument, Sandwich. The owners of the vessel have placed her in charge of Mr. Keene, to be returned to Sandwich.

THE SUSPECTED SLAVER.—The steamer Massachusetts still remains in the custody of the U. S. Marshall, at New York. The examination of her cargo was completed on Wednesday. In her hold were found a large number of tent poles, twenty bags of canvas for tents, and a supply of small stakes such as are used for fastening the canvas of tents to the ground. In her upper hold were casks containing ten thousand gallons of water, and a number of other water casks which were empty. Instead of forty tons of coal, as at first stated, she had three hundred and twenty five tons.

MANCHESTER, N. H.—There are few New England cities which have grown up with greater rapidity than the enterprising, wide awake municipality of Manchester, N. H. The Mirror says of its growth:

"Sixteen years ago our city was a sand bank, and Concord Square was a swamp for rabbits. Now, each day, it manufactures ninety miles of cloth, sheetings, shirtings, tickings, denims, delaines, &c., five thousand seamless bags, and six tons of news and book paper, besides innumerable articles that we will not now particularise."

THE GLENDON IRON ROLLING MILL, AT EAST BOSTON.—Great distress has been caused at East Boston by the stoppage of these works; and many of the workmen still remain in the neighborhood, expecting that the assignees under the bankruptcy will resume operations on however a small scale, rather than keep the premise and stock lying profitlessly idle. George Gardner, Esq., one of the late proprietors, with a commendable benevolence which met thankful appreciation, last week, gave to each of the married workmen a present of coals, as a protection against the inclemency of the weather. Owing to the tightness in the money market, the iron trade is bad all over the country.—Boston Traveller.

CRITICAL SURGICAL OPERATION.—On Monday last, Dr. Kimball, of this city, removed from the abdomen of a lady in Lenox, an ovarian tumor weighing forty-five pounds! She is now in a comfortable condition, with a fair prospect of recovery.—Lowell Courier.

A resolution censuring the course of Messrs. Douglass and Shields in voting for the repeal of the Missouri Compromise has passed the Illinois House of Representatives. A resolution endorsing the Compromise measures of 1850 was lost, 10 50.

The Portuguese Consul General publishes an official notice that corn and corn meal will be permitted entry free of duty into the Cape Verd Island until July 31st.

ANOTHER VICTIM.—Anna, the fourth daughter of Mr. Haven, who was rescued from the conflagration of Walsenfield, by which her three younger sisters lost their lives, has since died of her injuries.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.
They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

NO. 12 DANIEL STREET,
Portsmouth, N. H.

THE undersigned would respectfully announce to the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity that they have entered into copartnership in the firm name of taken the Store in Daniel St. formerly occupied by Mr. E. A. Stevens, and stocked it with a good assortment of BOOTS & SHOES of every description, which they offer to the public at as low prices as they can be purchased for in Portsmouth or elsewhere. They also have in connection with their Store a manufactory of Boots and Shoes, and are prepared to make to order any description desired, in the best manner, and on the most liberal terms. Determined to merit, they hope to receive a fair share of public patronage.

JOHN BUZZELL,
WM. H. FERNALD.

The subscriber takes this opportunity of presenting his compliments to his many friends in Portsmouth and vicinity, and respectfully soliciting their patronage in his new position, pledging himself to use every endeavor to serve them satisfactorily. During his experience of twelve years in the business he has labored to serve faithfully all who have entrusted their orders to his care; and trusting he has earned a reputation for fair and honorable dealing, he will strive in future to merit and retain it. Every article sold at the Store where it will be his pleasure to serve old friends and find new shall be as represented; or if it shall prove otherwise the money shall be refunded, or entire satisfaction given. Please call and try us.

Very respectfully,
Portsmouth, Feb. 6, 1855. JOHN BUZZELL.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Feb. 5.

SENATE.—Mr. Stuart of Michigan, presented a joint resolution from the Legislature of Michigan, instructing the delegation from that State to oppose the iniroduction of slavery into any of the Territories of the United States, and to use their greatest efforts to secure the repeal of the fugitive slave law.

Mr. Cass of Michigan, said he should neither follow the instructions nor resign his seat.

Mr. Stuart also made a few remarks saying that "Sufficient for the day is the evil thereof," when the proper time came he should be prepared to act.

Mr. Sumner of Mass., presented a memorial from the Society of Friends in Indiana, praying for the repeal of the Fugitive Slave Law, the suppression of slavery in the District of Columbia and the Territories, and the prohibition of the coastwise slave trade; also a memorial in favor of establishing arbitration in our Treaties as a mode of settling national disputes.

Mr. Toucey of Connecticut, offered a resolution instructing the Committee on the Judiciary to inquire into the expediency of repealing the act amending an act for the registration of seamen on public and private armed vessels. Agreed to.

After sundry memorials and resolutions had been presented, Mr. Brodhead's Bounty Land bill was taken up, and after being amended, was finally passed—yeas 30, nays 15.

The French Spoliation bill was called up, and made the special order for one o'clock tomorrow.

Mr. Gwinn, of California, introduced a bill for the establishment of a monthly line of steamships from San Francisco to Puget's Sound.

Mr. Toucey of Connecticut, reported a bill establishing an U. S. Circuit Court within and for the State of California. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Witte of Penn., made an ineffectual attempt to introduce a series of Anti-Know Nothing resolutions. He said he wanted the vote to be regarded as a test question. The House refused its assent to the introduction of the resolutions by a vote of 104 to 78.

The remainder of the day was spent in the consideration of the report of the select committee on the Colt patent case. Several witnesses refused to appear and testify.

Mr. Houston, of Alabama, asked leave to introuuce a resolution, that, for the remainder of the session, members shall confine themselves strictly to the matters under consideration, unless evening sessions are held for general debate. Leave was denied. Adjourned.

☞ Wm. H. Seaward was re-elected Senator to Congress, by the legislature of New York, on Tuesday. In the Senate the vote was for Seward 18, all others 12. In the House, Seward 69, all others 53.

PORTSMOUTH
ART UNION.
PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND
PICTURES,
in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.
The Price of each Ticket will be $1.
Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising
The Finest and Best Collection,
the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—
varying in price
From 50 Cts. to $15.
The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.
The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle;) and on the Evening of the second day the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.
TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Peyser, and
P. WENZEL, Congress St.
Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 19, '55.
P. S.—Persons out of the place, may secure Tickets by enclosing the money in a letter, prepaid. j19 2cstf

FOSTER'S PATENT

Deck-Reefing Gear.
By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.
The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—
"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.
Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."
The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.
I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.
It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—
Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

Save your Gas.
IT is desirable to economise in every way the consumption of Gas, and in no way can this be so effectually done as by the use of Dr. Walter Kidder's
GAS REGULATOR.
The Regulator is designed to lessen and equalize the pressure of Gas in the pipes, thereby making the lights burn equally. It also destroys the disagreeable and unhealthy smell of unconsumed gas in the room, and making a saving of 25 per cent in the consumption of Gas.
The Regulator has been extensively used in Boston, New York and other places, with complete success; and has been highly commended by the most scientific men in the country. The subscriber has one in operation at his Store, and would be pleased to have any one examine it.
Pamphlets containing a full description of the article, and of experiments with it, with the testimonials of those using it, may be had at the Store.
The subscriber has also for sale, Wood's Patent Burners and Patent Scotch Tip Burners, both very economical and desirable burners. Please call and examine. E. A. STEVENS, 46 Market st.

THE POOR.—An impression has spread abroad that workmen are wanted to assist in removing the ruins of the New York City Hall; and in consequence of this erroneous idea, large numbers of laborers have within the last few days arrived in that city from Philadelphia, Boston, Albany and other places. The city hall and mayor's office are thronged with applicants for employment, who have spent their last pennies in paying their passage to the metropolis, and it is estimated that there are at least five thousand men in the city, who having arrived during the past week in the vain expectation of finding work, wander destitute and hungry up and down the streets of the city, in the search for wherewithal to purchase a crust of bread or a lodging for the night.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local Interest our Daily edition enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested in this article, to the valuable merit in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business getting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired.

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT
—IN—
Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planing

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, crossgrained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 052," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE or Flooding; PAINTING, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing simple proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Splendid Furniture.

THOSE who have not had an opportunity of feasting their eyes by the rich display of Furniture at the World's Fair, or State Exhibition, may be in a measure compensated for the loss by visiting the

Daniel Street Furniture Rooms,

Under the Sign of the French Sofa. While they admire, they can have an opportunity, if they wish, of securing at a low price, the best of Furniture in the market for their own use.

In these rooms may be found the KEYSTONE DINING TABLES of different sizes; MARBLE TOP CENTRE TABLES; and a large assortment of FRENCH SOFAS and CHAIRS, covered with plush or silk damask—or the BLACK WALNUT and MAHOGANY SOFAS, with hair cloth—as well as some more common articles of the kind. Or you may be well rested in the CANE SEATED CHAIRS, with or without rockers.

These FRAGRANS, as the French call them, or WHAT NOTS as the Yankees say, are elegant articles—so are those UMBRELLA STANDS, so useful for the entry.

If you wish to complete the beauty of the chamber, just examine the varieties of ELEGANT CHAMBER SETS, and also that necessary article and useful ornament of any room, the LOOKING GLASS, in frames of either Mahogany or gilt.

These are but few of the many additions which have recently been made to the Daniel street Furniture Rooms, which the public are invited to visit, and patronize.

Morning Chronicle.

A GIANTESS.—The Portland Argus gives the following account of a giantess named Sylvia Hardy:

She is a native of Wilton, in Franklin county, Me., is seven feet six inches in height, is rather lean than fleshy, yet weighs three hundred and thirty pounds, is nearly thirty years of age, and is still growing. She has heretofore maintained herself chiefly by service in the capacity of a nurse, having the reputation of being a most excellent one; but, for a few months past, her health has not been good enough for her to practice this vocation.

Her mother is said to have been below medium size, and her father not above it. She was a twin, and at birth weighed but three and a half pounds. Her mate did not live. She has always been an unusually small eater, and accustomed to labor.

Her figure is not erect. Like too many tall people, she seems to strive to appear shorter by assuming something more than the 'Grecian stoop,' which has the usual effect of making her look taller than she really is.—Her complexion is fair, her eyes blue, and the very modest and mild expression of her countenance is said to be a true index to her character.

We are assured that she never, as nurse, takes an infant in her arms, but always holds it in her hand. Placing the head upon the end of her fingers, its feet extend toward the wrist, and with the thumb and little finger elevated, she forms an ample and admirable cradle—the length of her hand being quite equal to the whole length of an infant.

She is unable to pass ordinary doors without stooping a good deal, and it is said that for convenience she usually puts her thimble and other little articles upon the casing over the door, instead of upon any lower object, as a table or desk.

An amusing incident is told of her, which runs in this wise, and which is said to be strictly true. While she was passing through the kitchen of a farm house, with a large pan of milk in each hand, her hair caught upon a hook which projected two or three inches from the ceiling, and held her fast. She could neither stoop to set the pans down, nor raise her hands to disengage her hair, and was compelled thus to remain until her cries brought others to her assistance."

SERVING AN INJUNCTION.—The Courier tells a good story on the serving the injunction against the "New route to Boston." It appears that the officer after serving the order on the officials at this station, handed out his fare for a ticket, saying that he must serve it also on the officials along the road and at Boston; the ticket-seller informed him that according to the injunction he had just served, no passengers were to be carried to Boston for the future, and therefore he couldn't go!—The Colonel had to take the other road.—Lowell News.

The Gramblers in the Park are, with very few exceptions, foreigners, and the largest portion are men brought up field laborers in Europe, who, on their arrival here (but too late in life) commenced learning the trade and mystery of a mechanic. 'Tis not surprising that these men are not first rate workmen—yet they demand first-rate wages; and to obtain this, they got up "strikes," in the hope of forcing the bosses to give them work. These strikes usually terminate in impoverishing the strikers, and never fail to put them to difficulty, and place them out of employment whenever work is scarce.—N.Y. Mirror.

AN AMERICAN SCENE.—The bachelor editor of the Worcester Transcript, referring to the Calico ball in that city Friday evening, says:

"The ladies looked beautifully in their calico dresses. It was truly an American scene, of which any American might well feel proud. We go in for home manufactures, and therefore endorse the calico ball."

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1855.

BINDING OATHS.

The Dover Gazette of Feb. 3, contains a very able editorial article, on the "Know Nothing Oath—how far binding,"—in which the writer demonstrates, to our satisfaction, that the Know Nothing Oaths, taken together, so neutralize each other, as to make it a harmless affair, binding only those who choose to be bound, or who are so foolish as to think they are bound. He says:

We need not say that extra-judicial oaths of all kinds have no legal validity in them. This is a point which no man will question. And we shall not stop to discuss the question whether they are morally binding;—whether the oath of a bandit to conceal their depredations upon honest men, or the oath of the forty men who bound themselves not to eat or drink until they had killed the apostle Paul, or the oath of Guy Fawkes and his associate conspirators, taken with all the sanctions of the Catholic communion, which, had its purpose been consummated, would have resulted in the general blowing up of the British Parliament—whether these or any other oaths imposed for similar purposes are morally binding? Our business is particularly with the Know Nothing oath. Allowing it perfectly innocent, how far is it binding upon its members?

The writer then tells us, that the president of every lodge, as the new members step up to be sworn, tells them—

"The obligation you are now to take, will not conflict with the duties you owe to yourselves, your families, your country or your God. With this assurance are you willing to proceed?" The answer required is, "I am." * * * *

Whatever the oath may say, or any subsequent proceedings may assume, that assurance, at the very threshold, if it has any meaning, stands as a safeguard against all hasty action, or all compulsion of any man against his own solemn convictions of duty. No man is obliged even to conceal the oath, or the internal arrangements and proceedings of the order, or in any way submit to the action of the majority, if he cannot do so in compliance with the dictates of his own conscience.

But it is said that if a man cannot do this, he is at liberty to withdraw. * *

But there is nothing in any part of the ritual that compels a man to withdraw. It simply leaves it optional with each member to go or stay. And even should he stay, if he is conscientious against voting for any candidate of the majority, he is not bound to do so; or against any action of the majority, he has a right to dissent, and still remain in the order. * * * *

We know that this is not the explanation usually given. The leaders pretend to say that their dupes must submit to the majority and vote for the nominations, or withdraw. And this impression is urged with much zeal. But if it be correct, then the assurance given before taking the oath is a cheat, a humbug, a sham, a deception.

If a man has a right to think for himself in religious matters, much less can his conscience be bound with reference to politics. Each man must be his own expositor in all such matters. The oath does not bind him to submit to any other explanations. Nor with the previous exposition does it bind him to keep one thing concealed, which, according to his own judgment, his duty to himself, his country, or his God, requires that he should not conceal.

There; the writer's views of an oath agree with our own. An oath to do wickedness, binds no man. No man can keep our conscience for us; therefore we must ultimately judge of every course of action for ourselves. Whatever trumpery oaths, then, may be imposed on a man to do wickedness or folly, have no moral force whatever. And it is of no consequence in this view, whether the oath be administered by a Judge in a Court, or by a Sachem in a Wigwam.

Legally, the Court can punish, but the Wigwam cannot. Let no honest man, then, be frightened into an oath, or frightened out of it after he has taken it, or frightened out of his wits about it. No honest man, who means to do right, in politics or any thing else, ever need to suspect himself of treason or perjury. Neither the democrats nor the know nothings can hurt him.

A GRAND ERROR.

The New York Herald, of Feb. 5, has an article on spoils and spoilsmen, in which many things are said truly, but in which the following very erroneous statements are made:

The real claimants, and their rightful heirs, have died or sold out for a song; the five millions will be pocketed, if passed, by the spoilsmen infesting the national capital.

Now we are happy to know something about several of the Old French Claims held in Portsmouth. One of the original claimants is still living here, more than ninety years of age. Children and grand-children of several other claimants, of vessels owned here, known to us, are living here and elsewhere, who now hold the claims of their ancestors, having never parted with them.—Very few and small, if any, sales of claims have been made in this place: while we have a number of large claims, belonging to orphans, some of them quite poor for want of this very act of justice!

Sunday the 4th inst. was the martyr day—just three hundred years from the burning of John Rogers, at Smithfield.

A FANCY SKETCH.

The Boston Bee, K. N., draws the following amusing picture of political parties in Massachusetts.

The Free Soil party as a distinctive political body, has no longer any existence in Massachusetts, and it cannot be revived again, no matter how much some of its disappointed leaders may seek to survive its life.

The Democrats lost two-thirds of their voters last fall, and the remaining third (those inside of the custom houses and post offices excepted) will be heard of but little longer in their present political relations. They are too good men to waste their energies in useless contests, contests in which, even if they had any chance of success, they would be forbidden to improve by the rulers at Washington, Pierce and Cushing. The Whigs are skipping about the edges of the slough of Despond, their lightness preventing them from making any sensible impression even on that soil; but the administration party are up to their very neck in the middle of the slough, and are sinking steadily out of sight. We have, then, to expect resistance in Massachusetts only from the Whigs.

The Liquor Law in Maine.—The N. Y. Journal of Commerce says it was informed a few days since, by a distinguished and unprejudiced citizen of Maine, an advocate of a temperance law—that the existing statute has become a dead letter; and that liquor is retailed there with impunity, for want of moral courage on the part of citizens to make complaints.

[We thought as much from the increased number of accidents and crimes caused by drunkenness and the increased cost of criminal prosecution in the State.]—Newburyport Herald.

The above statements are not all true,—but there is truth enough in them to deserve consideration. The Connecticut law is quite an improvement on the Maine.

The Fashions.—We have received from Federhen & Co., agents for New England, through J. P. Morse, agent for Portsmouth, the February number of Frank Leslie's Gazette of Fashions—ladies, fashions of course, for the gentlemen don t change their style of rig often enough to need a monthly journal. The Gazette is got up in a superb style; and contains, besides a good deal of information which is not knowledge, and is useful only to those butterflies who are of little use to themselves and none to the world—considerable really instructive matter, with good literary contributions. It is everything it professes to be. Price, $3 per year—25 cts. per number.

We make an extract from the editor's remarks respecting bonnets:—

A change, which may be regarded as an improvement, has within the last few weeks been gradually effected in the shape of bonnets. They are now worn more forward and less open round the face, the crown slopes less backward, and the ends of the front meet under the chin.

Aristocracy and Dignity.—Mr. Hackett's Opera Troupe is having good success, at the new Boston Theatre. See their advertisement in another column. The Transcript says that one of the secondary members of the company, Signora Donovani, having made a great hit on Monday night, was loudly applauded; and when Grisi, Mario, Badiali, and Susini appeared before the curtain the second time it fell, the audience were indignant that she was left behind, and manifested their feelings in a manner which could not be mistaken; and when in answer to the calls of the audience she appeared before the curtain, we regret to say that the male artists of the company were ungallant enough to allow her to appear unattended.

This is about equal to Mr. Arditi's leaving the orchestra when there is dancing upon the stage. One would suppose that if Mozart, Donizetti, and Rossini would compose the music for a dance, it would not be beneath the dignity of the leader of a picked up orchestra to keep his place when it was performed.

Extravagance.— A Philadelphia letter says of a party which was given by Mrs. Rush, a millionaire of that city, a few days ago:

"About two thousand invitations were issued, and the entire cost of the entertainment, I am informed, was in the vicinity of twenty thousand dollars, the bare item of boquets alone costing $1,000, which were distributed in elegant profusion around her splendid mansion. It was nothing but one incessent revelling in luxury from beginning to end. At half-past four o'clock in the morning, green tea, sweet bread and terrapins, as the closing feast preparatory to the departure of the remaining guests, were served up."

The French Spoliation Bill.—The following is from the Washington Star of Monday:—

Up to this time we have refrained from expressing an opinion of our own upon the probabilities of a veto of the French Spoliation Bill. The signs in that direction are, however, so very decided as to render us satisfied that it is to come.

Naturalization Laws.—Both branches of the Wisconsin Legislature have unanimously instructed their Senators and requested the representatives of that State to oppose any change in the naturalization laws by Congress.

To appreciate this vote it should be borne in mind that both branches of the Legislature are made up by a majority of foreigners.—Bee.

One of the Drifts.—The big snow drift in Illinois is eighteen miles long and eight feet high.

LOCAL.

Newspaporial.—The Rockingham Messenger, which has been published in this city for more than seven years, is discontinued. From the editor's valedictory, in the issue of the 7th inst., we take the following:

With the present issue ceases the publication of the Rockingham Messenger. We have but two reasons to offer for the suspension of its publication: the first of which is, that it does not pay; and the other, that the (Free Democratic) party whose policy it has labored to sustain, has ceased to exist among us as a political organization. * * * The party has here no organization, and although we are within six weeks of election, no conventions have been called, and no steps for an organized participation in the coming contest taken. * * * New issues, little less important perhaps, have sprung up, and overshadowed for a time the slavery issue; and the party for which we have labored having ceased to exist, no longer requires our advocacy. * * * All will bgree that we are fully justified in sundering our connection with a dead party.

The Messenger is in fact merged in the American Ballot—in which the editor of the former "is interested" — as he states. Mr. Whittem, though a foreigner, is more of an American than many who are born in the States. He thinks that his free-soil friends, many of whom have gone into the American party, will welcome the change.

☞ It is rumored in this city that E. N. Fuller, Esq., has disposed of his interest in the New Hampshire Gazette—possession to be released towards the close of March next.

☞ A Conference will be held at the Advent Chapel on Hanover street, commencing this day at 10 o'clock, and continue over the Sabbath. Friends interested are invited to attend. Elders Couch, Berrick and others, are expected to be present.

Deaths in January.—The total number of deaths in this city in the month of January was 13, as follows:—

Males—aged 38, 69, 19, 67, 85, 65, 1, 38.
Females—aged 41, 11, 82, 82, 80.

Colder Yet.—The weather was very cold on Tuesday—but on Wednesday was colder. In this city the Thermometer stood at from 14 to 17 below 0. At the Navy Yard it stood at 20 below. Accounts have n ot been yet received from Franconia.

Highwaymen.—As two gentlemen were walking along the main road leading from Portsmouth to Eliot, a few days since, they were passed by a wagon containing three men. In a few moments, the wagon was turned, and when near the pedestrians, the rascals who rode jumped out and demanded their money. One of the gentlemen, (an Elder) not fearing the face of clay, struck the ruffian nearest him a tremendous blow on the head with his cane, which made him bite the dust; he tried the same experiment on the second, with equal success; the third, seeing the fate of his companions, and not wishing to share it, scrambled into the wagon, and helping in his friends, the trio drove off. The villains were supposed to live in South Berwick. T.

Railroad Accident.—A correspondent at South Berwick, informs us that as the noon passenger train up, on the Great Falls & Conway Railroad, was approaching a bridge sixty feet high, between Milton and South Milton, on Tuesday, the driving wheels became separated from the engine. The fireman jumped off just before reaching the bridge; the engineer reversed steam, and jumped down a very high bank on reaching the other end of the bridge. The engine stopped in a rock-cut, after having proceeded about fifty rods from the breakage. Strange to say, no person was injured.

Rare Success.—It seems that we are at length to have a Panorama visit us of genuine merit. It was exhibited last week in Salem, with rare success, to audiences averaging 700 through the week. It is now in Newburyport, where it is pronounced the best ever in the city. We predict a continuation of this merited patronage here. *

The buildings Nos. 138 and 140 Fulton st., New York, were destroyed by fire, Monday morning. The total loss is estimated at $50,000.

The extensive ropewalk of Messrs. Stephen F. and Wm. F. Richardson, 500 feet long, together with the jenny and tar houses, situated in the outskirts of Brooklyn, was destroyed by fire, Sunday evening. Loss $25,000; insurance $6,000.

Both the above fires, it is suspected, were the works of incendiaries, and in the latter case three men have been arrested, charged with the crime.

The "Old Folks" of Manchester, N. H., will give a Concert next Friday evening. They number about 300 singers, and one who is a judge of such things says their rehearsals are more interesting than any Concert he has heard for twenty years. It is thought that the New Hall, large as it is, will not be able to accommodate all who wish to attend.

Change of Hours of Labor.—The daily time of labor in the Mills of Manchester, N. H., is to be increased thirty-five minutes. In Nashua they are going back to the old system. In other manufacturing places new arrangements have been made.

"Old Folks" Choir.

Agreeably to adjournment, the Old Folks' Choir will meet at Exchange Hall on Saturday Evening, Feb. 10th, at half-past 7 o'clock, for Rehearsal of the ancient sacred music, and business. Others acquainted with the old music, are invited to join the choir, at the above time and place.
Per order. J. P. PAYSON, Sec.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is
AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.
They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Bolls—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ma., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, and D. Kimball, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

WEIGHT 9000 POUNDS.
The Largest and most Magnificent Yoke of Oxen in the World.
Will be Exhibited at Johnson's Stable, Hanover street, Feb. 9th, 10th and 12th.

It is confidently believed that the world has never seen their equal for size, and never their superior for Symmetry and Beauty combined. These cattle are Dark Red, stand 6 ft. and 6 ft. 2 in. high, girt 12 feet and 11 ft 5 in. round. These Cattle were bred in Hoosick, Rensselear Co. by Wm M. Paddock, and were worked and fattened by John Lee, of Washington Co. and were exhibited by him and drew the first premium for Working Cattle, at the N. Y. State Fair at Albany, 1850, and are, in point of beauty, size and condition, certainly unsurpassed by anything that has been heard of in the United States. They were also exhibited by Geo. F. Hastings, at a cost of $8000, and drew the first premium at the World's Fair, in New York city, in 1853.

Admission 15 cents. Doors open from 9 to 12 A. M., from 2 to 5, and 6 to 9 P. M.

New Boot and Shoe Store,
NO. 12 DANIEL STREET,
Portsmouth, N. H.
THE undersigned would respectfully announce to the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity that they have entered into copartnership in the firm name of
JOHN BUZZELL & CO.,
Have taken the Store in Daniel street, formerly occupied by Mr. E. A. Stevens, and stocked it with a good assortment of
BOOTS AND SHOES
Of every description, which they offer to the public at as low prices as they can be purchased for in Portsmouth or elsewhere. They also have in connection with their store a manufactory of Boots and Shoes, and are prepared to make to order any description desired, in the best manner, and on the most liberal terms. Determined to merit, they hope to receive a fair share of public patronage. JOHN BUZZELL,
WM. H. FERNALD.

The subscriber takes this opportunity of presenting his compliments to his many friends in Portsmouth and vicinity, and respectfully soliciting their patronage in his new position, pledges himself to use every endeavor to serve them satisfactorily. During his experience of twelve years in the business he has labored to serve faithfully all who have entrusted their orders to his care; and trusting he has earned a reputation for fair and honorable dealing, he will strive in future to merit and retain it. Every article sold at the Store, where it will be his pleasure to serve old friends and find new ones, shall be as represented; or if it shall prove otherwise the money shall be refunded, or entire satisfaction given. Please call and try us. Very respectfully,
Feb. 7. JOHN BUZZELL.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, Feb. 6.

SENATE. — The bill reported yesterday, from the Committee on the Judiciary, providing for the establishment of a Circuit Court in the State of California, was taken up. A motion was made to fix the salary of the Judge of the Court at $6000.

The Senate took up the French Spoliation bill. The bill passed, yeas 30, nays 17.

Mr. Dawson, of Georgia, reported a bill appropriating $30,000 for the erection of an arsenal in the District of Columbia.

Mr. Pratt, of Maryland, called up the bill appropriating $350,000 for improving Baltimore harbor and Patapsco River bed.

Pending his remarks, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House refused to reconsider the vote expelling Wm. B. Chase from the floor of the House as a reporter.

The consideration of the bill remodelling the Diplomatic and Consular System was resumed.

Mr. Perkins of Louisiana, having heretofore spoken of the diplomatic reform feature, proceeded to speak at some length on the consular system, noticing the evils arising from the appointment of foreigners as Consuls.—The bill provides that no person other than a citizen of the United States shall act as Consul, and no Consul shall receive any remuneration until he shall arrive at his post.

Pending the debate, the House went into committee of the whole on the special order of the day, the Texas Creditor's bill.

Mr. Smith of Tennessee obtained leave to print his speech, in which he intends to oppose an extension of the naturalization laws, but will advocate the most stringent measures to prevent immigration hither of foreign paupers, convicts and felons. He also intends to review Know Nothingism in all its bearings.

Without taking a vote upon the Texas Creditor's bill, the committee rose.

Mr. Breckenridge, of Kentucky, reminded the House that this was the only day to be devoted to the bill, and moved that the House go again into committee.

After some confusion, arising from a disposition to postpone the bill, indicated by members leaving the House without a quorum, on a motion to adjourn, the roll was called and the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The French Spoliation bill has passed the Senate by a vote of 30 to 17, and will go to the President to-morrow. There is a very general and decided impression that he will veto it; but I do not think so.

Dudley Mann has not tendered his resignation, as has been stated.

The Senate Judiciary Committee has reported on the affairs of the Smithsonian Institution, that no additional legislation relative to its management is necessary; the House committee on the same subject is engaged in a careful and thorough investigation.

Mr. Seward's re-election to the United States Senate is hailed here with great joy by men of all parties; by the whigs on principle, and by the democrats because it defeats the "know-nothings," whom he had defied. There is a great gathering of his friends at his house, this evening. A brass band is serenading him, and eighty-six guns are to be fired in honor of his triumph.—Cor. Boston Adv.

LABORERS EMPLOYED.—The Commissioners of Emigration are relieved from the great pressure of eager applicants for labor, with whom their office has, till recently, been thronged. All able-bodied men have been set to work on the Erie Canal Enlargement, where there is still a demand for all the laborers that can be furnished. Not less than two hundred and forty were sent off yesterday.

Among the applicants for "assistance" were a considerable number of steut, hardy Germans. They were at once offered employment on the canal, with the understanding that their families should be provided for until they were able to receive and take care of them, themselves. They declined this proposition, preferring that the Commissioners should provide for their wants in the city; and toward night the party numbering about fifty, applied for lodgings. This game, however, did not operate, and they were left to shift for themselves, as best they could, until ready to go to work.

About four hundred able-bodied men on Ward's Island, have been set to work wheeling dirt. It is expected that their number will speedily diminish.—N. Y. paper.

ART UNION.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture.—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising
The Finest and Best Collection,
the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—
varying in price
From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle;) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS,

AS well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt, and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—
Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. E. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

Save your Gas.

IT is desirable to economise in every way the consumption of Gas, and in no way can this be so effectually done as by the use of Dr. Walter Kidder's

GAS REGULATOR.

The Regulator is designed to lessen and equalize the pressure of Gas in the pipes, thereby making the lights burn equally. It also destroys the disagreeable and unhealthy smell of unconsumed gas in the room, and making a saving of 25 per cent in the consumption of Gas.
The Regulator has been extensively used in Boston, New York and other places, with complete success; and has been highly commended by the most scientific men in the country. The subscriber has one in operation at his Store, and would be pleased to have any one examine it.
Pamphlets containing a full description of the article, and of experiments with it, with the testimonials of those using it, may be had at the Store.
The subscriber has also for sale, Wood's Patent Burners and Patent Scotch Tip Burners, both very economical and desirable burners. Please call and examine. E. A. STEVENS, 46 Market st.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bears testimony, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $2.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING

TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to the simplicity of this improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stopping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons in each town may make a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 50 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHILLIPS,

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN OFFICE.

Agency for business with US Patent Office, Washington, 76 State st., up-stairs, Boston.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1836) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered by the inferior agents, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the without fee (though he will within thirty days after the rejection,) Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringements of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, as a solicitor, and of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries; besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining Copies of Patents, Copies of rejection of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,
Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most faithful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

HERTS BROTHERS'

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metallic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several unscrupulous Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1855," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S

Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS VEGINÆ or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . I have given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 57 Mill street.

TO SKATERS ON THE POND.

On flashing feet, away they fling,
In giddy circles eddying,
Now pausing as on Eagle's wing,
Now rushing swift, then steadying.

Aye—girls and boys with gladsome voice
Shout forth their merry laughter,
As quickly o'er the glassy ice
They meet, pass, turn, and after.

The day is bright, and clear the air,
Their cheeks are fair and ruddying,
Deep draughts of health they're breathing there,
Preparing them for studying.

Hurra! hurra! a race they cry,
(Into the ranks they're hurrying,)
With the Iron horse that's just gone by,—
The horse that needs no currying.

He puffs upon his Iron track,
Round—round his strong arms whirling,
But vain his puffs, his tramp and crack,
And his wreath of breath up curling.

With rapid flight they pass ahead
And gain the bounds before him,
Breathless to wait his coming tramp,
And shout their triumph o'er him.

Oh, healthful motion—pinions swift
That bear them o'er the level;
If upward ye could but them lift,
How soon in clouds they'd revel.

When Winter's frost chills all the flowers,
Cold winds blow uninviting,
Bring out your skates, and see the bowers,
Of glorious faces lighting. S.

Portsmouth, Feb., 1855.

ANECDOTE OF THE HEATHEN.—The following anecdote, which we have never seen in print, was related to us by a gentleman who spent some years among the heathen.

A missionary among a tribe of cannibals had spent much time in talking and praying with the chief, and in all but one particular, the sachem had become as devout a convert as heart could wish. He had between twenty and thirty wives, and nothing the missionary said about the wickedness of having more than one, seemed to convince him he was doing wrong in living as his father had done before him. In the course of human events it became necessary for the missionary to leave the tribe for a time, and on his departure he charged the chief to think over what had been said to him about the sin of polygamy, which he promised to do.

After a long absence the missionary returned, and encountering the chief entered his hut. In conversation the missionary was pleased to find him as pious as ever, and overjoyed to learn he had but one wife. Nothing is lacking now, thought the missionary, to make this chief a good christian; but having some curiosity, he asked—"What have you done with the rest of your wives?"

"Oh!" said the chief, "I have killed and eaten them!" T.

AN ANCIENT ONE.—A female lately died in Nova Scotia at the advanced age of 107 years.

JEU D' ESPRIT.—A beautiful young lady, who was considered a paragon of excellence, frequently reminded her friends that they should "do as they would be done by." One of her admirers, a cunning chap, determined to profit by the advice. Calling on her one evening, he asked if she thought her favorite rule should be followed literally. Certainly, said she. "Well, then," said he "I should like very much to have you kiss me, so I must kiss you." The lady was astonished, but concluded not to violate her excellent rule; she also concluded, the same evening, to take the rogue, "for better or worse." T.

WHAT WILL BE DONE WITH THE MORMONS.

The Washington Union publishes and endorses the following from the Richmond Enquirer:—

"Utah cannot come into this confederacy with polygamy as a legal institution. Squatter sovereignty may affirm the right of the people of a territory to "determine their own institutions;" but there is a sovereignty above the sovereignty of squatters. The sovereignty of reason, of religion, of civilization, the sovereignty of the collective will of the American people."

On this paragraph the Newburyport Herald offers the following remarks:

This is very singular position for parties to take that believe in State rights; that supported the Nebraska act because it empowered the people to form their own institutions and regulate their own local affairs; that have constantly denounced the "higher law" theory of some northern men. Now they turn round and declare the right of "outsiders" to interfere with a peculiar institution, a local question, a State or territorial usage; and affirm that there is a sovereignty above the local sovereignty, a higher law—the law of reason, of religion and of civilization; taking the self-same ground that Garrison, Parker, Phillips and Abby Kelly do in relation to slavery. If this doctrine be true, it is true for Virginia as much as for Utah; if it be correct, it is correct for one institution as much as another, and the Nebraska bill was and is a humbug.

It is indeed lamentable that in this age of the world and in this country, 50,000 people could be collected in one body, believers in so base an imposition as Mormonism, and given to such heathenish and beastly practices—usages at war with all the laws of progress and improvement—and call the same just, pious and holy; but people mistake the nature of the civil compact under which we live, or else we do—if they think we can go abroad into all the States and seek in each what seems to us peculiarly evil, and make war upon, and by Congressional action interdict and forbid it. The city of New York is more corrupt than any other place on the continent of America; there are more indictable offences committed there than in all the southern States combined; but what have Boston or Baltimore or Charleston to do with that? So polygamy as a legal institution is terrible to think of; it even shocks old Virginia, but how can you help it? So has Virginia a most terrible, abominable legal institution, worse than Morman polygamy a hundred times, because it combines all other vices and crimes with it. It establishes concubinage for all that can afford it; allows every man to keep his harem, women of different races, colors and mixtures, and it gives them not the protection of wives as Mormonism does, but when he tires of them he may cast them off to the highest bidder. It does not make the children of those women heirs to his name and rights and property, and entitled to the equal protection of the laws, but chattels and things to be sold and used—to be separated from mothers and each other, and entirely in the will of the owner. What will we do with Virginia, or Kentucky, or Louisiana, that sanction all this by law, religion and usage? What will we do with New Mexico or Kansas that are following in the same track, if we will go to Utah to abolish polygamy? If we can go into one territory we can into another; if we can meddle with one institution we can with another; and, before we begin, we better consider what powers we have, and to what results we may come to in the end.

But should not the government suppress polygamy in Utah? If the general government was instituted for such a purpose it might; but what has the general government to do with a civil contract, approved by the local authorities?—or with the religious usages of the people? It has no religion of its own, and it cannot say that any State shall or shall not have. It can demand that New Hampshire shall not be Protestant and proscribe Catholics, that Massachusetts shall not be Christian and refuse the testimony of Atheists in her courts, as much as it can that Utah shall not be Mormon. But suppose it had a religion. In a Protestant country marriage is not a sacrament; it is a civil contract—nothing more and nothing less. It is voluntary, and may need no ceremony or legal ratification. Now if there is anything in popular sovereignty, the people of Utah are equal with the people of Massachusetts; and not for a minute would we admit the right of the general government to regulate marriage, divorce, or any civil matter, such as the relation of parents and children, masters and servants or teachers and pupils. Just as much can it do to Governor Gardner as Brigham Young; just as much to the Mayor of this city as to Orson Hyde. The simple truth is that each State, keeping within the Constitution, can manage their local affairs to suit themselves. The government could not abolish Protestantism in New Hampshire, if the other thirty States were all Catholic: no more can it abolish Mormonism in Utah. It cannot say that a man shall have one wife: it cannot forbid his having five. It can do nothing rightfully but the specific work for which it was organized. If Christians do not like Mormon usages they can pray for the erring: they can send missionaries there, as Massachusetts did to Charleston and New Orleans: they can argue the case with them and teach them better; where they have the majority they can refuse to elect them to office; or they can shake off the dust of their feet as a testimony and leave them. The probability is that such corruption, like all sin and error, will in time work out its own destruction, and the people turn to better lives, though it may not happed in our day; but whether so or not, it is beyond our reach and power, and we are bound not to interfere.

Most of this is true; much of it is terribly true; and some of it is excellent. But we are confident that the priestcraft, corruption and follies of Mormonism will breed civil wars among the Mormons, and between them and other people near them, which will compel the government and army of the United States to interfere.

One word as to the admission of new States to the Union. Certainly we are not obliged to admit any State into the Union; as the Constitution says New States may, not must, be admitted. Nothing can be more absurd than the notion that we are under any obligation to admit all manner of distant and heterogeneous States, and all manner of strange institutions, and all manner of discordant people, to help govern us.

That course might be most exceedingly Democratic; but it does not strike us as remarkably wise or prudent.

FUNERAL OF REV. JOHN MOORE. — On Wednesday, at Concord, N. H., we attended the funeral services of Rev. John Moore, who died suddenly on Monday. Mr. Moore was pastor of the Universalist Church in Concord, and was highly esteemed by the community there, as well as in the other places where he had ministered. He completed his 58th year on the day of his decease.

The funeral services were held in the Baptist Church, which was kindly loaned for the occasion, and which was densely crowded with people.

The services were under the direction of the Blazing Star Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons, of which Mr. Moore was Master,—assisted by White Mountain Lodge, I. O. of O. F., of which he was also a member.

Rev. Mr. Fay of Nashua, offered an appropriate prayer, and Rev. Sylvanus Cobb of Boston, preached the funeral sermon, founded on the words of Jesus, "But the very hairs of your head are all numbered."

At the close of the sermon, the Masonic Burial service was read in a devout and impressive manner, by the Grand Master of the State, and closed with prayer by Rev. Br. Kelley, of the Methodist E. Church.

The deceased was a man of ample mould and majestic proportions in person as well as mind; and was habited in his coffin, exactly as in the pulpit, in a full suit of black. In this manner, with the coffin lid removed, appearing almost lifelike, he was viewed by the Sabbath scholars and teachers, congregation and Freemasons, the latter being in large numbers, and depositing their emblematic evergreens. This silent solemn show was by no means unimpressive; and at its close the earthly remains of a noble man were borne away towards their lowly resting place in Lebanon, N. H.

ANOTHER SECRET SOCIETY.—The New York Crusader states that there is in the city of New York a secret organization of professional beggars, most of whom are imported from Sardinia, but are classified among voluntary emigrants. The Crusader says:

"At the present time this foreign organization of professional paupers number in the city of New York not less than three hundred members, of both sexes. They have secret and mysterious signs—a language intelligible but among themselves, and have certificates like the members of Masonry, according to their degrees, merits and intelligence of the members. They inhabit generally the most filthy quarters of New York, and are organized much like Fourierites, Communists, or Socialists; they beg individually and divide mutually. As soon as they have collected a good sum, they return to their native home, and buy properties with the money obtained in this country under false pretences. We promise to give such information about this secret organization as to stir up the city authorities and the whole country."

THE GREAT GAINES CASE.—The following paragraphs are from the New Orleans Bulletin of Monday week:

No Verdict.—The jury in the case of the Executor of Daniel Webster and G. B. Duncan vs. the city of New Orleans, for $50,000, for services in the great Gaines case, after being out about eighteen hours, came into Court and stated it was impossible for them to agree upon a verdict. They were then discharged by Judge Lee.

Mrs. Myra Clark Gaines vs. the City.—The claim of Mrs. Gaines against the city of New Orleans, which was thought to have received its quietus by the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, has again sprung upon the city upon a new ground—that of the will of Daniel Clark, of 1813. Her suit is brought in the Second District Court. If the city will have to pay $50,000 to defend its interests from this new attack, it had better surrender at once the property claimed, for that part of the claim which belongs to the city is worth only about $30,000,—at least, such is the opinion of an eminent legal gentleman, given under oath in Judge Lee's Court, last week.

THE INDIA RUBBER CASE.—PROVIDENCE Feb. 5.—The trial in the great India Rubber case of Day vs. Goodyear and associates, after proceeding for two weeks, was today temporarily suspended, in consequence of the illness of a juror. This is the same case which was suddenly terminated, in New York, by the death of a juror.

Since the passage of the Nebraska bill, Ohio has been the only free State that has elected a United States Senator favorable to that measure; and gradually the Senate is changing in its character. It is not probable that a majority will ever be obtained to repeal that act, and almost equally certain that no Senate, when the present terms have expired, will approve it.—Newburyport Her.

LOCAL.

☞ The Lecture before the Mercantile Library Association, on Thursday evening, was by F. H. Underwood, Esq., of Boston, on Witchcraft; and was delivered to an audience much smaller than usual, on account of the storm.

The subject was familiar to many of the auditory: the facts, of course, were mainly the same as have often before been presented: nevertheless the selection and arrangement of facts were judicious, and the lecturer's conclusions generally safe and sound.

His comparison of American trials and executions for witchcraft, with European follies and monstrosities of the same sort, favorable to the former, were just and pertinent, and his remarks on spiritualism were fair and sensible.

MORE ABOUT THE HIGHWAYMEN.—Our account of the highwaymen, in Thursday's Chronicle, was not entirely correct. The following are the particulars:

As Elder Paine, the minister at Kittery Foreside, was walking along the main road leading from Portsmouth to Eliot, last Saturday, he saw three ruffians beating a man unmercifully. The Elder bade them desist, instead of which one of the scamps attacked him, but was soon laid sprawling; another then turned upon him, and was knocked down by the reverend gentleman; the third shared a similar fate, the Elder telling them if he could not give them the Maine Law, he would the Paine Law. The man who was beaten by the rascals, had been in this city on business, and on his way home fell among thieves; if a Good Samaritan had not happened to pass that way as he did, they would soon have left him for dead. The scoundrels had probably been drinking, and hoped to rob the man of his money to buy more liquor with. The trio, finding nothing was to be made with the Elder about, drove off. We understand the officers are in search of the villains, who are supposed to live in South Berwick. T.

TEMPLE, TO-NIGHT.—We doubt if our citizens fully appreciate the magnitude and merit of the Panorama to be opened at the Temple to-night. It is a rare production, being painted from the original designs, by the eminent artists Deellas Koyle, and Wright—recognized by the national academy of art and design, and complimented by an autograph letter from Zeuize, the painter of Washington crossing the Delaware, and later of Washington at Monmouth. It comes to us in no questionable shape, but with a reputation that should ensure the Temple thrice full. The admission has been reduced to 15 cents. Let every admirer of the "Prince of Dreamers," and every lover of the beautiful visit it.

☞ There will be no services at the Pleasant street Church next Sabbath.

SLAVES ESCAPING.—The Richmond (Va.) Enquirer says that five slaves who escaped from their masters in that city on the 27th ult., are still at large, and probably on their way to the North, notwithstanding large rewards have been offered for their apprehension. The Richmond Despatch has the following:

"It is very evident from the numbers of slaves that have escaped from this city within a short time past, that abolition emissaries are in our midst, aiding and encouraging negroes to escape to the North, and it therfore becomes the duty of the authorities of the city and state to leave no stone unturned to detect them, and subject them to punishment. It must be apparent to every one that the only method of doing this, is to have a river police, whose duty it shall be to search every vessel passing down the James, York and Pamunky rivers, and when a fugitive is discovered, to bring the vessel ashore, and make the master suffer a heavy penalty. In some instances negroes are no doubt taken off in vessels without the knowledge of the commander, but in most cases the skippers are the agents of the abolitionists, and the crews his paid assistants. If a few of these piratical craft could be seized and confiscated to the state, and the commanders and crews given twenty years each in prison, at hard labor, negro stealing would soon be abandoned by those who new follow it as a matter of speculation."

Preston's Bronchial or Voice Lozenges.

THESE LOZENGES are recommended for HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS, SORE THROAT, and all LUNG COMPLAINTS. For Singers, Clergymen and others who are obliged to speak in public, they are strongly recommended. Several Clergymen in this city have used them for a number of years, and they have found them of great benefit

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sufficient to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

Important to Gentlemen.

GENTLEMEN desirous of having their Clothes made to order, are invited to call at our Establishment, where they may find a good assortment of Goods, as in any other in the city. The plan adopted by us is not to charge 25 per cent. extra, to offset bad debts; therefore those patronizing us may feel assured that they will not have to pay for those who NEVER PAY. Call and try us; see for yourselves. You cannot lose much—you may find it to your advantage.

We have just received a New Assortment of Shirts, Dickeys, Stocks, Neck Ties, and Elastic Bows for youths.

We wish to close off the balance of our Winter Stock of Goods, and will sell Cloths and Doeskins, Cassimeres, &c. by the yard or otherwise at a VERY SMALL ADVANCE from Cost.

Please Call. No. 9 Congress street.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 7.

SENATE.—Mr. Sumner of Massachusetts presented a memorial from certain citizens of Pawtucket, Mass., praying for the repeal of the fugitive slave law, the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia, and its prohibition in the territories.

Mr. Brown of Mississippi—"Is that all they want?"

Mr. Sumner—"That is the beginning."

Mr. Sumner introduced a bill to continue certain public works in Massachusetts. Read twice, and placed on the calendar.

Mr. Chase of Ohio presented a petition from certain citizens of Ohio, praying for the passage of a law prohibiting slavery in the territories, and said he should call up the bill introduced by him for that purpose at the earliest opportunity.

Mr. Benjamin of Louisiana introduced a bill to change the name of the schooner Plantagenet to A. C. Brown.

Mr. Seward of New York introduced a bill to remove obstructions at Hell Gate, and to improve the piers at the mouth of the Genesee River.

Mr. Mallory of Florida introduced a bill to improve the bar at Apalachicola, Florida.

The bill establishing a United States Circuit Court in California was taken up.

After some discussion, the further consideration of the bill was postponed until to-morrow, and the Senate passed the following bills:—Appropriating $120,000 for improvements to the port of Baltimore; for continuing improvements on the Hudson River; to refund to the citizens of Wilmington, N. C., the amount expended by them to improve Cape Fear River; for improving Arkansas River; Tennessee River; deepening the channel over St. Clair flats; improving Des Moines rapids and the harbor of Newark, N. J.

Bills were also passed continuing various public works already commenced in the State of Maine; appropriating $30,000 to continue improvements at the mouth of San Diego River, California; and $161,000 for removing obstructions in the mouth of Savannah River. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Breckenridge of Kentucky moved to take up the Texas Creditor's bill. Objection was made, on the ground that the motion was not in order, yesterday having been assigned for the special consideration of the bill. The decision of the Speaker, that the motion was in order, was sustained.

The bill was passed, cutting down the appropriations from $8,500,000 to $6,550,000,—yeas 154, nays 43—the two Texas Representatives voting in the negative.

Mr. Houston of Alabama succeeded in getting the House into Committee of the Whole on the Union, intending to make it a test upon the Tariff Reduction bill.

Instead of proceeding to the consideration of that bill, the Committee took up the Civil and Diplomatic bill by six majority, much to the delight of the enemies of the Tariff bill. Much confusion ensued, and the House adj.

THE RUM TRADE.—A letter from Marseilles says that orders have been sent to this country for 16,000 puncheons of rum which, at the present prices, nets 60 cents a gallon there. This is the kind of brandy that is coming back at three or four dollars a gallon.

A man named Short was recently hung in Kentucky without much ceremony, for murder. As he stood in the cart waiting the escort, an old man somewhat drunk pressed near him. Short said to him, "my friend, whiskey brought me to this—I expect you along in a few days."

MEN DISCHARGED.—The entire gang of sailmakers in the Navy Yard, Charlestown, with the exception of two apprentices, a quartermaster, and a laborer, have been discharged.

New Boot and Shoe Store,

NO. 12 DANIEL STREET,
Portsmouth, N. H.

THE undersigned would respectfully announce to the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity that they have entered into copartnership in the firm name of
JOHN BUZZELL & CO.,
Have taken the Store in Daniel street, formerly occupied by Mr. E. A. Stevens, and stocked it with a good assortment of

BOOTS AND SHOES

Of every description, which they offer to the public at as low prices as they can be purchased for in Portsmouth or elsewhere. They also have in connection with their Store a manufactory of Boots and Shoes, and are prepared to make to order any description desired, in the best manner, and on the most liberal terms. Determined to merit, they hope to receive a fair share of public patronage.
JOHN BUZZELL,
WM. H. FERNALD.

The subscriber takes this opportunity of presenting his compliments to his many friends in Portsmouth and vicinity, and respectfully soliciting their patronage in his new position, pledges himself to use every endeavor to serve them satisfactorily. During his experience of twelve years in the business he has labored to serve faithfully all who have entrusted their orders to his care; and trusting he has earned a reputation for fair and honorable dealing, he will strive in future to merit and retain it. Every article sold at the Store, where it will be his pleasure to serve old friends and find new ones, will be as represented; or if it shall prove otherwise the money shall be refunded, or entire satisfaction given. Please call and try us. Very respectfully,
Feb. 7. JOHN BUZZELL.

ART UNIQN.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND

in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.

The Price of each Ticket will be $1.

Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising

The Finest and Best Collection,

the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth,—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—

—varying in price

From 50 Cts. to $15.

The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.

The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.

TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, R. Peyser, and

FOSTER'S PATENT

Deck-Reefing Gear.

By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—

"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

Apply to the Patentee,
WILLIAM H. FOSTER, Portsmouth,
Or to YEATON & HALE, Portland. f7

The Great Specific of the Age.

OXYGENATED BITTERS!

THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED FOR THE CURE OF

DYSPEPSIA,

IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, AS well as Liver Disease, Fever and Ague, Billy, Low Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.

Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."

The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, because, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.

I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.

It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—

Hon. I. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.
Hon. J. F. Simmons, U. S. Senator from R. I.
Hon. Samuel S. Phelps, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Wm. Upham, U. S. Senator from Vt.
Hon. Solomon Foote, Member of Cong. from Vt.
Hon. H. D. Foster, Member of Cong. from Pa.

Save your Gas.

IT is desirable to economise in every way the consumption of Gas, and in no way can this be so effectually done as by the use of Dr. Walter Kidder's

GAS REGULATOR.

The Regulator is designed to lessen and equalize the pressure of Gas in the pipes, thereby making the lights burn equally. It also destroys the disagreeable and unhealthy smell of unconsumed gas in the room, and making a saving of 25 per cent in the consumption of Gas.

The Regulator has been extensively used in Boston, New York and other places, with complete success; and has been highly commended by the most scientific men in the country. The subscriber has one in operation at his Store, and would be pleased to have any one examine it.

Pamphlets containing a full description of the article, and of experiments with it, with the testimonials of those using it, may be had at the Store.

The subscriber has also for sale, Wood's Patent Burners and Patent Scotch Tip Burners, both very economical and desirable burners. Please call and examine. E. A. STEVENS, 46 Market st.

SHOCKING OCCURRENCE.—Five orphans, who had been placed in charge of a lady residing in Maspetch, L. I., were suffocated some nights ago under the following dreadful circumstances. They were all put to bed in one room by a domestic, who, in order to make them more comfortable, kindled a coal fire in a stove, and closed the room tightly. The escape of the gas and the impure air, suffocated all five of the little sleepers.

The New York Journal of Commerce reports the sale of 800 cases of Portsmouth and Hadley Falls lawns, from the printery of Jacob Dunnell & Co., saying of them: "The designs were acknowledged to be in good taste and the printing was beautifully executed. The prices realized were below the average of last year, but were as high as we expected, considering the times. The range was mostly 10 a 11 1-2, averaging about 10 3-4; the average last year was 11 5-8; average in 1853, 13 1-4; do in 1852, 12 3-4."

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any measure because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "American Men governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above monthlies is $1 per year.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 50 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHELPS,

"We are not accustomed to laugh outright, or be convulsed with laughter, yet we have never found it more difficult to restrain our risibilities than while perusal this most ingenious satire; and yet with all its comical, diverting, and laughable scenes, the most solemn, important and instructive lessons are couched in every page.—Youth should read it—parents, teachers, preachers everybody."

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT —IN— Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, cross-grained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

AMALGAMATED IRIDIUM ZINC & PLATINA

PENS.

WARRANTED NOT TO CORRODE.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments, has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping. Also to Banks and Schools, as they will not splatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, and usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INTERNAL HEMORRAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAL MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Morning Chronicle.

THE REASON WHY.

We have already mentioned the fact, that S. M. Booth had been sentenced, by a Court in Milwaukie, to pay $1000 for aiding in the rescue of a slave. This decision is now said to be reversed or set aside in some way. If the following statement of the trial is correct, it surely ought to be. We copy from the Boston Telegraph.

In this Milwaukie case, the jury was selected by the Marshal and Clerk of the Court, in defiance of a law of Congress to the contrary, and when the counsel for Booth proposed to quash the proceedings for this reason, Judge Miller refused even to allow him to read his objections to the proceedings. Among the jurors were two or three persons who had openly denounced Booth and his conduct.—One of these men was named Rockwell, and after he had been placed on the jury, and had sworn that he had not formed an opinion, he told Booth's counsel—"I am death against your side."

Gen. Paine, the counsel, asked him why he did not tell the Court this fact, and asked him to do so when the Court came in, in the afternoon. He promised to do so, but neglected it, so that Paine rose and stated the fact and appealed to Rockwell for the correctness of his statement. Rockwell admitted its truth, and then asked to be excused. The Judge, (or Executioner) however, said, this was no objection against him; he was just the man they wanted, for he was for enforcing the law. The trial proceeded for a while, but at last the Judge began to see that the juror, (and Judge also,) were in "a delicate position," and that if the juror was allowed to remain, he would damn both the prosecution and the Court, and so he was finally released, and a man quite as obnoxious, but who had not said so much, was put in his place.

In his charge to the Jury, Miller told them in direct terms that the defendant was guilty, that he alone was the judge of the law, and that it was their duty to convict. In fact the jury were coerced into giving a verdict against Booth, by this corrupt judicial bloodhound, who if the government itself was not completely at the mercy of the slaveholders, would be impeached and driven from the bench in disgrace. Three of the jurors, after agreeing to the verdict, adopted the following resolution:—

"Resolved, That while we feel ourselves bound by a solemn oath to perform a most painful duty, in declaring the defendant guilty of the above charge, and thus making him liable to the penalties of a most cruel and odious law, yet, at the same time, in so doing, we declare that he performed a most noble, benevolent and humane act, and we thus record our condemnation of the Fugitive Slave Law, and earnestly commend him to the clemency of the Court."

This shows to what a state of subjection the jurors were reduced; they were coerced into giving a verdict which has sent a man to prison and robbed him of a thousand dollars, for doing what they acknowledge to be "a noble, benevolent and humane act." Guilty of Humanity! What self-stulification!

PITIFUL DESTITUTION.—A woman named Nora Fitzgerald was brought to Station House No. 2, Monday evening, having been found in Half Moon place, where she was most inhumanly turned out doors by one Mary C. Keefe. She had four children, a boy three years old, a girl two, and a pair of twins but ten days old. The woman Fitzgerald has a husband, and it was during his absence that the brutal woman pushed her out of doors. The husband had been unable to obtain work to pay any rent of late. The two youngest children, it is thought, will not survive. A purse was made up for the unfortunate woman at the Station House, and some five dollars were collected. Boston Bee.

The Mayor of New York keeps an open book at the City Hall, in which all persons aggrieved, whom the city should protect, are invited to enter their complaints, and he guarantees prompt attention in every case. Every day more or less persons avail themselves of this avenue to official attention, and the lowest are no more neglected than the highest. In a city of a half million souls, things have now arrived at that point, that no person has a right to complain, since all by simply naming their grievances can have all the protection the laws give them.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1855.

For the Chronicle.

OATHS.

Messrs. Editors:—In an article in the Daily Chronicle of the 8th inst. you copy approvingly several paragraphs from the Dover Gazette, on the binding effect of all extra judicial oaths. I wish to ask a question or two, which, perhaps should be proposed directly to the editor of that paper.

If I have been informed correctly, the editor of the Gazette belongs to two Secret Societies—the Masons and Odd Fellows. In one of those societies at least, the obligation imposed, is prefaced by an assurance similar to that given to the K. N. Does he, as a good Mason, or a good Odd Fellow, consider their obligations binding? If so, how far? Should he consider them so light a burden as he attempts to prove is placed upon the shoulders of the K. N., we predict he would not long retain his membership with those time honored associations.

The correct view of his opinion is—that blind zeal for his party compels him to endeavor to explain away the K. N. obligations—while similar promises on his own part, are better kept out of sight, in that connection.—The explanatory conditions to a K. N. obligation, in his view, render the obligation itself nugatory; while a similar condition, is of no effect, as to the Mason or Odd Fellow.

Your own views, at the close of the article, are much more natural and proper. An oath to do a wrong act is not binding on the person making it—whether prefaced with conditions or not. A promise or intention to perform a good deed is binding—whether made with the right hand raised toward heaven, or by the mere action of the mind, unexpressed in words.

The K. Ns. have promised (or as the Gazette says—sworn) to perform certain things—among others, to protect the rights and privileges of American citizens, by endeavoring to check and control the oppressive domineering spirit of the Roman Catholic political church; have promised to secure to our children the benefits of our Free School system, which the the Catholic priests in this city, and in other places, have endeavored to subvert and destroy. This promise we consider good, and therefore binding. As the friends of the administration have arrayed themselves against the execution of this object, of course they must make special pleas that the promise is not binding. X.

NIPPED IN THE BUD.—The prize fight, for which such great preparation had been made in New York, where the appetites of the fancy had been stimulated by rat killing, bear baiting, and cock and dog fighting, was arrested by the vigilance of the mayor and police.—George Lees, the New York champion, surrendered to Sergeant Ford, who found him in the upper room of a porter house, just ready to start with his friends for Riker's Island, where the ring was to be. James McIntyre, the Irish Philadelphia champion, backed by the lovely "killers" of that peaceful Quaker city, managed not to be taken, though a carriage load of his friends, with ropes, stakes, and all the paraphernalia for the ring, were arrested by the police of the 11th ward. A party of spectators, however, did go to Riker's Island in a steamboat.

What a queer world we live in! A war for the balance of power, with its bloody and beastly carnage, is prayed up by Russian, French, English and American clergymen, while two bullies, wishing to see which is the best man, and win $300, are not permitted to engage in that fine old English sport, even on an out-of-the-way island, with the thermometer 15 below zero, stripped to the skin, and nothing to warm them but their hot blood and the applause of two or three hundred base loafers and blackguards, whose training has not been such as to fit them for the enjoyment of intellectual pursuits.—Boston Post.

There's no disputing about tastes; but to our taste the "fine old English sport" of battering men's bodies and beating out their eyes, is as hateful and vulgar as it is brutal and debasing. It is to our mind no less (and no more) a "bloody and beastly carnage" than the Russo-Turkish war.

SIMPLICITY.—A gentleman from a neighboring town informs us of an amusing instance of simplicity in his family. He had told his help not to allow one of his rooms to become too warm. Some time after it was found that the temperature of the room was not only warm but hot, and the thermometer which usually hung on the wall was missing. The girl on being called to an account, stated that she had taken away the thermometer in order to cool the room, as it was getting very hot, sure.—Bridgeport Standard.

The Galt Reporter says a new feature has lately become conspicuous in the traffic of the Galt branch of the Great Western Railway. A number of United States merchants are very active in that part of the country, purchasing wheat for the American market, and within these few days some three thousand bushels of wheat have been sent to the suspension bridge, consigned to the United States dealers.

A man, who started from Lynn for Lynnfield, on Tuesday evening, was found frozen to death Wednesday morning, about two miles from Lynn.

CONGRESS.

THURSDAY, Feb. 8.

SENATE.—Mr. Hunter of Virginia, called up the Indian Appropriation bill, and it was made the special order for Saturday at 10 o'clock.

Mr Seward of New York from the Committee on Commerce, reported a bill to amend the act to carry the Reciprocity Treaty into force. Passed.

Mr. Jones of Tennessee called up the bill giving three years extension of credit for duties on iron, to railroad companies. The bill was discussed at some length, and made the spacial order for Monday at 1 o'clock.

The Senate then went into executive session, and shortly after adjourned.

HOUSE.—A copy of the treaty with the Chippewa Indians was laid before the House.

The treaty, and the recommendation of an appropriation to carry it into effect, were laid on the table, and the House proceeded to the consideration of the special order, being bills reported from the Judiciary Committee.

The House passed bills relating to the holding of the courts in Tennessee and Florida; authorizing the opinions of the Attorney General to be printed; regulating the salaries of Judges of District Courts; dividing Illinois and Ohio into two judicial districts; concerning the apprehension and delivery of deserters from foreign vessels; providing for the accommodation of courts in the district of Maryland, and post office in Baltimore; amending the act making satisfaction for Virginia military land warrants.

WASHINGTON, Feb.—Fears are entertained for the safety of the sloop-of-war Decatur, which left Rio Janeiro Sept. 8, for Valparaiso.

John Appleton, of Maine, has been appointed Secretary of Legation at London in place of D. E. Sickles, resigned.

A CLAIM.—A. G. Benson, of New York, wants the United States to pay him three millions of dollars for guano which he didn't bring away from the Lobos Islands. When the late Mr. Webster, as secretary of State, made the blunder of asserting that those islands belonged to us by right of discovery and occupation, Benson fitted out seven vessels to fetch away two hundred thousand tons of the precious deposit, which, at 35 dollars a ton, would have stood him at $7,000,000, from which deduct $15 a ton for freight and $5 for charges, and his profit would have been $3,000,000, as above. The calculation is perfectly fair—as a mere atom in the great corporation of SAM, we find no fault with it—but the Peruvians differed from our statesman, and drove off Mr. Benson's vessels before they froze to the bird-lime, or he could throw a particle of salt on the tails of the birds that dropped it. Mr. Benson alleges that he lost about a million of dollars by the enterprise. It is a hard case, a very hard case indeed.—The claim is a good one in equity, and a capital one in law. It will be a valuable bit of property for Mr. Benson to leave to his heirs.—Boston Post.

EMANCIPATING SLAVES.—William T. Weatherby of Texas, died recently, leaving directions in his will that his three slaves should be liberated, provided with a certain amount of money, and sent either to Liberia or one of the northern States. After his death, his sister, Mrs. Sherrod, entered suit for the possession of the slaves, on the plea that the State constitution prohibited freeing slaves in the State. The Supreme Court has now decided that the will is valid, and that the purpose of the constitution was only to prevent freed slaves from remaining in the State. The slaves must, therefore, be freed, the money given, and the executrix lose, for her trouble, all the money she has spent in the lawsuit.

CALL TO KANSAS.

AIR—Nelly Bly.

A PRIZE SONG—BY LUCY LARCOM.

Yeomen strong, hither throng!
Nature's honest men;
We will make the wilderness
Bud and bloom again.
Bring the sickle, speed the plough,
Turn the ready soil!
Freedom is the noblest pay
For the true man's toil.
Ho! brothers! come, brothers!
Hasten all with me,
We'll sing upon the Kansas plains
A song of Liberty!

Father, haste! o'er the waste
Lies a pleasant land.
There your firesides, altar-stones,
Fixed in truth, shall stand.
There your sons, brave and good,
Shall to freemen grow,
Clad in triple mail of right,
Wrong to overthrow.
Ho! brothers! come, brothers!
Hasten all with me,
We'll sing upon the Kansas plains
A song of Liberty!

Mother come! here's a home
In the waiting West.
Bring the seeds of love and peace,
You who sow them best.
Faithful hearts, holy prayers,
Keep from taint the air;
Soil a mother's tears have wet
Golden crops shall bear..
Come, mother! fond mother,
List! we call to thee.
We'll sing, &c.

Brother brave, stem the wave!
Firm the prairies tread!
Up the dark Missouri flood
Be your canvas spread.
Sister true, join us too,
Where the Kansas flows;
Let the northern lily bloom
With the southern rose.
Brave brother! true sister,
List! we call to thee,
We'll sing, &c.

One and all, hear our call
Echo through the land!
Aid us, with a willing heart,
And the strong right hand!
Feed the spark the Pilgrims struck
On old Plymouth Rock!
To the watch-fires of the free
Millions glad shall flock.
Ho! brothers! come brothers!
Hasten all with me,
We'll sing, &c.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.

Messrs. Editors:—Much talk and time have been spent concerning suitable places for our high schools, city offices, a city hall, and a better court room. All of them can be built under one roof, on the city land, at much less expense than if separate, by being connected agreeably to the plan before us. CITIZEN.

Citizen's plan amounts to this: Sell the present Court House; lay out an avenue on the east side of the lot, from Court street to the new street; then build a large two story building from street to street. On the ground floor there would be a Court Room, Boys' High School, and Girls' High School. On the second floor a great City Hall, and all needful city offices.

PILGRIM'S PROGRESS.—Just as we were about to go in to see the Panorama of Pilgrim's Progress, we received our February number of the National Magazine; in which is the beginning of a Life of John Bunyan, embellished with beautiful illustrative engravings. We read the article, and looked with pleasure on the sketches. No preparation could be better, for surveying the Pictures of Bunyan's great work.

A visit to the Temple showed us a distinct and spirited delineation of the principal persons and scenes in Bunyan's famous allegory; all easily recognized, and some of them finely drawn.

There was a very fair audience for a first night; and we doubt not, the merits of the panorama and those of the book whence it is taken, will secure a good attendance this afternoon and evening.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.—The city missionary gratefully acknowledges the following sums of money to aid the poor:

Jan. 4, from C. L., $5; 5th, cash, $1; 15th, D. M., $5; 19th, E. H., $4. Total in Jan., $15. On Wednesday the 8th inst., the following sums were received:—From J. H. T., $1; G. T., $1; T. A. A., $10; J. M. T., $10; G. M. M., $5; D. M., $5; H. R., $5; total $37.

☞ On Tuesday morning next, the train on the Portsmouth and Concord Railroad will leave Portsmouth at 6 10 instead of 8.50, for the accommodation of those persons attending Court at Exeter.

THE SANTEE.—Orders have been received from the Secretary of the Navy to launch the frigate Santee, now getting ready for sea at this Naval Station, as soon as possible.

KANSAS LEAGUE.—At a meeting of the Committee appointed Thursday eve, Feb. 1, it was voted to call a meeting of those who feel an interest in the Kansas emigration, at the Temple Vestry, on Monday evening next, Feb. 12th, at 7 o'clock. W. B. LOWD, Sec.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—Distressing fears are entertained for the safety of the sloop of war Decatur, which left Rio Janeiro on the 8th of September, for Valparaiso.

Foreshadowings of a veto of the French Spoliation bill accumulate. It is now generally conceded that the bill will be vetoed.

The President to-day withdrew from the Senate the name of John B. Miller, whom he had nominated for Secretary of Legation to Peru. Strong objections had been made to him by Senator Douglas and others, on account of his being an anti-Nebraska man.

The Gallipagos Islands treaty brought home by Mr. Benjamin has not been sent to the Senate, and will not be. Of that you may rest assured.

If Venezuela does not show a reasonable title to Bird Island, anterior to its occupation by Philo S. Shelton and his guano diggers, it is understood to be the determination of our government to maintain the title of the United States to that island by reason of discovery, and occupation as derelict territory, by American citizens. Of course this claim will only be urged as against parties who show no earlier and better title.

It is rumored that Hon. Wm. C. Rives, will be the Know Nothing candidate for Governor of Virginia. He is a very popular and able man, and his name was before the Cincinnati convention for the Presidency. Should he become Governor of Virginia, he may be a formidable competitor for the Presidency.

John Rowan, Esq., of Kentucky, having been invited to become the democratic candidate for Governor, has declined, because there are 50,000 Know Nothings in the State, who are pledged, he thinks, to vote against any man having a wife like his own, that is a Catholic.

A poor Irishman of Williamstown, had the misfortune to break his leg on Sunday, the 28th ult., while away from home, and being conveyed to a house which happened to stand in Hancock, remained in suffering until Tuesday, before the selectmen of the two towns could agree to which it belonged to procure medical aid.

A woman at Amesbury, Mass., a few weeks ago, on hearing a noise among the poultry, and suspecting foul play, stationed herself at a window with a gun in her hands, and on seeing a man coming out of a place where he had no business, with live stock in hand, she coolly took aim and fired. The result was, that the nameless individual needed the services of a surgeon to do something for his rheumatism, which was never known to have troubled him before.—Villager.

"Old Folks" Choir.

AGREEABLY to adjournment, the Old Folks' Choir will meet at Exchange Hall on Saturday Evening, Feb. 10th, at half-past 7 o'clock, for rehearsal of the ancient sacred music, and business. Others acquainted with the old music, are invited to join the choir, at the above time and place. Per order. J. P. PAYSON, Sec.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

FROM CALIFORNIA.

ARRIVAL OF THE NORTH STAR.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—The steamship North Star, from Aspinwall, arrived at her dock about 4 o'clock this afternoon, bringing California dates to Jan. 16, about 200 passengers and $1,239,209 in Specie.

The Panama Railroad is completed, and the first train from Aspinwall for Panama passed over it on the 28th. The passengers who went out in the North Star, and those who came home in her, passed over the road. The time occupied in the transit was four hours.

From Acapulco, it is reported that a part of Santa Anna's army, 2000 in number, had deserted and gone over to Alvarez. A portion of them reached Acapulco, Jan. 23, and the remainder were daily expected.

The Senatorial election in California was to take place 17th. The democrats were divided between Gwinn and Broderick, and the whigs had nominated R. L. Edwards as their candidate.

The steamer Southerner, from San Francisco for Oregon, has been lost about 69 miles below Cape Flattery. Crew and passengers saved.

The miners are rejoicing over the recent heavy falls of rain, and washing was going on briskly.

In some parts of the State the weather was excessively cold, and snow had fallen from two to five feet deep.

The Legislature had created a great excitement in the religious world by refusing to pay for the services of a chaplain, and inviting all the clergymen of Sacramento, a Mormon included, to officiate alternately. The clergymen were declining the invitation.

An attempt was making in San Francisco to raise a company of Frenchmen, to colonize the island of New Caledonia, in the Southern Pacific.

A project was on foot for establishing a line of stages between San Blas and Vera Cruz, to transport passengers and correspondence between San Francisco and New Orleans.

Dates from Australia are to Dec. 1.—Trade was greatly depressed, and fears were entertained for the crops on account of the drought. Flour and grain from California were being imported.

Sandwich Island dates were to Dec. 23.—Prince Liholiho had ascended the throne. The old Privy Council were to continue in office.

SEVEN DAYS LATER.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The steamship Atlantic arrived up to-day at 10 o'clock.

Lord John Russell had resigned. On Friday night he gave an explanation of his conduct. The general opinion, is that the whole ministry must go out of office. The public feeling seems tending towards peace.

The Vienna conference will not meet till the middle of February.

Affairs before Sebastopol remain unchanged. The British army was in a most wretched state, arising from flagrant mismanagement. The reported battle was incorrect.

The Swedish army is immediately to be placed on a war footing.

Negotions continue between Austria and Prussia, concerning the Germanic war.

There were numerous rumors of failures at Liverpool, but they were exaggerated. The cotton market had been influenced thereby.

Consols declined 3-4 in consequence of Lord John Russell's resignation, and closed at 91 1-4 a 91 1-8.

New Boot and Shoe Store,
NO. 12 DANIEL STREET,
Portsmouth, N. H.
THE undersigned would respectfully announce to the citizens of Portsmouth and vicinity that they have entered into copartnership in the firm name of
JOHN BUZZELL & CO.,
Have taken the Store in Daniel street, formerly occupied by Mr. E. A. Stevens, and stocked it with a good assortment of
BOOTS AND SHOES
Of every description, which they offer to the public at as low prices as they can be purchased for in Portsmouth or elsewhere. They also have in connection with their Store a manufactory of Boots and Shoes, and are prepared to make to order any description desired, in the best manner, and on the most liberal terms. Determined to merit, they hope to receive a fair share of public patronage. JOHN BUZZELL,
WM. H. FERNALD.

The subscriber takes this opportunity of presenting his compliments to his many friends in Portsmouth and vicinity, and respectfully soliciting their patronage in his new position, pledges himself to use every endeavor to serve them satisfactorily. During his experience of twelve years in the business he has labored to serve faithfully all who have entrusted their orders to his care; and trusting he has earned a reputation for fair and honorable dealing, he will strive in future to merit and retain it. Every article sold at the Store, where it will be his pleasure to serve old friends and find new ones, shall be as represented; or if it shall prove otherwise the money shall be refunded, or entire satisfaction given. Please call and try us. Very respectfully,
Feb. 7. JOHN BUZZELL.

PHILIPP WENZEL proposes a SECOND
PICTURES,
in consideration of the solicitations of his friends and the manifold expressed desire of those who held tickets for my first exhibition, to whom the result of it gave full satisfaction. To gratify and meet the approval of all, I will make this second Exhibition far more interesting and advantageous to those who will favor me with their patronage; and enable everybody to adorn their firesides or parlors with splendid Pictures and Engravings.
The Price of each Ticket will be $1.
Each Ticket-holder is entitled to one Picture—The number of Pictures is to be FOUR HUNDRED, many of which are elegantly framed—comprising
The Finest and Best Collection,
the most artistic representations, ever exhibited in Portsmouth.—being the latest importations from Munich, Dusseldorf and Paris—
varying in price
From 50 Cts. to $15.
The Pictures may be examined at my Store, two days after the disposal of the corresponding number of Tickets.
The Pictures will be Exhibited in one of the large Halls in Portsmouth, for two days, (the time and place will be given in a special notice in the Daily Chronicle;) and on the Evening of the second day, the DISTRIBUTION will take place, in the same fair way as at the first Exhibition.
TICKETS may be had at the Stores of W. R. Preston, J. H. Thacher, H. Prescer, and

FOSTER'S PATENT

Deck-Reefing Gear.
By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.
The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its merits:—
"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, As well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.
Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."
The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.
I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.
It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—
Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. R. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

Save your Gas.
IT is desirable to economise in every way the consumption of Gas, and in no way can this be so effectually done as by the use of Dr. Walter Kidder's
GAS REGULATOR.
The Regulator is designed to lessen and equalize the pressure of Gas in the pipes, thereby making the lights burn equally. It also destroys the disagreeable and unhealthy smell of unconsumed gas in the room, and making a saving of 25 per cent in the consumption of Gas.
The Regulator has been extensively used in Boston, New York and other places, with complete success; and has been highly commended by the most scientific men in the country. The subscriber has one in operation at his store, and would be pleased to have any one examine it.
Pamphlets containing a full description of the article, and of experiments with it, with the testimonials of those using it, may be had at the Store.
The subscriber has also for sale, Wood's Patent Burners and Patent Scotch Tip Burners, both very economical and desirable burners. Please call and examine. E. A. STEVENS, 46 Market st.

FASHION.—There is a power ending talk about the fashion. Every woman bows to its influence, and every man, although perhaps he will not acknowledge it, does homage to its influence. There is no end to the vagaries of this goddess of fashion, and the human race follow her through every turn. If a person follows the fashion he is ridiculous, and if he don't he is hooted at; so that there is not much gained either way, and it is a hard matter to find a medium way of dressing.

In Paris, where the climate is mild, the women wear low necked dresses, and short or full sleeves, and the ladies of our cold and changeable country adopt their fashions, without thinking whether it is adapted to their case or not. A Parisian wears her bonnet on the back of her head, and does not suffer in her complexion; but can it for a moment be supposed that if she lived in this climate of east winds, and their accompaniment of tan and freckles, she would persist in the same attempt?

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem correct, regardless of what journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both these excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above work is $1 per year.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the use of his

PATENT SELF ACTING
TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose,—it is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stooping to raise or lower the Leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to one them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or more persons could do a good business getting them in my home. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHELPS,

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT —IN— Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to perform just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for nice work, or for planing very thin, crossgrained or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them to as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for farther particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

JAMES A. WOODBURY.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elasticity and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands preeminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLUOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRAGE OF Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any entertain doubts as to the efficacy of the UTERINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to bear testimony to the wonderful the virtues of MARCHISI'S UTERINE CATHOLICON, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits. . . . . It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

Morning Chronicle.

The Weekly Chronicle,

An Independent Family Newspaper,

Only $1 per year, in Advance.

The Weekly Chronicle and the American Phrenological Journal, or Water-Cure Journal, for only $1.50 per year; or all three for $2.

THE WEEKLY CHRONICLE has now been before the public for two years; and the steadily-increasing list bespeaks its popularity, no less than the favorable opinions expressed of it wherever it is known. Being published in connection with the Daily Chronicle, we are enabled to give in the Weekly, more reading matter than could otherwise be afforded for $1.

During the present Winter much interest will be felt in the movements of the various political parties in the State and Nation. And perhaps there is no more reliable source for information respecting the movements, prospects and conditions of each and all parties—than a newspaper free from the shackles of any of them. We shall not hesitate to express any opinion which we deem our duty as public journalists calls for; nor shall we advocate or condemn any movement because this or that sect or party may agree or disagree with us. But while we shall not feel bound to the sway of any party, we mean to treat all courteously; and while fearlessly expressing our convictions, we hope to be able to "give a reason for the faith that is in us."

On the American question we long ago expressed our opinion; and all who have been our readers, know that the Chronicle has ever been in favor of "Americans governing America." We do not feel inclined to resign this policy, merely because the Know Nothing party have adopted it.

In matters of Local interest, our Daily issue enables us to give full reports—forming a most interesting feature in the Weekly.

TERMS $1 a year, strictly in advance. We will furnish the Weekly Chronicle, and either the American Phrenological Journal or the Water-Cure Journal, for $1.50 per year; or the Chronicle and both the excellent Monthlies, for $2 per year. The regular subscription price of each of the above mor thlies is $1 per year.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1855.

A BRILLIANT PROSPECT.

The Dover Gazette, of Saturday, Feb, 10, speaking editorially, metaphorically, and politically, says, there is "Not a Cloud in the Horizon." This will be important news to all the dwellers round Clamshell Corner, where the Chronicle most does circulate, and therefore we transfer the richest part of the article to our columns. Whigs, (if there are any,) Abolitionists, and Know Nothings, need not read it.

The editor of the Gazette says:

We cannot call to mind a time since our connection with the Gazette—a period of some thirty years—when the political skies wore a brighter aspect than the present.—"Not a cloud in the horizon" casts its shadow over the disc of the bright sun of Democracy; it radiates the heart of every Democrat.—From the surrounding towns, we hear the most cheering reports; friends are constantly informing us of the enthusiasm which pervades the Democratic ranks—a sure augury of success. In this town, heretofore the very stronghold of whiggery, our old enemy, the whigs have laid down their arms, leaving us nothing to contend with but a band of political traders, whose total defeat and utter annihilation, we dare to state, two-thirds of the voters in Dover will assist in accomplishing.

* * * * The charm of secrecy having vanished, honest men who were enticed into the order, have discovered its treacherous designs, and are leaving it to fall and crumble to pieces, burying in the general crush, the very men who warmed it into being. Such will be the inevitable result in this State. On the thirteenth day of March next, not a vestige of Know Nothingism will remain; for the people, under the victorious banner of Democracy, will have faithfully extinguished its last lingering spark. Hence we say to our friends in the State, "not a cloud in the horizon" obscures our pathway—THE VICTORY IS OURS!

This is brilliant, indeed: a little month will show whether it is correct.

LATEST FROM THE FROZEN TRAINS.—GREAT SUFFERING AND PRIVATION.—DISTRESS OF PASSENGERS.—We conversed this morning with a gentleman, a citizen of St. Louis, who came down last night from Springfield, and who gave us some information of the condition of affairs on the railroads. Our informant left Bloomington last Sunday, and by dint of severe labor, in which all the passengers toiled heartily and laboriously, the train succeeded in making its way through. At one drift, the snow was so deep that it overtopped the cars, and the train had to root its way through, completely hid from view, and enveloped in the bleak shroud. To aid the engine, the passengers turned out, and having a lot of shovels prepared for an emergency, worked for several hours in throwing the snow off the track. The intensity of the cold may be imagined, when it is stated that the thermometer indicated thirty degrees below zero. Twenty-seven miles beyond Bloomington a train of cars was frozen up in a drift, not able either to proceed or retreat, in consequence of a lack of fuel. The cars were filled with passengers, many of whom were women and children, and their sufferings may be conceived when we state that they had torn three cars to pieces for fuel. While our informant was at Bloomington, an effort was made to reach the sufferers. Sleighs were started off to the spot, but after a day of weary labor, in which the horses were broken down and exhausted, they returned to Bloomington, having gone only twelve miles. The great depth of the snow, the difficulty of getting through the huge drifts, lying at frequent intervals along the praries, the terrific force of the wind, which filled the air with whirling snow, and the almost insufferable severity of the cold, made the attempt to reach the cars with sleighs, a hopeless and futile task. So much for the suffering on the Chicago and Mississippi Road.

On the Illinois Central, affairs are worse still. A train is frozen up near Decatur, and the wretched passengers suffered not only for lack of fuel but for want of food, and shocking to relate, were compelled, by the bitter necessities of their condition, to eat dogs to keep from starving. This fact is reliably stated in the Bloomington and Springfield papers, and is further confirmed, says our informant, by the testimony of individuals in Bloomington. Indeed, it was a subject of conversation in that city. We can imagine how deplorable must be the situation of persons, and to what extremities they are reduced, when they have no other alternative than to eat dog flesh to drive off the demon of starvation.

A Mr. Morgan, nephew of the Superintendent of the Chicago and Mississippi Road, had both his legs frozen, and it is feared that many others have suffered similar calamities. A like condition of things prevails on the Rock Island Railroad, though no detailed accounts from there have reached us. Gov. Matteson had sent despatches to Bloomington to have the track cleared, that the trains might come through, at any expense. It was supposed yesterday in Springfield, that a sufficient number of the absent Legislators would get in to-day, to constitute a quorum in both houses.

We doubt very much if the tracks will be entirely cleared for several days longer yet, unless human efforts are aided by the melting influence of the sun. There are business men of St. Louis at Bloomington, anxious to get on to New York, and others at Chicago, who are anxious to return home. A despatch from Chicago, yesterday, gives little reason to hope that the track will be clear as soon as we expected. The delayed mails will hardly reach here before Sunday or Monday.—St. Louis Intelligencer, Feb. 3.

☞ The National Magazine for February, 1855, is just received. This is a beautifully printed monthly, of good talent, sound morality, and religious tendencies. The present number is equal to any of its predecessors.—Agent in this city, Rev. Mr. Spaulding.

MUSIC—OLD AND NEW.

Messrs. Editors:—I perceive by the Chronicle that the "Old Folks" keep singing yet, in Portsmouth. Well, I think they will not only live the longer for it, but will be remembered longer after they have done with these mortal songs.

Since I was at Portsmouth I have spent some time in consulting old and new musical authors on certain points; in particular, relative to the minor scale. I find no one before about forty years ago, to have given any such rules as all our new books contain, relative to it. The old authors knew enough to not destroy it, and in that they were certainly in advance of those "who claim to be somewhat" at this time. I have examined the works of Tansur, Billings, Holden, Williams, Ingalls, &c., and from none of them do I gain any thing like the modern stuff concerning the Harmonic and Melodic forms of the minor scale.

The simple description of the scale by the old masters, I will give in the language of one of those referred to above. It is as follows:

"The difference between a Sharp and a Flat Key, is, every Third, Sixth and Seventh, is a half tone higher in a Sharp Key than in a Flat Key."

I can find no variation from this simple idea, which shows the whole difference to be consequent upon the different relation to the Key Notes; and that, rising from what would be the sixth note in the major key of C, which sixth note would be on A. Making that our natural key for the minor scale, we have from A to C but three half tones. Then from C to F we shall have but five half tones. So in rising our first third, from A to C, we have but one tone and a half tone. Then in rising from the third to the sixth we have two tones and a half tone. Thus we have in the major key of A, from A to C two tones. (The minor key of A has one and a half.) From A to F, major key, we have four tones and a half; in the minor, three tones and two half tones; so that F, our sixth, in its relation to the key, which is A, is half a tone lower than F or the 6th note, would be on the major key of A; for in the major key of A it is necessary to sharp F. In other words, the sounds which belong to every letter on the staff are proper to them in the minor scale as in the major, ascending or descending, unless in arranging parts together it becomes necessary to sharp or flat a note to secure a right distance to prevent discord, which is then indicated by the incidental sharp.

In the key of A, major, three letters, F C and G have to be sharped. F and G are the sixth and seventh from the key. Now our modern masters teach us that in the Melodic form of the minor scale, in ascending, the sixth and seventh must be sharped. This rule then destroys the minor scale, key of A, in every note except the one on C, and makes it the same precisely of the major key of A.

It is no wonder, with such stuff for instruction, and that in every new book we can get hold of, all our young singers find it difficult to master the minor scale.

In what our modern authors call the Harmonic form of the minor scale the seventh is sharped. Thus in the natural minor, that is, in the key of A minor, G is sharped. This makes from F to G, a tone and a half, or a minor third, which is restoring G to its relation to the key note A that it has in the major key of A. This is the way that the doctors have doctored their sick music to death.

This idea of changing the minor scale back into the major, in ascending, (I can call it nothing else,) I have not been able to trace back more than forty years. The Hallowell Collection, of 1817, is as old as any in which I can find any trace of it. About that time, (I find it stated in the books which I have examined,) there began to be a very general complaint that the music taught was wanting in the devotional character of that in common use before the revolutionary war.

One thing is very certain, namely, that the old singers, who learned the rules of music as they were taught by the old masters half a century ago, can now, by those rules as they learned, sing minor tunes with perfect ease, and to the delight of all who hear them.—This is to me sufficient proof that the old masters were right, and the new ones wrong, in this matter.

Had it been my good fortune to have made a stay among the estimable people of Portsmouth, I should have taken great pleasure in seeing, if possible, one church choir that could readily sing minor tunes as they were sung in the days of our fathers.

When I commenced writing, it was my intention to give you the laws of "Concords" and "Discords," in music, as stated by Tansur, Ingalls, &c. But as I have made this talk too long already, I must omit it.

Yours, very truly, A. G. C.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS AGAIN.

Much has already been said in regard to a new Court House, City Hall, and High School House for Boys and Girls, but the subject will bear referring to again. The School House is the only building really needed by the city, but we should not object to a new City Hall and Court House, if the authorities saw fit to build them.

One writer thinks the city should have a hall that would seat 2500 people:—the Temple will not seat 1000, comfortably, and yet it has not been full three times, during the last year. We have had preaching and praying, concerts, lectures, panoramas, jugglers,—in short, we have almost raised the dead, but it was of no use; the Temple could not be filled. Until this is done, and that frequently, we shall not think our citizens suffer much for want of a larger hall.

The Court House, to be sure, is rather a poor building; but as many of the people who there do congregate, assemble for the purpose of cheating their fellow men, or are criminals on trial, we think the edifice is as good as its occupants. The same writer who wants the large hall, said, "the County, a long time since, had an old Court House on the parade." This is a mistake. The County laid out some money in repairing the old rattle-trap, and for that outlay have since used our new Court House, rent free.

A new and beautiful school house for our High Schools, we think is much needed; but the plan of having a Court House, School House, and City Hall, in one building, we do not like, for two reasons. First, because the expense of erecting such an edifice would frighten some of the most conservative people; and second, because the politicians, criminals, and loafers, drawn together by courts and political meetings, are not fit associates for the rising generation.

It has been said that all those who are in favor of new city buildings are poor, and have no taxes to pay. This is an erroneous statement. We can answer for one, at least, who hopes to see new city buildings going up soon; and that one pays a tax of $100.

WOODLAND.

SOCIAL GATHERING.

Rye Centre, Feb. 5.

The social gathering or Fair in this village on Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week, was got up by the Ladies' Sewing Circle, for the purpose of raising a sum of money to cancel a balance due on a fine Organ, which had been recently purchased and put up in the Congregational Church, by the perseverance and industry of the members of the circle.

The amount received was about $190; and after paying the expenses of the Fair and what was due on the Organ, they will have $100 left for a fund to improve the Church choir.

The pleasant evenings were very favorable for the fair, and many persons from the adjoining towns were present. Among the prominent visitors we noticed many from the city of Portsmouth, who were very liberal in their purchases, much to the gratification of the Ladies who sold, and who had contributed many good things for the tables. Some of the City visitors enlivened the scene by singing appropriate songs, in perfect harmony of the feelings of many present, earning and receiving the thanks of many listeners.

PILGRIM'S PROGRESS.—To-night will be the last opportunity to visit the beautiful Panorma of Pilgrim's Progress. All who have attended the exhibition pronounce it to be a work of great merit, and worthy of an extensive patronage.

☞ The February term of the Court of Common Pleas will commence at Exeter to-morrow, Hon. Charles W. Woodman, presiding Judge. The whole number of civil cases upon the old docket is 477.

GREAT FALLS & CONWAY RAILROAD.—This road which has ever since its commencement, labored under disadvantages, is now enjoying the beginning of better days, under the management of its present active Superintendent, S. D. Whitehouse, Esq. The road has now, in this town, a neat, pretty and convenient depot, located on Market street, one door south of the Hardware Establishment of the Messrs. Tibbetts. This road is now operating the South Berwick Branch Railroad, hereby opening direct communication between the old town of Portsmouth and the inland towns along the Eastern line of our State. The communication afforded by this Road, is what we have heard many of the people of this vicinity express themselves anxious to obtain, hence we infer it must be a popular as well as a paying line.—Great Falls Journal.

CONFESSION OF SMITH, THE MURDERER OF BREWSTER!—We learn upon reliable authority, that Wm. B. Smith, the person recently convicted at Alfred for the murder of Brewster at South Berwick, has made a confession, whereby he implicates two others, Samuel Dixon and——Stillings, the former of whom has been arrested, and lodged in the jail at Alfred. Smith says that Dixon gave the fatal blow with a hammer, and that Stillings and himself were accessories to the murder. We believe that Stillings had not been arrested up to yesterday.—Dover Gazette.

KANSAS LEAGUE.—At a meeting of the Committee appointed Thursday eve, Feb. 1, it was voted to call a meeting of those who feel an interest in the Kansas emigration, at the Temple Vestry, on Monday evening next, Feb. 12th, at 7 o'clock. W. B. LOWD, Sec.

"Old Folks" Choir.

Agreeably to adjournment, the Old Folks' Choir will meet at Exchange Hall on Saturday Evening, Feb. 17th, at half-past 7 o'clock, for Rehearsal of the ancient sacred music, and business.

Others acquainted with the old music, are invited to join the choir, at the above time and place.

Per order. J. P. PAYSON, Sec.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.
Agents in Portsmouth, W. R. PRESTON, J. H. THACHER, and D. KIMBALL, and sold by the Druggists throughout the United States. 2m f1 d&w

Cornell's Primary Geography.

ONE of the objects in the preparation of this little work, was to make it in every sense of the word, a "Primary Geography;" consequently all terms which are too abstruse in their nature to admit of being brought fully within the comprehension of the youthful beginners, have been excluded.

The lessons and maps are so arranged as to avoid, as far as possible, that dryness and confusion which has rendered the study wearisome to the beginner. The Maps and Illustrations accord strictly with the character of the lessons, each map containing all that is contained in its accompanying lessons—and nothing more.

The work is illustrated with upwards of seventy suggestive designs, exquisitely drawn and engraved for this book. The maps, twelve in number, are large and clear. There is a systematic arrangement of promiscuous questions, designed as a review. A pronouncing Vocabulary is appended.

CORNELL'S INTERMEDIATE GEOGRAPHY, AND CORNELL'S HIGH SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY AND COMPANION ATLAS:
Are in Press and will shortly appear.

Each Book of the Series is arranged on the same plan, and with special reference to the wants and capacities of the class or grade of scholarship for which it is designed. The Series is based on a system, whose rules may be briefly comprehended in the five words, "one thing at a time."

Teachers and others are invited to call and examine the above at the Bookstore of

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, Feb. 9.

SENATE.—A number of private bills were passed, and at 2 o'clock the regular business was resumed.

Mr. Benjamin, of Louisiana, moved a reconsideration of the vote by which relief to the claimants of the private armed brig Gen. Armstrong was first in order.

A very desultory debate arose upon this motion, and it was agreed to; yeas 24, nays 17.

Mr. Benjamin then announced that he should make more amendments to the bill, making it to give the captain a much less amount than the original bill provides.

Mr. Clay of Alabama moved to lay the bill on the table. Agreed to—yeas 22, nays 19.

The Senate then went into executive session. Adj.

HOUSE.—Mr. Faulkner of Virginia made a personal explanation in regard to his vote against suspending the rules to enable Mr. Witte to introduce anti-know-nothing resolutions. He wished, by his vote, to save time for the consideration of important public measures.

The House took up the bill remodelling the diplomatic and consular system.

Mr. Breckenridge of Kentucky explained his position upon the bill, in relation to his appointment as Minister to Spain, saying that it had been made without his consent or knowledge, and the President had given him time to consider the offer. He felt constrained to resign, and was now ready to vote for the bill. The bill passed, yeas 153, nays 33.

Mr. Bocock, of Virginia, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill authorizing the construction of seven sloops of war. Referred to the Committee of the Whole.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the extension of the Colt patent.

Mr. Edgerton of Ohio made something of a speech in vindication of the members of the House from the charges of corruption, which emanated from the Washington Star.

Mr. Clingman of North Carolina opposed the bill and reiterated the charge of bribery.

Mr. Ethenage of Kentucky moved to strike out the enacting clause. Agreed to.

The Committee rose, and the bill fell dead.

After some animportant business the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9.—The appointment of Augustus Cesar Dodge, Senator from Iowa, as Minister to Madrid in place of Mr. Breckenridge, who has resigned, has been received with universal astonishment, not to say disgust. It is suggested that in regard to this mission the administration began with king stork of the fable and has ended with king log. Democratic Senators freely condemn the appointment. Although many of them had a few days ago been inveigled into signing recommendations of Dodge to some office, yet nobody dreamed that he aspired to a mission.

FATAL EXPLOSION.—On Wednesday afternoon, at two o'clock, a copper boiler in the kitchen of the residence of Mr. Samuel A. Way, in Roxbury exploded, killing one person and injuring others. The Herald gives the particulars:—

"Three servants were in the kitchen at the time—Catherine Glennon, aged 28, who was so severely injured that she lived but a short time; Catherine Kelley, who was badly scalded, but will probably survive; and Margaret Bresnahan, a girl about 10 years old, who was scalded considerably, but not dangerously. Mrs. Way was in the room directly over the kitchen, and narrowly escaped with her life. The floor of the room was torn up, and Mrs. Way thrown across the room with great violence. A marble table in the room was dashed against the wall and broken into fragments. The door, which was ajar at the time, was taken from its hinges and partly forced through the ceiling above, from which position it fell near where Mrs. Way was thrown. Her escape was truly wonderful.

In the kitchen all the doors and windows were blown completely out, and the range entirely demolished. The boiler was supplied with water from a cistern in the upper room, the leading pipe from which is supposed to have been frozen up the night before, (Tuesday,) thus stopping the supply—hence the explosion. Drs. Flint and Cumming were immediately in attendance, and every attention was given to the injured persons. Fortunately Mr Way and the children were not in the house at the time of the accident. The clock in the entry was stopped by the explosion, precisely at 2 o'clock. In the room with Mrs. Way, in their cages, were two beautiful Java sparrows, which were unharmed by the explosion, and which continued to sing amid the destruction that was around them. The explosion was heard a great distance. Fire was cried and the department called out. Mr. Myers, Chief of the Western Police District, and officer Ball were in attendance, and rendered efficient aid."

Mr. Phillips, the American who was arrested and imprisoned in Switzerland, having been mistaken for Mazzini, claims an indemnity from that government of $5000 for arbitrary and inhuman treatment, and his claim has been recognized by the American legation. The only difficulty is to make the Swiss recognize and pay it.

FOSTER'S PATENT

Deck-Reefing Gear.
By the application of this GEAR, the Topsails of any vessel may be Reefed from the deck with remarkable facility, and carry sail much longer than when rigged in any other way. This Gear can be readily applied to any old rig, and at less expense than any other now in use.
The following is an extract from a letter recently received from Capt. Pickering, of the ship Ocean Rover, of Portsmouth, concerning its use:
"It has given me perfect satisfaction, and I have only to regret that it is not applied to all the topsail yards. On the passage to this port, (Charleston, S. C.,) I experienced strong gales from the S. W. and had occasion to use it several times, and on every occasion it worked finely."

Or to YEATON & HALE, Portland. f7

The Great Specific of the Age.
OXYGENATED BITTERS!
THE ONLY SURE AND SAFE REMEDY EVER DISCOVERED
For the cure of
DYSPEPSIA,
IN ALL ITS VARIOUS FORMS, As well as Liver Diseases, Fever and Ague, Bilious Complaints, Bronchitis, General Debility, and all diseases of a kindred nature.
Read the following testimony from Dr. Henry E. Morrell, a skillful physician of N. Y. city. He says:—"The most effectual medicine to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is that prepared by Dr. George B. Green, of Windsor, Vt., and called the Oxygenated Bitters."
The Oxygenated Bitters do not contain a particle of alcohol in their composition, and are, of necessity, highly concentrated, to prevent the injurious action of the temperature of different climates. Each bottle, when diluted according to the directions, makes nearly half a gallon of medicine, as pleasant to the taste as lemonade; and as to quantity, quite the CHEAPEST MEDICINE.
I have employed them in a multitude of cases, and have uniformly found that, when used according to the directions, they gradually, but surely, remove, one by one, the various distressing symptoms which cluster around the confirmed Dyspeptic, restore the stomach to its lost energies, and thus lead the patient back to the enjoyment of permanent health and strength.
It has also been used by the following persons, and received their unqualified approbation:—
Prof. A. A. Hayes, M. D., State Assayer, Boston
Prof. E. K. Phelps, M. D., of Therapeutics and Materia Medica, Dartmouth College.
Hon. Myron Lawrence, Ex-President of Massachusetts Senate.
Hon. L. H. Arnold, formerly Governor of Rhode Island, now member of Congress.

Save your Gas.
IT is desirable to economise in every way the consumption of Gas, and in no way can this be so effectually done as by the use of Dr. Walter Kidder's
GAS REGULATOR.
The Regulator is designed to lessen and equalize the pressure of Gas in the pipes, thereby making the lights burn equally. It also destroys the disagreeable and unhealthy smell of unconsumed gas in the room, and making a saving of 25 per cent in the consumption of Gas.
The Regulator has been extensively used in Boston, New York and other places, with complete success; and has been highly commended by the most scientific men in the country. The subscriber has one in operation at his Store, and would be pleased to have any one examine it.
Pamphlets containing a full description of the article, and of experiments with it, with the testimonials of those using it, may be had at the Store.
The subscriber has also for sale, Wood's Patent Burners and Patent Scotch Tip Burners, both very economical and desirable burners. Please call and examine. E. A. STEVENS, 46 Market st.

NOTICE TO CABINET MAKERS.

THE Subscriber, wishing to introduce into Portsmouth and vicinity, the sale of his

PATENT SELF ACTING

TABLE LEAF SUPPORT,

would ask the attention of Cabinet Makers and others interested to this very desirable improvement in the mode of supporting Table Leaves. It is a substitute for the Fly Rail and Swivel now in use for that purpose.—It is as simple in its construction, as cheap, and much more convenient, requiring no stopping to raise or lower the leaf.

Wishing to sell exclusive Rights to use them in that vicinity, any letters addressed to me desiring information as to terms, prices, &c., or Circulars and description, will be promptly attended to.

One or two persons could do a good business putting them on from house to house. To such they will be furnished at a discount from the retail price, which is 30 cents per Table. To those owning "Rights" they will be furnished at cost if desired. CHARLES PHILLPS,

IMPORTANT IMPROVEMENT

—IN—

Rotary Planing, Tonguing and Grooving Machines.

PATENTED NOVEMBER 21st, 1854.

THIS Improvement has been thoroughly tested and found to possess just what is necessary to perfect the rotary planer.

My machine will plane very much faster and better than any other now in use. I would particularly call the attention of those in want of machines for box work, or for planing very thin, crooked or knotty material, to these machines, as it is impossible for them to tear or throw out loose knots.

My Clapboard Machine will plane and joint as fast as the clapboards can be put into the machine, and perform the work without sorting them so as to plane with the grain, upon any quality of clapboards, in a very superior manner, without tearing the thin edge.

Applications for rights and machines, or for further particulars, can be made to the Patentee,

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S Celebrated Catholicon,

FOR THE

RELIEF & CURE OF SUFFERING FEMALES.

It stands pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called

FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

Of these are PROLAPSUS OR FALL OF Falling of the Womb: FLOOR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, or IRREGULAR MENSTRUATION, &c., with all their accompanying evils. (Cancer excepted) no matter how severe or of how long standing.

Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the beneficial results of its use; together with letters from highly experienced Physicians, who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

A WORD TO THE LADIES.

Should any enterprising druggist, to share the efficacy of the URSINE CATHOLICON, I would respectfully state that I have for many years past, as my friends can well attest, been troubled with the disease for which this medicine is recommended, in its worst forms, and that by its use I have been entirely cured, and thus induced to accept an agency, and offer it for the benefit of others.

MRS. S. GAIT, 38 South street, Boston.

I feel it my duty to make known to the afflicted the virtues of Marchisi's Ursine Catholicon, which has relieved me of Female Complaints of fifteen years' standing, and of so serious a nature, that latterly my physician suspected Cancer of the Womb. I suffered extremely, and at last was entirely disabled from attending to my usual pursuits.

It has given me more relief than any thing I have ever used for these difficulties. I will take pleasure in giving further details of my case to any lady who will call on me at 67 Mill street.

HERTS BROTHERS, having been many years engaged in the manufacture of Metalic Pens, and during that time, having devoted their unceasing attention to improving and perfecting that useful and necessary article, the result of their unceasing efforts and numerous experiments has been the construction of a Pen on a principle entirely new, combining all the advantages of the elastic and clearness of the Quill, with six times the durability of the Steel Pen; and thus entirely obviating the only objection that has hitherto existed against the use of Steel Pens.

This Pen will be found an invaluable article in Offices, as they never need wiping, also to Banks and Schools, as they will not spatter nor cut the thinest paper, and are warranted anti-corrosive.

CAUTION.—The universal celebrity of these Pens having induced several disreputable Makers to foist upon the public a spurious imitation, it will please to be observed that each genuine Pen is stamped, "HERTS, BROTHERS' PATENT, 1853," and each box of Genuine Pens will contain a label with a fac-simile of the Manufacturers' name.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS. The Subscriber (late Agent of the U. S. Patent Office, under the Act of 1837) determined to present advantages, in applying for Patents, superior to those offered to inventors by others, has made arrangements whereby on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be charged him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal through him within thirty days after the rejection. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments and all necessary papers and drawings, for procuring patents in this and foreign countries, prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents.

Inventors can not only here obtain their specifications on the most reasonable terms, but can here avail themselves of the experience of 20 years' practice, an extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and correct accounts of patents granted in this and other countries: besides being saved a journey to Washington, the usual great delay there as well as all personal trouble in obtaining their patents. Copies of claims of any patent furnished by remitting one dollar.—Assignments recorded at Washington.

R. H. EDDY,

Late Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents."

Morning Chronicle.

THE MOTHER, THE MANIAC & THE CHILD. The following picture—a fine subject for the pencil—occurs in an account of the ancient village of Watertown, published in the Cambridge Chronicle—The Christian Register says: "Seldom do so few lines present a scene of thrilling interest with such graphic clearness. Ruth was a poor maniac supported by charity."

It was the misfortune of a lady one day to unintentionally offend her, at one of those times when Ruth was her humble guest. Ruth instantly snatched the lady's smiling infant, and flew toward the river at no great distance, wildly vowing to drown it. Swift sped the maniac, swifter followed the young mother, with entreaty on her beautiful face, and the laughing boy crowing and looking back with unconscious delight. Ruth was nearly overtaken. She stopped, picked up a brick and turned to hurl it at her pursuer; she met the eyes hitherto avoided—eyes of inexpressible power—she quailed before their commanding and resolute rebuke, yielded the infant at once, but dashed the brick with fury into the river, burst in to a loud laugh, and in an instant was calm.

"Orders of the day!" said Mrs. Partington to a friend who had taken a seat with her in the gallery of the Senate chamber, at the same time taking her knitting work from the old black "ridicule." "Orders of the day, indeed! here they are talking about the State being as rich as a Jew, and yet they are all the time doing business by orders, though they have a good many bills handed in that I s'pose they haven't got the money to pay. Depend on it, they'd get along a good deal better if they paid cash. Legislatering, continued she 'is a great duty, and it is a real treat to sit up here with my knitten work and see 'em make motions at each other, and do other curious acts; though there are some contrary minded ones sometimes among 'em that I'd like to have the dealings with. I wouldn't treat them as easy as the president, for he don't seem to care whether they are contrary minded or not.' She dropped a stitch here, as the sergeant-at-arms blandly requested that conversation should be suspended in the gallery, and Ike amused himself by watching the Indian in the coat of arms, with the query in his mind if it were not the image of a drunken man cutting a pigeon's wing in the hope of a repeal of the Maine law.—Post.

PARIS AMUSEMENTS THIS WINTER.—Paris is not as gay as usual this winter—so write American friends there—but nevertheless it is not sombre. The English Ambassador, Lord Crowley, lately opened part of his great rooms to an infant party, when the French, English and American children were gathered together to the number of some four or five hundred. The ball commenced at 8 o'clock, and continued till 1 o'clock in the morning.

The quadrilles were arranged according to the height of the children, each quadrille consisting of fifty couples. The little fairies in their exquisite Lilliputian toilettes reflected all the colors of the prism, and really looked like a splendid bouquet of the most charming flowers. At 12 o'clock the supper room was thrown open, and such chorus of fun and laughter was never heard. There were two little girls, about six or seven years old, of the Duchess de Bassano, that were the theme of universal admiration.

Lord Crowley thoroughly identified himself with his little guests, and arranged quadrilles and distributed bon bons in such a manner as must have won all their hearts.

A UNIQUE DESIGN.—As I entered the door of this edifice (Nuestro Senora de Loreto,) the first thing that attracted my notice was a side altar, converted into an arbor, in the centre of which was a well with Christ and the woman of Samaria beside it. The lady had been fitted out by a most fashionable mantua-maker, in a costume of blue satin, tricked out with pink, and while she leaned gracefully on a silver pitcher, resting on the edge of the well, our Saviour stood opposite in a mantle of purple velvet, embroidered with gold, and covered with a sombrero, or broad brimmed straw hat.—Brantz Meyer's Travels in Mexico.

QUEBEC, Feb. 8.—There was considerable rioting to-day at the municipal election, in St. Peter and Champlain wards. Mr. Maxham, a defeated candidate, has entered a protest against the election, on account of the threats of violence, etc. Several citizens were cruelly beaten with bludgeons. The military were called out to restore order and quiet; but they did not act.

Hearn; a man who was convicted in taking part in the Gavazzi riots, and who was fined £25 therefor, has been elected in Champlain ward.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1855.

NOT FAIRLY STATED.

A paper no less respectable than the New York Christian Ambassador, speaks of the American or Know Nothing party, as "a party organized expressly to deprive their fellow citizens of legal rights on account of their religious opinions."

It is no part of our duty to defend every thing which that party may have done or devised. But the evil in the immigrants, against which the American feeling has risen up, is not a religious opinion, but a political action founded on that opinion. The devoted Romanist believes the Priest or Pope can keep his conscience for him, and therefore votes as the priest dictates, and would burn his brother at the dictation of the Church.

The true Americans, then, would not deprive the Romanist of his rights, legal or moral,—but we would put it out of his power to take away our rights!

The Roman Church papers and books applaud our New England liberty of religious faith and worship, now, while they are in a minority—but tell us plainly they ought to vote it all away the moment they get the majority. Are the Americans to blame for blocking these wheels?

BRAZIL.

We give below the concluding portion of a lecture on Brazil, delivered at Washington by Rev. J. C. Fletcher, as reported in the National Intelligencer. We are informed, says the Boston Advertiser, that Mr. Fletcher will shortly sail from Baltimore for Brazil and will be glad to take with him specimens of any American productions tending to promote the trade between that country and ours.

Brazil is not a hot-bed of revolution as Spanish America, but has had a peacefulness and a material prosperity in advance of every American Government save our own. She has had but one great change in her Government since 1822, and that the forced abdication of Don Pedro and substitution of his son, the present efficient Emperor. Her coast commerce, carried on in her own sailing vessels and steamers, is immense. Two thirds of the coffee of the world is raised in Brazil, and more than one half of this immense crop comes to the United States. We buy more than fourteen millions of dollars worth from Brazil, while we do not sell her but little more than the amount of four millions of our products; and we can readily assent to what the lecturer asserted as our duty, i. e. to cultivate closer relations with Brazil. More than once we were pointed to the southern inhabited portion of Brazil and the La Platine countries as the field for the triumphs of American commerce, and not the miasmatic and almost uninhabited equatorial region of the Amazon.

The concluding part of the lecture was taken up with descriptions of the bay and city of Rio de Janeiro—the novel sights of that sunny region, the gorgeous scenery, and the fruits, flowers, and perpetual verdure of that land of enchantment.

The lecturer also made it known that the Emperor is a bona fide Emperor, no Faustus Soulouque, but a man in whose veins course the blood of the Braganzas and the Hapsburgs. He is the son of the sister of Napoleon's second Empress. He is related by marriage to every principal reigning house in Europe. The late Queen of Portugal was his sister, and the present King of course his nephew. The Prince de Joinville married a younger sister. His Empress is the half sister of the King of Naples and aunt to the Queen of Spain. The Emperor, the lecturer remarked, is a fine-looking man, having fair complexion, blue eyes, and is just six feet four inches in height. Brazil is bound to advance. The foreign slave trade is now abolished, and the question of domestic servitude is not so complex as with us; and, judging from the past, the career of Brazil will be onward and in striking contrast with the volcanic Republics of Spanish America.

We mentioned, not many days ago, the fact that in Brazil all slaves are registered and valued, on the Parish Books. Any slave can free himself by his own efforts; he can pay over to the public treasuries, such small sums as he earns and saves from time to time; and when he gets enough passed to his credit, he is recorded a freeman, and the treasury pays his master. Men of all colors hold office there,—and Brazil in a few generations will probably become a great empire of mixed people of all shades, but all free.

CONSISTENCY. — An old total abstinent friend of Uncle Toby said to him, recently,—I wish you would exhort those people who are in favor of the Maine Law, to keep it themselves. To this, another friend replied, Perhaps they would not mind it much, if you should. Nevertheless, the advice, as intended, is excellent. It is supposed the adviser intends, that every man who advocates or votes for a new and strong law, designed to suppress the drinking house and tippling shop, shall be himself a total abstinent, and not a tippler.

Uncle Toby would add a word or two by way of suggestion, viz: Most of the medical use of spirits might be dispensed with—and all of the silly habit, indulged in by some "ladies and gentlemen," of washing their skins with Bay Rum, New Rum, Cologne, &c., is useless or pernicious, and ought to be abandoned. Soap and water are vastly better.

AN HONEST ADMINISTRATION.—Read the following certificate, from the editor of the Ohio Statesman, who has just returned home from a visit at Washington.

"There is corruption enough incident to Washington city—social corruption. There is baseness ever incident to the possession of power, and never to be wholly avoided; but there are lights to this dark picture. We believe that we have an honest administration. We pay this tribute not from any selfish motives, for we give the unbought and unpurchasable approbation of our heart and judgment to those in power. It becomes the country in the trying times which an honest administration has to encounter, amidst this wholesale plunder-scheming, to stand by honest rulers."

MAMMOTH OX DEAD.—Departed this life on Tuesday night last, in one of the box cars of the K. & P. Railroad, near the station house in this place, leaving his huge mate disconsolate, one of a yoke of mammoth oxen, whose united weight fell but little short of 7000 pounds. The cattle were on their way West for exhibition, and prior to this untoward mishap, a very great show they were. The sight of the monstrous carcass, of elephantine proportions, excited in the beholder the same wonder that the jolly Prince expressed in relation to his boon companion, Jack Falstaff, "could not so great a hill of flesh keep in a little life?"—Bruns. Tel.

The disconsolate partner was sold to the butcher in this city, and was deliberately murdered on Saturday afternoon. His carcass may be seen at the Spring Market.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 10.—The effect of the amendment of Mr. Brown, of Mississippi, in the Senate, will be that about 5,000 Indians may obtain Bounty Lands. The Secretary of War reports that about 10,000 Indians have served in all the wars, and of these 1,200 only have received bounty lands. There are on file five hundred applications, suspended by the construction of the laws by Secretary McClelland, who differs from the opinions of his predecessor.

Mr. Belmont, Minister to Holland, has accomplished what American Ministers at the Hague have fruitlessly attempted since 1835, by negotiating a Consular convention with the Government, by which American consuls are admitted to all the ports in the Dutch colonies which are open to foreign commerce. For many months he could only obtain permission for five ports, then for the free ports, now for all. The English and Austrain Ministers at the Hague are much piqued at Mr. Belmont having accomplished what they failed to do.

[We are glad of the treaty if it is a good one, and hope Mr. Belmont and all others who have aided in getting it will have due praise for what they have done. The account as it stands, needs a few grains of salt to be taken with it, for the stomach's sake.]

THE PLATFORM.—Mr. Metcalf, the K. N. nominee for Governor, has written a letter of acceptance, in which he avows American views in full, and expresses his confidence in the "truly American party," which nominated him.

He opposes slavery extension; condemns the repeal of the Compromise; considers the Nebraska bill a great wrong; and, will do all he can to promote "a more efficient prohibitory law."

IOWA LEGISLATURE.—The Iowa Capital Reporter of Jan. 17th, gives full report of the proceedings of the closing week of the late session of the Legislature. Among other incidents, is the following specimen of gallantry:

Several calls of the House were made, when a resolution was offered by Mr. Tracy, that the members of this House who retired from the House after the first call of the roll, and were absent when their names were called, should be fined two dollars each. Laid on the table.

Mr. Bonson moved that all the members who were absent be excused, with the exception of P. Gad Bryan. Adopted.

Mr. Tracy moved that P. Gad Bryan be excused. Lost.

P. Gad Bryan made his excuse—that he had been to the Senate Chamber to see the ladies.

Mr. Tracy moved that Mr. Bryan be excused. Unanimously adopted.

Mr. Henry Rogers, senior proprietor of the Boston Daily Journal, died on Sunday. His father died on Friday night last; and the father and son are to be buried at the same time and place, with one funeral service.

ILLINOIS.—The Legislature of Illinois has elected Hon. Lyman Trumbull (not Turnbull, as the telegraphic despatch had it) to succeed Gen. Shields in the United States Senate.—Mr. Trumbull had just been elected a member of the next Congress, in the eighth district, lately represented by Col. Bissell. He is a free soil democrat, strongly opposed to Senator Douglas and the Nebraska bill. Of course there must be another election for Congress in his district, and a telegraphic despatch from Chicago states that Gen. Shields has already been announced as a candidate for the office which Mr. Trumbull must resign.

The vote by which Mr. Trumbull was elected was as follows:—whole number of votes 99; Lyman Trumbull (fusion candidate) 51; Joel A. Matteson (administration candidate) 47; A. Williams 1. Mr. Matteson is the present Governor of Illinois, and was taken up by the administration party with the expectation of electing him. The vote was in joint convention.

The Boston Times sums up the foreign news as follows:

"Austria in cheating the allies, Prussia is cheating Austria, and Russia is cheating them all."

LOCAL.

MUSICAL. — The Old Folks' Choir, on Saturday evening last, chose a committee of invitation and inquiry, to ascertain how large a body of singers and players can be gathered in this city, to give a third concert of the ancient sacred music, at an early day, for the benefit of the poor of Portsmouth. Messrs. Nath'l T. Moulton, Thomas Norton and J. Plummer Dennett, were appointed as the committee—to make report at the meeting on Saturday evening next. This concert will probably be given within a few weeks.

Mr. Preston also, is making arrangements for a grand concert of sacred music, by younger singers, at the Stone Church, on a Sabbath evening, to be hereafter announced. A chorus of fifty singers, with organ, and orchestral accompaniment, is expected. The music will be selections from the best old and new compositions, and the proceeds given to the Howard Benevolent Society of this city. The first rehearsal was held at the Stone Church on Sunday evening, and full fifty performers were present. A good beginning was made. The next meeting will be at Hanover Street Chapel on Wednesday evening next.

The more good concerts we have, the better—and we wish both these the best success, which we doubt not they will attain. They are not intended to conflict in any manner, but will be so arranged as not to interfere with each other. Many of the singers and players are to take part in both.

☞ H. S. Thompson, Esq., the popular composer and singer, with another gentleman and two ladies, gave a concert at Great Falls, on Friday evening, Feb. 2d, and is to give another on Thursday evening of next week, by request of the audience. We hope to hear the fine quartet in this city soon.

☞ Mr. Wendell Phillips's lecture this evening, will probably be on "Street Life in Europe."

☞ The City Missionary acknowledges the receipt of $5 from S., through A. P. P.

For the Chronicle.

END OF TIME.—On Sunday evening, we went up into the Chapel, in Hanover street, and sat. And when we had sat, the speaker opened his mouth and spake, taking his text from Revelation, 16th chapter, 15th verse:—"Behold I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame."

He informed the assembled multitude that the Roman Catholic Church was to come down, and that the present feeling against that Church, is spoken of in Revelation. He said the Eastern war would not end till all the nations were more or less involved in it.—They are to have one great and terrible fight, and then comes the Second Advent. We are now living in the "sixth vial;" the "seventh vial," when its contents are poured upon us, will settle our accounts with this world. The "good time" is coming soon, he said, but an awful time is to come first.

Much of the discourse was interesting, for the historical information to be derived from it. The young man seemed to understand his subjects pretty thoroughly. He is said to be a machinist, 23 years of age, who after working six days in the week, preaches on Sundays.

We were not convinced of the near end of the world, however; having not the slightest idea that such an event ever will, or can take place. WOODLAND.

FAIR AT SOUTH BERWICK.—The ladies of South Berwick, will hold a Levee at Central Hall, on St. Valentine's Eve., Tuesday, Feb. 13, 1855. The proceeds of the evening will be given to the Sailor's Home, in Portland.

DISCHARGED.—In the case of State vs. Hodge, recently on trial for manslaughter, in Strafford Co., the jury were unable to agree, and were discharged. They stood 11 for conviction, to 1 for acquittal.

MR. SOULE AND HIS MOVEMENTS.—We hear that this gentleman is coming home, thundering and lightning, and is going to settle down among us in New York. Well, very well—the air here is often bad—and thunder and lightning, it is said, purify the air.

The "thunder" is for Pierce and Marcy, and the lightning is for the world at large.—The correspondence with the State Department we are to have soon, and it is said it will show great insubordination on the part of Mr. Soule.—N. Y. Express.

THE WISCONSIN FUGITIVE SLAVE CASE.—The Supreme Court of our State has unanimously discharged Messrs. Booth and Rycraft from the fine and imprisonment imposed upon them by the U. S. Court, for alleged violation of the fugitive slave act. Each of the three Judges delivered a separate opinion, but all concurred in the decision.—Milwaukie Sentinel.

HEARD FROM.—Henry Brevoort, the late Treasurer of the Glendon Rolling Mills, is in California. Letters from him dated San Francisco were received in Boston by the last mail from that place.

"Old Folks" Choir.

AGREEABLY to adjournment, the Old Folks' Choir will meet at Exchange Hall on Saturday Evening, Feb. 17th, at half-past 7 o'clock, for Rehearsal of the ancient sacred music, and business.

Others acquainted with the old music, are invited to join the choir, at the above time and place.

Per order. J. P. PAYSON, Sec.

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age, is

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.
One Box has cured Dyspepsia.
Three Boxes have cured the worst cases of Scrofula
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.
Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Bolls—often less than one does it.
Two Boxes have completely cured the worst of ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expel every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.
As a gentle Physic they have no equal.
One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the Blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.
Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms., and sold by every respectable Druggist in New England.

Important to Gentlemen.

GENTLEMEN desirous of having their Clothes made to order, are invited to call at our Establishment, where they may find a good assortment of Goods, as in any other in the city. The plan adopted by us is not to charge 25 per cent. extra, to offset bad debts; therefore those patronizing us may feel assured that they will not have to pay for those who NEVER PAY. Call and try us; see for yourselves. You cannot lose much—you may find it to your advantage.

We have just received a New Assortment of Shirts, Dickeys, Stocks, Neck Ties, and Elastic Bows for youths.

We wish to close off the balance of our Winter Stock of Goods, and will sell Cloths and Doeskins, Cassimeres, &c. by the yard or otherwise at a VERY SMALL ADVANCE from Cost.

Please Call. No. 9 Congress street.

Cornell's Primary Geography.

ONE of the objects in the preparation of this little work, was to make it in every sense of the word, a "Primary Geography;" consequently all terms which are too abstruse in their nature to admit of being brought fully within the comprehension of the youthful beginners, have been excluded.

The lessons and maps are so arranged as to avoid, as far as possible, that dryness and confusion which has rendered the study wearisome to the beginner. The Maps and Illustrations accord strictly with the character of the lessons, each map containing all that is contained in its accompanying lessons—and nothing more.

The work is illustrated with upwards of seventy suggestive designs, exquisitely drawn and engraved for this book. The maps, twelve in number, are large and clear. There is a systematic arrangement of promiscuous questions, designed as a review. A pronouncing Vocabulary is appended.

CORNELL'S INTERMEDIATE GEOGRAPHY, AND CORNELL'S HIGH SCHOOL GEOGRAPHY AND COMPANION ATLAS:

Are in Press and will shortly appear.

Each Book of the Series is arranged on the same plan, and with special reference to the wants and capacities of the class or grade of scholarship for which it is designed. The Series is based on a system, whose rules may be briefly comprehended in the five words, "one thing at a time."
